Dear Colonel:—I send you an order to push on at once to Stony Gut, but I trust you are there already. Hole is doing splendid service with his men about Manchioneal, and shooting every black man who cannot give an account of himself. Nelson at Port Antonio is hanging like fun by court martial. I hope you will not send us any prisoners; civil law can do nothing. * * * Do punish the blackguards well.

Yours in haste,
JOHN ELKINGTON, D. A. G."

The barbarity of the writer of this note is further exemplified by the fact that it was written many days after all resistance to authority had ceased, according to Gov. Eyre's own showing. It also appears that a legal gentleman who desired to offer his services to Gordon, who was his personal friend, was not allowed to communicate with him personally, and a letter which he wrote, giving Gordon advice as to how he should meet the charges before the court martial, was withheld from him. Gordon desired the services of a clergyman in his last moments, but this privilege, always accorded to the greatest criminals, was denied him.

— West Virginia holds an election for township officers on the 4th Thursday in May, when a Constitutional Amendment restricting the right of suffrage to loyal men is to be ratified or rejected by a general vote.

—The Civil Rights law is to be tested in the Memphis courts. The statutes of Tennessee prohibit negroes from keeping drinking and billiard saloons, and several cases are now pending maintaining that under the new law all men are on an equal footing as to business pursuits.

— The Lewiston Journal says a teamster was passing along the street a day or two since with a "powerfully" poor horse, whose ribs almost rubbed through a shriveled hide. "Why don't you put some flesh on your horse?" ejaculated a jockey. "Why," replied the proprietor, "the old bones have more flesh on them now than they can well carry."

Lodi Manufacturing Company's POUDRETTE.
AGENT FOR NEW HAMPSHIRE,
J. F. SHORES, Jr.,
No. 38 Market Street (Up Stairs.)

The advantages of Poudrette as a manure may be stated as follows:

First, its ECONOMY. The cost of the manure compared with its effects is less than that of any other fertilizer in market. It can be bought and applied for the same money which it would cost only to apply farm-yard manure. It is portable, contains great strength in a small compass, and needs no extra care in its application; the closer its contact with the seed the better and quicker it works. $4.50 worth at our retail price (or two barrels) will manure an acre of corn in the hill, and from one-quarter to one-third to the product, and will mature the crop from two to three weeks earlier. No worms will stay in the hill where the Poudrette is placed. No seeds of weeds will germinate, and crows are very shy of plucking it out of the hill. On Corn, Tobacco and Garden Vegetables it has no equal. While the leaf and growth of the Tobacco plant is large, it has not the coarseness of fibre which is produced by Peruvian Guano, and it has taken the lead for this crop in Connecticut, and has begun to be appreciated in Maryland.

It is famous for producing larger and finer potatoes than anything else, and the stories told about Onions, their large growth, &c., are almost beyond credence. Flowers and plants are much improved by an application of Poudrette.

Another great consideration is the season of the year when the corn is planted. It is a time when every spring crop must be put in, and the corn not only planted, but up and grown sufficiently for the last hoeing and planting, before the commencement of grain and hay harvest.—The celerity and dispatch with which a large crop of corn is put in and poudretted, the rapid growth and consequently the early opportunity of working among it—the small chance for weeds, owing to the shade it affords, and the fact that the Poudrette, unlike other manures, contains no seed that can germinate, and consequently less trouble required to clean it—are all important advantages. The corn will ripen two weeks earlier, and the yield will be much heavier.

The same remarks apply to Sorghum and Broom Corn.

For grass, where it is about to be laid down to lawn, or for several years, a top dressing of Poudrette will be found invaluable.

We wish to remark in this place, that Poudrette is not like some quack medicines, warranted to cure all kinds of diseases. It must be used with discretion, and a reasonable quantity will produce a reasonable effect.

Poudrette will answer no better than other manures on wet, sour, undrained land, or in seasons of drought. In other words, Poudrette is an invaluable substitute for barn yard manure, and can be used with great profit and advantage upon most spring crops, but it will neither work miracles, drain the land it is put upon, nor cause rain to fall in time of drought.

Price per Barrel $2.25—delivered at any part of the city, or at any depot or wharf.

Important Notice!—When Poudrette is spoken of, we mean "LODI POUDRETTE," which has now stood the test of twenty-six years' trial; and when buying, be sure and get that kind!

A descriptive pamphlet may be had on application. mh29

N. H. MILITARY EXPENDITURES BY WAR.—The Concord Statesman gives the following view of these matters:

The Commissioners appointed by the Governor and Council to examine the accounts of military expenditures made by all the towns of this State, have proceeded so far with their duties as to bring to light a deplorable lack of care and and system on the part of the disbursing officers of a portion of the towns. Some selectmen, claiming to have expended thousands of dollars for bounties, and other items of a military character, are unable to produce the semblance of vouchers for their accounts. These evidences of neglect are, unhappily, not confined to towns the majority of whose inhabitants are so devoted to ignorance and disloyalty as to give, year after year, heavy majorities to the Democratic ticket. Carelessness in the matter of figures is not a democratic vice. But as the Commissioners do not admit as real expenditures any claims which cannot be substantiated by proper vouchers, this lack of care is likely to bring its own punishment.

The Commission also substantiates the assertion before made, that towns having large Democratic majorities, and most abounding with blatant disloyalists, expended the largest sums for bounties to volunteers and substitutes. Thus it is made to appear that treason was a luxury which brought enormous expenses in its train.

The real purpose of the Commission is to determine now, when, if ever, persons and papers can be reached, the amount actually expended by towns toward suppressing the rebellion. Whether any portion of such outlay will ever be defrayed by the United States is an after consideration, but it is certainly part of common prudence to put these claims in a correct form at the earliest possible moment.

We never had any doubt but the U. S. will repay every cent—and that within a few years.

IN THE U. S. SENATE, April 20, the bill in relation to habeas corpus was taken up. The pending question was the amendment of Mr. Edmands to exempt from indemnification unlawful acts committed by many officers in States where the habeas corpus was not suspended. The amendment was lost—10 to 20.

Mr. Doolittle moved to amend the amendment by striking out the word "Judges" after the words "or parties." Rejected, as was also Mr. Saulsbury's amendment.

During the debate, Mr. Saulsbury undertook to assert that one of the sections of the bill was plainly unconstitutional, and declared if he was a Judge of a Court in his State, he should not obey it. For this Mr. Clark promptly and properly rebuked him, saying that he should not have made any further remarks on the bill, had it not been for such an assertion. They had had enough of this kind of talk from the Senator from Delaware. He had used the same language when the Civil Rights bill was passed, and it was time that the rebellious spirit which had been crushed out in the country should cease its voice in the Senate Chamber.

Mr. Saulsbury made a sharp reply.

Mr. Clark rejoined that he had no wish to lecture the Senator from Delaware, neither did he claim any superiority, morally, intellectually or physically, over any one, but he loved his country, and would stand by it against all assailants. He thought it was time that every one should know that the power of the general government was supreme, and that it must be respected and obeyed.

Mr. Trumbull, in defending the bill against the attacks of Mr. Doolittle, said that the Senator from Wisconsin had once told a story of a justice of the peace, to whom, after rendering a decision in a case, one of the attorneys employed had read from Blackstone's Commentaries a different ruling on a similar case. The justice inquired whether the attorney desired to make him out in the wrong. "Oh, no," said the attorney, "but I thought I would show you what an old fool that Blackstone was!" and so, continued Mr. Trumbull, I will read from Chancellor Kent to show that judges have been punished for judicial acts; not that I expect to change the opinion of the gentleman from Wisconsin (Mr. Doolittle), but to show him what an old fool Chancellor Kent was. Senators and spectators roared, and then Mr. Trumbull read his authority. The bill was finally passed—Messrs. Buckalew, Guthrie, Hendricks and Saulsbury voting in the negative. Yeas 30.

In the House, the bill giving to Ishmael Day, of Baltimore county, Md., an annuity of $421.50, as a recognition of his heroism in defending the flag from Gilmer's rebel raiders on the 12th of July, 1864, and for his loss of property on that occasion, was passed—106 to 13.

— A car load of freedmen, women and children arrived at Providence on Sunday, agents of the Freedmen's Bureau having secured situations for them among families there.

— It appeared in evidence in the course of a law suit in Cincinnati that the "essence of coffee" is made from the cheapest, dirtiest molasses and rye meal.

ITALY.—A Letter from Italy gives some particulars of the recent massacre at Barletta, a town of about 25,000 inhabitants, three-fourths of whom are agricultural laborers of the poorer class. It seems that a minister of the Evangelical faith from Florence had been preaching there some time and had made some forty converts. During Lent the priests had stirred up the popular fury and incited the citizens to avenge this insult upon Christ and the Catholic religion. The mob finally, led on by a Capuchin friar, burned three houses and killed six persons. A large number are said to have been wounded. The affair is thought to have been part of a plan rising from a reaction in favor of the clerical party in Italy. The National Guards at Barletta acted very disgracefully, and the chief Catholic organ, while he does not defend the massacre, yet says:

"When the constitution was promulgated by Charles Albert, in 1848, the only non-Catholics in the kingdom were the Vaudois and the Jews, and that therefore to them should be limited the toleration which that Constitution, while proclaiming the Catholic, Apostolic and Roman creed the religion of the State, guarantees to other forms of worship. But the Ministry, trampling upon the law, allows all heretics to come to Italy, to raise a pestilential pulpit, and to busy themselves in every way to drag her sons from the bosom of the Catholic Church."

LABOR AND LABORERS.—Milledgeville (Ga.) papers say that more than 3000 negro men have within two weeks passed over the railroad from Putnam and the adjacent counties for the West. They have been induced to leave their employers on the promise of higher wages, although they made contracts with them, which contracts were ratified by the Freedmen's Bureau. Planters thus deprived of their employees will be disappointed in making crops. This complaint comes from many counties, notwithstanding arrests have been made of persons who are thus tampering with the employees.

A paper now before us says, in speaking of the Gulf cotton States, "There is plenty to do,—more than laborers can be found to do,—and the scarcity of labor in the South has already caused an advance in wages above the scale of prices fixed some time ago in the interest of the freedmen. The partial efforts which have been made to obtain white labor from the North and Europe have failed, as might have been foretold.—Instead of white laborers going from the North, the men who have emigrated go to make a bid for the labor of the negro as rivals of those who have heretofore carried on the productive enterprises of the South.—Sambo suddenly finds himself in demand, and begins to appreciate for himself a good part of the cash value which was once set upon him by his owner."

Even so: the laborer is worthy of his hire:—no capital party should withhold it or snatch it away. But what has become of the scheme of Colonizing all the freedmen in some one spot? How such dreamy and cowardly theories melt away in the sunshine of liberty and honesty.

NOTES OF FORMER DAYS.

Collected and Collated by UNCLE TOBY.

Portsmouth Pier.— Michael Wentworth.

In December, 1795, a company was incorporated by the name of the Proprietors of the Portsmouth Pier. They purchased the estate at the end of Buck, now State street, lately belonging to the honorable Henry Sherburne, deceased, and extended the pier of wharf three hundred and forty feet, and its average breadth is about sixty-five feet; on the south side is a building, three hundred and twenty feet in length, thirty feet in breadth, and three stories high, which is divided into fourteen stores. [Burnt in 1813, and rebuilt.]

At the annual meeting, the town authorized the selectmen to purchase a large fire-engine of the best construction.

Colonel Michael Wentworth died at New York, the 25th of September, 1795, aged seventy-six. He was born at Yorkshire, in England, and was nearly allied to the Marquis of Rockingham, and Earl of Strafford, who were distinguished members of the Wentworth family, in that country. His elder brother, Peregrine Wentworth, inherited the paternal estate, and as is commonly the case there other; provision was to be made for the younger son. Colonel Wentworth accordingly entered the army very early in life, and served under the Duke of Cumberland; in Great Britain, and on the continent. He acted as a volunteer in the battle of Culloden, on the 15th of April, 1745, when the Duke obtained the decisive victory over the rebels, which put an end to the hopes and prospects of the pretender, Charles Stuart. The May following he was in France; and was engaged in the famous battle of Fontenoy, when the French troops, commanded by Marshal Saxe, gained a complete victory over the allied army under command of the Duke of Cumberland, but although the English and their allies were unfortunate in the issue of this engagement, the celebrated solid column in which Mr. Wentworth held a subordinate command, routed the French guards, during the engagement. He continued his connection with the army, some time after the peace in 1748, by the treaty of Aix la Chapelle, and, having disposed of his commission, he returned to England, and passed a few years with his brother and other friends. He came to this country in 1767, and in 1770 married the widow of the late Governor Benning Wentworth, who possessed an ample fortune; fixed his residence at Little Harbor, the seat of the late Governor, where he enjoyed during the remainder of his life, otium cum dignitate.

He possessed an excellent constitution, which he preserved by frequent exercise. He always rode on horseback, when he had occasion to travel; and generally enjoyed good health, and a fine flow of animal spirits. He thought no man old, notwithstanding he had lived many years, whose mental faculties, vigour, and activity, were unimpaired. He was remarkably fond of music, and excelled in playing on the violin. His manners were those of an accomplished gentleman: his acquaintance with mankind, and social habits rendered him a very pleasing companion.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—The eight-hour men are urging President Johnson to order that eight hours constitute a day's work in the navy yards and arsenals, as one of his Presidential predecessors reduced the time from twelve hours to ten. The President has the subject under consideration.

Legislation will soon be perfected, either in the shape of a special act, or as an amendment to some bill, prohibiting the transportation of nitro-glycerine, except under certain regulations, calculated to prevent loss of life by accidental explosions.

The House Committee on the Judiciary has decided to report Senator Sumner's bill for the codification of the United States laws, which has passed the Senate without amendment.

Senators are receiving letters expressing the hope that Mr. Stansberry will not be confirmed as Judge of the Supreme Court. All who know him admit his ability and integrity of character, but fears are entertained that he would take a South-side view of all national questions.

It is rumored in diplomatic circles that Sir Frederick Bruce has been assured by our Government that the Fenians have no real plans for invading the British Provinces or Ireland, but that they are an association for political purposes, which will vote at the elections next Fall strictly in obedience to the instructions of leaders.

— There were 70 cases Nitro-Glycerine on board steamer European, which blew up at Aspinwall. Loss $1,000,000.

— A little Irish boy peeped through a hole in a circus tent in Richmond; one of the keepers pleasantly stuck a pin in the eye and destroyed its sight.

— Susan, said Jane, I do wish I could get a few more bars of that Gold Medal Soap that I once had, as our clothes never looked one-half as well since or before; besides, it makes my hands so nice and soft. I shall be glad when our merchants get another supply, but I suppose the demand is so great that orders remain a long time on the slate. It turned a blue Monday into a sunshiny day as long as we had it on hand. I shall get a good supply when it does come. 77

THE FENIAN ADVANCE.—Dispatches from the Maine border report a great abatement in the Fenian excitement since the arrival of Gen. Meade. The citizens of Eastport gave a reception to the General in Prescott Hall on Friday. In an address he said he had been sent there to see that the laws of neutrality were respected, without reference to what others have done to us in time past. This, he said, was a plain duty, and whatever might be his own opinions as to questions involved, he should faithfully execute it. There are five English war steamers at Eastport and on the St. Croix. It was reported at Eastport that Killian had gone to Washington to obtain the release of arms seized on board schooner E. H. Pray, which are now in custody of the military authorities. No outbreak is apprehended either at Eastport or Calais.

GOLD, Saturday, 125 1-2.

—A man in Pittston, Me., was sentenced a short time since to thirty days in Augusta jail. After his term had been served out, he was met by a friend, who inquired how he liked his new home. His answer was that he "had a bully time, that there were seventy-six inmates of the jail, and not a Black Republican among them."

— As an evidence of the ignorance prevailing in some portions of North Carolina, it may be mentioned that many of the people are rejoicing over the demise of the late Senator Foot of Vermont, believing him to be the irrepressible Henry S., of Tennessee, who "deserted the Confederacy in its hour of need."

IMPORTANCE OF HAVING DAVIS' PAIN KILLER ALWAYS ON HAND.

Wonderful Cure of the Rev. D. L. Brayton, Missionary in India, who was stung by a Scorpion.

Extract from his letter, published in the Baptist Missionary Magazine:

"For the first time since I have been in India, I have been stung by a scorpion. I went out this morning to my exercises, as usual, at early dawn, and having occasion to use an old box, on taking off the cover I put my hand on a scorpion, which immediately resented the insult by thrusting its sting into the palm of my hand. The instantaneous and severe pain which darted through the system is quite incredible; what an awfully virulent poison their sting must contain! I FLEW TO MY BOTTLE OF DAVIS' PAIN KILLER, and found it to be true to its name; after a moment's relief, I saturated a small piece of sponge, bound it on my hand, and went about my exercises, feeling no more particular inconvenience.

Perry's Moth and Freckle Lotion.

☞ Chloasma, or Mothpatch, (also called Liver-spot,) and Lentigo, or Freckles, are often very annoying, particularly to ladies of light complexion, for the discolored spots show more plainly on the face of a blonde than of a brunette; but they greatly mar the beauty of either and any preparation that will effectually remove them, without injuring the texture or color of the skin is certainly a desideratum. DR. B. C. PERRY, who has made diseases of the skin a speciality, has discovered a remedy for these discolorations, which is at once prompt, infallible and harmless.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS. COSTIVENESS, DIARRHEA.—They are taken up by the absorbents, and carried into the circulation, through which medium they are conveyed to every part of the body.

If the pain affects the joints, a single dose produces remarkable benefit. And the same rule applies to costiveness, diarrhea and dysentery; though with the last named they may be required night and morning for some days before decided relief is obtained. In affections of the lungs, throat, head and pleurisy, the relief is certain; the excretory organs throw off with ease the phlegm, and the breathing becomes freer. Spasmodic asthma is often cured by a single dose. mch28dawlm

Local.

☞ Mr. Barnabee's Concert this evening will doubtless draw a crowd. The singers are first-rate, their selections are judiciously made, and all who have ever heard "Barnabee" in his comic songs and recitations, will be anxious to hear him again; and all who have not, should improve this opportunity to do so. Both musically and personally, (as the Boston Transcript well says,) he is eminently worthy of patronage, and especially so, in this his native city, to which his name and fame is an honor.

☞ Geo. B. French, charged with having counterfeit U. S. currency in possession, with intent to pass it, was brought again before U. S. Commissioner Hackett, on Saturday. In consequence of the absence of Mr. Hatch, prisoner's counsel, the examination was postponed to Wednesday, May 2d. The former bail were discharged, and on motion of the counsel for the U. S., the amount of bail was fixed at $5000.—John Donovan, John H. Ferguson and Woodbury Locke being sureties.

Communication.

The vote of the Aldermen did not order or request any one to execute their wish to "commemorate," &c. This is a fact;—but perhaps "Inquirer" accidentally omitted the word "please" before "don't state facts!" An "Inquirer" should read the records. CY FAX.

☞ The Boston Journal mentions the arrest, in that city on Friday afternoon, of two men, named William H. Dearborn and Joseph C. Perkins, for having counterfeit bank bills in their possession, with intent to pass the same as genuine, and were committed to the lock-up to await investigation. Dearborn called into the periodical store, 108 Court street, and bargained for a wallet, the price of which was $2.25, and offered a "five" on the Union Bank, Haverhill, which the clerk refused, telling him the bill was counterfeit. Dearborn then offered a "three" on the Cochituate Bank, and that also being refused by the clerk, he next offered a "ten" on the Bank of North America, which the clerk refused and told him that was also counterfeit. He left the store, followed by the clerk, who saw him enter a saloon on Tremont row, where he called for a drink and offered the counterfeit five on the Union Bank, Haverhill, which was there refused and pronounced counterfeit.

Meantime, the clerk had informed officer Skelton of the facts, and when Dearborn left the saloon the officer followed him to the corner of Tremont and Beacon streets, where he had a short conversation in a low tone of voice with Joseph C. Perkins. The officer watched and observed Dearborn pass something to Perkins, who, to appearance, placed whatever it was in his right vest pocket, but very soon after transferred something from that pocket to the left outside pocket of his coat.

The officer arrested and took them to the station, where they were searched, and nothing but a small amount in currency was found on Dearborn, but on Perkins was found, in good money, a parcel of $55, another of $46, and a third parcel containing $18 in currency, and in his left outside coat pocket were found the four counterfeit bills above named, crumpled up together. Perkins denied all knowledge of how those bills came in his pocket, unless Dearborn put them there unknown to him; and Dearborn says that finding he was watched and caught he threw the four bills away. Some of the officers are inclined to the opinion that Perkins was the dupe of Dearborn.

They waived examination on Saturday, and were committed to jail, in default of bail for $3000 each.

Mr. Perkins is a native and now a resident of this city—one of the landlords of the Franklin House here; and was for many years a compositor in the Boston Herald office. He has heretofore borne a good character, and we hope this serious charge against him can be cleared up. It may be that this bad money had been passed on him, and he was foolish and criminal enough (as many another who considers himself honest, is,) to try to get rid of it in this way. But we can hardly believe he has any connection with any gang of counterfeiters.

— The experience of Captain Boggs, Acting Rear Admiral of the fleet now on duty on the British North American coast, during the war at Bermuda and at Barbadoes, it is thought, will not incline him greatly in favor of John Bull. At the former place he was ordered, but refused, to anchor his vessel, the Connecticut, under the guns of the fort, and at the latter place he was ordered away within twenty-four hours, when his ship required essential repairs.

— The colliers and iron workers of England and South Wales are rushing off to the United States in hundreds, sixty families leaving in one day—a fact greatly deplored by the London Times.

— The Aberdeen (Miss.) Sunny South appears with its columns in mourning, in its issue announcing the passage of the Civil Rights bill over the President's veto.

NEW YORK LIQUOR LAW.—From the first of May a new license will be in force in New York city; the Commissioners of the Board of Health are constituted a Board of Excise, who have the exclusive power of granting licenses for sale of liquors in quantities less than five gallons at a time. The licenses do not authorize selling liquors on Sunday, or on election days within a quarter of a mile of the election. No liquor is to be sold to any apprentice without the consent of his master or mistress, nor to any person under eighteen years of age without the consent of his father, mother or guardian. None is to be sold to an habitual drunkard, nor to an intoxicated person; nor against the request of any wife, husband, parent or child, to the husband of any such wife, wife of such husband, parent of such child, or child of such parent. Liquor shops are to be closed between midnight and sunrise, and on Sundays. No person who trusts another for liquors can compel payment at law. Intoxication is subject to a fine of $10 and costs. Fines and penalties are provided for all the specified offenses, and the act is drawn throughout with evident care and thoroughness.

☞ The Boston Herald of Saturday contains an account of an adjourned meeting of liquor dealers at the Parker House on Friday. Some resolutions were reported by their committee, and adopted. They are mild, calm, and rather sad in their tone;—and were not pleasing to some of the company, who indulged in a debate, during which the assembly decreased in number, and finally adjoined without definite action.

STRIKE IN SOUTH CAROLINA.—The Charleston South Carolinian chronicles a new phenomenon in that city, namely, a demand on the part of the blacks for higher wages. The colored stevedores are unwilling to work unless paid two dollars a day.

Holloway's Pills and Ointment.—Dropsy.—The action of these remedies on the blood, checks the too rapid effusion of the watery humors into the absorbents, and by equalizing the flow of the secretions, renders the disease comparatively inactive, the Ointment penetrating through the pores of the skin, drains by evaporation the serum collected in the cellular tissue and ultimately performs a radical cure. The Pills purify the blood and strengthen the digestive organs. Sold by all Druggists. a21—1w

"GOT THE BLUES."—How often do we hear this complaint made. The reason generally ascribed is that something has gone wrong, but if you will question the patient in regard to health, habits, &c., you will very often find that indigestion is the prime cause; the intimacy of the brain and stomach is very close, and nothing so sours the feelings and disposition as dyspepsia. It is a singular fact that most suicides are dyspeptics. If our nourishment is properly digested, the brain is free and unoppressed, and will solve our troubles, pointing out sunshine ahead and inclining us look on the bright side of life; thus is it our duty to guard against this monster—indigestion—and we know of nothing so potent to assist digestion as Coe's Dyspepsia Cure. It has cured some very bad cases of dyspepsia of even ten or fifteen years' standing.

Important.

DR. STEVENS, No. 5 Daniel Street, would give notice that he has REDUCED the price of Permanent Sets of ARTIFICIAL TEETH on the Vulcanite Base, to that charged for them before the war.

He would also give notice that he is doing a new style of work for Under Sets of Teeth, called the COMBINATION BASE (Gold and Vulcanite) which produces by far the finest work offered to the public. The price is something in advance of that charged for the Vulcanite alone, but the strength, durability, ease of bearing, and beauty of finish obtained by it, more than double the value of the teeth. mh12

DR. WEED can be found at his place of business at all hours of the day and night, for the performance of any of the operations that come within the call of his profession.

Dr. A. P. STEVENS, No. 5 Daniel St., makes the saving of DECEMATED and painful teeth, a specialty in his business. He also successfully restores to their natural shape broken or badly decayed teeth, by building out corners and sides with PURE GOLD. (In many cases teeth so restored are as strong as any of their brother members, and in all cases are rendered eminently useful for a long series of years.) DISEASED TEETH, in all stages, treated, and in a very large majority of cases entire success attained.

Charges for such operations necessarily high, but nothing in comparison to the value of the teeth. mch14

WHICH IS THE
Leading Life Insurance Comp'y
IN THE UNITED STATES?
Which is the Safest and the Cheapest?

The following figures are from the later Reports of the New York Insurance Commissioner, showing the "amount of business" of the

MUTUAL BENEFIT
LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

to be the largest, the "expenses of management" the smallest, the "ratio of Assets to Liabilities," or the security furnished to its members, the largest of any life institution in the country.

Premiums received in 1864.....$2,089,072
" " " " 1865.....3,029,087
Ratio of expenses to premiums rec'd in '64...12.96
" " " " " " '65...12.16
Ratio of assets to liabilities, Jan. 1, 1865....161.85

The inevitable conclusion from these official facts, is that the

MUTUAL BENEFIT LIFE Insurance Company
IS THE BEST AND THE CHEAPEST.

Because its NET ASSETS are proportionably LARGER than those of any other Life Insurance Company in the United States.

Because its "Managing Expenses" are LESS, and it has a LARGER SURPLUS to divide among its members than any Company in the United States.

QUERY. Will some one inform the public of that mysterious process by which a Company with a surplus proportionably much less, and expenses very much larger than another, can yet divide more to its members, and insure them at less cost? How is it done? Where does the money come from?

Every intelligent man will see at once that it cannot be done. Yet we have Agents among us that make this their boast.

Any one disposed or intending to insure can be furnished with the requisite information by applying to

FOREIGN AFFAIRS.

The latest Foreign advices speak of immediate hostilities between Prussia and Austria, as "all but certain." Every thing is on the war establishment. Napoleon has sent his cousin, the Prince, to Italy, on a special mission, and reports indicate an alliance between Italy and Prussia! This would bring on the long desired plea for uniting Venice with Italy. Napoleon's non-committal policy, may eventuate in a serious committal. It is reported that England has ordered half a dozen new ships to be ready for service at once.

ENGLAND.—The new Reform Bill, offered for the consideration of Parliament by the Earl Russel Ministry, a concession to the people, by adding 400,000 additional voters, is now the great subject for meditation and reflection. There does not appear to be any great agitation; but we notice from London correspondence published here, that a meeting has been held of the leading Aristocracy, (the old tories,) at the house of the Marquis of Salisbury, where "a flank movement against the Ministers and their measures," was proposed to be attempted, which the writer trusts will "prove as successful as was McClellan's in Virginia."

A Mr. Coleridge, "a new appearance," has addressed the Speaker of the Commons, with decided success, on the second reading of the bill for the abolition of Tests and Oaths at the University of Oxford, which bill was carried by a vote of 217 to 103. The bill, the Speaker said, was to "accord a full enjoyment of all its benefits to all the lay subjects of the Queen, even though they might not be able to sign the Thirty-nine Articles and conform to the Prayer book."

FRANCE.—The last Paris letter of the N. Y. Tribune correspondent, details the debate in the Legislative body on an amendment proposed to the answer to the Emperor's speech, in substance, that while they ask nothing factious, or in a revolutionary spirit, they do desire "a transfer of the press from the purely discretionary arbitrary control of administrative officers, to the decision of legal tribunals." They said the "Government should advance in safe conservative progress, and that no one was more interested in such advance than Napoleon IVth (that is to be.) It was violently attacked and defeated of course. After a week's debate the Minister Rouher said very plainly that France had had great prosperity for 15 years, with the entire content of the nation. "More freedom was not wanted"—more will be granted so soon as it will be safe to grant it—so soon as folks stop asking for it, they shall have it. The nation has got all it asks for—it would be dangerous to give any more now," &c. On the question, however, the 15 in favor rose to sixty-three. Somewhat ominous.

The cotton crop in Egypt was last year almost a total failure, and half a million of cattle died of the cattle plague. The Viceroy is a great tyrant, and it is said 10,000 slaves are brought into Egypt from the Upper Nile country. Our consul in Egypt, Mr. Hale of Boston, is very highly spoken of by all travellers.

FATAL RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—A fearful accident occurred near Williston on the Vermont Central Railroad, early on Friday morning, occasioned by the burning of a bridge twenty feet in length, which spanned the carriage-way. The fire took place in the night, and the night express train going north, due there about half-past four o'clock, having no knowledge of it, was moving at full speed. The engine leaped the chasm, but knocked out all its trucks when it struck the opposite side, so that it stopped instantly. The cars, consisting of baggage car, two passenger cars, and two sleeping cars, were piled one upon another and into the gap below, in a badly wrecked condition. One passenger, a French man, name unknown, was instantly killed. The conductor, Mr. Appleton, was seriously injured in the spine. He lies in a helpless condition. Six or eight others were more or less hurt, one or two quite seriously, but not fatally.

The President has signed the bill to gradually reduce and cancel the interest Treasury notes and the redundant paper currency. It is already felt in the gold market, and in strengthening the public confidence in the ability of the country to meet all engagements, and at no distant day to resume specie payments.

Health Regulations.

THE BOARD OF HEALTH of the City of Portsmouth call the attention of the public to the following sections of City Ordinance No. 4, and are interested in the preservation of health in the City to aid them in the execution of their duty.

SEC. 3.—All waste water of houses yards, cellars, sinks, pumps, &c. shall be conveyed by their owners or occupiers to the common sewers, or to such places as the Health Officers may direct.

SEC. 4. No person shall be allowed to throw any vegetable or dead animal substance, or any other matter capable of producing infection, into any street, lane, alley or dock, or upon any wharf, but shall bury them or throw them into the river below low-water mark.

SEC. 5. The contents of vaults and privies shall not be permitted to rise within one foot of the surface of the earth. And all owners or occupiers of buildings having such vaults or privies as may require it, shall cause them to be emptied within ten days from the promulgation of this ordinance, and in future one or before the first day of May in each year. And any such owner or occupier neglecting so to do, shall forfeit and pay for every such neglect a sum not less than three nor more than twenty dollars, and a like sum for every week's neglect after the time above specified.

SEC. 11. The health officers may give written notice to the owner or occupier of any building, vessel or enclosure, to remove or destroy any nuisance or other thing deemed by them, on examination, to be injurious to the public health, within a certain time limited therein; and in case such owner or occupier—the said notice having been given to him, or left at his usual place of abode—shall neglect to comply therewith, the said health officers may, by direction of the mayor and accompanied by the city marshal, forcibly enter such building, vessel, or enclosure, and cause the said nuisance or other thing aforesaid to be removed or destroyed.

SEC. 14. The owner or occupier of any building, vessel or enclosure shall be liable to pay the expense of the removal or destruction of any such nuisance or other thing, as aforesaid, including fees of the health officers who order or cause the same to be removed; and the same may be recovered by action to be brought in the name of the city.

SEC. 15. And whenever any person or persons shall violate any rule or regulation, or commit any act forbidden in any section of this ordinance, to which no special penalty is annexed, shall forfeit and pay a sum not less than one dollar nor more than twenty dollars, to be recovered by complaint before the police court of this city.

VINELAND
FARM AND FRUIT LANDS,

In a mild and healthful climate. Thirty miles south of Philadelphia by Railroad, in New Jersey, on the same line of latitude as Baltimore, Md.

Soil adapted and productive, varying from a clay to a sandy loam, suitable for Wheat, Grass Corn, Tobacco, Fruits and Vegetables. This is a great fruit country. Five hundred Vineyards and Orchards have been planted out for market fruit-growers. Grapes, Peaches, Pears, &c., produce immense profits. Vineland is already one of the most beautiful places in the United States. The entire territory, consisting of fifty square miles of land, is laid out upon a general system of improvement. The land is cut into farms and settlers with provision for public adornment. The place, on account of its great beauty, as well as other advantages, has begun to become of people of taste. It has increased five thousand people within the past three years. Churches, Stores, Schools, Academies, Societies of Art and Learning, and other elements of refinement and culture have been introduced. Hundreds of people are constantly settling and building new houses, or being constructed. Price of Farm land, twenty acre lots and upward, $25 per acre. Five and ten acre and Village lots for sale.

Fruits and Vegetables ripen earlier in this district than in any other locality north of Norfolk, and consequently place for sale.

Opening for all kinds of business. Lumber Yards, Manufactories, Foundries, Stores and the like; and Steam Power, with room, can be rented.

For persons who desire a healthy, winless, a healthful climate, and a good soil, in a country beautifully improved, abounding in fruits, and possessing all other social privileges, the heart of civilization, it is worthy of a visit.

Letters answered, and the Vineland Rural, a paper giving full information, and containing Reports of Solon Robinson, sent to applicants.

PROGRESS IN CIVIL RIGHTS.—Gen. Tillson, chief of the Freedmen's Bureau in Georgia, in consideration of the laws passed by the Legistature of that State making the freedmen equal before the courts, has given notice that officers of the bureau will cease to exercise judicial functions. So also at Vicksburg, Gen. Wood, Commissioner of Freedmen, sends all cases coming before him to the local courts, and they have thus far proved themselves to be courts of impartial justice. If they should prove otherwise, in either State, the officers of the bureau are at hand to interpose. In Virginia, too, cases to which negroes are parties now go to the regular courts, the Legislature having abolished all distinctions on account of color.

MR. GREELEY'S CAPITAL.—Great wonder is expressed that the New York Tribune was started with a borrowed capital of only $1000. The Boston Transcript says its real capital was Horace Greely, who ought to be estimated as representing at least $100,000, in himself. John Neal has never got over his impatience with political economists for overlooking the value of the creators of capital, in their estimate of the wealth of a community; and certainly, in respect to newspaper capital, Mr. Greely's mind and character were, in Dr. Johnson's phrase, "the potentiality of wealth beyond the dreams of avarice."

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN PATENTS.

E. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents,
Late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1857, 78 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,
BOSTON.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents

Mr. E. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

Cleanse the Blood.
With correct, disordered or vitiated Blood, you are sick all over. It may burst out in Pimples, or Sores, or in some active disease, or it may merely keep you listless, depressed and good for nothing. But you cannot have good health while your blood is impure. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA purges out these impurities, stimulates the organs of life into vigorous action, restoring the health and expelling disease. Hence it rapidly cures a variety of complaints which are caused by impurity of the blood, such as Scrofula, or King's Evil, Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Boils, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Cancer or Cancerous Tumors, Sore Eyes, Female Diseases, such as Retention, Irregularity, Suppression, Whites, Sterility, also Syphilis or Venereal Disease, Liver Complaints, and Heart Diseases. Try AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, and see for yourself the surprising activity with which it cleanses the blood and cures these disorders.

During years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Hence, bitter disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound "Sarsaparilla," and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it.—We think we have ground for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. We can only assure the sick, that we offer them the best alterative which we know how to produce, and we have reason to believe it is by far the most effectual purifier of the blood yet discovered by any body.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL is so universally known to deserve every other remedy for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease, that it is useless here to recount the evidence of its virtues. The world knows them.

Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass., and sold by all Druggists and Dealers in Medicine everywhere. mh9—2aw&2weo

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth N. H.

TUESDAY, APRIL 24, 1866.

THE THIRD PARTY, that was to go between the other two and break them in pieces, it seems is not very successful; for the proposed components are grumbling. One portion of the disappointed, charges the blame on President Johnson, because he did not turn Republicans out of office and show who his friends were by his new appointments. Others think that the President has not been firm enough in sticking to his distinctive policy, quoting as an instance his explaining away his peace proclamation, which the New York World says had about the value of a "curiously constructed conundrum."

Another wing declares that the whole trouble came from the Copperheads, who, according to the programme, were to keep in the background until the conservative Republicans, under Doolittle, Cowan & Co., got the movement fairly started. But instead of that, the Copperheads, and even unrepentant rebels, rushed into the now ship with such eagerness that they swamped her before she was fairly launched.

Vallandigham is losing faith in President Johnson. He is said to have stated that if the President did not immediately begin to appoint Democrats to office he could not retain the adherence of a single Democrat three weeks longer. Others say that Vallandigham is disappointed in not finding the President ready for a coup d' etat in the interest of the forsaken applicants for seats in Congress, and pronounces him weak and vacillating, and afraid, in view of the strong Union majority in both Houses, to do what he should."

The true reason of the failure seems to be that the people don't care to make a new party. Those who are for settling the civil crisis on the same principles on which the military crisis was fought through—the principles of the Constitution, of justice and of equal rights—are Republicans or Union men; those who are opposed to these principles call themselves Democrats.

KNEELING IN PRAYER.—In a revival item in a Boston paper, we see it stated that Rev. Mr. Earle preached a sermon at Park street Church, and that—

"At the close of the sermon an invitation was given to all professing Christians to come forward and kneel for prayers, that their own hearts might be suitably affected. The invitation was very generally accepted, and prayer was offered by the Messrs. Earle and Kirke."

If kneeling be a more reverential posture in prayer than sitting, or if it be more reverential in any way,—then why not always kneel in the public or common prayer? If be not,—then why adopt it in this instance? It used to be the custom in the Congregational Meetings, for the congregation, as well as the minister, to stand up in prayer. Among the Methodists, Church Members used to kneel, and others generally used to stand. Now, nearly all SIT: we conform, but deem it unreverential, ungraceful and uncomfortable to sit through a long service. The Roman and the English Churches kneel in prayer, and have proper arrangements for the purpose,—tho' some persons slur it over by bowing forward as they sit. Their arrangement of postures on the whole is good, viz: to sit to hear the sermon, stand in singing, and kneel in prayer. This gives variety, and thus avoids weariness. This, to some, may seem a small matter. Be it so. But if it has any efficiency among the machinery of a revival, why not use it always? To stand before a superior, is reverent; to kneel, is highly so. Sitting is the posture of quiet attention.

U. T.

☞ In the Atlantic Monthly for May, Mr. Derby, in a paper entitled "What Will it Cost Us?" enters into our National-financial position, fights despair with figures, and shows that we can resume specie payments within the present year, and pay off our whole U. S. debt in thirty years, without any severe strain on our resources or unbearable diminution of our comforts.

Yes, and not only do we of this Chronicle feel all this to be true; but we believe the whole debt will be paid off in less than one-third of the time given—and further, that all the State and Town Debts will be included and likewise paid. We also agree with the Scientific American, that the greatest mistake our Government ever made, was to suspend specie payments—for there never was any need of it; and the sooner we return to a cash basis, the better for all but speculators and other gamblers.

☞ A desperate villain named McDonald, who with a gang of followers has been the terror of Pontotoc county, Miss., for some time, lately went with three of his clan to rob a farmer named King, who was supposed to have a large sum of money.—King refused to give up his valuables, when the ruffians shot him dead, and also shot his daughter through the chest, fatally it is believed. The neighbors turned out and pursued the villains, killing McDonald and capturing one of his men.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Rev. A. J. Patterson is to preach at South Hampton next Sunday.

—— Samuel W. Frost, of Effingham, has been indicted for the murder of Wm. H. Day.

—— Mr. Lord, a farmer at Gilmanton Corner, had $4000 in cash (?) stolen from his house last Friday night.

—— Winfield Scott Edgerly, son of Judge Edgerly, of Farmington, has been nominated by Gen. Marston for a Cadet at the U. S. Military Academy at West Point.

—— $100 reward is offered for the arrest of the boy Wiggin, who is supposed to have fired the house where the Reform School is kept.

—— Mr. John Pike, aged about thirty, and having a family, was sadly and it is feared mortally wounded at the Wentworth Mill in Alton, by being caught by a belt, last Monday.

—— A new church has been formed at Rumney, called the Baker's River Baptist Church; it has 60 members, most of whom have recently left the original baptist church there; and it occupies the Universalist meeting house, on a lease.

—— There is to be a Grand Musical May Festival at Manchester, (Smyth's Hall) May 1st to 4th, in charge of the Manchester Beethooven Musical Association. Conductors, L. H. Southard of Boston, and I. S. Whitney of Manchester.

GEN. MEADE'S REPORT FROM EASTPORT.—Gen. Meade has telegraphed to the Headquarters of the Army, announcing that he has captured a vessel loaded with arms, ammunition and uniforms for the Fenians, and that he apprehends no outbreak.

The munitions of war seized by the U. S. Government on board of the schooner E. H. Pray, belonging to the Fenians, comprise about 1500 stand of arms, of the Springfield and Enfield patterns, and look as if they had seen use, together with a quantity of ball cartridges, haversacks and canteens.

SHOOTING A TURKEY.—Some prisoners having escaped through a certain window in the jail at Charleston, South Carolina, orders were given to the soldiers on guard to keep a particular watch on it, and to fire provided any similar attempt was made. On Sunday morning, 15th inst., one of the turnkeys put his head out of the window in question, merely to take a look at matters outside, when the sentinel observed him and fired—the bullet passing through the man's head. He died instantly. His name was Mayrant, and he was a corporal in the 128th colored regiment.

THE CHRISTIAN COMMISSION.—The fourth annual report of the United States Christian Commission for the year 1865, completes the record of the doings of this noble organization in its mission to our brave soldiers and sailors. It is a record which reflects the highest credit upon the American people for their readiness to engage in a great work of Christian benevolence.

CONNECTICUT ELECTION.—The official count of the votes for State officers in Connecticut at last election, makes the whole Governor vote 87,417. Hawley's majority over English is 541. Winchester for Lieut. Governor has 872 majority; Pease, for Secretary of State, 1221 majority; Tainter, for Treasurer, 2873 majority; Battell, for Comptroller, 2871 majority.

☞ A delegation of loyal Southerners are in Washington with a memorial imploring Congress to save them from injustice and cruelties perpetrated upon them by the present State organizations. Among other things they assert that Union men, black and white, have been forced by State processes and sheriffs from estates that were abandoned by rebels and sold under the United States tax laws, and purchased and now occupied by loyal men, with their crops growing and implements and stock all confiscated to the rebel State authorities.

— The house of David Pellet, a farmer, residing about 4 miles from Norwich, Chenandago county, New York, was robbed of $17,000 in money and Government bonds last Thursday, during the absence of Mr. Pellet and his wife. Two men assaulted his son and compelled him to disclose where the money was kept. He was beaten until he became insensible.

— A tragic affair occurred in open court at Helena, Ark., last week. William Hanly was before the court for horse-stealing, and his wife was on the stand as a witness, testifying to his having stolen seven horses, when he drew a revolver and shot her, the ball entering her head.

— A man was arrested on Friday on his own confession, for having at several times placed obstructions on the Stonington Railroad. He is an Irishman, but a few weeks in this country. He was sent to jail at Greenwich, R. I.

— Three little boys, aged 7, 8, and 12 years, were killed last Saturday, in Boston, by the falling of a brick wall, which had been left standing after the woodwork of a block of old houses had been torn down.

☞ One Dick Spofford, a blatant copperhead lawyer of Newburyport,—who like many others of that hissing species, is now very loud in favor of equalizing bounties, &c.,—while spouting to that effect in the Massachusetts Legislature, the other day; was brought up with a round turn, by Hon. Mr. Pierce of Dorchester, who very pertinently remarked that "the gentleman from Newburyport was an aider and sympathizer with the rebellion" the only mistake, as the event immediately proved, being in Mr. Pierce's calling Spofford a gentleman; as Dick responded with, "the gentleman from Dorchester lies."

The speaker called Spofford to order, and he recalled the word with regret that he had uttered it; but the Speaker refused to allow him to proceed till he should apologize to the House. From that decision Spofford—who it would strangely seem had the House with him, and also the gallery, which for cheering was cleared away by the Speaker,—appealed and was allowed to proceed.

On this the Newburyport Herald, (which the Boston Commercial [Courier] factiously calls a "Republican" newspaper) kicks clean over the traces of law and order and common sense and decency, and says:

"It seems to us that a Speaker must be a dunce and a blockhead who would ask for an apology from Mr. Spofford. The apology was due from Pierce, for his was the first indignity and the greater insult. If Mr. Spofford had been near enough to Pierce, he should, before that House, and with coming gravity for such an occasion, have applied the toe of his boot to the lower end of the trunk of the said Pierce of Dorchester, who if he had shown such impudence in any Southern or Western Legislature would probably have paid for it with his life, while any jury would have said—'justifiable homicide.' Let the fellow think himself lucky, in the moderation and discretion of Mr. Spofford, that he was only replied to by words; and let him be more cautious hereafter, lest he should fare worse the next time."

Now no matter how unjust or untrue Mr. Pierce's charge was, (though to us the manner in which it was resented, is strong proof of its accuracy,) no friend of good government is excusable for using such language in a public assembly, or in a newspaper column, as this. It is just such insubordination feeling, speech and writing as this, which brought on the rebellion, and would work chaos everywhere. Let everything be done "decently and in order;"—and we can't understand why the Speaker's decision to rebuke the fellow who insulted the whole Massachusetts House, was not sustained.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—A dispatch of Saturday says:

The Reconstruction Committee agreed that the Constitution must be so amended that hereafter no State shall make any distinction on account of color after July 4, 1876; the negroes must have the right to vote, there shall be no representation between 1866 and 1876 for colored persons not allowed to vote; and that the Southern States may be represented on these terms by taking the test oath prescribed by Congress.

But Perley says on Sunday,—"I have good authority for stating that no action has been yet taken by the committee."

He also gives the following paragraphs:

There are rumors that President Johnson and Secretary Seward are endeavoring to get up a political demonstration, based on the employment of French troops in Mexico, by way of distracting public attention from home troubles. Napoleon has agreed to withdraw his troops, but not at once, and by his programme the last lot will not leave until November of next year. In the meantime the resources of Mexico are to be heavily taxed for the payment of Parisian creditors. The Mexican republicans implore aid, and say that if Congress will guarantee a loan they will drive the French away before next Christmas.

The admission of Colorado is doubtful, as three Democratic Senators—McDougal, Nesmith and Norton—now say that they will vote against it. Several earnest Republicans hope that two Colorado Senators may be in their seats to vote in favor of passing the Universal Suffrage bill for the District of Columbia over the veto of President Johnson.

A HISTORY OF ADVENTURES.—Two Washington city rebels who were not disposed to be reconstructed, and who went to Mobile and sailed thence with a party for Brazil, have written back a doleful account of their adventures. After they had proceeded two or three days on their voyage they were attacked by small-pox, measles and itch, and the steamer had to return to Mobile, where she now lies in quarantine.

FATAL ACCIDENT. — A man named Works, residing in Salem, Mass., was instantly killed on Thursday last by his head getting caught between the gravel cars which he was shackling the time. Deceased was 40 years old and had been in the employ of the company for fifteen years. He leaves a family who will be benefitted by a life insurance policy for $5000 which Mr. Works secured about six months ago.

EFFECT OF HIGH RENTS.—An auctioneer in Chicago has the furniture of nineteen hundred families to sell.

— It is reported that the President will soon issue a proclamation fixing the 16th of May as a National fast day, in view of the coming of the cholera.

☞ Last Saturday, at Washington, the French Minister had an interview with the Secretary of State. It is said he presented a formal adhesion of the French Government to the American principle of non intervention as explained by the Secretary of State. The Emperor kindly and cordially replies to the United States, and engages to withdraw his troops from Mexico in three detachments—one next November, and others in May and November.

☞ We are glad to place on our large Weekly exchange list, the N. Y. "American Agriculturist," monthly newspaper, in all respects one of the very best magazines "for the farm, garden and household," that is published.

☞ Mr. E. B. Towle, of Hampton Falls, will please accept our earliest and warmest thanks, for that "half-dozen heads of Lettuce and bunch of new Onions, raised under glass by him." Right handsome they were, and good, too. May early crops never fail him.

DYSPEPSIA DESTROYS THE TEETH, unless its effects are counteracted by that pure vegetable tonic and antiseptic, SOZODONT.—No bodily disease can impair them if this antidote to all corrosive elements that act upon the enamel is regularly applied. 5

— The ladies, individually and collectively, without a single exception, pronounce Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus to be the best and most wholesome article in the market. They say it makes nicer, whiter and lighter Biscuit and Cake, and requiring less shortening, than any other saleratus, and is much better to use with cream tartar than soda. Try it. Most of the Grocers and many of the Druggists sell it, and at wholesale by wholesale Grocers. 78

Special Notices.

IMPORTANCE OF HAVING DAVIS' PAIN KILLER ALWAYS ON HAND.

Wonderful Cure of the Rev. D. L. Brayton, Missionary in India, who was stung by a Scorpion.

Extract from his letter, published in the Baptist Missionary Magazine:

"For the first time since I have been in India, I have been stung by a Scorpion. I went out this morning to my exercises, as usual, at early dawn, and having occasion to use an old box, on taking it off the cover I put my hand on a scorpion, which immediately resented the insult by thrusting its sting into the palm of my hand. The instantaneous and severe pain which darted through the system is quite incredible; what an awfully virulent poison their sting must contain! I FLEW TO MY BOTTLE OF DAVIS' PAIN KILLER, and found it to be true to its name; after a moment's relief, I saturated a small piece of sponge, bound it on my hand, and went about my exercises, feeling no more particular inconvenience.

Perry's Moth and Freckle Lotion.

☞ Chloasma, or Mothpatch, (also called Liver-spot,) and Lentigo, or Freckles, are often very annoying, particularly to ladies of light complexion, for the discolored spots show more plainly on the face of a blonde than of a brunette; but they greatly mar the beauty of either and any preparation that will effectually remove them, without injuring the texture or color of the skin, is certainly a desideratum. DR. B. C. PERRY, who has made diseases of the skin a specialty, has discovered a remedy for these discolorations, which is at once prompt, infallible and harmless.

Prepared by B. C. PERRY, Dermatologist, No. 49 Bond Street, New York, and for sale by all druggists; price $2 per bottle. Call for PERRY'S MOTH & FRECKLE LOTION.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS. COSTIVENESS, DIARRHEA.—They are taken up by the absorbents, and carried into the circulation, through which medium they are conveyed to every part of the body.

If the pain affects the joints, a single dose produces remarkable benefit. And the same rule applies to costiveness, diarrhea and dysentery; though with the last named they may be required night and morning for some days before decided relief is obtained. In affections of the lungs, throat, head and pleurisy, the relief is certain; the excretory organs throw off with ease the phlegm, and the breathing becomes freer. PORTSMOUTH, April 21.

Dear Sir:—As I have been informed that your City is not behind others of its size in rushing to the rescue, and affording relief to suffering humanity in general, I feel it my duty to introduce to you a certain class who are scattered over the North and South, and are in reality suffering for the proper respect due them. I am proud to say that I am one of that number, and am appointed as a committee at large, to represent to every christian community our true condition. Yes, in your own little city there are three thousand members, who in times of peace are little thought of; but let the enemy invade our soil, and our President call 300,000 more,—then it is we come out in full force, and are known and recognized by every community as the true martyrs for peace.

As the Fourth of July is near at hand, and as the citizens of Portsmouth may contemplate raising money for the celebration of that day, I would suggest, in the name of suffering humanity, that the aforesaid money be placed at our disposal; and that the people may know who we are, we would like for our names to be hung up in some conspicuous place, where our returned soldiers can peruse them, and thus give us all the credit due us, as we have had much to contend with. I would say we are almost destitute of proper medicines, and have lived on nothing but gruel for some time. Two hundred of our number are employed on the Navy Yard, where there is light work to perform. In war times we are vulgarly called exempts. Thus you can see at a glance that what I have said is true.

As there is contemplated trouble about our fisheries, we have come to the conclusion to petition to the government for the use of Badger's Island, or some other secluded spot, where we can retreat with our bundle of herbs and syringes, and rest secure from all drafts that are liable to bring on chills; yes, and have even made the hair turn grey. But in a case of emergency, we will defend our homes against all foreign foes, cholera not excepted, although at present our physical constitutions will not permit us to meet the foe on the field; but we can look out for the welfare and comfort of the soldiers' families, love and caress the war widow, and care for the fatherless children. I would say still further, that we are willing to take part in any procession, and thus reflect credit on the city.

Hoping you will find room to insert this appeal in your paper, and that the City Fathers may give it due reflection, and be unanimous in its approval, I thus wait anxiously for the decision, for on it depends our future welfare. I am, your humble servant,

GEN'L DEBILITY,
Commanding Exempt Corps.

Communication.

The young men of this city are, as a general thing, devoid of the energy or desire for exercise. Portsmouth has no lack of facilities and resources for physical recreation, either in water privileges for rowing, or field advantages for pleasurable enjoyment and exercise in cricket and ball games; and with these resources near at hand, the muscular development of the Strawberry Bankers ought to be brought to perfection. This is a debt all owe to Nature, who has given us the means, to be availed of, for improvement—and if her warning were heeded, there would be less of "the ills which flesh is heir to," and there would open a fair prospect of living to a hale and hearty age of "three score years and ten."

The "Rockingham Base Ball Club" is now forming in this city; it is composed of young men who have no lack of ambition for its success,—and as a suitable field for playing the game has already been engaged, they are determined to "open the ball" at an early day, and "keep it moving." This is a step in the right direction, and as the Club's Constitution and By-Laws contains no such word as Fail, nothing can prevent its eventual success. MEMBER.

PHARAOH'S SERPENTS.

From the little cone of silver foil,
That fizzes and fumes with a fretful fire,
There oozes a serpent, all yellow and ribbed,
That rolls and thickens, and curls still higher.

The magic thing, as it by spell,
Suddenly ceases its sluggish crawl;
Its fiery breath has quite burnt out,
And leaves a coil of dust—that's all.

The wise man's toy is a type of life;
And all our struggles for paltry things,
Our dabbling in politics and law,
Tangled and bound with red tape strings;

Our spider's webs, and our subtle plans;
Our love and joy, and our brittle dreams;
Our poor ambitions that fleet away,
Fast as the shining tobacco wreaths;

Alexander's conquests, Cæsar's spoils;
All that we hate, and all that we trust;
The beggar's fears, and the rich man's hopes—
All end at last in a pinch of dust.

Holloway's Pills and Ointment.—Dropsy.—The action of these remedies on the blood, checks the too rapid effusion of the watery humors into the absorbents, and by equalizing the flow of the secretions, renders the disease comparatively inactive, the Ointment penetrating through the pores of the skin, drains by evaporation the serum collected in the cellular tissue and ultimately performs a radical cure. "GOT THE BLUES."—How often do we hear this complaint made. The reason generally ascribed is that something has gone wrong, but if you will question the patient in regard to health, habits, &c., you will very often find that indigestion is the prime cause; the intimacy of the brain and stomach is very close, and nothing so sours the feelings and disposition as dyspepsia. It is a singular fact that most suicides are dyspeptics. If our nourishment is properly digested, the brain is free and unoppressed, and will solve our troubles, pointing out sunshine ahead and inclining us to look on the bright side of life; thus is it our duty to guard against this monster—indigestion—and we know of nothing so potent to assist digestion as Coe's Dyspepsia Cure. It has cured some very bad cases of dyspepsia of even ten or fifteen years' standing.

He would also give notice that he is doing a new style of work for Under Sets of Teeth, called the COMBINATION BASE (Gold and Vulcanite) which produces by far the finest work offered to the public. The price is something in advance of that charged for the Vulcanite alone, but the strength, durability, ease of bearing, and beauty of finish obtained by it, more than double the value of the Teeth. mh12

He also successfully restores to their natural shape broken or badly decayed teeth, by building out corners and sides with PURE GOLD. WHICH IS THE
Leading Life Insurance Comp'y
IN THE UNITED STATES?

Which is the Safest and the Cheapest?

The following figures are from the later Reports of the New York Insurance Commissioner, showing the "amount of business" of the

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

to be the largest, the "expenses of management" the smallest, the "ratio of assets to liabilities," or the security furnished to its members, the largest of any life institution in the country.

Premiums received in 1864.....$2,089,072
" " " 1865.....3,029,087
Ratio of expenses to premiums rec'd in '64..12.96
" " " " " '65..12.19
Ratio of assets to liabilities, Jan. 1, 1865...111.85

The inevitable conclusion from these official facts is that the

MUTUAL BENEFIT LIFE
Insurance Company
IS THE BEST AND THE CHEAPEST.

Because its NET ASSETS are proportionably LARGER than those of any other Life Insurance Company in the United States.

Because its "Managing Expenses" are LESS, and it has a LARGER SURPLUS to divide among its members than any Company in the United States.

QUERY. Will some one inform the public of that mysterious process by which a Company with a surplus proportionably much less, and expenses very much larger than another, can yet divide more to its members, and insure them at less cost? How is it done? Where does the money come from?

Every intelligent man will see at once that it cannot be done. Yet we have Agents among us that make this their boast.

Any one disposed or intending to insure can be furnished with the requisite information by applying to

Morning Chronicle.

SINGULAR SUIT FOR DAMAGES.—In the Supreme Judicial Court, Boston, on Wednesday, the case of Edward Murray and wife vs. Drs. Lucius A. Cutler (Superintendent of the City Hospital) and David W. Cheever, was commenced. It is an action to recover $5000 damages. On the 4th of July, 1864, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Murray, while sitting in the door-way, was shot, a ball from a pistol entering his body.

The boy was taken to the City Hospital for treatment, to have the ball removed, as the parents alleged. A few days afterwards he died from the effects of the wound. The body was opened, they state, by the defendants, without their consent, for which act the suit is brought to recover damages. The parents alleged that they expressed their willingness to have an inquest held, but none ever took place, and deny giving their assent to a post mortem examination. The answer of Drs. Cutler and Cheever is that the consent of the parties was given before the examination was made.—Trav.

[A foolish suit; for which they will not get a cent.]

EQUALITY BEFORE THE LAW IN GEORGIA.—The Newman (Ga.) Herald publishes an application to the County Ordinary for letters of administration by a colored man on the estate of a deceased friend.—This is the first instance of the kind under the law passed by the last Georgia Legislature.

— It is said that the Reconstruction Committee have finally matured a proposition in the shape of a constitutional amendment, in regard to representation, which they are willing shall go to the country. It emanated from a distinguished politician of the radical school, in the hope that it would be accepted as a compromise between the President and Congress. It has been submitted to the President by its author, and it is said he thinks well of it. [We shall see.]

Lodi Manufacturing Company's POUDRETTE.

AGENT FOR NEW HAMPSHIRE, J. F. SHORES, Jr., No. 38 Market Street (Up Stairs.)

The advantages of Poudrette as a manure may be stated as follows:

First, its Economy. The cost of the manure compared with its effects is less than that of any other fertilizer in market. It can be bought and applied for the same money which it would cost only to apply farm-yard manure. It is portable, contains great strength in a small compass, and needs no more care in its application; the closer its contact with the seed the better and quicker it works. $4.50 worth at our retail price (or two barrels) will manure an acre of corn in the hill, add from one-quarter to one-third to the product, and will mature the crop from two to three weeks earlier. No worms will stay in the hill where the Poudrette is placed. No seeds of weeds will germinate, and crows are very shy of pluckling it out of the hill. On Corn, Tobacco and Garden Vegetables it has no equal. While the leaf and growth of the Tobacco plant is large, it has not the coarseness of fibre which is produced by Peruvian Guano, and it has taken the lead for this crop in Connecticut, and has begun to be appreciated in Maryland.

It is famous for producing larger and finer potatoes than anything else, and the stories told about Onions, their large growth, &c., are almost beyond credence. Flowers and plants are much improved by an application of Poudrette.

Another great consideration is the season of the year when the corn is planted. It is a time when every spring crop must be put in, and the corn not only planted, but up and cultivated sufficiently for the last hoeing and planting, before the commencement of grass and hay harvest.—The celerity and dispatch with which a large crop of corn is put in and poudretted, the rapid growth and consequently the early opportunity of working among it—the early shade afforded for weeds, owing to the shade it affords, and the fact that the Poudrette, unlike other manures, contains no seed that can germinate, are amongst the frequently less trouble required to clean it—are all important advantages. The corn will ripen two weeks earlier, and the yield will be much greater.

The same remarks apply to Sorghum and Broom Corn.

For grass, where it is about to be laid down to lawn, or for several years, a top dressing of Poudrette will be found invaluable.

We wish to remark in conclusion, that Poudrette is not like some quack medicines, warranted to cure all kinds of diseases. It must be used with discretion, and a reasonable quantity will produce a reasonable effect.

Poudrette will answer no better than other manures on wet, sour, undrained lands, or in seasons of drought. In other words, Poudrette is an invaluable substitute for barn-yard manure, and can be used with great profit and advantage upon most spring crops, but it will not work miracles, drain the land it is put upon, nor cause rain to fall in time of drought.

Price per Barrel $2.25—delivered at any part of the city, or at any depot or wharf.

Important Notice!—When Poudrette is spoken of, we mean "LODI POUDRETTE," which has now stood the test of twenty-six years' trial; and when buying, be sure and get that kind!

A descriptive pamphlet may be had on application. mh29

The Cherokee "Cure," "Remedy," and "Injection" are to be found in all well regulated drug stores, and are recommended by physicians and druggists all over the world, for their intrinsic worth and merit. Some unprincipled dealers, however, try to deceive their customers, by selling cheap and worthless compounds, under the same name, in place of these. Be not deceived. If the druggists will not buy them for you, write to us, and we will send them to you by return mail, securely packed and free from observation. We treat all diseases to which the human system is subject, and will be pleased to receive full and explicit statements from those who have failed to receive relief heretofore. Ladies or gentlemen can address us in perfect confidence. We desire to send our three page pamphlet free to every lady and gentleman in the land. Address all letters for pamphlets, medicines, or advice, to the sole proprietor,

FARM AND FRUIT LANDS,

In a mild and healthful climate. Thirty miles south of Philadelphia by Railroad, in New Jersey, on the same line of latitude as Baltimore, Md.

Soil sandy loam, with sub-soil retentive, varying from a clay to a sandy loam, suitable for Wheat, Grass, Corn, Tobacco, Fruits and Vegetables. This is a great fruit country. Five hundred Vineyards and Orchards have been planted out by experienced fruit-growers. Grapes, Peaches, Pears, &c., produce immense profits. Vineland is already one of the most beautiful places in the United States. The entire territory, consisting of fifty square miles of land, is laid out upon a general system of improvements, with a view to the comfort of settlers with provision for public adornment. The place, on account of its great beauty, as well as other advantages, has already increased forty fold in value. It has increased five thousand people within the past three years. Churches, Stores, Schools, Academies, Societies of Art and Learning, and other elements of refinement and culture have been introduced. Hundreds of people are constantly settling in Vineland, and new houses are being constructed. Price of Farm land, twenty acre lots and upward, $25 per acre. Five and Ten acre and Village lots for sale.

Fruits and Vegetables ripen earlier in this district than in any other locality north of Norfolk, Va. Improved places for sale.

Opening for all kinds of business. Lumber Yards, Manufactories, Foundries, Stores and the like; and Steam Power, with room, can be rented. For persons who desire mild winters, a healthful climate, and a good soil, in a country beautifully improved, abounding in fruits, and possessing all other social privileges, in the heart of civilization, it is worthy of a visit.

Letters unsewered, and the Vineland Rural, a paper giving full information, and containing Reports of Solon Robinson, sent to applicants.

Address CHAS. K. LANDIS, Vineland P. O., Landis Township, New Jersey.

From Report of Solon Robinson, Agricultural Editor of The Tribune: It is one of the most extensive fertile tracts, in an almost level position and suitable condition for pleasant farming that we know of this side of the Western Prairies. nl—daw6m

FLORIDA.—The Assistant Commissioner of Freedmen for Florida writes of an important action relative to the State authorities. He called the attention of Gov. Walker to the provisions of section 12 of an act entitled "an act prescribing additional punishments for the commission of offenses against the State and for other purposes," which provides for disarming the freedmen of their private arms. He urged upon the Governor that it was unconstitutional, both as regards the United States and State Constitutions, and wishes to have the decision of competent authority in the case. The Governor hesitated, until Gen. Foster informed him that the disarming of the negroes must cease, either through civil or military action. The opinion of the Attorney General has been called for, who decided that the provision of the section were unconstitutional. He adds that the official relations between Gen. Foster, Gov. Walker and himself continue to be quite peaceful.

OVER SENSITIVE.—The proprietor of a restaurant in Blairsville, Indiana, well-to-do in the world and with no family troubles, cut his throat a few days ago because a new liquor law had been passed by the last legislature.

— It is suggested that all allanthus trees should be pruned this spring close to the roots, before the flowering season commences. Their odor imparts no health to the atmosphere.

— There is something exquisite in our countryman's reply to the European traveller, when he asked him whether he had not just crossed the Alps. "Wal, now you call my attention to the fact, I guess I passed risin' ground."

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN PATENTS.
H. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents,
Late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, Washington; under the Act of 1837.
78 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,
BOSTON.
After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe; and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.
The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.
Those, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents
Mr. H. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakeable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART
During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twelve rejected applications SIX PEER APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

Cleanse the Blood.
With corrupt, disordered or vitiated Blood, you are sick all over. It may burst out in Pimples, or Sores, or in some active disease, or it may merely keep you listless, depressed and good for nothing. But you cannot have good health while your blood is impure. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA purges out these impurities and stimulates the organs of life into vigorous action, restoring the health and vigor of manhood. It rapidly cures a variety of complaints which are caused by impurity of the blood, such as Scrofula, or King's Evil Tumors, Ulcers, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Boils, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Canker and Cancerous Tumors, Sore Eyes, Female Diseases, such as Retention, Irregularity, Suppression, Whites, Sterility, also Syphilis or Venereal Diseases, Liver Complaints, and Heart Diseases. Try AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, and see for yourself the surprising activity with which it cleanses the blood and cures these disorders.
During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Hence, bitter disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound "Sarsaparilla," and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it.—We think we have ground for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. We can only assure the sick, that we offer them the best alterative which we know how to produce, and we have reason to believe it is by far the most effectual purifier of the blood yet discovered by any body.
AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL is so universally known to surpass every other remedy for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease, that it is useless here to recount the evidence of its virtues. The world knows them.
Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass., and sold by all Druggists and Dealers in Medicine everywhere. mh9—2awsw2moo

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth N. H.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 25, 1866.

IN THE U. S. SENATE, Monday, April 23, the bill for the better organization of the pay department of the navy was passed.

The bill repealing the act to retrocede the county of Alexandria to Virginia was referred to the District Committee.

A resolution was adopted instructing the Committee on Commerce to inquire into the expediency of providing against the importation, transportation, sale or manufacture of nitro-glycerine in the United States.

The bill making appropriations for the Post Office Department coming up, there was debate on an amendment providing that in all cases in which persons have been appointed, either during the recess or session of the Senate, as assistant postmasters or other civil officials under the government, whose appointments having been submitted to the Senate have been rejected, or not consented to before the adjournment thereof, no money shall be drawn from the Treasury, or used from any fund or appropriations made or located by law to pay the salaries of such persons under such appointments, or under any previous appointment to the same office, for services rendered after said adjournment; and if any such person rejected by the Senate shall, after such adjournment, be appointed to the same office, no money shall be drawn or used as aforesaid to pay his salary until his appointment shall have been consented to by the Senate at its succeeding sessions.

This was opposed by Messrs. Johnson and Guthrie, as an encroachment upon the prerogative of the President, and advocated by Messrs. Sumner, Howe and Howard.

In the House, a joint resolution passed authorizing the President to take such measures as he deems proper to prevent the introduction of cholera or other infectious diseases into this country.

The Judiciary Committee reported adversely on the proposition of the President to modify the test oath. Ordered to be printed. It is a most able and conclusive report, showing very clearly that it ought not to be modified. [It is too long for us, and no abstract can do it justice. There is now no probability that the oath said will be modified.]

A communication was sent to the House from the War Department, respecting the collection of the remains of Union officers and soldiers killed and buried on various battlefields. The Quartermaster General says he has reported the interment of nearly 100,000, a large portion of whom it will be necessary to remove to cemeteries. One million dollars will be required to protect them from desecration, and it is recommended that a general system be adopted. Gen. Thomas has issued an order warning people against ploughing under or disturbing the graves of our dead at Atlanta.

BAD SUPPORT.—The hardest blow President Johnson's recognstruction policy has received from abroad has been in the admiring indorsement of Charles Mackay, who served the rebel interest there to the extent of his power during the war as American correspondent of the London Times. And he keeps up the semblance of consistency, too, for he says that "the reconstruction of the Union on Mr. Johnson's plan, and the consequent restoration to full validity of the old Constitution—slavery excepted—would infallibly place the conservatives in power, and hand over the government to a party in which the statesmen of the South would predominate in the future, as they predominated in the past." Mackay's opinion was never worth much, but the sympathies of such creatures are significant.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—Reports from Arkansas to the Freedmen's Bureau state that great destitution exists among the poor whites of that State, some 30,000 or 40,000 having perished from starvation. [Very big figures. Perhaps a cypher (0) too many.]

The Pacific Railroad Committee have prepared their report guaranteeing government aid to the Northern Pacific Route, and submitted it to the President Tuesday evening. The friends of the measure are sanguine of its final adoption.

Senator Dix has so far recovered as to appear in his seat in the Senate.

Maj. Gen. Sickles is appointed by the President minister to the Hague. The salary is $7500 per year.

☞ Root & Cady, Chicago, have just published "Andy's Veto," comic song and chorus, and "Lillie of the Snowstorm," song; both by Henry C. Work.

— Gen. Forrest, who killed a freedman some weeks ago in a personal encounter, has been admitted to bail, without examination, under bonds of $10,000.

— Lord Nelson and Mr. Pitt could never agree. It was told Nelson that Pitt said: "He was the greatest fool he ever knew, when on shore. "He speaks truth," said the hero, "and I would soon prove him to be a fool if I had him on board a ship; nevertheless, I am as clever an admiral as he is a statesman, which is saying a great deal for myself."

Correspondence of the Chronicle.

BOSTON, April 21, 1866.

Mr. Amos Blanchard, Jr., has been appointed Treasurer of the Boston and Maine Railroad. He has been connected with the Bank of Mutual Redemption since it was founded. The resignation of Mr. H. B. Willur was accepted a few days since. Mr. Blanchard is a gentleman of large financial experience, and will doubtless fill his new position with satisfaction to all concerned. L.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Bishop Chase is to administer confirmation, at St. Philip's Church, Epping, next Sunday.

—— The Manchester policemen recommend that all small children who play in the street, have their name on some article of clothing, say on cap or hat.

—— Mr. Clark Farrar of Keene, passed near the heels of a horse in a stable in Worcester, and received a severe kick in the bowels, causing his death about 18 hours after.

—— Wm. Spaulding, a fast young man in Manchester, borrowed and promised to buy a watch of a greenhorn, and slipped away without paying: but the police got him, and he is in jail for want of $200 bail. The watch was recovered.

—— A Brentwood correspondent of the News Letter says of a woman in that town, —Mrs. Sally Gordon, who is in her 85th year, has spun, doubled and twisted, 280 skeins of yarn, knit 5 pairs of double mittens, knit ten pairs of stockings, hoed and dug 6 bushels of potatoes, done the work and took the whole care of a large garden —also, done all of her house-work, in a neat and thorough manner—all since last July.

—— A correspondent of the News Letter, writing from East Kingston, alludes to the facts that no minister resides there, and that preaching there has been occasional and infrequent: and then says;—a religious feeling has just been awakened among the citizens, and that all may be pleased with the preacher, each citizen that may desire, has the privilege of choosing his own minister, (provided he pays for him,) and such a deep interest is felt, that fifty two Sabbaths have already been engaged, and still others feel like lending a helping hand, and are anxious to provide a Minister.

THE CAPTURED REBEL GOLD.—It will be remembered that after the surrender of Gen. Lee, the military in Georgia captured $100,000 in gold, which was claimed by the Farmers' and Exchange Bank of Virginia, at Richmond. Recent investigations show that a few weeks before the evacuation of Richmond, the Legislature of Virginia passed a law authorizing said bank to loan the Confederate Government, upon the faith of the State, $300,000 in gold to purchase supplies for Lee's army. This sum was placed by the respective banks to the credit of the rebel government, and before the surrender of Lee $60,000 was paid, leaving $240,000 belonging to the rebel government, with these banks at the time of the evacuation. The Government, therefore, claims not only the $100,000 captured in Georgia, but also the $140,000 additional in custody of the banks. This is the present condition of the question. The notes of these banks have been bought up, with the expectation that the Government would relinquish its title to the $240,000 in gold.

☞ We learn from the Portland Press that the 3d Parish in that city held a meeting for business on Monday evening, when a committee who had conferred with Rev. Mr. Walton, made a report, including resolutions. The report was accepted, and the resolutions adopted. One resolution accepts Mr. Walton's resignation [of his post as Stated Supply]; and another invites him to settle with them as their Pastor. The feeling of favor for him in the meeting was very strong, the opposition being slight. The committee deemed it best to accept the resignation and begin anew. This means, we presume, to call such a Council as will instal him; or to make him their Pastor without that form of service. The reader will remember that former councils declined to instal on account of Mr. W.'s views of doctrine.

A TIMELY SUGGESTION.—An exchange, alluding to the marked rapidity with which the leaves and buds upon fruit trees have come forward during the past week, makes the following suggestion, which is worthy the immediate attention of every man who owns a fruit tree:

Equally prompt with the leaves and buds are the worms that infest our fruit trees. They have begun to form their nests and to feed on the young foliage. With a little attention now, they can easily be found and destroyed, and we beg of every possessor of a fruit tree to declare a war of extermination upon the pests without delay. The surest way to kill them is to crush nests and worms with the hand, protected by a glove or mitten, in the morning or evening, when all are in the nest; but when on limbs that cannot be reached in this way, better cut off the limb entirely than to suffer the worms to remain and increase. We repeat it, attend to the worm nuisance at once, when a good deal in the way of destruction may be accomplished with comparatively little effort.

☞ Hon. Chas. Doe, one of the Justices of the Supreme Judicial Court, is spoken of as likely to recive the appointment of U. S. District Judge for the District of New Hamshire, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Judge Harvey. There are probably few men on the U. S. Bench of the ability and legal attainments of Judge Doe.

Hon. Dan'l Clark, present U. S. Senator, is also mentioned as a candidate for the office. So also is Hon. J. P. Hale, U. S. Minister to Spain; but as Mr. Hale says $12,000 in gold is insufficient, and as the salary of District U. S. Judge is but $2000 in greenbacks, we presume that the announcement that he is a candidate is a mistake.

☞ We are glad to notice that the College of Messrs. Worthington & Warner at Concord, continues in such a highly prosperous condition. There are now about seventy-five students in attendance, and though a number are graduating each week, the attendance does not diminish. We recommend the course of study pursued at this Institution to those of our young men who desire a practical Business Education.

ARREST OF BELLIGERENT FENIANS.—Two supposed Fenians, while crossing the bridge from Calais, Me., to St. Stephens, N. B., were turned back, being refused a passage. One of them drew a revolver and fired one shot without injuring any one.—Both were arrested at the Calais end of the bridge and afterward were handed over to the civil authorities. The affair has caused considerable excitement on both sides of the river

DEATH OF A WOMAN IN PRISON.—Mrs. Elmira Wyman of Framingham, who was committed to the East Cambridge Correction July 22, 1852, there to remain during her life for the terrible crime of arson in setting fire to a boarding school building which was occupied by several scholars and teachers in Framingham, died last Sunday. Her age was sixty-one.

— The redoubtable Wigfall of Texas and wife are in London, where they are received with great honor by the aristocratic sympathizers with the ex-rebels.

MARINE CHRONICLE.

PORT OF PORTSMOUTH.

Arr 23d, sch Willie Lee, Nash, Elizabethport. Mary Willey, Spinney, Bangor.

☞ A Louisville, Ky., dispatch of April 22, says, Kendrick Stanford killed his brother Allen in an altercation at Brandonberg on Friday.

On Friday on the Christianburg and Shelbyville Pike, Terrill and Wethers, and a number of their old comrades were seen going toward Shelbyville, which caused considerable excitement, as Terrill said he was watching for parties who, being sworn on examination as jurors at his recent trial for murder at Shelbyville, stated that they were satisfied Terrill should be hung. He says he will kill them to the last one.

— The statesman Gen. Cass is dying of softening of the brain.

— The late fire at Shaffers, Pa., was kindled by an armed mob, from 200 to 300 strong, who drove off the watchman, and then applied the torch to the oil tanks.

— The J. Monroe Taylor Gold Medal Soap is so far ahead of any and all other soaps in the market, the other manufacturers who are attempting to imitate him, need not hope to succeed. It is the only soap that has the confidence of the consumer. It is a treasure beyond value, and we heartily wish the manufacturer success, and, from its large sale, we should think he was enjoying all we wished him. 78.

Important.

DR. STEVENS, No 5 Daniel Street, would give notice that he has REDUCED the price of Permanent Sets of ARTIFICIAL TEETH on the Vulcanite Base, to that charged for them before the war.

He would also give notice that he is doing a new style of work for Under Sets of Teeth, called the COMBINATION BASE (Gold and Vulcanite) which produces by far the finest work offered to the public. The price is something in advance of that charged for the Vulcanite alone, but the strength, durability, ease of bearing, and beauty of finish obtained by it, more than double the value of the teeth. mh12

GEORGE F. WEED,

S-u-r-g-e-o-n D-e-n-t-i-s-t,

FIRST ASSISTANT in the Office of DR. STEVENS, No. 5 DANIEL STREET.

DR. WEED can be found at his place of business at all hours of the day and night, for the performance of any of the operations that come within the call of his profession.

Dr. A. P. STEVENS, No. 5 Daniel St. makes the saving of UNCRATED and painful front teeth, a speciality in his business. He also success-fully restores to their natural shape broken or badly decayed teeth, by building out corners and sides with PURE GOLD. (In many cases teeth so restored are as strong as any of their brother members, and in all cases are rendered eminently useful for a long series of years.) DISEASED TEETH, in all stages, treated, and in a very large majority of cases entire success attained.

Charges for such operations necessarily high, but nothing in comparison to the value of the teeth. mh14

Special Notices.

IMPORTANCE OF HAVING DAVIS' PAIN KILLER ALWAYS ON HAND.

Wonderful Cure of the Rev. D. L. Brayton, Missionary in India, who was stung by a Scorpion.

Extract from his letter, published in the Baptist Missionary Magazine:

"For the first time since I have been in India, I have been stung by a scorpion. I went out this morning to my exercises, as usual, at early dawn, and having occasion to use an old box, on taking off the cover I put my hand on a scorpion, which immediately resented the insult by thrusting its sting into the palm of my hand. The instantaneous and severe pain which darted through the system is quite incredible; what an awfully virulent poison their sting must contain! I FLEW TO MY BOTTLE OF DAVIS' PAIN KILLER, and found it to be true to its name: after a moment's relief, I saturated a small piece of sponge, bound it on my hand, and went about my exercises, feeling no more particular inconvenience.

Perry's Moth and Freckle Lotion.

☞ Chloasma, or Mothpatch, (also called Liver-spot,) and Lentigo, or Freckles, are often very annoying, particularly to ladies of light complexion, for the discolored spots show more plainly on the face of a blonde than of a brunette; but they greatly mar the beauty of either and any preparation that will effectually remove them, without injuring the texture or color of the skin, is certainly a desideratum. DR. B. C. PERRY, who has made diseases of the skin a speciality, has discovered a remedy for these discolorations, which is at once prompt, infallible and harmless.

Prepared by B. C. PERRY, Dermatologist, No. 49 Bond street, New York, and for sale by all druggists: price $2 per bottle. Call for PERRY'S MOTH & FRECKLE LOTION.

MAGGIEL'S

Spring and Summer Remedies.

"Great oaks from little acorns grow." The worst diseases known to the human race spring from causes so small as to almost defy detection. The volumes of scientific lore that fill the tables and shelves of the medical fraternity only go to prove and elaborate this fact. Then guard yourselves while you may. The smallest pimple on the skin is a tell tale and indicator of disease. It may lead you far away from the surface of the body, but it will reach the vitals, perhaps, at last, and death be the result and final close. MAGGIEL'S BITTERS, DYSPEPTIC and DIARRHŒA PILLS cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts, and all abrasions of the skin, MAGGIEL'S SALVE is infallible. Sold by J. BRANDRETH'S PILLS. COSTIVENESS, DIARRHEA.—They are taken up by the absorbents, and carried into the circulation, through which medium they are conveyed to every part of the body.

If the pain affects the joints, a single dose produces remarkable benefit. And the same rule applies to costiveness, diarrhea and dysentery; though with the last named they may be required night and morning for some days before decided relief is obtained. In affections of the lungs, throat, head and pleurisy, the relief is certain; the excretory organs throw off with ease the phlegm, and the breathing becomes freer. Spasmodic asthma is often cured by a single dose. mch28dawlm

MR. BARNABEE'S CONCERT, at the Temple, Monday evening, was a grand success—in fact, almost like an ovation to some "conquering hero"—and shows that a singer (not to mention the profit) may not always be without honor even in his own country. The audience, despite the storm, was large; and the performances, especially the comicalities of the inimitable Barnabee himself, were enthusiastically received.

The quartet of singers was fine. Mr. Prescott, though not much of an actor, and rather vexatiously confined to his notes always, has a nice voice and executes well. Miss Adams, soprano, pleased highly, with her sweet and pure vocalism, and her ready and assured manner. Miss Annie Carey, contralto, (who is often confounded with Mrs. Cary,) charmed everybody; and Barnabee's bass songs were so well received, that we hardly know whether he and Miss Carey appeared oftener in the regular programme, as laid down, or in encore pieces.

One of the most comic things Mr. B. did was to come on the stage in acknowledgement of tumultuous and long continued "applause," and read a handful of "requests which had been passed to him," to sing three or four special pieces—two of which he did bring down the house with. This obliging a performer to give twice as much of a concert as he agrees to, is denounced by some people—but we don't propose to waste our time in any such reform; and shall only remark that Miss Adams, on this and a former similar occasion when she appeared here, acknowledged the noisy compliments of the audience, by simply appearing and bowing to them. Mr. Dow, as accompanist, is always very acceptable, at the piano.

We understand that this quartet are to give several concerts in different cities, and their can be no question of their reception or success. Certainly Mr. Barnabee can always count on a good audience in Portsmouth whenever he will favor us.

☞ The Kindergarten School, (see advertisement in another column,) a notice of which was given a few days ago, Miss Haley teacher, will open on Monday morning next in the Vestry of the Universalist Church. This is only a temporary arrangement, and the school will be removed to a more central room as soon as one can be obtained. We heartily recommend this school for young children from 2 years of age and upward, to all parents who desire instruction made pleasant and natural. For particulars of terms, hours, studies, &c., inquire of Miss Haley, No. 9 Richards Avenue. Miss Haley refers by permission to Rev. James DeNormandie and Joseph H. Foster, Esq.

POLICE COURT, April 24.—Ann A. Briggs, for disobedience to parents, was placed under $200 bonds to appear before the court on the 28th of May, with the privilege of leaving the city before that date.

Robert Hughes, for being drunk, was fined $3 and costs. The sentence was remitted on condition that he departed from our municipal limits.

☞ In the Supreme Judicial Court at Exeter, Charles N. Clifford and Patrick Sheehan, for highway robbery on Market street in this city, were sentenced to ten years in State Prison, and one day solitary confinement.

Almira L. Bruce, for the larceny of an overcoat from Morris Kichler, was sentenced to two years in State Prison.

John Penman and James Welch, for attempting to break out of the Station House in this city, was sentenced to forty days in the County Jail.

JOHN S. BANKS.—The trial of this notorious young man, charged with knocking down and robbing Alonzo F. Craig on the Portsmouth Bridge, was concluded at Exeter on Monday afternoon at 6 o'clock and given to the jury: they remained out until half past 8 Tuesday morning, when they came into court stating that they could not agree, and were discharged. It is understood that the jury were seven for conviction and five for acquittal. Banks is still held under bail of $1000 for trial at the next term of the court, to be holden in this city in October next. Messrs. Hatch and Frink defended Banks.

☞ It will be seen that Dr. Lamb, of Portland, who makes Erysipelas and other Humors a specialty, is to visit this city, and may be found at the Franklin House for this day (Wednesday) only.

Communication.

"When there's a will, there's always a way." Never was this proverb better illustrated than by the very narrow way taken to evade the explicit vote of the Board of Aldermen. But we let the subject drop.

INQUIRER.

☞ Tuesday, April 24th, was the anniversary of the second battle of New Orleans; and the event was noticed in this city by raising flags, and at the Navy Yard by appropriate social festivities.

Notice.

THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD.

DR. MAGGIEL'S

PILLS AND SALVE.

These Life-giving remedies are now, for the first time, given publicly to the world. For over a quarter of a century of private practice the ingredients in these

Life-giving Pills!

Have been used with the greatest success. Their mission is not only to prevent disease, but to cure. They search out the various maladies by which the patient is suffering, and re-invigorate the failing system. To the aged and infirm a few doses of these valuable PILLS will prove to be

A Very Fountain of Youth,

For in every case they add new life and vitality, and restore the vanished energies to their pristine state. To the young and middle aged, they will prove most invaluable, as a ready, specific, and sterling medicine. Here is a dream realized, that Ponce-de-Leon sought for three hundred years ago, and never found. He looked for a fountain that would restore the old to youth and make youth ever

AN ETERNAL SPRING!

It was left for this day and hour to realize the dream, and show, in one glorious fact, the magic that made it fair.

These Famous Remedies

Cannot stay the flight of years, but they can force back, and hold aloof, diseases that might triumph over the aged and the young. Let none hesitate then, but seize the favorable opportunity that offers. When taken as prescribed—

FOR BILIOUS DISORDERS

Nothing can be more productive of cure than these Pills. Their almost magic influence is felt at once; and the usual concomitants of this most distressing disease are removed. These remedies are made from the purest

VEGETABLE COMPOUNDS.

They will not harm the most delicate female, and can be given with good effect in prescribed doses to the youngest babe.

For Cutaneous Disorders

And all eruptions of the skin, the SALVE is most invaluable. It does not heal externally alone, but penetrates with the most searching effects to the very root of the evil.

WHICH IS THE
Leading Life Insurance Comp'y
IN THE UNITED STATES?
Which is the Safest and the Cheapest?

The following figures are from the later Reports of the New York Insurance Commissioner, showing the "amount of business" of the

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

to be the largest, the "expenses of management" the smallest, the "ratio of Assets to Liabilities," or the security furnished to its members, the largest of any like institution in the country.

Premiums received in 1864.....$2,089,072
" " " 1865.....3,029,087
Ratio of expenses to premiums rec'd in '64..12.96
" " " " " '65..12 10
Ratio of assets to liabilities, Jan. 1, 1865....121.85

The inevitable conclusion from these official facts, is that the

MUTUAL BENEFIT LIFE
Insurance Company
IS THE BEST AND THE CHEAPEST.

Because its NET ASSETS are proportionably LARGER than those of any other Life Insurance Company in the United States.

Because its "Managing Expenses" are LESS, and it has a LARGER SURPLUS to divide among its members than any Company in the United States.

QUERY. Will some one inform the public of that mysterious process by which a Company with a surplus proportionably much less, and expenses very much larger than another, can yet divide more to its members, and insure them at less cost? How is it done? Where does the money come from?

Every intelligent man will see at once that it cannot be done. Yet we have Agents among us that make this their boast.

Any one disposed or intending to insure can be furnished with the requisite information by applying to

Morning Chronicle.

REWARD FAITHFUL SERVANTS.—It is of the highest importance (says the Commonwealth) that the well-doing of Congress should be recognized and rewarded by the people. In no way can this be more satisfactorily and gratefully done than by returning, by the unanimous consent of nominating conventions, those faithful men of the present Congress who are willing again to serve their constituents. The quiet, warm season of the recess is the period when the plans are usually matured that eventuate in the choice of candidates for the fall elections and it is of the highest importance that public intention should be directed during this period towards those friends who deserve well of the country for their fidelity and courage. At the best, there are many deserving members of the present Congress whom we must make up our minds to lose, from the closeness of their districts, or from the inevitable opposition of the President, even now partially foreshadowed. What we urge is that no unnecessary sacrifices be allowed through the apathy of friends or from minor considerations of the ability of representatives. A friend in Ohio writes on this subject:—"Our district has been conducted on the two term principle. The President's minions, if the people consent to change now, will succeed in foisting upon our conventions men of easy virtue, and who hate the negro." We may rely upon it the President's hand will be recognized, after the adjournment of Congress, in manipulating the Congressional districts in view of the fall elections. The House of Representatives of the next Congress he is determined to have, if possible and, securing that, he will greatly influence the second session of the present Congress. We again urge all friends of the sitting members to look well to their deserts, and see that they are bestowed.

Lodi Manufacturing Company's POUDRETTE.

AGENT FOR NEW HAMPSHIRE,
J. F. SHORES, Jr.,
No. 38 Market Street (Up Stairs.)

The advantages of Poudrette as a manure may be stated as follows:

First, its ECONOMY. The cost of the manure compared with its effects is less than that of any other fertilizer in market. It can be bought and applied for the same money which it would cost only to apply farm-yard manure. It is portable, contains great strength in a small compass, and needs no extra care in its application; the closer its contact with the seed, the better and quicker it works. $4.50 worth at our retail price (or two barrels) will manure an acre of corn in the hill, add from one-quarter to one-third to the product, and will mature the crop from two to three weeks earlier. No worms will stay in the hill where the Poudrette is placed. No seeds of weeds will germinate, and crops are very shy of plucking it out of the hill. On Corn, Tobacco and Garden Vegetables it has no equal. While the leaf and growth of the Tobacco plant is large, it has not the coarseness of fibre which is produced by Peruvian Guano, and it has taken the lead for this article in Connecticut, and has begun to be appreciated in Maryland.

It is famous for producing larger and finer potatoes than anything else, and the stories told about Onions, their large growth, &c., are almost beyond credence. Flowers and plants are much improved by an application of Poudrette.

Another great consideration is the season of the year when the corn is planted. It is a time when every spring crop must be planted, and the corn not only planted, but up and grown sufficiently for the last hoeing and planting, before the commencement of July, in the Northern States. The celerity and dispatch with which a large crop of corn is put in and poudretted, the rapid growth of the plant consequent on the opportunity of working among it—the small chance for weeds, owing to the shade it affords, and the fact that the poudrette, mellows the soil to a greater degree seed that can germinate, and consequently less trouble required to clean it—are all important advantages. The corn will ripen two weeks earlier, and the yield will be much heavier.

The same remarks apply to Sorghum and Broom Corn.

For grass, where it is about to be laid down to lawn, or for several years, a top dressing of Poudrette will be found invaluable.

We wish to remark in this place, that Poudrette is not like some quack medicines, warranted to cure all kinds of diseases, it must be used with discretion, and a reasonable quantity will produce a reasonable effect.

Poudrette will answer no better than other manure on wet, sour, undrained land, or in seasons of drought. In other words, Poudrette is an invaluable substitute for farm-yard manure, and can be used with great profit and advantage upon most spring crops, but it will neither work miracles, drain the land it is put upon, nor cause it to fall in time of drought.

Price per Barrel $2.25—delivered at any part of the city, or at any depot or wharf.

Important Notice!—When Poudrette is spoken of, we mean "LODI POUDRETTE," which has now stood the test of twenty-six years' trial; and when buying, be sure and get the kind!

A descriptive pamphlet may be had on application. mh19

VINELAND
FARM AND FRUIT LANDS,

In a mild and healthful climate. Thirty miles south of Philadelphia by Railroad, in New Jersey, on the same line of latitude as Baltimore, Md.

The soil is rich and productive, varying from a clay to a sandy loam, suitable for Wheat, Grass Corn, Tobacco, Fruits and Vegetables. This is a great fruit country. Five hundred Vineyards and Orchards have been planted out by experienced fruit-growers. Grapes, Peaches, Pears, &c., produce immense profits. Vineland is already one of the most beautiful places in the State of New Jersey. The entire territory, consisting of fifty square miles of land, is laid out upon a general system of improvement. The land is only offered to actual settlers with provision for public adornment. The place, on account of its great beauty, as well as other advantages, has become the stem of pipe of taste. It has increased five thousand people within the past three years. Churches, Stores, Schools, Academies, Societies of Art and Learning, and other elements of refinement and culture have been introduced. Hundreds of people are constantly settling. Hundreds of new houses are being constructed. Price of Farm land, twenty acre lots and upward, $25 per acre. Five and ten acre lots at proportionate rates.

Fruits and Vegetables ripen earlier in this district than in any other locality north of Norfolk, Va., by a month. Improved places for sale.

Opening for all kinds of business. Lumber Yards, Manufactories, Foundries, Stores and the like; and Steam Power, with shops, to be rented.

Our peaches ripen a month before those of Delaware, and harmony and kindness are the ruling principles in this paradise of civilization, it is worthy of a visit.

Letters answered, and the Vineland Rural, a paper giving full information, and containing Reports of Solon Robinson, sent to applicants.

Address CHAS. K. LANDIS, Vineland P. O., Landis Township, New Jersey.

From Report of Solon Robinson, Agricultural Editor of The Tribune: It is one of the most extensive fertile tracts, in an almost level position, and such able condition for pleasant farming that we know of this side of the Western Prairies. nl—dawGm

TRAGIC FATE OF A FAITHLESS BANK CLERK.—A few nights ago the captain of a ship, lying at a pier in New York, was aroused by a noise, and saw a man standing over him with a revolver, saying if he moved he was a dead man! The captain lay quiet and the fellow backed out of the cabin. As soon as he reached the deck the captain sprang from his berth, and seizing his revolver rushed up the stairs. The man was just about climbing up the wharf, when he fired, shooting him dead on the spot. An examination of the body proved it to be that of a clerk in the bank where the captain was in the habit of depositing his funds, and on the day of the attempted robbery had drawn out quite a large sum, which was known to the clerk, and to obtain which, the robbery which cost him his life was attempted.

—The proper authorities in New York, under the new license law, have prohibited grocers and apothecaries from selling liquor as a beverage.—Exchange.

[What does this item mean?—Does it mean that they must not have the liquor drank in the store? This is probable. But to sell liquor—and not sell it as a beverage—amounts to nothing: for the buyer, having bought it "as a medicine"—may drink it as a beverage.]

—In Lawrence, on Wednesday, John M. Lynch, an Irishman, about thirty-five years old, a stone cutter, at work on the Turnpike bridge over the canal, while descending a ladder to pick up a hammer, slipped and fell into the canal. It is not known whether he struck his head against the wall, but when taken out a few minutes after, he was dead.

Cleanse the Blood.
With corrupt, disordered or vitiated Blood, you are sick all over. It may burst out in Pimples, or Sores, or in some active disease, or it may merely keep you listless, depressed and good for nothing. But you cannot have good health while your blood is impure. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA purges out these impurities and stimulates the organs of life into vigorous action, restoring the health and expelling disease. Hence it rapidly cures such complaints as these, which are caused by impurity of the blood, such as Scrofula, or King's Evil, Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Boils, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Cancer or Cancerous Tumors, Sore Eyes, Female Diseases, such as Retention, Irregularity, Suppression, Whites, Sterility, also Syphilis or Venereal Diseases, Liver Complaints, and Heart Diseases. Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and see for yourself the surprising activity with which it cleanses the blood and cures these disorders.
During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Hence, bitter disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound "Sarsaparilla," and intend to supply such a remedy as shall deserve the name from the lips of those who may which rests upon it.—We think we have ground for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. We can only assure the sick, that we offer them the best alterative which we know how to produce, and we have reason to believe it is by far the most effectual purifier of the blood yet discovered by any body.
AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL is so universally known to surpass every other remedy for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease, that it is useless here to recount the evidence of its virtues. The world knows them.
Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER & Co., Lowell, Mass., and sold by all Druggists and Dealers in Medicine everywhere. mh9—2aw&2moeo

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth N. H.

THURSDAY, APRIL 26, 1866.

☞ Several papers are publishing a little scrap, from a sermon of H. W. Beecher, to show that he should not be claimed as a Universalist. The pith of the quotation is in these lines:

"If a man says to me—Do you believe in future punishment? I have to say, I do."

Well: thousands of Universalists have believed and do believe the same;—from Winchester, Chauncey and Haven down to the present hour; and some such are found, probably in every one of their churches. Mr. B., we suppose, should not be so claimed,—but his belief in future punishment is no bar to the claim. All who believe that God will finally restore all men to holiness and happiness may be so claimed, whatever name they bear.

IN THE U. S. SENATE, Tuesday April 21, Mr. Sherman introduced a bill to reorganize the clerical force of the Interior Department. Referred to a special committee.

Mr. Sherman, reported the Consular and Diplomatic Appropriation bill; also the House bill authorizing the coining of five-cent pieces. Also a Public Public Printing Deficiency bill, appropriating $60,000 which was passed.

THE HOUSE was employed on the Army Bill, and the Provost Marshal's bureau was called in question. A letter from General Grant was read, in which he says: "I think there is no necessity for a Provost Marshal. The country would be as well and much more economically served if the Coast Survey were added to the Engineer's Bureau, and if the Quartermaster's, Subsistence and Pay Departments were merged into one."

After debate and sundry motions, Mr. Stevens moved a new section, providing that the Provost Marshal's Bureau shall be sustained only so long as in the judgement of the Secretary of War it is necessary to close up the business thereof, not exceeding six months from the passage of this act.—This was adopted.

☞ Beadle's Monthly is improving.—The contents of the May number are of a decidedly entertaining character, and the magazine is destined to meet with success as a repository of light literature. "Bummers in Sherman's Army,"—an illustrated article, is a new sketch of a subject which has been treated by others; but it is fresh in composition, and has some fine points.—Published by Beadle & Co., New York. Twenty-five cents per number. Batchelder has it.

NEWBURY.—Our Newbury friends seem disposed to abandon the raising of children, as an unprofitable crop, as they almost invariably leave the parent nest as soon as fledged, to seek their fortunes abroad. In the "Farms" district the school has been discontinued for want of pupils, while in the "Scotland" district it depends upon the weather and the state of the roads whether the school, which is taught in a private house, has one or two scholars. The sturdy yeomanry of that good old town will have to send to Ireland for recruits.—Newburyport Herald.

CONTENTED.—One of the most truly contented expressions I ever know was that which fell from the lips of a dying minister. He was asked whether he wished to recover or not. He replied,—

"Really, my friend, I do not care which. If I die, I shall be with God; if I live, God will be with me."

ECONOMY.—The Biddeford Union reports a new reason in favor of Johnson's first veto message. An economical Democratic chap somewhere near Saco says he thinks the President was right. It was too costly an undertaking. There are four million freed negroes, and he rejoices that "Andy has set down his foot agin' giving every nigger a bureau."

— The prospect for a large crop of fruit in the Southern States is very good—better than for years past—the peaches only being hurt by frost, but not materially injured.

— Several clergyman of the Church of England have recently published their disbelief in the eternal punishment of the wicked.

— Col. J. B. Kinsman, who has been on the staff of Gen. Butler, has been ordered to visit Texas, to investigate and report as to the management of the Freedmen's Bureau there.

— Thomas Jefferson, when Minister to France, being presented at Court, some eminent functionary remarked, "You replace Dr. Franklin, sir?" "I succeed Dr. Franklin," was Mr. Jefferson's prompt reply; "no man can replace him."

— "Well, farmer, you told us your place was a good place for hunting; now we have tramped it for three hours, and found no game." "Just so," said the farmer; "as a general thing, the less game there is the more hunting you have."

— The politeness of Charles II. was remarkable, and he could convey a rebuke in the style of a wit and a gentleman. When William Penn stood before him with hat on, the king put off his. "Friend Charles," said Penn, "why dost thou not keep on thy hat?" "'Tis the custom of this place," replied the monarch, "that only one person be covered at a time.

CHANGE OF VIEWS.—Gen. Hawley, the Governor elept of Connecticut, has received a congratulatory letter from one who served as a colonel in the rebel army, and was formerly a great slaveholder, but is now sincerely reconstructed. Of this letter the general has published the subjoined extract:

"The anxiety felt by myself, and, indeed, all true friends of the Union, was intense; and as the time drew near I felt as though scarcely any sacrifice would be too great to insure success. Your election is a triumph of constitutional nationality and universal freedom over sectional partizanship. * * The proclamation of the President is a 'brutum fulmen.' Twelve months of Freedmen's Bureau will give you success to the National party. I am for the Nation; and I find that the secessionists are with the Democrats of the North, and the Copperheads with the Democrats. I see that the men who attempted to destroy the country are not with you; therefore I conclude that your party desires to preserve it."

This is sound reasoning. The true national party is that which carried the country through the war, not that made up altogether of Copperheads and rebel sympathizers, with the addition of a very few deserters from the Union organization.—Exch.

MEXICO.—Vera Cruz dates of the 5th state that Col. Dupree had defeated the Liberals under Delargisa in Tamaulipas. The Imperial cause was prosperous in Chihuahua. The Indians had secured for the Imperials the districts of Abslo and Guerrino. Matamoras has pronounced for the Empire and taken "Conception" as its name. It is now garrisoned with Indians. The defence of Pasos by 70 Imperialists against 150 Liberals is highly commended.

Mexican reports are very much mixed, everything depending upon the credibility possessed by correspondents. Those inclined towards the Liberal side assert that in the recent battles near Mazatlan the Imperialists were totally routed, while Consul Guillon asserts that the reports are absolutely false.

FROM NEW ORLEANS.—Gen. Canby has refused to permit the issuance of writs of habeas corpus to Treasury cotton agents charged with frauds upon the Government.

The crevasses below the city are widening, and the Levee Commissioners are making an effort to stop the flood. The flood above is also increasing.

— "What's that ar a picture on?" asked a countyman in a print store the other day of the proprietor, who was turning some engravings. "That, sir, is Joshua commanding the sun to stand still." "Du tell! Which is Josh and which is his son?"

— Columbus (Miss.) Index complains that recently in that city "several freedwomen, dressed in the latest fashion, drew up in their carriages before some of our principal stores, and called the clerks to bring out certain goods for their inspection."

— It is perhaps a little too soon to mention the matter, but as over half of the silver quarter dollars in circulation before the war were bogus, it will be well to remember this fact when they again become fashionable as pocket pieces.

— Gen. Howard has issued an order giving the existing laws on marriage in Maryland, Virginia and the District of Columbia, and urging his agents to insure reform among the freed people in regard to the marriage relation.

— A Mrs. Callahan, residing in the South Village, Webster, Mass., died recently, of dropsy, having suffered for several years. Her physician states that he has performed a surgical operation on her 24 times, and has drawn from her 780 pounds, or about 10 barrels of water.

— During the last two weeks "eight hour" bills have been befeated in the Massachusetts, New York and New Jersey Legislatures, lost in Ohio by disagreement between the two houses on minor amendments, and passed in one house of the Pennsylvania Legislature.

— At Bowling Green, Ky., considerable excitement exists about a murder committed by a negro. The Sheriff arrested the murderer, when a mob attempted to rescue and hang him. A few soldiers came to the assistance of the Sheriff, and he has telegraphed to Louisville for more.

— A Washington dispatch says official advices received from Commodore Rogers state that he, in conjunction with the British admiral, have protested against the bombardment of Valparaiso by the Spanish fleet, and that ample time will be given for the removal of neutral property and the women and children. In case of refusal they will resist the bombardment with force. The Commodore has the double-turreted monitor Monadnock and five other ships of war with him.

— The Commissioner of Agriculture has received advices from Macon, Georgia, in reference to planting the cotton crop, stating that the planters generally were in the midst of planting, but that an area will be planted this season somewhat smaller than usual, owing to a wide prevailing fear among planters that the seed has lost much of its vitality by lying four or five years in gin houses. Many planters have been compelled to plant over from this cause, thus losing two weeks of the best cotton growing season.

Correspondence of the Chronicle.

BOSTON, April 24.

Editors Chronicle:—Boston is treading close upon the heels of Philadelphia and New York in the magnitude of its Book trade. This business has assumed prodigious proportions within a few years, and has increased fifty per cent. since the close of the war. Book publishers lost largely at the spring trade sales, but nothing daunted, they are entering with augmented vigor and ambition upon fresh enterprises. Ticknor & Fields will publish twenty-eight new books this season. Their trade is enormous. Why, it would seem that the management of two Monthlies and a Weekly might be about as much as one house could comfortably attend to. The Atlantic now has a circulation of 50,000, Our Young Folks 60,000, and Every Saturday 20,000.

J. E. Tilton & Co. have several new books in press—one by E. S. Rand, Jr., the well-known landscape gardener, on Flowers of the Garden and Greenhouse, which will be magnificently illustrated. Roberts Brothers,—Walker, Fuller & Co.,—Lee & Shepard,—and Little, Brown & Co., are busily preparing to issue new publications, and nearly one hundred different works will emanate the ensuing season from Boston publishing houses alone. Books have been fearfully high for the past three years, but lovers of literature may reasonably expect soon to be able to purchase reading matter at greatly reduced prices.

It is claimed that Boston is growing, which is only just within the pale of truth. New York is tapping and sapping the "Hub" with affrighting effect—reminding one of the unfortunate fly entangled in the meshes of a spider's web. It was an unlucky day for Boston when her first "branch house" was established in great Gotham. Since then these "branches" have multiplied amazingly, until they have now become the thrifty, fruit-bearing orchard, while the parent trees have grown old, mossy and unprolific. What is Boston coming to? She will of course long retain considerable commercial importance; but that she has reached the zenith of her prosperity and influence, there is indubitable evidence.

The municipal authorities are bestirring themselves about removing cholera-breeding filth from within the city limits, and many a "dead horse" do they find, even in superficially sanitary localities. If any large city in the land escapes the threatened pestilence, it will in all probability be Boston.

Mr. John W. Crafts, who came to his end this morning in so horrible a manner, has insurance upon his life to the remarkable amount of $83,000—he having effected $10,000 of this extraordinary sum only week before last. READER.

☞ Last Friday night, about 1 o'clock, fire broke out in a large storehouse on Indian Island, N B., owned by R. Burns, Esq., of Eastport. It was entirely consumed, together with two more storehouses, belonging to Captain Kay of Indian Island. Mr. Burns' loss is estimated at $5500, on which he had no insurance. The fire was set by incendiaries—some say by Fenians, while others believe it was done by the inhabitants of the island to destroy a lot of liquors in the storehouses.

☞ The Roxbury (Mass.) "Journal" calls the refusal of the President to hold discussion with Frederic Douglass "a case of shrewdness" and says, "It was eminently discreet in the in the President to discountenance argument on the part of Fred. Douglass in their interview last week. Douglass would have floored him in reasoning from such premises as he laid down, in five minutes, and the spectacle would not have been one that the nation could witness with pride, even if it had in it edification."

☞ Tuesday morning in South Boston, John W. Crafts, pork dealer, went to his place of business about half-past seven, and soon afterward while throwing a piece of pork over a bench, brought his right groin in contract with a large knife, the point of which protruded over the counter, and severed an artery. The man bled to death in five minutes.

☞ The latest news from Europe shows an unsettled condition of the Continental Powers, Austria, Prussia, Italy, &c. These things, and a great supply, caused a decline of a penny on the pound of cotton in England.

☞ At Louisville, Ky., April 24, a writ of habeas corpus was served on Gen. Davis on behalf of Isham Henderson. Gen. Davis refused to obey the writ, in accordance with instructions from Gen. Thomas.

☞ Gen. Meade says the capture of the vessel containing Fenian arms, at Eastport, prevented a formidable invasion of New Brunswick.

— A sensitive Virginian writes to the Richmond Examiner in much indignation, because, having occasion to ride by rail from Pittsburgh to that city, he found himself in the car which contained "three or four negroes among the ladies and gentlemen," and says if such is to be the the case in future, he "will never travel again on Southern railroads."

— At Tidioute, Penn., one day last week, a little girl attempted, during the absence of her mother, to start a fire in the stove. Remembering what she had seen others do, but knowing nothing of the quantity, she threw a quart of crude oil into the stove, and at once set the house flames. Her father, a helpless invalid, was literally roasted alive.

— Gold Medal Saleratus is making a great sensation among consumers, as they find their health depends upon its use. It will strengthen weak stomachs, cures dyspepsia, save one-half in the quantity of shortening, make one-eighth more Bread, Cakes or Biscuit from the barrel of flour, and withal is perfectly healthy. Try it. The Grocers and Druggists sell it. Depot 112 Liberty street, New York. 79

Important.
DR. STEVENS, No 5 Daniel Street, would give notice that he has REDUCED the price of Permanent Sets of ARTIFICIAL TEETH on the Vulcanite Base, to that charged for them before the war.

He would also give notice that he is doing a new style of work for Under Sets of Teeth, called the COMBINATION BASE (Gold and Vulcanite) which produces by far the finest work offered to the public. The price is something in advance of that charged for the Vulcanite alone, but the strength, durability, ease of bearing, and beauty of finish obtained by it, more than double the value of the Teeth. mh12

GEORGE F. WEED,
Surgeon Dentist,
FIRST ASSISTANT in the Office of DR. STEVENS, No. 5 DANIEL STREET.
DR. WEED can be found at his place of business at all hours of the day and night, for the performance of any of the operations that come within the call of his profession.

Dr. A. P. STEVENS, No. 5 Daniel St., makes the saving of DECAYED and painful front teeth, a specialty in his business. He also successfully restores to their natural shape broken or badly decayed teeth, by building out corners and sides with PURE GOLD. (In many cases teeth so restored are as strong as any of their brother members, and in all cases are rendered eminently useful for a long series of years.) DISEASED TEETH, in all stages, treated, and in a very large majority of cases entire success attained.

Charges for such operations necessarily high, but nothing in comparison to the value of the Teeth. moh14

IMPORTANCE OF HAVING DAVIS' PAIN KILLER ALWAYS ON HAND.

Wonderful Cure of the Rev. D. L. Brayton, Missionary in India, who was stung by a Scorpion.

Extract from his letter, published in the Baptist Missionary Magazine:

"For the first time since I have been in India, I have been stung by a scorpion. I went out this morning to my exercises, as usual, at early dawn, and having occasion to use an old box, on taking off the cover I put my hand on a scorpion, which immediately resented the insult by thrusting its sting into the palm of my hand. The instantaneous and severe pain which darted through the system is quite incredible; what an awfully virulent poison their sting must contain! I gave no sc ORPIONS DAVIS' PAIN KILLER, and found it to be true to its name; after a moment's relief, I saturated a small piece of sponge, bound it on my hand, and went about my exercises, feeling no more particular inconvenience.

Perry's Moth and Freckle Lotion.
☞ Chloasma, or Mothpatch, (also called Liver-spot,) and Lentigo, or Freckles, are often very annoying, particularly to ladies of light complexion, for the discolored spots show more plainly on the face of a blonde than of a brunette; but they greatly mar the beauty of either and any preparation that will effectually remove them, without injuring the texture or color of the skin, is certainly a desideratum. Dr. B. C. PERRY, who has made diseases of the skin a specialty, has discovered a remedy for these discolorations, which is at once prompt, infallible and harmless.

Prepared by B. C. PERRY, Dermatologist, No. 49 Bond Street, New York, and for sale by all druggists: price $2 per bottle. Call for PERRY'S MOTH & FRECKLE LOTION.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS. COSTIVENESS, DIARRHEA.—They are taken up by the absorbents, and carried into the circulation, through which medium they are conveyed to every part of the body.

If the pain affects the joints, a single dose produces remarkable benefit. And the same rule applies to costiveness, diarrhea and dysentery; though with the last named they may be required night and morning for some days before decided relief is obtained. In affections of the lungs, throat, head and pleurisy, the relief is certain; the excretory organs throw off with ease the phlegm, and the breathing becomes freer. Spasmodic asthma is often cured by a single dose. mch28dawlm

☞ The Rockingham Base Ball Club of this city was organized on Tuesday evening by the choice of the following officers for the ensuing year: President, Frank W. Rhoades; Vice President, Joseph Hiller Foster; Secretary, Fred. L. Dodge; Treasurer, Wm. W. Henderson; Directors, William W. Palfrey, Chas. A. Shannon, and Thos. E. O. Marvin. The Club is composed of many of our best citizens, and has now about forty active members, some of whom are experienced players. We learn that they have secured the use of a piece of pasture land near Middle street, owned by Dr. Rundlett, who very kindly offered the same free of expense. Regular field exercise will commence about the first of May.

☞ In our report of sentences in the S. J. Court the types made us say "Almira L. Bruce," when we meant to have stated that Alma L. Bruce was sentenced to two years in State Prison for stealing an overcoat from Morris Kichler.

By the way, this sitting of the court is doing our city great service by ridding it of some of our worst characters, and the police force deserve the thanks of our public for the efforts they have made in this direction.

☞ Mr. E. A. Joy, for several years teacher of the Gravelly Ridge School in this city, in which position he has given good satisfaction—has resigned the charge on account of insufficient salary, and because he prefers a school of higher grade. We hope Mr. Joy will not leave the city.

☞ At the first race in the regatta at Portland Wednesday morning—single sculls—four boats—Walter Brown was the winner.

☞ The last new hair dressing is the "O'Mahony Pomade"—so called because it is a grand head-scenter.

They started via the Baltimore Railroad, but the police report that already half of them are back again.

— The Petersburg (Va.) Express has information direct from Toronto, Canada, that John C. Breckinridge is residing there. "Care is making its mark on his face. His hair, which four years ago was as black as jet, is now hoary. He is very weary of exile, and is anxious to return to home and friends."

— There is now a pretty little steamer on the Thames which runs ten miles an hour without paddle wheel or screw. She takes in water well forward, and expels it aft under each quarter, and can steer without her rudder, and can stop in less than her length when going at full speed. All of her machinery is under water.

— Noah Saunders, night-watchman at the Windsor, Conn., bridge, was struck and instantly killed by the express train from New York Sunday evening. It is supposed that he was partially asleep when the train approached, and being suddenly aroused, became confused and stepped upon the track only a few feet ahead of the engine.

— The papers through the country are hunting up all sorts of lively patriarchs, and foreign readers of our journals must conclude that here is the land for length of days. The latest instances we have seen is that of Jordan Jones of Huntsville, Illinois, who has passed his hundred and fourth year, but splits rails and goes to mill with a sack of corn on his shoulder.

Holloway's Pills and Ointment.—Dropsy.—The action of these remedies on the blood, checks the too rapid effusion of the watery humors into the absorbents, and by equalizing the flow of the secretions, renders the disease comparatively inactive, the Ointment penetrating through the pores of the skin, drains by evaporation the serum collected in the cellular tissue and ultimately performs a radical cure. The Pills purify the blood and strengthen the digestive organs. Sold by all Druggists. ad1—1w

"GOT THE BLUES."—How often do we hear this complaint made. The reason generally ascribed is that something has gone wrong, but if you will question the patient in regard to health, habits, &c., you will very often find that indigestion is the prime cause; the intimacy of the brain and stomach is very close, and nothing so sours the feelings and disposition as dyspepsia. It is a singular fact that most suicides are dyspeptics. If our nourishment is properly digested, the brain is free and unoppressed, and will solve our troubles, pointing out sunshine ahead and inclining us to look on the bright side of life; thus it is our duty to guard against this monster—indigestion—and we know of nothing so potent to assist digestion as Coe's Dyspepsia Cure. It has cured some very bad cases of dyspepsia of even ten or fifteen years' standing.

WHICH IS THE
Leading Life Insurance Comp'y
IN THE UNITED STATES?
Which is the Safest and the Cheapest?

The following figures are from the later Reports of the New York Insurance Commissioner, showing the "amount of business" of the

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

to be the largest, the "expenses of management" the smallest, the "ratio of Assets to Liabilities," or the security furnished to its members, the largest of any like institution in the country.

Premiums received in 1864 ..... $2,089,072
" " " " 1865 3,029,087
Ratio of expenses to premiums rec'd in '64...12.96
" " " " " " '65...12.19
Ratio of assets to liabilities, Jan. 1, 1865....151.85

The inevitable conclusion from these official facts, is that the

MUTUAL BENEFIT LIFE
Insurance Company
IS THE BEST AND THE CHEAPEST.

Because its NET ASSETS are proportionably LARGER than those of any other Life Insurance Company in the United States.

Because its "Managing Expenses" are LESS, and it has a LARGER SURPLUS to divide among its members than any Company in the United States.

QUERY. Will some one inform the public of that mysterious process by which a Company with a surplus proportionably much less, and expenses very much larger than another, can yet divide more to its members, and insure them at less cost? How is it done? Where does the money come from?

Every intelligent man will see at once that it cannot be done. Yet we have Agents among us that make this their boast.

Any one disposed or intending to insure can be furnished with the requisite information by applying to

HENRY A. YEATON, Agent.

Morning Chronicle.

THE BRAVE GENERAL ON HIS KNEES. It is just cause for lamentation that such cases as the following should be so rare as to seem wonderful:

The most loving tenderness may blend with the loftiest courage. The recent scenes of our own camps and hospitals attests this amply. "Surgeon," said one of our generals, after the battle of Gettysburg, "I give my friend, Captain ——, into your especial care. I would I were wounded instead of him."

And this captain, who lay there suffering, said to the surgeon, "When I was brought in here wounded, before our noble general mounted his horse for the pursuit, he came here, he put his arm around me, read those few blessed verses, 'Let not your heart be troubled,' &c., and, kneeling down, offered a brief prayer for my recovery."

And this was the man whose fighting at Cemetery Hill the first day, before Meade came, saved the day for us! Howard is his name.

BRIGHAM YOUNG ON THE RAMPAGE.—A few days ago a dispatch from Salt Lake City, stated that Brigham Young had commanded all the "Gentiles" to leave the place, under penalty of a compulsory hegira, or worse; and now we learn that General E. P. Conner, who lately commanded in Salt Lake City, in an interview with Congressmen in Washington, stated that Brigham Young had ten thousand men in Utah capable of bearing arms, and was very desirous of driving the United States soldiers out. It is presumed that Congress will augment the force there, and change the laws so that soldiers in that Territory may vote.

— Hon. James Buffinton of Fall River, Special Agent of the Treasury Department, has just returned from an extensive tour South. He states that it is doubtful whether the full benefits of the emancipation measure has yet been realized in the interior districts.

POUGHKEEPSIE, NEW YORK,

FERRIS & CAYWOOD, Proprietors.

We call the attention of our customers and the public to our stock of GRAPE VINES, which is larger than ever before. Having had over twenty years' experience in the management of Vineyards and the propagation of Vines, and our present stock having been grown from bearing wood only, with constant care during the season, we think they will compare favorably with any others that are offered for sale.

Our stock of MONTGOMERY VINES is very large. This variety not being generally known, we will give a brief description: White, a seedling of the White Chasselas, an unparalled grower and bearer, clusters often weighing two pounds, with a mild subacid flavor. It is claimed with the hardy grapes, but we protect it in winter as we do all other varieties in this part of the State.

Our stock of the various kinds of EVERGREEN and DECIDUOUS TREES is very large, and is offered at moderate prices; and at very low rates by the quantity, to those who are laying out and improving their places, cemeteries, or public grounds, and to nurserymen. We challenge competition.

VINELAND

FARM AND FRUIT LANDS,

In a mild and healthful climate. Thirty miles from Philadelphia by Railroad, New Jersey, on the same line of latitude as Baltimore, Md.

The soil is rich and productive, varying from a sandy loam to a strong clay. Wheat, Rye, Oats, Corn, Tobacco, Fruits and Vegetables. This is a great fruit country. Five hundred Vineyards and Orchards have been planted out by experienced fruit growers. Grapes, Peaches, Pears, &c., produce immense profits. Vineland is already one of the most beautiful places in the United States. The entire territory, consisting of fifty square miles of land, is laid out upon a general system of improvements. The land is only sold to actual settlers with provisions for public adornment. The place, on account of its great beauty, as well as other advantages, has become the resort of people of taste. It has increased five thousand people within the past three years. Churches, Stores, Schools, Academies, Societies of Art and Learning, and other elements of refinement and culture have been introduced. Hundreds of people are constantly settling. Hundreds of new houses are being constructed. Price of Farm land, twenty acre lots and upward, $25 per acre. Five and ten acre and Village lots for sale.

Fruits and Vegetables ripen earlier in this district than in any other locality north of Norfolk, Va. Improved places for sale.

Opening for all kinds of business. Lumber Yards, Manufactories, Foundries, Stores and the like; and Steam Power, with room, can be rented.

For persons who desire mild winters, a healthful climate, and a good soil, in a country beautifully improved, abounding in fruits, and possessing all other social privileges, in the heart of civilization, it is worthy of a visit.

Letters answered, and the Vineland Rural, a paper giving full information, and containing Reports of Solon Robinson, sent to applicants.

Address CHAS. K. LANDIS, Vineland P. O., Landis Township, New Jersey.

From Report of Solon Robinson, Agricultural Editor of The Tribune: It is one of the most extensive fertile tracts, in an almost level position and suitable condition, for pleasant farming that we know of this side of the Western Prairies.

FOLLOWING MR. LINCOLN'S PLAN.—In Mr. Lincoln's last speech, delivered from the steps of the White House three days before his murder, he said, in speaking of his plan of bringing in Louisiana and Arkansas,—

"This is not the only plan that might be acceptable; and I also distinctly protested that the President claimed no right to say when or whether members of Congress should be admitted to seats."

President Johnson professes to be following out Mr. Lincoln's plan, in his policy of reconstruction. Yet the essential feature about that plan, the thing about which he was most positive, was "that the President claimed the right to say when or whether members of Congress should be admitted to seats." This is really the only thing he was certain about. Experience might show that other measures than those adopted would be more acceptable to all parties concerned, and more successful in securing the desired result. But there was no contingency as to the absolute power of Congress over the whole subject of the admission of members. Such was Mr. Lincoln's opinion of the matter. It was the latest expression of his matured thought concerning it.

Who, then, is consistently carrying out his plan? a Congress who have assumed the responsibility, and mean to discharge the duty which his dying words assign them, or the President, who expressly denies the right to do so?—Aurora (Ill.) Beacon.

☞ An Alabamian who went to hear Henry Ward Beecher preach, carried home such favorable accounts, that it is proposed to invite him to go down to Montgomery and preach. The Alabamian said to his friends: "Beecher will do; Beecher has religion. The people sing like a genuine Methodist camp meeting. You feel when you come away that, God helping, you will be a better man. Your heart is moved, your eyes moistened. No nigger, no politics, real gospel, heart-searching, practical religion."

DUTCHESS NURSERIES
POUGHKEEPSIE, NEW YORK,
FERRIS & CAYWOOD, Proprietors.
We call the attention of our customers and the public to our stock of GRAPE VINES, which is larger than ever before. Having had over twenty years' experience in the management of vineyards and the propagation of Vines, and our present stock having been grown from bearing wood only, with constant care during the season, we think they will compare favorably with any others that are offered for sale.
Our stock of MONTGOMERY VINES is very large. This variety not being generally known, we will give a brief description: White, a seedling of the White Chasselas, an unparalled grower and bearer, clusters often weighing two pounds, with a mild subacid flavor. It is classed with the hardy grapes, but we protect it in winter as we do all other varieties in this part of the State.
Our stock of the various kinds of EVERGREEN and DECIDUOUS TREES is very large, and is offered at moderate price; and at very low rates by the quantity, to those who are laying out and improving their places, cemeteries, or public grounds, and to nurserymen. We challenge competition.

Lodi Manufacturing Company's POUDRETTE.
AGENT FOR NEW HAMPSHIRE,
J. F. SHORES, Jr.,
No. 38 Market Street (Up Stairs.)
The advantages of Poudrette as a manure may be stated as follows:
First, its ECONOMY. The cost of the manure compared with its effects is less than that of any other fertilizer in market. It can be bought and applied for the same money which it would cost only to apply farm-yard manure. It is portable, contains great strength in a small compass, and needs no extra care in its application; the closer its contact with the seed the better and quicker it works. $4.50 worth at our retail price (or two barrels) will manure an acre of corn in the hill, add from one-quarter to one-third to the product, and will mature the crop from ten to twenty weeks earlier. No worms will stay in the hill where the Poudrette is placed. No seeds of weeds will germinate, and crows are very fond of pulling it out of the hill. On Corn, Tobacco and Garden Vegetables it has no equal. While the leaf and growth of the Tobacco plant is larger, it has not the coarseness of fibre which is produced by Peruvian Guano, and it has taken the lead for this crop in Connecticut, and has begun to be appreciated in Maryland.
It is famous for producing larger and finer potatoes than anything else, and the stories told about Onions, their large growth, size, etc., are almost beyond credence. Flowers and plants are much improved by an application of Poudrette.
Another great consideration is the season of the year when the corn is planted. It is a time when every spring crop must be put in, and the corn not only planted, but out of danger of insects, early for the last hoeing and planting, before the commencement of grain and hay harvest.—The celerity and dispatch with which a large crop of corn is put in and poudretted, the rapid growth and consequently the early opportunity of working among it—the early chance for weeds, owing to the shade it affords, and the fact that the Poudrette, unlike other manures, contains no seed that can germinate, and, consequently, less trouble required to clean it—are all important advantages. The corn will ripen two weeks earlier, and the yield will be much heavier.
The same remarks apply to Sorghum and Broom Corn
For grass, where it is about to be laid down to lawn, or for several years, a top dressing of Poudrette will be found invaluable.
We wish to remark in this place, that Poudrette is not like some quack medicines, warranted to cure all kinds of diseases. It must be used with discretion, and a reasonable quantity will produce a reasonable effect.
Poudrette will answer no better than other manures on wet, sour, undrained land, or in seasons of drought. In other words, Poudrette is an invaluable substitute for barn-yard manure, and can be used with great profit and advantage upon most spring crops, but it will neither work miracles, drain the land it is put upon, nor cause rain to fall in time of drought.
Price per Barrel $2.25—delivered at any part of the city, or at any depot or wharf.
Important Notice!—When Poudrette is spoken of, we mean "LODI POUDRETTE," which has now stood the test of twenty-six years' trial; and when buying, be sure and get that kind!
A descriptive pamphlet may be had on application. mh29

Cleanse the Blood.
With corrupt, disordered or vitiated Blood, you are sick all over. It may burst out in Pimples, or Sores, or in some active disease, or it may merely keep you listless, depressed and good for nothing. But you cannot have good health while your blood is impure. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA purges out these impurities and stimulates the organs of life into vigorous action, restoring the health and expelling disease. Hence it rapidly cures a variety of complaints which are caused by impurity of the blood, such as Scrofula, or King's Evil, Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Boils, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Cancer or Cancerous Tumors, Sore Eyes, Female Diseases, such as Retention, Irregularity, Suppression, Whites, Sterility, also Syphilis or Venereal Diseases, Liver Complaints, and Heart Diseases. Try AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, and see for yourself the surprising activity with which it cleanses the blood and cures these disorders.
During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Hence, bitter disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound "Sarsaparilla," and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it.—We think we have proved ground for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. We can only assure the sick, that we offer them the best alterative which we know how to produce, and we have reason to believe it is by far the most efficacious purifier of the blood yet discovered by any body.
AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL is so universally known to surpass every other remedy for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease, that it is useless here to recount the evidence of its virtues. The world knows them.
Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass., and sold by all Druggists and Dealers in Medicine everywhere. mh9—2awe2moo

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth N. H.

FRIDAY, APRIL 27, 1866.

THE BILL TO ADMIT COLORADO, as a State, passed the U. S. Senate April 25, after debate. The former vote, rejecting the bill, was reconsidered, 19 to 13.

An attempt was made to introduce a proviso that the act should not take effect until there should be no distinction of color in the new State at the ballot box, and all persons should be equal before the law, but it only received seven votes.

The vote was then passed by a vote of 19 yeas to 23 nays, as follows:

Yeas—Messrs. Chandler, Clark, Conness, Cragin, Cresswell, Howard, Kirkwood, Lane of Indiana, Nye, Pomeroy, Ramsay, Sherman, Sprague, Stewart, Trumbull, Van Winkle, Willey and Wilson—19.

Nays—Messrs. Buckalew, Davis, Doolittle, Edmunds, Foster, Grimes, Guthrie, Hendricks, McDougall, Morgan, Poland, Riddle and Sumner—13.

Mr. Dixon came from his sick bed to vote against the bill, but paired off with Lane of Kansas, who would have voted for it. Nearly if not quite all of the absent Senators were paired, and it is understood that one Senator who would have voted for the bill was paired with a Democrat who did, notwithstanding, vote against it.

Perley says:

"The Colorado act will be carried in the House; and although President Johnson asked Congress to pass it in a special message, there are indications that he will veto it."

He says also:

"The Washingtonians are alarmed at the prospect of negro suffrage, and want to surrender their city charter to receive a territorial organization in place of it, with a delegate in the House."

The reader will perceive that parties and partisans are drolly mixed up on the subject. Colorado is admitted, though she put the word WHITE in her constitution, that two Senators may vote to leave it out in Washington. And the President, though he once advised the measure, is now expected to veto it. We will not believe this last prediction, however, until we see it fulfilled.

THE STARVATION!—Our readers may remember that we raised a query over the big figures in a dispatch which said 30,000 or 40,000 people had died of starvation in Arkansas. The Boston Journal explains, that it was probably a distortion of the following sentence in the official report of Gen. Sprague, Superintendent of refugees and freedmen at Little Rock, made on the 10th of April. Referring to the poverty of the people he says:

"If the testimony of the county judges and leading citizens of the different counties were taken, they would make the number in the State of Arkansas who would perish from starvation without Government aid between thirty and forty thousand persons, and it is probably true that nearly this number are subsisting upon a very scanty supply of the coarsest and poorest quality of food."

Nearly 270,000 rations and a large quantity of clothing were issued in January, February and March. Not a single case of starvation is mentioned, and the General further remarks:

"I confidently expect to discontinue the issues of rations by the 1st of June, as by that time garden vegetables will be produced and the wheat harvest commenced."

Does anybody remember the old piece called Three Black Crows, which ended, "Something as black, Sir, as a Crow.?"

PERSONAL.—Lieut. Gen. U. S. Grant and family are expected to arrive in Richmond to-day, on a brief visit to their friends in this city.

Governor Frederick Smyth, of New Hampshire, is in town, and stopping at the Monumental Hotel, as is also Col. J. W. Kingman, of the same State. They have made a partial tour of our State, and we believe they will give a good report of our resources and our determination in good faith to abide the results of the war.

Governor Smyth is a self-made, practical and talented man, and although coming from New England, a portion of our country with which we usually associate all sorts of bigotry and puritanism, is still a very liberal minded man. Let more such men come South and the people of the North will learn that we are far more zealous in our desire for the preservation of law and order than we are believed to be by those who know us not.—Richmond Republic.

THE BURDELL MURDER.—The Newburyport Herald says that a young man about thirty years old, calling himself Charles H. Golden, who is in jail in that city awaiting trial for various alleged crimes, confesses that he was connected with the celebrated murder of Dr. Burdell in New York, ten years since. He says the murder was planned by Mrs. Cunningham. The circumstances of the murder as related by him are so far correct that the officers believe that he was not only a party to the tragedy, but (what he does not confess) the murderer himself. Golden says he was the lover of Augusta Cunningham.

GOLD, Thursday, 127 3-4.

☞ Liverpool dates to April 12 show a further decline of 1d. a 2d. in cotton, for the week,—and "the panic in cotton and stocks continues."

☞ In the U. S. House of Representatives, Wednesday, the Northern Pacific Railroad bill came up as unfinished business after the expiration of the morning hour. The propriety of aiding the Northern line of railroad to the Pacific was advocated by Messrs. Price of Iowa, Woodbridge of Vermont and Henderson of Oregon, while it was opposed by Shellabarger, Spalding and Delano of Ohio, and Wentworth of Chicago. Mr. Thad. Stevens will urge the passage of the bill aiding the road, and will explain away some of the charges brought against its friends.

☞ It is said the U. S. tax bill will give great relief to the shipping interest of the country; and the State of Maine is peculiarly interested in this feature of the bill. Masts, spars, sails, rigging, &c., will be freed from taxation, and the two per cent. tax on hulls of vessels is abolished. Messrs. Blaine and Pike of the State of Maine have labored to bring about this result with a persistence proportioned to the interest their constituents have in the questions involved. Portsmouth has an interest similar to the coast of Maine, in this bill.

LAW ON THE CANADIAN BORDER.—The two men, alleged Fenians, who fired on the English guard at Calais, Me., were tried before Judge Corthell on Tuesday, and found guilty of drunkenness, fined fifty cents each and discharged. General Doyle, the British commander at St. Stephens, had requested their detention, and the English authorities were highly indignant at their release. Gov. Cony, however, sent a dispatch to the Mayor of Calais, ordering their detention until Secretary Seward could be heard from in the matter. They were accordingly re-arrested.

A FRIAR'S SERMON.—A friar in Italy, remarkable for his piety and knowledge of mankind, being commanded to preach before the poor, at the time of a jubilee, repaired to Rome some time before the day appointed, to see the manner of the conclave, and to accommodate his sermon to the solemnity of the occasion. At length, when the day came, having ended his prayer, he cried out with a loud voice three times, "St. Peter was a fool, St. Peter was a fool," and then came down from the pulpit. Being immediately questioned by the pope concerning the unsuitableness of his behaviour, he made this reply—"If, holy father, a cardinal can go to heaven abounding in wealth, honor, and preferment, and living at ease, wallowing in luxury, and seldom or never preaching, St. Peter certainly was a fool, who took so hard a way of travelling thither, by fasting, preaching, abstinence, and humiliation." The pope could not deny the reasonableness of the reply.

DIVIDEND.—The York Manufacturing Company has declared a dividend of 10 per cent., payable April 30.

—— The Richmond Republic speaks highly in praise of Gov. Smyth, and his visit to Virginia.

— The President has pardoned Col. Nixon, proprietor of the New Orleans Crescent, a paper now edited by the ex-rebel General Simon Bolivar Buckner.

— Among the visitors at the White House Wednesday, were Gen. Butler, Montgomery Blair, ex-Senator Stockton and other leading Democrats, with the Superintendents of Insane Asylums now in convention at Washington.

— The dresses worn by Miss Lucille Western in her great part of Camille were purchased in Paris, and cost, including the jewels used in their decoration, seventeen thousand dollars. Miss Western's entire wardrobe is valued at fifty thousand dollars.

— As a circus troupe passed into New Haven the other day, a horse belonging to Mr. Baldwin of Woodbridge saw the elephant, rolled up his eyes in fright, gave one leap into the air, and died instantly. This makes another version of "seeing the elephant."

— A military commission in Charleston which has been trying certain parties for the murder of a United States soldier while on guard duty at Anderson, S. C., has sentenced two men, named Stowers and Kris, to be hung next Friday, and the others to imprisonment for life.

— The Montreal Gazette reports that Dr. Slayter, one of the physicians who volunteered to attend the cholera patients on the England at Halifax, was taken ill on Monday morning, and died of that disease on Tuesday night. Two other doctors, Garrie and Gossip, were attacked with the disease, but have recovered.

— Three persons—Wyman Eaton, Louis Boyd, and Joshua Janvrin, of Scalbrook, N. H.,—were arraigned before the Police Court of Newburyport on Monday, on a charge of setting fire and burning two barns belonging to Mr. George Rowell, on Salisbury Beach. The parties were all held for trial before the Superior Court, and committed to jail in default of bail.

— A spruce young man went into a clothing store in Springfield, Mass., on Saturday, and asked to see some sack coats. He was shown some good ones, and tried one of them on. When he saw the clerks all busy with other customers, he started for the door with the coat on. Meeting the proprietor, he observed, "I think I'll take this one," and departed without paying for the garment.

THE PRESIDENT'S PROCLAMATION.—Governor Jenkins of Georgia has issued a proclamation to the citizens of that State, informing them that after official inquiry and examination, he has ascertained that the Peace Proclamation of President Johnson does not deprive the Freedmen's Bureau of its authority in matters pertaining to the freedmen, but only removes jurisdiction in certain civil and criminal cases to the State Courts, which jurisdiction may be again restored to the Bureau, if circumstances require. Also that martial law is not removed, although military tribunals are not to be resorted to where the civil courts will answer. The Governor considers the modifications brought about by the proclamation as a highly satisfactory advance in the process of restoring civil and political rights, and he calls upon the courts and people to unite in extending impartial justice to the freedmen as the surest and only way to promote the work of restoration.

FREE LABOR IN ARKANSAS.—Gen. J. W. Sprague, Superintendent of Freedmen in Arkansas, in a report dated Little Rock, April 10, thus speaks of the free labor experiment in that State:—

"So far, the experiment of free labor has been a success beyond the anticipations of the most sanguine; the negroes are as a class orderly, cheerful and industrious, fulfilling their contracts and agreements as well if not better than the laboring classes of other races; so that now all agree in saying that the work of preparation for planting cotton and other agricultural products is further advanced than is usual for this period of the year, and the prospect is promising for full average products of the soil."

Gen. Sprague says this encouraging state of things is largely owing to the confidence the freedmen have in the military authorities and the Freedmen's Bureau to protect them. In consequence of these agencies, there will be more than double the cotton produced this year than could have been without them, and further, through these agencies crime and disorder have been in a great measure repressed. These facts are admitted by a large majority of the planters and intelligent men of the State; yet for partisan and political purposes, the military authorities and the Freedmen's Bureau are denounced without stint. The Bureau is powerless without the aid of the military, and if both be withdrawn, there is no place in the State where schools for colored children could or would be sustained.

DAMAGES RECOVERED.—In August, 1864, as the Salem and Lowell Railroad train was coming into Salem it was stopped by a load of hay, which had got fast upon the track at the Frye's Mills crossing. In a few moments after the train from Lawrence came along on the same track and ran into the train from Lowell. The wives of George Pope and William Symonds were injured, and they sued the Boston and Lowell road (to whom the Salem and Lowell is leased,) for damages and recovered—Pope and wife $2500, and Symonds and wife $3500. The jury returned these damages on Saturday morning, at the Supreme Judicial Court in Salem.

— Dr. Windship is unquestionably the strongest man in the world. He lifts a dead weight of twenty-six hundred pounds, and "puts up" a dumb bell weighing one hundred and fifty pounds with one hand. He will also, with one little finger, seize hold of an iron ring as high as he can reach and draw himself up to it.—These are remarkable feats and such as but few will ever accomplish. He propose to continue his training until he can lift three thousand, and then stop.

KENTUCKY.—Last Sunday, in Hawkins county, Kentucky, while a clergyman was preaching the funeral sermon of a rebel soldier, two brothers, named Walters, manifested a disposition to disturb the audience. Eldridge Hand, a citizen of that neighborhood, remonstrated with them, and an angry quarrel ensued. In the midst of it one of the brothers drew a pistol on Hand, wounding him in the thigh. Upon this Sam Smith, a soldier, killed Walters upon the spot. The other brother then opened fire upon Smith, slightly wounding him.—Smith returned the fire, and the second brother fell mortally wounded.

DR. STEVENS, No 5 Daniel Street, would give notice that he has REDUCED the price of Permanent Sets of ARTIFICIAL TEETH on the Vulcanite Base, to that charged for them before the war.

He would also give notice that he is doing a new style of work for Under Sets of Teeth, called the COMBINATION BASE (Gold and Vulcanite) which produces by far the finest work offered to the public. The price is something in advance of that charged for the Vulcanite alone, but the strength, durability, ease of bearing, and beauty of finish obtained by it, more than double the value of the teeth. mh12

GEORGE F. WEED,

S-u-r-g-e-o-n D-e-n-t-i-s-t,

FIRST ASSISTANT in the Office of Dr. STEVENS, No. 5 DANIEL STREET.

DR. WEED can be found at his place of business at all hours of the day and night, for the performance of any of the operations that come within the call of his profession.

Dr. A. P. STEVENS, No. 5 Daniel St., makes the saving of ULCERATED and painful front teeth, a speciality in his business. He also successfully restores to their natural shape broken or badly decayed teeth, by building out corners and sides with PURE GOLD. (In many cases teeth so restored are as strong as any of their brother members, and in all cases are rendered eminently useful for a long series of years.) DISEASED TEETH, in all stages, treated, and in a very large majority of cases entire success attained.

Charges for such operations necessarily high, but nothing in comparison to the value of the teeth. mch14

IMPORTANCE OF HAVING DAVIS' PAIN KILLER ALWAYS ON HAND.

Wonderful Cure of the Rev. D. L. Brayton, Missionary in India, who was stung by a Scorpion.

Extract from his letter, published in the Baptist Missionary Magazine:

"For the first time since I have been in India, I have been stung by a scorpion. I went out this morning to my exercises, as usual, at early dawn, and having occasion to use an old box, on taking off the cover I put my hand on a scorpion, which immediately resented the insult by thrusting its sting into the palm of the hand. The instantaneous and severe pain which darted through the system is quite incredible; what an awfully virulent poison their sting must contain! I FLEW TO MY BOTTLE OF DAVIS' PAIN KILLER, and found it to be true to its name: after a moment's relief, I anointed a small piece of sponge, bound it on my hand, and went about my exercises, feeling no more particular inconvenience.

Perry's Moth and Freckle Lotion.

☞ Chloasma, or Mothpatch, (also called Livespot,) and Lentigo, or Freckles, are often very annoying, particularly to ladies of light complexion, for the discolored spots show more plainly on the face of a blonde than of a brunette; but they greatly mar the beauty of either and any preparation that will effectually remove them, without injuring the texture or color of the skin, is certainly a desideratum. Dr. B. C. PERRY, who has made diseases of the skin a specialty, has discovered a remedy for these discolorations, which is at once prompt, infallible and harmless.

Prepared by B. C. PERRY, Dermatologist, No. 49 Bond Street, New York, and for sale by all druggists: price $2 per bottle. Call for

MAGGIEL'S

Spring and Summer Remedies.

"Great oaks from little acorns grow." The worst diseases known to the human race spring from causes so small as to almost elude early detection. The volumes of scientific lore that fill the shelves and shelves of the medical fraternity only go to prove and elaborate these facts. Then guard yourselves while you may. The smallest pimple on the skin is a tell-tale and indicator of disease. It may fade and die away from the surface of the body, but it will reach the vitals, perhaps, at last, and death be the result and final close. MAGGIEL'S BILLIOUS, DYSPEPTIC and DIARRHEA PILLS cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts, and all abrasions of the skin, MAGGIEL'S SALVE is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 45 Fulton street, New York, PARSTON and TRACHER in this city, and all druggists, at 25 cents per box. dec4eod& wly

BRANDRETH'S PILLS. COSTIVENESS, DIARRHEA.—They are taken up by the absorbents, and carried into the circulation, through which medium they are conveyed to every part of the body.

If the pain affects the joints, a single dose produces remarkable benefit. And the same rule applies to costiveness, diarrhea and dysentery; though with the last named they may be required night and morning for some days before decided relief is obtained. In affections of the lungs, throat, head and pleurisy, the relief is certain; the excretory organs throw off with ease the phlegm, and the breathing becomes freer. Spasmodic asthma is often cured by a single dose. mch28dawlm

EASTERN RAILROAD.—In the Massachusetts House of Representatives, on the 25th, the report of the Committee on Finance in relation to the business relations of the Commonwealth with the Eastern Railroad Corporation was taken up, and Mr. Worcester, of Salem, made a speech, in which he explained the connection of the company with the Commonwealth, and claimed that they offered to pay their indebtedness six different times, and each time the payment had been declined by the State; once the company offering 5-20 6 per cent. interest U. S. securities, the interest payable in gold, and the first time offering to pay in the same currency in which they had received the loan. He claimed that the Norwich and Worcester road was in a precisely similar position, but nothing was said about this, while interested parties were urging forward this action.

Mr. Kimball, of Boston, defended the report of the Finance Committee, and was particularly severe in his remarks on the President of the Eastern Railroad.

After a few remarks by Mr. Worcester, of Salem, the House accepted the report.

The question of adopting the order offered by Mr. Mason of Newton then came up and was discussed. This is to instruct the Attorney General to examine as to the right of the Commonwealth to take possession of the franchise and property of the Eastern Railroad Company, conveyed by its mortgage to the State, and to hold the same until the Commonwealth is saved harmless from all losses occasioned by the refusal of the company to pay gold instead of currency on its obligations to the State.

☞ On Tuesday night, Marshal Westcott of Newburyport and Sheriff Brown made an arrest of parties in North Salem, N. H., who were doing an extensive bogus lottery business there, and also captured the machinery with which they carried out their machinations against the pockets of the gullible, consisting of two trunks filled with circulars, directories for different cities and States, numbers in quills ready for drawing, and stacks of letters from victims to the swindlers. The parties arrested were Wm. Thomas and A. Perley Coburn. They were brought before our Police Court on Thursday, and Thomas was cleared, while Coburn was held in $500 bail to the October court.

The same day, Charles Hodgdon, brought up on a charge of wilful and malicious mischief, was discharged.

EAST KINGSTON MEETINGS.—We have already noticed, from the News Letter, the fact that the East Kingston people are to have public worship regularly on the Sabbath for some time to come. But there is one error in the article furnished to the News Letter, which ought to be corrected, viz., the statement that "No religious meetings have been held in town for five years, (except, perhaps, one or two Sabbaths.)" This is not strictly true; for we have attended more meetings there than the number named, and know that others have been held. Still, the number is not large; and though there is novelty, and perhaps oddity, in the plan of having the pulpit supplied by individual appointment and pay,—yet we have no doubt good will grow out of it.

Holloway's Pills and Ointment.—Dropsy.—The action of these remedies on the blood, checks the too rapid effusion of the watery humors into the absorbents, and by equalizing the flow of the secretions, renders the disease comparatively inactive, the Ointment penetrating through the pores of the skin, drains by evaporation the serum collected in the cellular tissue and ultimately performs a radical cure. OLIVE A. GRANT of Portsmouth in the County of Rockingham and State of New Hampshire, respectfully libels and gives the Court to understand and be informed that she was lawfully married to her husband, JOHN E. GRANT, by Rev. Mr. Pike, at Newburyport in the State of Massachusetts, on the fourteenth day of November, A. D. Eighteen Hundred and Fifty-one, and that she has ever since resided in Portsmouth and Newington in said State except when temporarily absent therefrom, and that she and her said husband lived in said Portsmouth for more than seven years therefore; that she has ever conducted as a faithful wife to said John; that the said John on divers days between the date of the said marriage and March, A. D. Eighteen Hundred and Sixty, treated your libellant with extreme cruelty; that the said John on divers days in the years Eighteen Hundred and Sixty and Eighteen Hundred and Sixty-one, at Boston in the State of Massachusetts, committed adultery with one Mrs. Ellison and with divers other lewd women whose names are unknown to this libellant; and that said John at said Portsmouth in the month of March, A. D. Eighteen Hundred and Sixty, without sufficient cause, and without the consent of said Olive, abandoned her, and has refused for three years together to cohabit with her, said abandonment and refusal continuing down to the time of filing this libel.

And said John in the month of March, 1861, left said libellant, and has ever since willingly absented himself from her for the space of three years together, to wit: from said March, 1861, to the filing of this libel, without making suitable provision for her support and maintenance, and continues so to do.

Wherefore she prays that a divorce from the bond of matrimony existing between her and said John, may be decreed, and that the custody of her minor child, VENONA F. GRANT, who has been constantly supported by her since her birth, may be decreed to her; and for such other relief in the premises as the Court may deem just and proper.

OLIVE A. GRANT.

In the Supreme Judicial Court—Rockingham, ss.

This libel having been filed in the office of the Clerk of said Court this twenty fifth day of April A. D. 1866:

It is Ordered that said OLIVE A. GRANT notify said JOHN E. GRANT to appear at the next Law Term of said Court, to be held at Exeter on the third Tuesday of June next, then and there to show cause, if any he has, why the prayer thereof should not be granted, by causing a true and attested copy of said libel and this order thereon to be published three weeks successively in the DAILY MORNING CHRONICLE, a newspaper printed at Portsmouth in the County of Rockingham, the last publication whereof to be at least thirty days before said term.

WHICH IS THE
Leading Life Insurance Comp'y
IN THE UNITED STATES?
Which is the Safest and the Cheapest?

The following figures are from the later Reports of the New York Insurance Commissioner, showing the "amount of business" of the

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

to be the largest, the "expenses of management" the smallest, the "ratio of Assets to Liabilities," or the security furnished to its members, the largest of any life institution in the country.

Premiums received in 1864.....$2,089,072
" " " 1865.....3,029,087
Ratio of expenses to premiums rec'd in '64..12.96
" " " " " '65..12.16
Ratio of assets to liabilities, Jan. 1, 1865....161.85

The inevitable conclusion from these official facts, is that the

MUTUAL BENEFIT LIFE
Insurance Company
IS THE BEST AND THE CHEAPEST.

Because its NET ASSETS are proportionably LARGER than those of any other Life Insurance Company in the United States.

Because its "Managing Expenses" are LESS, and it has a LARGER SURPLUS to divide among its members than any Company in the United states.

QUERY. Will some one inform the public of that mysterious process by which a Company with a surplus proportionably much less, and expenses very much larger than another, can yet divide more to its members, and insure them at less cost? How is it done? Where does the money come from?

Every intelligent man will see at once that it cannot be done. Yet we have Agents among us that make this their boast.

Any one disposed or intending to insure can be furnished with the requisite information by applying to

HENRY A. YEATON, Agent.

BABY LOOKING OUT FOR ME.

Two little busy hands patting on the window,
Two laughing bright eyes looking out at me;
Two red cheeks dented with a dimple;
Mother-bird is coming; baby, do you see?

Down by the lilac-bush, something white and azure,
Saw I in the window as I passed the tree;
Well I knew the apron and shoulder-knots of ribbon,
All belonged to baby, looking out for me.

Talking low and tenderly
To myself, as mothers will,
Spake I softly, "God in Heaven
Keep my darling free from ill.
Worldly gain and worldly honors
Ask I not for her from Thee;
But from want and sin and sorrow
Keep her ever pure and free."

* * * * * * *

Two little waxen hands,
Folded soft and silently;
Two little curtained eyes,
Looking out no more for me;
Two little snowy cheeks,
Dimple-dented never more;
Two little trodden shoes
That will never touch the floor;
Shoulder-ribbon softly twisted,
Apron folded, clean and white;
These are left us—and these only—
Of the childish presence bright.

Thus He sent an answer to my earnest praying,
Thus He keeps my darling free from earthly stain,
Thus He folds the pet lamb free from earthly straying,
But I miss her sadly by the window pane,
Till I look above it: then with purer vision,
Sad, I weep no longer the little face to gaze,
For I know her, angel, pure and white and sinless,
Walking with the harpers, on the sea of glass.

Two little snowy wings
Softly flutter to and fro,
Two little dimpled hands
Beckon still to me below;
Two tender angel eyes
Watch me ever earnestly;
Through the loop-holes of the stars
Baby's looking out for me.

BELLE BOYD.—A gentleman who saw this rebel heroine (?) in London, a few weeks since, states that she had sued for a divorce from her husband, ex-Lieutenant Harding, of the U. S. navy. Cause, utter worthlessness and dissipation. Harding was also in London, in very destitute circumstances. He tried to obtain a passage in one of the Cunard steamers, under pretence of having lost his ticket, but was landed in Queenstown. His wife, Belle Boyd, was under the protection of an eminent actor in London, who was training her for the stage.

Important to the Afflicted.

By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since the first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.—Dr. Dow devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.—Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving descriptions of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capsules, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.

Highly Important to Females

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN PATENTS,

R. H. EDDY,

Solicitor of Patents,

Late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1857,

78 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,

BOSTON.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States, also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on the shortest terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and opinions and advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it parties have more chance for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that in addition to the skill and care, the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."

JOHN TAGGART

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twelve rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

VINELAND

FARM AND FRUIT LANDS,

In a mild and healthful climate. Thirty miles south of Philadelphia by Railroad, in New Jersey, on the same line of latitude as Baltimore, Md.

Soil, a sandy loam, with a subsoil of from a clay to a sandy loam, suitable for Wheat, Grass Corn, Tobacco, Fruits and Vegetables. This is a great fruit country. The Grapes, Peaches and Orchards have been planted out by experienced fruit-growers. Grapes, Peaches, Pears, &c, produce immense profits. Vineland is one of the most beautiful places in the United States. The entire territory, consisting of fifty square miles of land, is laid out upon a general system of improvements. The land is only sold to actual settlers with provision for public improvement. The place, on account of its great beauty, as well as other advantages, has become the resort of people of taste. It has increased five thousand people within the past three years. Churches, Stores, Schools, Academies, Societies of Art and Learning, and other elements of refinement and culture have been introduced. Hundreds of people are constantly settling. Hundreds of new houses are being constructed. Price of Farm land, twenty acre lots and upward, $25 per acre. Five and ten acre lots near Village for sale.

Fruits and Vegetables ripen earlier in this district than in any other locality north of Norfolk, Va. Improved places for sale.

Opening for all kinds of business. Lumber Yards, Manufactories, Foundries, Stores and the like; small Steam Power, water power, can be rented.

For persons who desire mild winters, a health ful climate, and a good soil, in a country beautifully improved, combining the advantages of social and other social privileges, in the heart of civilization, it is worthy of a visit.

Letters answered, and a Vineland Rural, a paper giving full information, and containing Reports of Solon Robinson, sent to applicants.

Address CHAS K. LANDIS, Vineland P. O., Landis Township, New Jersey.

From Report of Solon Robinson, Agricultural Editor of The Tribune: It is one of the most extensive fruit farms, the almost level position and suitable condition for pleasant farming that we know of this side of the Western Prairies. m1—dawóm

A LOSS, PERCHANCE A GAIN.

Where is my heart? Alas! not here;
It left my careful keeping;
And stole away when I,—I fear—
Was too securely sleeping.
I called it back. Ah, truant heart!
It would not heed my warning:
I sighed (the loss was sweet,) and thought
It would return by morning.

'Tis lost, I fear! What must be done?
I cannot live without it;
Perhaps it never will return,
If I say much about it.
For hearts I know are so perverse,
If they think you prize them highly,
Will give themselves conceited airs,
And often treat you vilely.

The heart I've lost is warm and light,
Its fault is—loving blindly;
So if you find the wayward sprite,
I hope you'll treat it kindly.
Should you neglect it, I will rebel,
And die if you are cruel;
But if you understand it well,
I will be a priceless jewel.

Will any one repair my loss,
Or volunteer a loan,
(I'll use it very tenderly,)
Till I get back my own?
Oh! if the one who seeks should find,
And wish to know its cost,
He first must lose his own heart, ere
He keep the one I've lost.—Lizzie.

THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD.
DR. MAGGIEL'S
PILLS AND SALVE.
These Life-giving remedies are now, for the first time, given publicly to the world. For over a quarter of a century of private practice the ingredients in these

Life-giving Pills!
Have been used with the greatest success. Their mission is not only to prevent disease, but to cure. They search out the various maladies by which the patient is suffering, and re-invigorate the failing system. To the aged and infirm a few doses of these valuable PILLS will prove to be

A Very Fountain of Youth,
For in every case they add new life and vitality, and restore the waning energies to their pristine state. To the young and middle aged, they will prove most invaluable, as a safe, speedy, and sterling medicine. Here is a dream realized, that Ponce-de-Leon sought for three hundred years ago, and never found. He looked for a fountain that would restore the old to youth and make youth ever

AN ETERNAL SPRING!
It was left for this day and hour to realize the dream, and show, in one glorious fact, the magic that made it fair.

These Famous Remedies
Cannot stay the flight of years, but they can force back and hold aloof, diseases that might triumph over the aged and the young. Let none hesitate then, but seize the favorable opportunity that offers. When taken as prescribed—

FOR BILIOUS DISORDERS
Nothing can be more productive of cure than these Pills. Their almost magic influence is felt at once, and the usual concomitants of this most distressing disease are removed. These remedies are made from the purest

VEGETABLE COMPOUNDS.
They will not harm the most delicate female, and can be given with good effect in prescribed doses to the youngest babe.

For Cutaneous Disorders
And all eruptions of the skin, the SALVE is most invaluable. It does not heal externally alone, but penetrates with the most searching effects to the very root of the evil.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth N. H.

SATURDAY, APRIL 28, 1866.

☞ It seems strange that with the exposures that are constantly being made of bogus lotteries, there should be any persons sufficiently verdant to allow themselves to be swindled thereby,—but the late arrest in this county furnishes ample proof that the "fools are not all dead yet." The very next day after the preliminary examination of the parties engaged in the "Salem Lottery," we are favored with a circular from W. W. Leach & Co., New York, guaranteeing us a $2000 prize upon our sending them $10. Accompanying this liberal offer is the modest explanation: "To send you two thousand dollars out of the managers' pockets will cost us nothing." As to pity for any fool who is bled by any such leech as that, we have no pity for him, for the agent offers to rob his employer for a paltry X, and has the unblushing effrontery to urge that as his greatest claim to patronage, dwelling upon it more than once in his lithographed letter. Better invest in the Salem lottery, the whole of which is now controlled by our City Police.

THE CHRISTIAN UNION MOVEMENT in New York, was an attempt to unite the several Protestant Trinitarian sects in some meetings or operations. It seems not to be fully successful, however,—for "Burleigh," (Rev. Mathew Hale Smith,) writes to the Boston Journal as follows:

The organization so auspiciously begun has been signally checked in its usefulness by the indiscretion of leading men who have sought to produce union among the leading evangelical sects. Dr. Vermilye of the Dutch Church undertook to dragoon the Episcopalians and Baptists into becoming Dutchmen. In a most vehement, violent and passionate harangue, at meetings when all sects were present, he pitched into the Episcopalians for their exclusiveness in ordination, and into the Baptists for theirs in the matter of communion. He was remonstrated with, as such an attack was regarded as a violation of the compact of union. This made him only the more severe and the more denunciatory. Tired of this course, the Baptists, through Dr. Armitage, invited Dr. Vermilye to come into a Baptist pulpit and give to a Baptist congregation his reasons for an attack on their faith. It was announced through the public press that he would do so on a Sabbath afternoon. The audience came, but the preacher did not. Dr. Vermilye was announced to preach last Sunday at the Presbyterian Church. The audience was a very slim one. New York is very liberal in its charity, and a union meeting in which one sect belabors another is not looked upon with much favor.

☞ The Salem Gazette says a few of the dealers whose traffic has been stopped by the State officers, take things in an amusing and jocular spirit. One vender of ale and cider, who keeps a leading oyster saloon, has surrounded his ale-pump with the dry and shiny pewter mugs, each of which has a piece of crape on the handle. Two glasses of water and a plate of bread are placed invitingly near, while the beer-pump itself bears crape, and the following inscription:—

"Should auld acquaintance be forgot
And never brought to mind?"

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Among the late patents, we notice the following:

Alanson Bingham of Keene, and Osmore A. Bingham of Gardner, Mass., assignors to selves and Daniel W. Willoby of Fitchburg, Mass., for improvement in the construction of chairs.

Jim B. Fuller of Norwich, Conn., assignor to self, James P. Upham of Claremont, N. H., and Edwin T. Rice of New York, N. Y., for improvement in rollers for spinning machines.

—— George W. Farnham of North Groton, was drowned on the 17th. He was subject to fits. His age was about 27 years.

AUSTRIA AND MEXICO.—It is reported that Mr. Motley, our Minister at Vienna, has been instructed to demand his passports and come home, in case Austria should persist in allowing recruits for Maximilian's armies to be obtained in the Austrian Empire; but, as Austria is now situated, it is probable that she will not require any urging to forego an intention which, while it might not lead to war with this country, might in other respects prove an unhappy policy for the Austrian Emperor.

☞ The Eclectic Magazine for May has an unusually rich and varied table of contents, and is embellished with a likeness of Rev. Dr. Livingtone, the great African traveller. W. H. Bidwell, publisher, New York.

THE CHOLERA.—Three cases of cholera in Halifax are reported, but the disease is abating at the Quarantine ground.

— In the underground railroad depot in New Haven, on Monday, one lady passenger had her pocket picked of two thousand dollars; three other ladies lost all the money they had, and a gentleman lost his pocket-book containing several hundred dollars.

JOHN STARK.

Memoir of Official Correspondence of Gen. John Stark, with notices of several other officers of the Revolution. Also a biography of Capt. Phinehas Stevens and of Col. Robert Rogers, with an account of his services in America during the seven years' war, by Caleb Stark, accountant.

This book was printed five years ago, but we understand that no effort has been made till now to publish it. It is one of those thoroughly conscientious collections of the original documents which are always of value, without which history cannot be understood, the want of which is never supplied to us by the most elegant writing. It is a great enlargement of the original collection, published by the family in 1831.

In this case the author of the memoirs, who is the editor of the letters, is the grandson of General Stark of the Revolution. He has conscientiously published all Stark's letters, and has made a very good selection of the letters addressed to him,—many of which are from distinguished personages, and all valuable as illustrations of the time.

The shorter memoirs in the same volume introduce some curious memoranda of the seven year's war. With regard to both epochs, that of the French war, and that of the Revolution, the author seems to have worked up his materials with care, and frequently furnishes good notes of illustration.

He is fond of "anecdotes," and prints a good many which will be a good addition to the new edition of American Anecdotes, if anybody will ever publish one. If they are not all true, that is what must be expected of traditions collected a hundred years after the events which they record. The great majority of them are undoubtedly founded on fact, and they are of real value as giving the local coloring which is so apt to be lost from history.

The book is, as it should be, most full on the battle of Bunker Hill and the battle of Bennington. It will have an interest not only to scholarly students of history, but to intelligent boys, and to gentlemen interested in military movements and organizations, and indeed to all New Englanders who like to see what New England has been and what has made it what it is. It will interest a good many people because it solves the celebrated "Molly Stark" problem. All the old anecdote books tell us that before the Battle of Bennington, Stark said to his men, "You must beat the red-coats or Molly Stark sleeps a widow to-night." This terse address has got into poetry as well as history, and a very embarrassing question has arisen what had become at that moment of Mrs. Elizabeth Stark, the only wife know to the records of matrimony.

Her grandson and his solves this difficulty by substituting in the speech "my wife" for "Molly Stark." He even goes so far as to rewrite Halleck's somewhat familiar lines:

"For we must beat them, boys, ere set of sun,
Or My Stark sleeps a widow. It was done."

These lines in this volume appear in the safer form,—worthy indeed of an accomplished spiritual medium,—

"For we must beat them, boys, ere set of sun.
Or my wife sleeps a widow. It was done.

Having thus far succeeded in taking the difficulty by the horns on the 60th page, encouraged by his own success, on the 100th page he states the speech in Colonel Potter's words. "There are the enemy," boys, the red coats and tories; you must beat them, "or Betty Stark sleeps a widow to-night." And, to counterbalance Halleck's short comings,—a poet, who shall be nameless here, has been found, who gives the improved version thus:

"See there, the enemy, my boys—
Now strong in valor's might,
Beat them, or Betty Stark will sleep
In widowhood to-night!"

Such is the gradual improvement in tradition when critical history lends its assistance to poetry.—Boston Ade.

HABEAS CORPUS.—At Louisville, Ky., April 26, Judge Ballard, of the U. S. District Court, issued an order for the arrest of Gen. J. C. Davis, for interfering with the course of public justice, in disobeying the writ of habeas corpus in the case of Henderson. Marshal Merriweather was resisted by Gen. Davis while attempting to enforce the order. An alias attachment was awarded against Davis, returnable in May. Attachments were also made against Major Generals Geo. H. Thomas and R. W. Johnson, and Gen. W. D. Whipple, A. A. G. and Provost Marshal of Tennessee, returnable at the next regular term. Separate copies were ordered to be issued against Gen. Davis and Lieut. Col. W. H. Cuyler for resisting the U. S. Marshal in the discharge of his duties, with bail endorsed on each. Marshal Merriweather has notified the President of the position of affairs. Mr. Henderson was taken to Nashville by order of Gen. Davis, notwithstanding the writ issued by Judge Ballard for his prosecution before the U. S. Court.

A NEW RECONSTRUCTION PROPOSITION.—A Washington despatch says the New York Congressional delegation have had before it a reconstruction proposition which meets with much favor. Its principal points are—

First. A Constitutional amendment basing representation upon population, and when a State denies suffrage to any class except for participation in the rebellion the disfranchised portion to be deducted from the basis of representation.

Second. A Constitutional amendment prohibiting the payment of the rebel debt, and providing that there never shall be compensation for emancipated slaves.

Third. When these amendments are ratified by a sufficient number of States then the rebellious States may be admitted to representation in Congress on taking the oath of office.

Fourth. Prohibiting from every holding office by leading civil and military officers of the Confederate States.

The proposition was ordered to be presented to the Reconstruction Committee as one generally acceptable to the New York delegation. It is said Senator Harris and Representatives Conklin and Boutwell will urge its adoption.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—It is understood that special pardons have been granted in the cases of Mayor Munroe and Aldermen Nixon of New Orleans. The grave charges of an attempt to procure the assassination of Commodore Bailey of the U. S. Navy, which were brought against Munroe, have been, by the evidence of Rear Admiral Farragut and Commodore Bailey, it is said, refuted to the entire satisfaction of the President.

A Washington dispatch says that a meeting of the Union members of Congress from the State of New York was held on Wednesday night, at which it was decided that universal suffrage must be ignored by Congress and left for the States to determine, and that the Tennessee Congressional delegation ought to be admitted.

The Tennessee members elect are getting to be quite impatient, and many members are seconding their claims for admission.

In Executive Session of the Senate on Friday, it is understood that for reasons known to Senator Morgan the nomination of Mr. Smith, which was referred to him, was not brought forward. Senator Corwin attempted to get some of the new Pennsylvania appointments confirmed, but was plainly told that officers appointed solely because they supported the President's policy could not be confirmed by the Senate.

The Boston Journal's Washington correspondent says:

James M. Scovel of Camden, N. J., who figured recently in the attempt to elect a Republican Senator in New Jersey in place of Stockton, has been at Washington and obtained the removal of the Revenue Assessor and Postmaster, at his residence, to make room for supporters of the President's policy. Some third rate Massachusetts politicians have also been there, looking after small places, and pledging an unlimited amount of support in return.

There is every indication that the President is bent on making removals of office holders, to make place for his supporters; but the members of Congress do not appear intimidated by the coming onslaught on their friends and supporters. All admit, however, that it would be desirable for the President and Congress to bury the hatchet, and to agree on some plan of reconstruction. Several State delegations have had meetings, to devise, if possible, some plan acceptable alike to the President and to Congress; and leading politicians are devoting themselves to the work of mediation.

But he adds:—I cannot see any prospect of success, if the President is expected to retreat from his position, as he openly declares to visitors that he knows that he is right, and that he will not budge an inch.

A SWINDLE EXPOSED.—The Concord Monitor says:

Our attention has been called to the swindling operations of a company calling itself a "Mutual Benefit Association," now operating extensively throughout the country, and especially at the South. We have been shown a letter from Macon, Georgia, dated the 20th inst., to a friend in Concord, making inquiry concerning it. An attempt was made to obtain $50 from a poor family in that vicinity, by representing that there was a prize of $500 awaiting their order on the payment of $50. It was further represented that the Attorney of the Association was James Arrandale of Dublin, this State, and that the President of the Association was Hon. Appleton Wentworth of Concord. In answer, we have to say that there is not now, and never was any such person residing in Concord as Hon. Appleton Wentworth. We presume the same is equally true of James Arrandale of Dublin. The whole matter is a swindle, and people will do well not to invest a cent in any scheme whose pretended officers are located at a distance, and are unknown to the public.

DEAY'S EFFACING FINGER will never mar the teeth that are brushed daily with Odoriferous SOZODONT. It lends a floral fragrance to the breath, as well as protects the teeth from corrosion and decomposition. 6

FACT.—As a culinary preparation, Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus is infallible. It has great advantages over yeast fermentation, and will make twenty five pounds more Bread or Biscuit from the same barrel of flour, and much better. It retains all the glutinous starch and sugar that is in the flour, and from two-and-a-half pounds of flour will make three-and-a-half pounds of Bread or Biscuit, while the same quantity by yeast fermentation will make only a trifle over three pounds, and require more than twice the quantity of shortening, besides being much more unhealthy. Try it, and be convinced. 80

☞ It appears by a Montreal dispatch that Mrs. Jeff. Davis has obtained leave to see her husband, and has gone to Fortress Monroe for that purpose.—There are some more rumors afloat about Jeff.'s trial. When he is tried, convicted, executed, or pardoned,—we will make a note of it, as the case may be. In the meantime the rumors are of no more value than so many straws.

— A. A. Bradley, a colored lawyer from Boston, who has recently been in Savannah, has made an able speech before the National Equal Suffrage Association. He was very severe upon the President, denounced the Senate for its vote on the admission of Colorado, and narrated several instances of outrage on the freedmen at the South.

— Among the military appointments confirmed by the U. S. Senate on Thursday, were Geo. A. Otis of Massachusetts, F. French of New Hampshire, and Wm. F. Smith of Rhode Island, to be Assistant Surgeons in the regular army. Additional Paymaster Simon P. Marston of New Hampshire, to be Lieut. Colonel by brevet for faithful services.

IMPORTANCE OF HAVING DAVIS' PAIN KILLER ALWAYS ON HAND.

Wonderful Cure of the Rev. D. L. Brayton, Missionary in India, who was stung by a Scorpion.

Extract from his letter, published in the Baptist Missionary Magazine:

"For the first time since I have been in India, I have been stung by a scorpion. I went out this morning to my enclosure, as usual, at early dawn, and having occasion to use an old box, on taking off the cover I put my hand on a scorpion, which immediately resented the insult by thrusting its sting into the palm of my hand. The instantaneous and severe pain which darted through the system is quite incredible; what an awfully virulent poison their sting must contain! I FLEW TO MY BOTTLE OF DAVIS' PAIN KILLER, and found it to be true to its name; after a moment's relief, I saturated a small piece of sponge, bound it on my hand, and went about my exercises, feeling no more particular inconvenience.

Perry's Moth and Freckle Lotion.

☞ Chloasma, or Mothpatch, (also called Liver-spot,) and Freckles, Tetter, Ringworm, are often very annoying, particularly to ladies of light complexion, for the discolored spots show more plainly on the face of a blonde than on that of a brunette; but they greatly mar the beauty of either and any preparation that will effectually remove them, without injuring the texture or colour of the skin, is certainly a desideratum. Dr. B. C. PERRY, who has made diseases of the skin a specialty, has discovered a remedy for these discolorations, which is at once prompt, infallible and harmless.

Prepared by B. C. PERRY, Dermatologist, No. 49 Bond Street, New York, and for sale by all druggists; price $2 per bottle. Call for BRANDRETH'S PILLS. COSTIVENESS, DIARRHEA,—They are taken up by the absorbents, and carried into the circulation, through which medium they are conveyed to every part of the body.

If the pain affects the joints, a single dose produces remarkable benefit. And the same rule applies to costiveness, diarrhea and dysentery; though with the last named they may be required night and morning for some days before decided relief is obtained. In affections of the lungs, throat, head and pleurisy, the relief is certain; the excretory organs throw off with ease the phlegm, and the breathing becomes freer. Spasmodic asthma is often cured by a single dose. mch28dawlm

IN BOARD OF ALDERMEN, Thursday evening, a petition of J. W. Pierce and nine others asking that an appropriation be made for a survey and plan of the entire territory of the city, was referred to Ald. Ayers and Foster to report.

The subject of repairing Anthony street was referred to the Mayor and Street Commissioner.

Voted, That the Board of Health be requested to furnish this Board with a list of places where swine are kept in this city, which they consider nuisances.

A message having been received that the Common Council had voted to adhere to their vote of non-concurrence in amendments adopted by the Board of Aldermen to the ordinance relating to hotels, billiard rooms, saloons, &c., it was voted that the Aldermen reconsider the vote to adhere to their amendments to said bill; also, voted, that the Aldermen recede from their amendments. The ordinance as passed in concurrence reads as follows:

An Ordinance relating to Hotels, Taverns, Billiard Rooms, Saloons, &c.

Be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Portsmouth—

SEC. 1. That no person shall keep open any bar-room or place in any hotel, tavern, boarding, lodging or eating-house, or any cellar, restaurant, billiard saloon or billiard hall, shop, bowling alley, or other building, in said city, for the reception of company, and for selling, exposing for sale, or giving away any intoxicating liquor, wines, ales, ciders, fruits, nuts, cigars or oysters, between the hours of eleven o'clock in the afternoon and four-and-a-half o'clock in the forenoon.

SEC. 2. Any person, upon conviction of violating this ordinance, shall be punished by a fine of not less than $10 nor more than $20.

The ordinance increasing the pay of firemen to $15 each per annum was defeated; yeas on the question of the passage of the bill, Hodgdon, Henderson and Martin—3; nays, Ayers, Davis, Foster and Ham—4.

Licenses for billiard rooms were fixed at $50 per annum each.

In Common Council, it was voted to adhere to their former vote, non-concurring in amendments made by the Board of Aldermen to the hotel bill.

The following ordinance was passed in concurrence:

An ordinance to amend an ordinance to prevent unlawful and injurious practices in this city.

SEC. 1. Three or more persons shall not stand or remain in a group, or near each other, on any sidewalk, or crosswalk, or in any street or public way, in such a manner as to obstruct a free passage thereon or therein, for a longer time than five minutes after a request made by any person to move on, under a penalty severally, on conviction, of not less than one dollar nor more than ten dollars. And three or more persons standing or remaining in a group or near each other on any sidewalk or crosswalk, or in any street or public way, in such a manner as to obstruct a free passage thereon or therein, and refusing or neglecting to move on immediately after a request so to do, made by the Mayor, the Marshal or any Constable or Police Officer, shall each and severally, on conviction, be punished by a fine of not less than three dollars nor more than ten dollars.

[QUERY.—If three or more is, are, were or will be a group,—is, are, were or will two be a crowd?]

The Com. on 2d Reading of Bills reported back the Appropriation Bill with amendments. The bill contains appropriations amounting to about $170,000,—including $8000 for the construction of a Ward Room in Ward 3, and $10,000 for the purchase and repairs of the Academy, for use as a School House in Dist. No. 2. The Council went into Committee of the Whole on the appropriation bill, Councilman French of Ward 3 in the chair. After discussion, the Committee rose and reported the bill to the Council.

Adjourned.

POLICE COURT, April 27.—"The three Graces,"—Joseph Lee, William Miller and Annie Robinson,—were before the Court to answer to a charge of drunkenness. They were each and severally fined $3, and costs $3.86, but failing to "come down with the Stamps," they were sent to the City Agricultural School, where Superintendent Philbrick will keep them from disgracing themselves for some time to come. Singularly enough, two of the parties were found drunk on Water——street.

☞ Mr. Wendell intends to have a busy time to-day, as our auction column shows. At 10 o'clock he sells room papers, furniture, &c., at his salesrooms. At 12 o'clock the brick house No. 38 Daniel street, and at half-past 12 the house 6 1-2 Hunking street.

Betton & Co. have their regular Saturday sale at 10 o'clock.

☞ Chas. Tomlinson, a rigger, received serious internal injuries while discharging machinery from the brig Flora King, at the Navy Yard, on Wednesday last, caused by the parting of a chain.

☞ Col. M. F. Wentworth has been appointed by the proper authorities to obtain the necessary information relative to the purchase of Seavey's Island.

— Fears of the cholera have set the Washingtonians to work cleaning the city, and Congress has been asked to appropriate $25,000 to aid in the good work.

☞ Steamer New Brunswick, with 200 Fenians on board, from Eastport, arrived in Portland Friday morning. On the boat leaving for Boston, some who had gone ashore were left behind; and when at the mouth of the harbor, some of the Fenians drew their pistols on the officers of the boat, and thus compelled them to put back. They did so, and put the most quarrelsome passengers ashore, and went to Boston with the remainder. Quite a large number of the Fenians passed through this city in the train from the east on that morning.

"GOT THE BLUES."—How often do we hear this complaint made. The reason generally ascribed is that something has gone wrong, but if you will question the patient in regard to health, habits, &c., you will very often find that indigestion is the prime cause; the intimacy of the brain and stomach is very close, and nothing so sours the feelings and disposition as dyspepsia. It is a singular fact that most suicides are dyspeptics. If our nourishment is properly digested, the brain is free and unoppressed, and will solve our troubles, pointing out sunshine ahead and inclining us to look on the bright side of life; thus it is our duty to guard against this one cause, indigestion—and we know of nothing so potent to assist digestion as Coe's Dyspepsia Cure. It has cured some very bad cases of dyspepsia of even ten or fifteen years' standing.

Lodi Manufacturing Company's POUDRETTE.

AGENT FOR NEW HAMPSHIRE,
J. F. SHORES, Jr.,
No. 38 Market Street (Up Stairs.)

The advantages of Poudrette as a manure may be stated as follows:

First, its ECONOMY. The cost of the manure compared with its effects is less than that of any other fertilizer in use. It can be bought and applied for the same money which it would cost only to apply farm-yard manure. It is portable, contains great strength in a small compass, and needs no extra care in its application; the closer its contact with the seed the better and quicker it works. $4.50 worth at retail (or two and one-half barrels) will manure an acre of corn in the hill, and from one-quarter to one-third to the product, and will mature the crop from two to three weeks earlier. No worms will stay in the hill where the Poudrette is placed. No seeds of weeds will germinate, and crops are very free of pluckings or out of the hill. On Corn, Tobacco and Garden Vegetables it has no equal. While the leaf and growth of the Tobacco plant is large, it has not the coarseness of fibre which is produced by Peruvian Guano, and it has taken the lead for this crop in Connecticut, and has begun to be appreciated in Maryland.

It is famous for producing larger and finer potatoes than anything else, and the stories told about Onions, their large growth &c., are almost beyond credence. Flowers and plants are much improved by an application of Poudrette.

Another great consideration is the season of the year when the corn is planted. It is a time when every spring crop must be put in, and the corn not only planted, but up and grown sufficiently for the last hoeing and planting, before the commencement of grain and hay harvest.—The celerity and dispatch with which a large crop of corn is put in and poudretted, the rapid growth and consequently the early opportunity of working among it—the small chance for weeds, owing to the shade it affords, and the fact that the Poudrette, unlike other manures, contains no seed that can germinate, and consequently less trouble required to clean it—are all important advantages. The corn will ripen two weeks earlier, and the yield will be much heavier.

The same remarks apply to Sorghum and Broom Corn.

For grass, where it is about to be laid down to lawn, or for several years, a top dressing of Poudrette will be found invaluable.

We wish to remark in this place, that Poudrette is not like some quack medicines, warranted to cure all kinds of diseases. It must be used with discretion, and a reasonable quantity will produce a reasonable effect.

Poudrette will answer no better than other manures on wet, sour, undrained land, or in seasons of drought. In other words, Poudrette is an invaluable substitute for barn-yard manure, and can be used with great profit and advantage upon most spring crops, but it will neither work miracles, drain the land it is put upon, nor cause rain to fall in time of drought.

Price per Barrel $2.25—delivered at any point of the city, or at any depot or wharf.

Important Notice!—When Poudrette is spoken of, we mean "LODI POUDRETTE," which has now stood the test of twenty-six years' trial; and when buying, be sure and get that kind!

A descriptive pamphlet may be had on application. mh29

Important.

DR. STEVENS, No 5 Daniel Street, would give notice that he has reduced the price of Permanent Sets of ARTIFICIAL TEETH on the Vulcanite Base, to that charged for them before the war.

He would also give notice that he is doing a new style of work for Under Sets of Teeth, called the COMBINATION BASE (Gold and Vulcanite) which produces by far the finest work offered to the public. The price is something in advance of that charged for the Vulcanite alone, but the strength, durability, ease of bearing, and beauty of finish obtained by it, more than double the value of the Teeth. mh12

GEORGE F. WEED,
Sub-Ass-ist-ant Dent-ist-
FIRST ASSISTANT in the Office of DR. STEVENS, NO. 5 DANIEL STREET.

DR. WEED can be found at his place of business at all hours of the day and night, for the performance of any of the operations that come within the call of his profession.

Dr. A. P. STEVENS, No. 5 Daniel St., makes the saving of BLOSHARED and painful front teeth, a speciality in his business. He also successfully restores to their natural shape broken or badly decayed teeth, by building out corners and sides with PURE GOLD. (In many cases teeth so restored are as strong as any of their brother members, and in all cases are rendered eminently useful for a long series of years.) DIS MASKED TEETH, in all stages, treated, and in a very large majority of cases entire success attained.

Charges for such operations necessarily high, but nothing in comparison to the value of the Teeth. mon14

WHICH IS THE
Leading Life Insurance Comp'y
IN THE UNITED STATES?
Which is the Safest and the Cheapest?

The following figures are from the later Reports of the New York Insurance Commissioner, showing the "amount of business" of the

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

to be the largest, the "expenses of management" the smallest, the "ratio of Assets to Liabilities," or the security furnished to its members, the largest of any like institution in the country.

Premiums received in 1864.....$2,089,072
" " " 1865.....2,059,067

Ratio of expenses to premiums rec'd in '64...12.96
" " " " " '65...12.16

Ratio of assets to liabilities, Jan. 1, 1865....151.85

The inevitable conclusion from these official facts, is that the

MUTUAL BENEFIT LIFE
Insurance Company
IS THE BEST AND THE CHEAPEST.

Because its NET ASSETS are proportionably LARGER than those of any other Life Insurance Company in the United States.

Because its "Managing Expenses" are LESS, and it has a LARGER SURPLUS to divide among its members than any Company in the United States.

QUERY. Will some one inform the public of that mysterious process by which a Company with a surplus proportionably much less, and expenses very much larger than another, can yet divide more to its members, and insure them at less cost? How is it done? Where does the money come from?

Every intelligent man will see at once that it cannot be done. Yet we have Agents among us that make this their boast.

Any one disposed or intending to insure can be furnished with the requisite information by applying to

HENRY A. YEATON, Agent.

Morning Chronicle.

THE FIRST BABY.—Artemus Ward or Josh Billings calls Babies "the delirium tremens of matrimony." And some other good joker,—we don't know who—gives the following graphic portrayal of "the first baby:"

Married by the Rev. Mr. ——, J. W. C. to C. E. D., only daughter, &c. "No cards."

We didn't say, no baby. I have one of those interesting little animals at home. It came when it rained like the deuce, dark as pitch, and my umbrella at the store, no car running. The doctor lived five miles due west, and the nurse six miles due east; and when I got home to the bosom of my family, the condensed milk man was at the next door. It's a funny little chap, that baby; Solferino color, and the length of a Bologna sausage. Cross? I guess not.

Um, um; it commenced chasing me down the pathway of life just when muslin, linen, and white flannel were the highest they had been since Adam built a hen house for Mrs. Eve's chickens. The doctors charge two dollars a squint, four dollars a grunt, and on account of the scarcity of rain in the country, take what is left in a man's pocket, no discount for cash, and send bill for balance, January 1st. A queer little thing is that baby; a speck of a nose like a wart; head as bald as a squash, and no place to hitch a waterfall; a mouth just suited to come the gum game and chew milk.

Oh, crackee! you should hear her sing. I have bumped it, stuffed my fur cap down its throat, given it the smoothing iron to play with, but that little red lump that looks as if it couldn't hold blood enough to keep a mosquito from fainting, persists in yelling like thunder. It shows a great desire to swallow its fists, and the other day they dropped down its throat, and all that prevented their going clean through was the crook in its elbows. It stopped its music, and I was happy for one and a-half minutes.

It's a pleasant thing to have a baby in the house—one of your belly-ache kind. Think of the pleasures of a father, in dishabille, trembling in the midnight hour, with his warm feet upon a square yard of cold oil cloth, dropping paregoric in a spoon by moonlight, the nurse thumping on the door, wife of your bosom shouting hurry, and the baby yelling till the fresco drops from the ceiling. It's a nice time to think of dress-coats, pants, ties, and white kids. Shades of departed cocktails, what a picture for an artist in Plaster Paris.

It's mother says the darling is troubled with wind on the stomach; it beats all the instruments you ever heard of. I have to get up in the cold and shiver while the milk warms; it uses the bottle. I have a cradle with the representation of a miraculous soothing syrup bottle on the dash board. I tried to stop its breath the other night; it was no go; I rocked it so hard it missed stays, and sent it slap clear across the room, upsetting a jar of preserves. It didn't make any noise then! Oh, no.

It's mother says only wait till it gets bleached, (its been vaccinated,) and old enough to crawl about and feed sore pins. Yes, I am going to wait. Won't it be delightful. John, run for the doctor, sis has fed in the slop pail and is choking with a potato skin; sis has fell down stairs; sis has swallowed the tack hammer; shows signs of of the mumps, croup, whooping cough, small pox, colic, dysentery, cholera infantum, or some other darn thing to let the doctor take the money laid by for my winter's corn beef, and all this comes of my champooning and curling my hair, wearing nice clothes, and looking handsome, going a courting and making my wife fall in love and marry me.

The Chronicle.

☞ The National Temperance Society will hold a convention in the city of New York, May 9th, when the Provisional Committees, appointed to organize a National Temperance Society and Publication House, will present their reports. The Convention will assemble in the morning at 10 o'clock, in the Central Presbyterian Church, Broome Street, near Broadway (Rev. James P. Dunn, Pastor.) A public meeting will be held in the evening at 7 1-2 o'clock in the Cooper Institute, when addresses will be made by eminent speakers. Among others, Gen. Howard is invited, and will attend if public business will permit.

☞ Some readers may remember that the President made a speech some days ago to an assembly which purported to be "soldiers" and others. So it was, chiefly others. A Washington correspondent of the Boston Recorder says, in regard to the matter:

The President made another speech, nominally to the soldiers and sailors; but the meeting to call on him was really gotten up by Priestly Young of Worcester, Mass., the delegate whom the Christian Commission expelled from its ranks a year ago for his homage to Jeff. Davis. It was a self laudatory speech and egotistical; but Mr. Johnson speaks so often that we have no right to expect ability or statesmanship in all his speeches.

☞ In the late English papers, it is stated that the Government has sent orders to Mr. Rawson, Governor of the Bahamas, to assume the Governorship of Jamaica on the return of Sir Henry Storks. Austrian and Prussian, affairs continue in undiminished uncertainty, causing great depression in funds and commerce generally. The Times on the 12th in its city article, says: "The only fact before the public is that all proceedings between Austria and Prussia are from day to day identical with those which have usually preceded every modern war between powerful nations." A Paris correspondent says that whatever little hope there was that peace would be maintained seems to be rapidly vanishing.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth N. H.

MONDAY, APRIL 30, 1866.

☞ The New York Congressional Caucus has prepared a Reconstruction scheme, in the shape of a Constitutional Amendment, which we presume is considered a compromise on which the President and Congress can unite,—and which it supposed will be approved by the Reconstruction Committee. Senator Wilson has also offered nearly the same plan in a shorter form. In brief, it bases Representation on the Census, deducting citizens from whom voting is withheld; prohibits payment of rebel debt or payment for slaves; and provides that every ex-rebel State ratifying this article shall be represented in Congress.

☞ On Thursday night, at Detroit, the passenger and freight depots of the Detroit and Milwaukee and Michigan Southern Railroads, and the Ferry steamer Windsor were destroyed by fire. The loss to the Detroit and Milwaukee Railroad Company $200,000, and the Michigan Southern lose $20,000. The fire was occasioned by a barrel of kerosene oil, which leaking was ignited from a lamp. The fire spread in all directions and in a few seconds the building and ferry were wrapped in flames. A remarkable loss of life occurred on the boat. The Tribune gives the names of 28 deck deck hands, firemen and porters who are supposed to have been burnt or drowned. The boat was towed to the shore where she burned to the water's edge.

☞ Rev. John R. Adams, D. D., of Gorham, Me., died suddenly at Northampton, Mass., on the 25th inst., at the age of 64. Dr. A. has been known as a faithful pastor at Londonderry, N. H., Brighton, Mass., and in Gorham; and more recently as a brave and loyal chaplain in the gallant 6th Corps of the Army of the Potomac, from before Bull Run to the surrender of Lee. No truer heart, or manlier, was found in the ranks of the patriot soldiery. He has left a most honorable record here, and a better still "is on high."

JAMAICA.—The commission which is investigating the Jamiaca tragedy has nearly completed its labors, and is expected to return to England about the middle of May. There have been fifty sessions, and a thousand witnesses have been examined. Three short-hand writers have been constantly employed, and the mass of evidence, when published, cannot be very entertaining reading for the self-love of Englishmen. It promises, judging from the specimens we have seen, (says the Boston Journal) to disclose an amount of cowardice and cruelty unparalleled in the history of any people assuming civilization and Christianity for at least a hundred years past.

DIVORCE ON THE GROUND OF CRUELTY.—Chief Justice Bigelow made short work with a divorce case which came before him at Springfield, Mass. a day or two ago. It was an application of a wife for divorce from her husband, on the ground of extreme cruelty. It coming up in testimony that the woman had been beaten and otherwise ill used by her husband, the Judge at once decided the case in her favor, taking occasion to remark that in case of any violence by a husband to the wife, he should not hear all the points before deciding in favor of the latter. The woman might forgive cruelty toward herself, but the court would not.

THE POPE ROBBED.—Somebody has stolen the autograph letters addressed by foreign sovereigns to the Pope, who kept them in a secret drawer. Among them were letters by Louis Napoleon, which compromised that imperial gentleman, and which the Pope, it is said, intended eventually to publish. Perhaps such a suspicion led to the robbery.

VIRGINIA UNIONISTS.—The anti secession Union men of Virginia have been comparing notes, and they find the sentiment throughout the State unanimous in favor of holding a convention of the party. It is now announced that the first meeting will be held in Alexandria, on Thursday, May 17th.

TUFTS COLLEGE.—The Gospel Banner states that Sylvanus Packard, who recently died in Boston, and who had been a liberal friend of Tufts College, left the residue of his property—amounting to more than $100,000, profitably invested—to that institution.

— A store in Norfolk, leased some time ago for the enormous sum of $2400 per annum, was on Friday last rented by auction for $57 per month.

— The Pennsylvania papers are predicting a splendid fruit crop in that State. In Dauphin county the peach, plum and apricot trees are in bloom, and there is every promise of an abundant yield.

— The Toledo (Ohio) Blade asserts that there are, by actual count, one hundred and seventy-different styles of hats worn by the ladies of that city, and visible any fine day on the street.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— The Rochester Courier says the mills at Gonic are running only one-third of their machinery.

—— A new paper has been started in Great Falls by the name of "Great Falls Weekly News," and is published by B. F. Thorndike, recently of Portland.

—— The Free Press has never known business so lively in Lebanon as at the present time. That's a ray of comfort to the croakers who prophecy "dull times."

—— At Upper Gilmanton, on Monday of last week, a little girl, six years of age, running along beside an ox-team, on the farm of Chas. L. Prescott, stumbled and fell, and the wheel killed her by passing over her head.—On Monday night, in the same town, the stable floor of H. G. Prescott broke down into the cellar, and his valuable horse, being hung by his halter, was found dead in the morning.

—— The ninetieth birthday of Aaron Gage, Esq., of Merrimack, was honored by a gathering of his relatives at his residence on the farm which he and his father have owned for ninety years. Among the visitors were a brother of Mr. Gage, aged 81 years, and a sister aged 76. The company sat down to a table covered with a cloth manufactured by Mr. Gage's mother, and laid with pewter dishes she had before her marriage—93 years ago.

SHIP NEWS.—The Wolfeborough News of Wednesday last says: "On Thursday steamer Union got up steam and took a trip around the harbor, and on Friday the Naugatuck did the same. On Friday afternoon the hearts of all were gladdened by the appearance of the Chocorua, rounding Sewall's Point. At this time the Lady of the Lake has not arrived. She will doubtless be in to-day. Steamer Dolly Dutton is undergoing some repairs, and is not quite ready for sea.

HEADLEY'S HISTORY OF THE REBELLION.—From the American Publishing Co., Hartford, Conn., we have this interesting addition to our literature of the war. Written heartily, earnestly and truthfully, this work will add much even to Mr. Headley's popularity as the most brilliant modern writer of military history. In two volumes (of 1200 pages combined), royal octavo, with numerous original steel engravings, the work is gotten up without regard to outlay by the publishers, who know that good books pay best in the end, and whose "Field Dungeon and Escape" is as yet unsurpassed by any published work of its kind. The History will be sold by subscription only, and agents are wanted, who will find profitable employment in its sale. Scranton & Burr, agents, Hartford.

— The Vermont papers are horrified over the details of the murder of Amos Krat and the burning of John E. Kaike. Muskrats and Johnny cakes are so liable to those styles of treatment in this State that no account is taken of them.

— A well-dressed woman was recently arrested when entering Belgium for concealing 130 yards of Valenciennes lace in the Chignon, or "water fall," and since then any unusual dimension of that unsightly protuberance is strictly examined by the custom house officials.

— An interesting little daughter of Peter S. Poorks of Westerly, R. I., was fatally poisoned on Sunday afternoon by taking creosote. She was about four years of age, and was playing with an older sister, aged about six years, when they found the bottle containing creosote in a bureau, and both took some—the younger child plentifully, who died in a few minutes.

— An unknown woman, too poor to pay the fare across the regular bridge at Troy, last week, attempted to pass on the long railroad bridge, and becoming dizzy, fell through into the water and was drowned. No one knew her name or history, but it is supposed that she was the mother of a little boy who was found crying in the streets for his mother on the same evening.

— On Thursday last a torpedo, which had been sunk for three years and one month, in Charleston harbor, exploded off the beach of Sullivan's Island, near battery "B," in about eight fathoms of water. It is supposed to have been exploded by the dragging of a vessel's cable. It lifted an immense volume of water, and presented quite a grand appearance.

— The Danville (Va.) has intelligence from Halifax, Pittsylvania and Charlotte counties to the effect that all large farmers and planters agree in the statement that the freedmen are behaving admirably and performing as much work as they could be reasonably required to do. They hope to make as large or larger crops than ever before, and at no greater cost.

— The people at the Hub have a stock known as the Boston Water Power. The bulls and bears are just now having an awful quarrel over it, and have run the price at the brokers' board up almost out of sight, or from about seventeen to forty dollars per share. In view of this queer state of things, the Transcript proposes to call the concern the Brandy and Water Power.

THE U. S. SENATE, Friday, April 27, passed the bill for reimbursing contractors for their losses in building naval ships. Iron-clads, monitors and double-enders were adroitly maneuvered, and Senator Clark found it impossible to maintain his ground against the combined squadron of Senators who advocated increased remuneration. An attempt was made to postpone the further consideration of the bill until December, but it was defeated by a vote of 25 to 11, and after having been so amended as to include Donald McKay and Miles Greenwood, the bill passed.

Senator Sherman made another onslaught on the telegraph monopolies, which render the use of the wires a luxury only enjoyed by the rich. In his memory it had cost twenty-five cents to send a letter from New York to Ohio; now it costs but three cents, and the same to California. He thought telegraphing should be reduced in the same ratio.

The House slaughtered the bill granting aid to the Northern Pacific Railroad, which was fatally injured by the attacks upon some gentlemen connected with it.

The vote on laying the bill on the table was seventy-six to fifty-six, the New England members voting as follows:

Yeas—Messrs. Pike of Maine, Deming and Hubbard of Connecticut, Jenckes of Rhode Island, and Morrill of Vermont.

Nays—Messrs. Lynch, Peterham and Rice of Maine, Marston, Patterson and Rollins of New Hampshire, Baxter and Woodbridge of Vermont, and Banks, Boutwell, Dawes and Washburn of Massachusetts.

Not Voting—(Some being absent and others paired) Messrs. Blaine of Maine, Alley, Baldwin, Eliot, Hooper and Rice of Massachusetts, and Dixon of Rhode Island.

This probably settles the fate of the bill for the present session. Under different management, says Perley, it might have been passed, as it was very evident that there is a strong personal feeling at the Capital against those who have had it in charge—excepting President Smith.

The Senate Committee on the District of Columbia will probably yield to the express wishes of the President and report a suffrage bill for the District, conferring the right on such colored men as possess education, or who have served in the army or in the navy. If the House had passed such a bill, much of the existing political feeling between the Capitol and the White House might have been spared.

[Perhaps so; but who knows?]

A NOBLE FINANCIER.—Last Thursday evening, at Cambridge, Mass., there was held the final meeting of the "Committee of One Hundred," which was appointed at a meeting of citizens in the early part of 1864, to aid the City Government in obtaining recruits to fill the quota of Cambridge under the various calls of the President of the United States. In the summer of 1864 the President issued a call for a large number of men, and a draft in Cambridge seemed imminent. The Committee, together with the City Government, exerted themselves to the utmost to prevent a draft, but so large was the number of men required, and so high was the price demanded, that a draft seemed inevitable. At this time Hon. J. M. S. Williams, well known as a public spirited citizen, came forward and promised to insure against the draft every man who would pay fifty dollars, offering, in case a profit accrued from the operation, to pay over the whole thereof to a fund which had previously been established for the benefit of soldiers and their families; while if there was any loss, he (Mr. W.) would meet it out of his own pocket. This offer was considered a very hazardous one for Mr. Williams to make; good judges estimating that his probable loss would amount to $30,000, and he himself considered that he risked the loss of about $10,000. So eagerly, however, was the offer accepted by the citizens, that the whole sum received by him was about $60,000. Of this he expended all but about $9000 (in connection with a committee of the City Government,) in procuring recruits. The balance he has paid over to the fund, according to the agreement.

At the close of the meeting a resolution passed unanimously presenting the thanks of the committee and public to Mr. Williams, for proposing at a very critical period a plan which not only saved the city from a draft, but also created a handsome fund in aid of soldiers' families.

THE PRESIDENT AND THE COLORED SCHOOLS OF MOBILE.—The fine building of the Alabama medical college at Mobile has for some time been occupied by colored schools under the direction of the Freedmen's Bureau. The Alabamians have been very indignant about it, and have made several appeals to the President for the restoration of the building. Just before their last appeal, several African churches in Mobile had been burned down by the negro-hating mob, and the President had heard the facts. He thereupon gave this significant reply to the petitioners:

It seems to me your colored churches are too combustible; at any rate they are nearly all burned up, and there are no other buildings which the school can occupy. So it will have to stay where it is, for aught I can see at present. If you can set the church business right, perhaps some arrangement can be made.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. IMPORTANCE OF HAVING DAVIS' PAIN KILLER ALWAYS ON HAND.

Wonderful Cure of the Rev. D. L. Brayton, Missionary in India, who was stung by a Scorpion.

Extract from his letter, published in the Baptist missionary Magazine:

"For the first time since I have been in India, I have been stung by a scorpion. I went out this morning to my exercises, as usual, at early dawn, and having occasion to use an old box, on taking off the cover I put my hand on a scorpion, which immediately resented the insult by thrusting its sting into the palm of my hand. The instantaneous and severe pain which darted through the system is quite incredible; what an awfully virulent poison their sting must contain! I FLEW TO MY BOTTLE OF DAVIS' PAIN KILLER, and found it to be true to its name; after a moment's relief, I saturated a small piece of sponge, bound it on my hand, and went about my exercises, feeling no more particular inconvenience.

☞ Chloasma, or Mothpatch, (also called Liverspot,) and Lentigo, or Freckles, are often very annoying, particularly to ladies of light complexion, for the discolored spots show more plainly on the face of a blonde than of a brunette; but they greatly mar the beauty of either and any preparation that will effectually remove them, without injuring the texture or color of the skin, is certainly a desideratum. Dr. B. C. PERRY, who has made diseases of the skin a speciality, has discovered a remedy for these discolorations, which is at once prompt, infallible and harmless.

MAGGIEL'S
Spring and Summer Remedies.

"Great oaks from little acorns grow." The worst diseases known to the human race spring from causes so small as to almost defy detection. The volumes of scientific lore that fill the tables and shelves of the medical fraternity only go to prove and elaborate these truths. Then guard yourselves while you may. The smallest pimple on the skin is a tell tale and indicator of disease. It may fade and die away from the surface of the body, but it will reach the vitals, perhaps, at last, and death be the result and final close. CURE OF VARICOSE VEINS.

City Point, Va., January 24, 1865.

T. ALLCOCK & CO:

Gentlemen: Seeing your notice in the Police Gazette, I got four of your Porous Plasters and placed them on the parts where the pains were most severe, and in less than twelve hours could walk as well as ever. I could hardly believe it, I was so well pleased. I wanted to see if the lameness would come back on me or not, so I did more walking that day than I had done in a week. The next day I had some pain in my hip, but I put on a plaster there and in two hours the pain was all gone, nor have I felt it since. Certainly they are the best application for the relief and cure of pains in the joints and back, and for varicose or enlarged veins, I have ever known, and I would not be without them on any account Yours truly,

PISCATAQUA JOCKEY CLUB.—Spring Meeting.—Quite a large number of spectators witnessed the first race, though no notice had previously been given. It was a quarter-dash, between a bay stallion drawing a light grocery wagon, and a black mare under the saddle. The track was in good condition, though a little dusty, and a great number of teams seemed to obstruct the route. A peculiarity of this race was that neither horse had a driver. The track chosen was up Pleasant street from the Post Office, and down Market past Hanover. The stallion had a collision with an Exeter team, and the filly came in ahead. Below we give the POLICE COURT, April 28.—Up from the entire South rises the complaint of an insufficiency of laborers to till the soil. At present our city plantation does not seem at all likely to suffer in this respect. Judge Odell is making frequent consignments to Supt. Philbrick, of men who have freed themselves of stamps and the restraints of society. On Saturday "Johnny Rourke," who was lately released from durance vile at Exeter, was added to the number, in default of the $6.86 required for the offence of drunkenness. We shall need a "bureau" for our Agricultural School ere long.

☞ Mr. Newell Clifford, of this city, died in the Massachusetts General Hospital on Friday last, where he was under treatment for cancer.

☞ Mr. E. A. Joy, an experienced Teacher, is about to open in this city a School for Boys, in which he will give them a Business Education, including Penmanship, Arithmetic, Book-keeping, and other branches—the school to be opened as soon as a proper room can be fitted up.

☞ Mr. Hartley W. Mason is shortly to open a store for the sale of Dry and Fancy Goods, at No. 3 Market street, lately vacated by Mr. Whittemore, which is to be remodeled and refitted for the purpose.

"HOME AGAIN FROM A FOREIGN SHORE." The celebrated Alleghanians, Vocalists and Bell Players, arrived in New York last week, per steamship Hibernia, from their European tour, where they have been very successful. While in England, in January last, they appeared before Her Majesty the Queen and the Royal Family, at Windsor Castle. D. G. Waldron, of this city returned with the troupe.

☞ On Friday morning, at Portland, a brick stable on Temple street, occupied by H. L. Taylor & Co., was burned with five horses, four valued at $1000 each, all the carriages and harnesses, fodder and fixtures.

— Rev. T. E. St. John, pastor of the Universalist church in Worcester, has accepted a call to be settled over a Universalist society in Chicago, with a salary of $4000.

— The celebrated George Cruikshank, whose drawings have so amused mankind, is now 77 years of age. A sum of money is now in process of collection for him by a committee of whom Mr. Ruskin is chairman.

— A negro named Avery, of Putnam county, Ga., who recently wrote a letter to the Memphis Post, giving an unfavorable account of affairs in his section, was found drowned a few days ago, with a bag of stones fastened around his neck.

— The Washington Republican, government organ, states that under no circumstances will Austria be allowed to land a single soldier in Mexico. The American people may be assured that that the Monroe doctrine will be maintained at all hazards.

— Gen. Fisk reports that all through Tennessee his order of cleanliness among the freedmen is being carried out in a very efficient manner, in anticipation of cholera. The negroes of Memphis have subscribed ten thousand dollarr for building a hospital their for their own use.

— The Postmaster at Columbus, Ohio, anxious to keep out of party strife, declares that he has been too busy to read either of the Presidential vetoes, and therefore can express no opinion upon them. Discreet officer! He knows that in this case "ignorance is bliss."

— The Worcester Spy reports that Rev. Joseph Smith the Baptist Minister of North Oxford, died very suddenly on Thursday morning, supposed of apoplexy. He arose as usual and went out to saw a few sticks of wood, and about fifteen minutes afterwards was found dead.

— The monument erected to commemorate the surrender of Vicksburg, and which marks the spot where Grant and and Pemberton held their memorable conference, has been sadly mutilated. The railing surrounding it has been torn down, the marble slab chipped off and Gen. Grant's name defaced.

GOLD, Saturday, 129.

— It is stated that during a recent storm in Wisconsin the lightning was seen to strike into the lake in the vicinity of Madison, and masses of ice, two feet in thickness were hurled hundreds of feet in the air, and the latent heat, set free by the change of vapor to liquid, was so great as to raise the temperature from below the freezing point to that in summer (72 deg.) and preserved it there for nearly twenty four hours.

PATENT MEDICINES.—If faith would cure disease, our physicians' occupation would be gone; the afflicted need only read the advertisements in the papers to be "made whole;" but the nostrums prepared by these pseudo doctors do not often "back up" the faith inspired by their advertisements. We do not mean to condemn all so-called patent medicines, for some have been found to be very valuable. In this class we would include Coe's Cough Balsam, for coughs, croup, hoarseness, &c., and Coe's Dyspepsia Cure, for indigestion, dyspepsia, and all troubles of the stomach or bowels—they have been tested in thousands of cases. Our dealers all sell them. ap8eodawlw

Lodi Manufacturing Company's POUDRETTE.

AGENT FOR NEW HAMPSHIRE,
J. F. SHORES, Jr.,
No. 38 Market Street (Up Stairs.)

The advantages of Poudrette as a manure may be stated as follows:

First, its ECONOMY. The cost of the manure compared with its effects is less than that of any other fertilizer in market. It can be bought and applied for the same money which it would cost only to apply farm-yard manure. It is portable, contains great strength in a small compass, and needs no extra care in its application; the closer its contact with the seed the better and quicker it works. $4.50 worth at our retail price (or two barrels) will manure an acre of corn in the hill, add from one-quarter to one-third to the product, and will mature the crop from two to three weeks earlier. No worms will stay in the hill where the Poudrette is placed. No seeds of weeds will germinate, and crows are very shy of plucking it out of the hill. Sweet Corn, Tobacco and Garden Vegetables it has no equal. While the leaf and growth of the Tobacco plant is large, it has not the coarseness of fibre which is produced by Peruvian Guano, and it has not the lead for this crop in Connecticut, and has begun to be appreciated in Maryland.

It is famous for producing larger and finer potatoes than anything else, and the stories told about Onions, their large growth, &c., are almost beyond credence. Flowers and plants are much improved by an application of Poudrette.

Another great consideration is the season of the year when the corn is planted. It is a time when every spring crop must be put in, and the corn not only planted, but up and grown sufficiently for the last hoeing and planting, before the commencement of grain and hay harvest.—The celerity and dispatch with which a large crop of corn is put in and carried, the rapid growth and consequently the early opportunity of working among it—the small chance for weeds, owing to the shade it affords, and the fact that the Poudrette, unlike other manures, contains no seed that can germinate, and consequently less trouble required to clean it—are all important advantages. The corn will ripen two weeks earlier, and the yield will be much heavier.

The same remarks apply to Sorghum and Broom Corn

For grass, where it is about to be laid down to lawn, or for several years, a top dressing of Poudrette will be found invaluable.

We wish to remark in this place, that Poudrette is not like some quack medicines, warranted to cure all kinds of diseases. It must be used with discretion, and a reasonable quantity will produce a reasonable effect.

Poudrette will answer no better than other manures on wet, sour, undrained land, or in seasons of drought. In other words, Poudrette is an invaluable substitute for barn-yard manure, and can be used with great profit and advantage upon most spring crops, but it will neither work miracles, drain the land it is put upon, nor cause rain to fall in time of drought.

Price per Barrel $2.25—delivered at any part of the city, or at any depot or wharf.

Important Notice!—When Poudrette is spoken of, we mean "LODI POUDRETTE," which has now stood the test of twenty-six years' trial; and when buying, be sure and get that kind!

A descriptive pamphlet may be had on application. mh29

DUTCHESS NURSERIES

POUGHKEEPSIE, NEW YORK,

FERRIS & CAYWOOD, Proprietors.

We call the attention of our customers and the public to our stock of GRAPE VINES, which is larger than ever before. Having had over twenty years' experience in the management of Vineyards and the propagation of Vines and our present stock having been grown from bearing wood only, with constant care during the season, we think they will compare favorably with any others that are offered for sale.

Our stock of MONTGOMERY VINES is very large. This variety not being generally known, we will give a brief description, viz: It is a seedling of the White Chasselas, an unparalled grower and bearer, clusters often weighing two pounds, with a mild nutmeg flavor. It is classed with the hardy grapes, but we protect it in winter as we do all other varieties in this part of the State.

Our stock of the various kinds of EVERGREEN and DECIDUOUS TREES is very large, and is offered at moderate price; and at very low rates by the quantity, to those who are laying out and improving their places, cemeteries, or public grounds, and to nurserymen. We challenge competition.

Important.

DR. STEVENS, No 5 Daniel Street, would give notice that he has REDUCED the price of Permanent Sets of ARTIFICIAL TEETH on the Vulcanite Base, to that charged for them before the war.

He would also give notice that he is doing a new style of work for Under Sets of Teeth, called the COMBINATION BASE (Gold and Vulcanite) which produces by far the finest work offered to the public. The price is something in advance of that charged for the Vulcanite alone, but the strength, durability, ease of bearing, and beauty of finish obtained by it, more than double the value of the teeth. mh12

He also successfully restores to their natural shape broken or badly decayed teeth, by building out corners and sides with PURE GOLD. (In many cases teeth so restored are as strong as any of their brother members, and in all cases are rendered eminently useful for a long series of years.) DISEASED TEETH, in all stages, treated, and in a very large majority of cases entire success attained.

Charges for such operations necessarily high, but nothing in comparison to the value of the teeth. mch14

WHICH IS THE

Leading Life Insurance Comp'y

IN THE UNITED STATES?

Which is the Safest and the Cheapest?

The following figures are from the later Reports of the New York Insurance Commissioner, showing the "amount of business" of the

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

to be the largest, the "expenses of management" the smallest, the "ratio of Assets to Liabilities," or the security furnished to its members, the largest of any life institution in the country.

Premiums received in 1864.....$2,089,072
" " " " " 1865.....3,029,087
Ratio of expenses to premiums rec'd in '64..12.96
" " " " " " " '65..12 1c
Ratio of assets to liabilities, Jan. 1, 1865...161.85

The inevitable conclusion from these official facts, is that the

MUTUAL BENEFIT LIFE Insurance Company

IS THE BEST AND THE CHEAPEST.

Because its NET ASSETS are proportionably LARGER than those of any other Life Insurance Company in the United States.

Because its "Managing Expenses" are LESS, and it has a LARGER SURPLUS to divide among its members than any Company in the United States.

QUERY. Will some one inform the public of that mysterious process by which a Company with a surplus proportionably much less, and expenses very much larger than another, can yet divide more to its members, and insure them at less cost? How is it done? Where does the money come from?

Every intelligent man will see at once that it cannot be done. Yet we have Agents among us that make this their boast.

Any one disposed or intending to insure can be furnished with the requisite information by applying to

From the Portsmouth

SHOE MANUFACTURE.

A visit to our friend Nowell's Shoe Manufactory in this city, has led to the satisfactory conclusion that something can be done in Portsmouth. We have previously referred to this establishment, feeling that all that can be said for its encouragement will be as much said pro bono publico. Here is labor performed which derives its remuneration to a great extent from abroad, thus bringing into Portsmouth from all sections of the country a constant flow of that which constitutes the wealth of a city. It is also drawing among us a class of men which forms the bone and muscle of a community, the industrious, intelligent middle class, of whom family after family have moved here from other places, to find employment in the manufacture of shoes.

Mr. Nowell has recently made a material change in his business. Having doubled the area of his establishment, thus giving him room to spread not only his workmen, but himself, he has watched the straws in the market, and turned his attention to the manufacture of shoes and gaiters for men's wear, his increase of business being mostly in that line, while he continues also to manufacture boots, shoes and gaiters for ladies' wear. The change has proved a success, and he is receiving, notwithstanding a general depression in the shoe market as well as in other branches of business, extensive and frequent orders from all around, and thinks he is doing better, now than he could possibly do at any of the great manufacturing places. He expects before a great while to employ about two hundred hands, male and female. The fact that there is not a better quality of first class goods manufactured this side of New York has already given him a good reputation among buyers, and he orders come from all over the North and West.

The shoe business is generally much depressed throughout the country just now. The markets have become overstocked from the vast amount of goods manufactured last year, much of which were of an inferior quality.

The anticipations of the Southern market have not been realized, the people being poor. The Western market has likewise disappointed the hopes of Northern manufacturers. A lack of confidence in the future state of the market prevents large purchases, dealers fearing to buy up in advance of the demand. Trade is generally more dull throughout the West from the fact that the people have not derived so much profit from the sale of crops this year as before and during the war; the market being also limited by a diminished call for Western products for Eastern consumption and shipment, and a lack of ample and profitable conveniences for transportation. The people are therefore husbanding their resources, in hopes of better times coming. These causes have of course operated largely upon the shoe business, and manufacturers have a large amount of made up stock on hand; but notwithstanding this strain they have not as yet broken to any extent. No manufacturers of any note have been obliged to suspend payment, and very few have entirely ceased to manufacture. This indicates a healthy state of business, and the benefit of an extensive adoption of a cash basis of trade. Mr. Nowell continues to do about the same amount of business as heretofore. The shortness of work in other places has enabled him to obtain such a class of workmen as would not be available if work was as plenty in Lynn and Haverhill as in better times. Being a practical workman and having for many years given almost undivided attention to his business he knows all about a shoe—originates and cuts his own patterns, which find great favor with both buyers and wearers; and carefully examines and passes judgment upon all his goods; thus insuring good work from his men and thereby establishing his reputation as turning out the finest class goods. We think we are not wrong in thus commending Portsmouth shoe manufactures as standing well beside any that can be brought along.

THE NEW INCOME TAX BILL.

Important Change Proposed.

WASHINGTON, April 25.—The new tax bill provides that distillers pay $100 tax instead of $50. Brewers, $100 instead of $50. Builders and contractors, $10, instead of $25. On salt, 3 cents per 100 pounds. On boots and shoes 2 per centum ad valorem provided any boot or shoemaker making boots or shoes to order as custom work only, and whose work does not exceed annually $1000, shall be exempt from tax. On ready-made clothing, 1 per centum ad valorem.

All of schedule A is stricken out excepting billiard tables and carriages valued above $300; in other words, these are the only articles in that schedule now retained for taxation.

The income tax is 5 per cent. on an excess of $1000, in lieu of the former tax.

Insurance agents, $10 tax; when their receipts do not exceed $1000, shall pay $5.

Express carriers, $10 license.

No tax is to be imposed upon apothecaries, confectioners, keepers of hotels, inns or taverns, tobacconists or retailers, except dealers in spirituous and malt liquors, when their annual gross receipts or sales shall not exceed $100.

The tax on Savings Banks is as follows:—All deposits less than three hundred dollars per individual are exempted, and investments in U. S. securities also.

Sections 5, 8 and 9 of the act of March 3d, 1865, are repealed. The effect of this is to be relieve the tax on lucifer matches, and reduce the tax on the manufacture from six to five per cent. It removes the tax of $1 per barrel on crude petroleum.

A MORMON MURDER!—The Salt Lake Union Vidette of April 4 records the murder of Squire Newton Brassfield, late of Austin, who had just married the second wife of A. N. Hill, a Mormon missionary now in England, and was endeavoring to secure her two children for her through the Mormon Courts. He was shot in the evening while walking along the street in company with the U. S. Marshal, by a man who stepped out from a building, and after committing the deed fled. The Vedette charges that the murder was deliberately planned by the Mormon leaders.

LONGEVITY.—A correspondent writes to the Lowell Courier from Westford, Mass., giving a list of thirty-five persons resident in that town whose ages are not less than 84 years nor more than 94 years, severally. It includes nineteen males and sixteen females. Of the nineteen males all but five are now or have been widowers, and but one of the number has remained unmarried, showing that marriage is conducive to longevity, and that grief for the loss of a partner does not kill. All but two or three of them use tobacco in some way—some of them to a great extent—showing opposers of the weed that its use is not so injurious as they would make us believe. Of the females fourteen are widows, and all but one have been married; and the correspondent hints that about half of them have no objection to a pipe of tobacco or a pinch of snuff.

DR. HAMLIN'S CHOLERA REMEDIES.—There is a serious mistake in the formula of Dr. Hamlin's cholera specifies as published in several religious and other journals. The first prescription is stated thus: 1, laudanum and spirits of camphor; 2, tincture of rhubarb—equal parts—in consequence of which apothecaries have made the mistake of putting up one-half laudanum and camphor, and one half rhubarb; whereas there should be equal parts each of laudanum, rhubarb and camphor—a material difference.—Boston Journal.

— A smart fellow in Worcester has discovered a plan of making two hodfuls of coal go as far as four. He doules the size of the hod. The invention is not patented.

— A waiter at a recent "grand party" in Washington, in carrying a tray through the crowd of guests, accidentally bit a lady a severe blow with it on the elbow, "The deuce take the tray!" petulantly exclaimed the lady. "Madam," gravely said a Senator, noted for his whist playing, who was standing near, "Madam, the deuce can't take the tray!"

THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD.
DR. MAGGIEL'S
PILLS AND SALVE
These Life-giving remedies are now, for the first time, given publicly to the world. For over a quarter of a century of private practice the ingredients in these
Life-giving Pills!
Have been used with the greatest success. Their mission is not only to prevent disease, but to cure. They search out the various maladies by which the patient is suffering, and re-invigorate the failing system. To the aged and infirm a few doses of these valuable PILLS will prove to be
A Very Fountain of Youth,
For in every case they add new life and vitality, and restore the waning energies to their pristine state. To the young and middle-aged, they will prove most invaluable, as a ready, specific, and sterling medicine. Here is a dream realized, that Ponce-de-Leon sought for three hundred years ago, and never found. He looked for a fountain that would restore the old to youth and make youth ever
AN ETERNAL SPRING!
It was left for this day and hour to realize the dream, and show, in one glorious fact, the magic that made it fair.
These Famous Remedies
Cannot stay the hot of years, but they can force back, and hold aloof, diseases that might triumph over the aged and the young. Let none hesitate then, but seize the favorable opportunity that offers. When taken as prescribed—
FOR BILIOUS DISORDERS
Nothing can be more productive of cure than these Pills. Their almost magic influence is felt at once; and the usual concomitants of this most distressing disease are removed. These remedies are made in vacuo, from the purest
VEGETABLE COMPOUNDS.
They will not harm the most delicate female, and can be given with good effect in prescribed doses to the youngest babe.
For Cutaneous Disorders
And all eruptions of the skin, the SALVE is most invaluable. It does not heal externally alone, but penetrates with the most searching effects to the very root of the evil.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth N. H.

TUESDAY, MAY 1, 1866.

THE RECONSTRUCTION COMMITTEE have made their Report to Congress. It has been agreed upon by all the 12 loyal members of that Committee, and to the staunch Republican majorities in Congress the result of the protracted deliberations of the committee is very acceptable.

The first section of the proposed amendment enshrines the Civil Rights act in the Magna Charta, and forbids the enactment of any State law which shall abridge the privileges of citizens of the United States at the ballot box or elsewhere. The second section substantially invites the Southern States to entranchise all their people, as the only way of regaining their power in Congress and in the Electoral College; and the fifth section gives Congress the power to enforce these provisions. So the great question of suffrage, which is regarded as the only security for the future, may be considered as settled.

The third section, temporarily disfranchising the voluntary authors and actors in the rebellion, is not more stringent than the existing statutes in Maryland, West Virginia, Missouri and Tennessee, under which those States have been held in the Union.

The fourth section of the proposed amendment takes from Southern rebels and Northern traitors the hope of forming a political organization to secure compensation for emancipated slaves or payment of the rebel war debt.

The two bills contain legislation demanded by the situation; and it is worthy of note that nearly every proposition laid down, or protection demanded, in the sections of the amendment, or in the bills, has received the approval of President Johnson. Indeed, some of the conditions are his own, as stated in repeated speeches and letters either before or since he became President.

The Boston Journal's letter says:

"It is hardly possible that the President will refuse his signature to these two bills, which but enact his own assertions; and the proposed constitutional amendment does not require executive action."

The Boston Advertiser states that the Report was read to the President on Saturday evening, and he asked, "Isn't that taking a step backward?"

Perhaps it may be; but we hope (says Uncle Toby) that our members of Congress are not so obstinate or so besotted as to refrain from doing a wise and needful act, either because it is not all they would like to do, or because they fear that some fool may reproach them with inconsistency!

The plan is said to be acceptable to Chief Justice Chase and Gen. Grant; and it is also said that Caleb Cushing pronounces it a wise move, giving the republican interest an impregnable position.

☞ A Washington dispatch says it is reported on good authority that the Spanish minister, in accordance with instructions from his government, has proposed to the authorities at Washington to accept the mediation of the U. S. Government in the Spanish-Chilian complication, and to refer the claims of Spain to our Government for arbitration, and abide by the decision.

☞ At one o'clock Monday morning, in New Haven, a building of the N. H. Clock Co., was found on fire. The fire spread rapidly, and destroyed all their buildings, seven in number, also eleven houses, with nearly all their contents. Twenty families were unhoused, and 200 workmen thrown out of employ. Loss $200,000; insurance $146,000.

☞ Senator Dixon has gone home to Connecticut for his health, and perhaps to look after the interests of Senator Foster, whose re election will be opposed. Mr. D., it will be remembered, was to vote against the Civil Rights bill after the Veto, but did not.

☞ In Philadelphia, April 28, Probst, the murderer of the Deering family, was convicted of murder in the first degree. There was great excitement, and the mob endeavored to snatch the wretch from the officers, and were only prevented by the powerful interposition of the police.

☞ At Raleigh, N. C., April 28, Judge Fowler issued an attachment against Gen. Ruger for refusing to recognize the habeas corpus in favor of Major Gee. Gen. Ruger refused to be arrested. The matter will be laid before the President.

☞ At Nashville, Tenn., April 28, the negro testimony bill passed the House. It will soon be a law, and Gen. Fisk will then abolish the Freedmen's Bureau.

— The statement that a young lady had died of cholera at Richmond is denied. The case referred to was one of cholera morbus, brought on by undue indulgence in cream, jellies, fruits, cakes, &c., at a ladies' fair. The young lady was attacked soon after her return home in the evening, and died next morning.

Correspondence of the Chronicle.

WASHINGTON, April 27.

The Senate has done its part towards "adding another star to the constellation of States," to use a trite expression. It was not without a sharp struggle that the Senate reversed its former action rejecting Colorado. When Mr. Wilson called up the motion for reconsideration, it happened that his colleague, Mr. Sumner, was momentarily absent, and the calling of the yeas and nays had begun, when Mr. Sumner entered the chamber, pale with excitement, and manifested so great a desire to meet the question on the threshold, that he was allowed by general consent to speak, and protested warmly against the admission of another State which distranchised colored citizens. It was an unusual occurrence to find the Massachusetts Senators thus at issue, and indeed the analysis of the vote by which the bill was passed shows rather a mixed condition of parties. It would be idle to deny that the Republican Senators who voted for the admission were influenced by the fact that the Senators elect from the embryo State are radically opposed to the President's policy. The bill is expected to go through the House by a large majority, and as the President is already on record in its favor, he must sign it, or turn a very short corner.

There is an evident desire on the part of the majority in Congress to have a policy of reconstruction adopted, with which to go before the people; and this desire has become so urgent, that the Committee of Fifteen will probably report during the coming week. On four points there appears to be a very general concurrence, viz: that the plan adopted must embrace repudiation of the rebel debt, prohibition of payment for emancipated slaves, a representation based on population, and exclusion of non-voters from that basis. It is believed that the country will sustain Congress in refusing the admission of rebel States until these guarantees are obtained by constitutional amendment.

The breach between Congress and the President widens daily,—and few now expect anything but continued hostility be the executive and legislative departments of the government on the policy of reconstruction. The Senate is likely to prove obstinate in the matter of confirming executive appointments, made solely for the purpose of breaking down opposition to his views. Already the determination of the Senate in this respect is so clearly manifested that the President must be convinced that he cannot proceed far in the work of decapitation, while the body which has the power of rejecting appointments continues in session.

The Northern Pacific Railroad Bill, which has been under discussion in the House for several days, was unfortunately defeated this afternoon by a decisive vote. To Mr. Washburne of Illinois, more than to any other man, is this result owing. Mr. Washburne, who always has a sharp eye to the protection of the Treasury, took the ground that the pecuniary guarantee asked for by the friends of the Pacific Road was altogether unwarrantable, and dangerous to the financial interests of the government. The entire Illinois delegation sided with him, and their votes, it appears, were sufficient to turn the scale. Whether the friends of the Road will attempt to get up a new bill during the present session, I am not now advised. The importance of prompt action, in view of the fact that the privileges of the charter will soon expire unless renewed, is apparent to all who have looked into the subject. It is to be hoped that some plan will be adopted which will secure the aid of British capitalists who are waiting a favorable opportunity to invest large sums in an enterprise of this character.

Considerable discussion is going on here, in the press and in private circles, as to the means of providing against a visit from the pestilence whose slow but resistless steps are probably now passing the ocean which separates us from the old world. The canal which runs through the city, and into which the sewers discharge their streams, is an object of much solicitude and a source of much alarm. Plans widely differing from each other are proposed in Congress and in the City Council, for cleansing the canal,—and it is not improbable that in the conflict between them, the necessary sanitary measures will be delayed until the "Reaper" arrives with his formidable ally. The filthy condition of the streets, and the crowded condition in which the large population of freedmen live, add to the general anxiety concerning the health of the city.

—— The salary of Rev. C. W. Wallace of Manchester, has been raised from $1200 to $1500, by the Hanover St. Congregational Society.

—— Rev. C. H. Cole was installed pastor of the First Baptist Church in Salem, April 25. Sermon by Dr. Flanders, of Concord.

—— The office of Inspector of Bills at the Washington Navy Yard, recently filled by Moses Baker of New Hampshire, has been abolished.

—— Edmund Alger, of Stratford, a young man about 30 years of age, was drowned in the Nulhegan river at Bloomfield, Vt., on the 20 inst., while engaged in removing an obstruction to the sluice in a dam at that place.

—— The Littleton Gazette states that Amos Davis, a young man 18 years of age, son of Roswell Davis, of Newport, was fatally injured by a stroke from a stick thrown by a circular saw, while engaged in sawing laths at the Profile House on the 24th inst. He died in two days.

☞—— A willow tree, 3.2 feet through, was recently removed from its position near the jail in Keene, because it was crowding the underpinning of the building. The Keene Republican says: "It was of the species known as the golden osier, and has grown in about thirty years from a twig the size of a walking stick, placed there by Wm. L. Foster now of Concord, while the jail was kept by his father, Capt. John Foster."

—— Rev. Mr. Balch, of Nashua, was awakened about 1 1-2 o'clock Thursday morning, by a noise at one of the window panes of his library, and thither he discovered the pane immediately over the window lock broken and a man standing on the sill, with his head through the pane, attempting to open the lock. On seeing Mr. B. the thief decamped. Mr. Balch had come from a fair about 12 o'clock that evening, with several articles in his hands, and it is thought the thief supposed him to have possession of the funds of the fair. So says the Telegraph.

TROUBLE IN WEST VIRGINIA.—A very unsatisfactory state of affairs appears to exist in Wayne County, West Virginia. Four citizens of Cassville have written a letter to the Governor requesting permission to organize a regiment for the defense of the loyal people in that section, and one of them, Mr. John Holt, a notary public and assessor, gives some forcible reasons why the petition should be granted. After stating that there are only about half a dozen loyal men in Cassville, he continues:

"We must have from twenty-five to fifty men here in Cassville, or else we must get out of here. This is a landing place for all lumber that comes down Tug river. The rebels come down in time of high water sometimes by dozens from Logan County and from Pike County, Ky., with their navies (revolvers) buckled around them, hurrahing for Jeff. Davis, cursing the government, cursing Union men, and then we have to get out.

I frequently see men come here who are indicted for murder in Kentucky, defying everybody. Not more than eight miles from here, as some of the Home Guards were on their way home from being paid off, a company of rebels fell on them and beat and abused them severely, calling the party d—d abolitionists,' and swore that they would not submit to our laws. A few days ago they gathered in here and raised a riot with our sheriff, and fell on him with clubs and weights and tried to kill him and his brother. His brother ran into my house for protection. They stoned my window out, knocked two panels out of my door, and nearly killed my little child."

In addition to this the Wheeling Intelligencer says Judge Harrison, of the ninth judicial circuit, has been warned not to start on his circuit as his life will be forfeited.

— Cotton in England has advanced 1d, showing that the panic is over.

— A man named O'Brien had his arm torn off by machinery near the shoulder, in a brewery at New Haven on Friday.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

Is a concentrated extract of the choice root, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effectual antidote for diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. Such a remedy is surely wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove, as this has, of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow-citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found in the following complaints:

Scrofula, Scrofulous Swellings and Sores, Skin Diseases, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Eruptions, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ring Worm, &c.

Syphilis or Venerial Disease is expelled from the system by the prolonged use of this SARSAPARILLA, and the patient is left in comparative health.

Female Diseases are caused by Scrofula in the blood, and are often cured by this EXTRACT OF SARSAPARILLA.

Do not discard this invaluable medicine, because you have been imposed upon by something pretending to be Sarsaparilla, when it was not. When you have used AYER'S—then, and not till then, will you know the virtues of sarsaparilla. For minute particulars of the diseases it cures, we refer you to Ayer's American Almanac, which the agent below named will furnish gratis to all who call for it.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS, for the cure of Costiveness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Dysentery, Foul Stomach, Headache, Piles, Rheumatism, Heartburn arising from Disordered Stomach, and other Morbid Inactions of the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Worms, Gout, Neuralgia, and for a Dinner Pill.

They are sugar-coated, so that the most sensitive can take them pleasantly, and they are the best Aperient in the world for all the purposes of a family physic.

Prepared by J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass, and sold by all Druggists and Dealers in Medicine everywhere. my1—2m

GENTS:—Having used, and witnessed the beneficial effects of PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER, I take great pleasure in recommending it to the public as the very best Family Medicine with which I am acquainted. In this establishment we are employed nearly one hundred persons, and your PAIN KILLER has been used with the most astonishing results. For FOUR YEARS not a single severe case of Cholic, Summer Complaint, or Dysentery, but has yielded like magic to the curative powers of the "Killer;" and for Cuts, Bruises, etc., it is in almost daily use, and with like good effects. Perry's Moth and Freckle Lotion.

☞ Chloasma, or Mothpatch, (also called Liver-spot,) and Lentigo, or Freckles, are often very annoying, particularly to the ladies of light complexion, for the discolored spots show more plainly on the face of a blonde than of a brunette; but they are a blemish to the beauty of either and any preparation that will effectually remove them, without injuring the texture or color of the skin, is certainly a desideratum. DR. B. C. PERRY, who has made diseases of the skin a specialty, has discovered a remedy for these discolorations, which is at once prompt, infallible and harmless.

Prepared by B. C. PERRY, Dermatologist, No. 49 Bond Street, New York, and for sale by all druggists: price $2 per bottle. Call for PERRY'S MOTH & FRECKLE LOTION.

ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS.—A celebrated physician says "he was amazed at the great number of beneficial indications produced by one of these plasters. CURE OF VARICOSE VEINS.

City Point, Va., January 24, 1865.

T. ALLCOCK & CO:

Gentlemen: Seeing your notice in the Police Gazette, I got four of your Porous Plasters and placed them on the parts where the pains were most severe, and in less than twelve hours could walk as well as ever. I could hardly believe it, I was so well pleased. I wanted to see if the lameness would come back on me or not, so I did more walking that day than I had done in a week. The next day I had some pain in my hip, but I put on a plaster there and in two hours the pain was all gone, nor have I felt it since. Certainly they are the best application for the relief and cure of pains in the joints and back, and for varicose or enlarged veins, I have ever known, and I would not be without them on any account. Communication.

YOUNG CRIMINALS.—At the last term of our Supreme Judicial Court, five young men, all under thirty years of age, were tried and sentenced to the State Prison: and as Sheriff Morse was carrying them to prison all hand cuffed together, their downcast looks could but awaken pity in the breast of all beholders.

Patrick Shehan and Charles N. Clifford, unmindful of the lesson of their narrow escape last October, were convicted of highway robbery, and sentenced to the State Prison for ten years,—the best years of their lives. Charles E. Foster, for stealing over nine hundred dollars' worth of U.S. Bonds, five years. This young man has also been labored with by good friends, and finally was sent to the Reform School, but ran away, and now for his theft has five years in the State Prison. Alma Bruce and John Cross for larceny have two years. Bruce is a young man of good education; he served a term in the U. S. army—with credit, was discharged in Massachusetts last fall, and was on his way home. He fell in with the land sharks of this city and was robbed and worse than robbed of all his money; and finally committed the deed for which he is now disgraced forever. He says he never before did a dishonest act. All of the young men admitted that they were brought to their present degradation by being allowed to grow up in the streets and loafing shops. Let parents consider these things,—and young men and boys take warning.

☞ At the regular Annual Meeting of the South Parish, at the Stone Church on Monday afternoon, the old Board of Warders was re-elected; and it was voted to invite the New Hampshire Unitarian Association to meet with this Society, in June next. The subject of the minister being granted leave of absence for a journey to Europe, was referred to a special committee of conference, to report at an adjourned meeting.

☞ A party from York, Me., have made extensive preparations for the alewive fishery in Great Bay. They have built a lodge upon Nannie's Island, and a weir nearly a mile in length to aid in seining the fish. Our comic editor (who is a little weak in his upper story,) says: "These Maine-iacs are a little in-scine in their business projects."

POLICE COURT, April 30.—William Carlin, a full-blooded Marine oh, was sent up as an addition to the stock on the City Farm. He had inhaled too much nitro-glycerine at some of our "groceries," and when the explosion came, lacked the $6.86 needful to repair damages, and was therefore consigned to the flock of erring lambs whose shepherd is Mr. Philbrick.

A JURY OUT ALL NIGHT.—The jury on an important case at Exeter lately, were out all night and could not agree. They whiled away the tedious hours throwing the "double six." The following poetry is for their consideration:

Oh, when I make my little pile,
And put it safely by,
I'll spend my days and nights in Courts,
And all the "cusses" try.
I'll disagree in every case—
Put Portsmouth in a fix;
Come, boys, let's take another vote,
And ballot "six to six."

PROMOTION.—Lieut. Commander Homer C. Blake, now on duty at this yard, has been promoted to Commander, to date from March 3, 1866.

☞ The new steamer Resaca, at the Navy Yard at Washington, has her machinery nearly in working order, and will return to Portsmouth in a few days to be sparred and rigged.

— Sickness is an affliction that waits on us all. None are exempt and there are none but need relief from its attacks. Whoever can furnish this becomes our benefactor. A conviction prevails that Dr. Ayer does it. Disorders of the blood have been healed by his Sarsaparilla, and affections of the lungs by his Cherry Pectoral, too frequently and too distinctly to be disputed. His Ague Cure is said, by those who use it, to never fail. Reader, if you must have medical aid, take the best of medicine. Poor remedies are dear as good are cheap, at any price you have to pay for them.—[Charleston Courier.

— J. H. Murray, a tailor, abandoned his wife at St. Paul, Minn., a few weeks since, and left for New York with the wife of another; he returned to that city on Saturday, and had a grand reception from his friends, seventy-five in number, who stripped him naked and treated him to a new suit, from head to foot, of tar and feathers.

— It is stated authoritively that the Secretary of the Treasury has decided to receive no more temporary loans, and official information to that effect will be forthcoming in a few days. The amount of cash now on hand in the Treasury is $170,000,000.

MAGGIEL'S

Spring and Summer Remedies.

"Great oaks from little acorns grow." The worst diseases known to the human race spring from causes so small as to almost defy detection. The volumes of scientific lore that fill the tables and shelves of the medical fraternity only go to prove and elaborate these facts. Then guard yourselves while you may. The smallest pimple on the skin is a tell tale and indicator of disease. If may fade and die away from the surface of the body, but it will reach the vitals, perhaps, at last, and death be the result and final close. MAGGIEL'S DYSPEPTIC and DIARRHEA PILLS cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts, and all abrasions of the skin, MAGGIEL'S SALVE is infallible. Sold by J. PATENT MEDICINES.—If faith would cure disease, our physicians' occupation would be gone; the afflicted need only read the advertisements in the papers to be "made whole;" but the nostrums prepared by these pseudo doctors do not often "back up" the faith inspired by their advertisements. We do not mean to condemn all so-called patent medicines, for some have been found to be very valuable. In this class we would include Cole's Cough and Balsam, for coughs, croup, hoarseness, &c., and Coe's Dyspepsia Cure, for indigestion, dyspepsia, and all troubles of the stomach or bowels—they have been tested in thousands of cases. Our dealers all sell them. ap30eodawlw

Lodi Manufacturing Company's POUDRETTE.

AGENT FOR NEW HAMPSHIRE,

J. F. SHORES, Jr.,

No. 38 Market Street (Up Stairs.)

The advantages of Poudrette as a manure may be stated as follows:

First, Its ECONOMY. The cost of the manure compared with its effects is less than that of any other fertilizer in market. It can be bought and applied for the same money which it would cost only to apply farm-yard manure. It is portable, contains great strength in a small compass, and needs no extra care in its application; the closer its contact with the seed the better and quicker it works. $4.50 worth at our retail price (or two barrels) will manure an acre of corn in the hill, and from one-quarter to one-third to the product, and will mature the crop from two to three weeks earlier. No worms will stay in the hill where the Poudrette is placed. No seeds of weeds will germinate, and crows are very shy of picking it out of the hill. On Corn, Tobacco and Garden Vegetables it has no equal. While the leaf and growth of the Tobacco plant is large, it has not the coarseness of fibre which is produced by Peruvian Guano, and it has taken the lead for this crop in Connecticut, and has begun to be appreciated in Maryland.

It is famous for producing larger and finer potatoes than anything else, and the yields told about Onions, their large growth, &c., are almost beyond credence. Flowers and plants are much improved by an application of Poudrette.

Another great consideration is the season of the year when the corn is planted. It is a time when every spring crop is put in, and the corn not early planted, but up and grown sufficiently for the last hoeing and plaiting, before the commencement of grain and hay harvest.—The celerity and dispatch with which a large crop of corn is put in and poudretted, the rapid growth and consequently the early opportunity of working among it—the small chance for weeds, owing to the shade it affords, and the fact that the Poudrette, unlike other manures, contains no seed that can germinate, and consequently less trouble required to clean it—are all important advantages. The corn will ripen two weeks earlier, and the yield will be much heavier.

The same remarks apply to Sorghum and Broom Corn.

For grass, where it is about to be laid down to lawn, or for several years, a top dressing of Poudrette will be found invaluable.

We wish to remark in place, that Poudrette is not like some quack medicines, warranted to cure all kinds of diseases. It must be used with discretion, and a reasonable quantity will produce a reasonable effect.

Poudrette will answer no better than other manures on wet, sour, undrained land, nor seasons of drought. In other words, Poudrette is an invaluable substitute for barn-yard manure, and can be used with great profit and advantage upon most spring crops. It will not work miracles, drain the land it is put upon, nor cause rain to fall in time of drought.

Price per Barrel $2.25—delivered at any part of the city, or at any depot or wharf.

Important Notice!—When Poudrette is spoken of, we mean "LODI POUDRETTE," which has now stood the test of twenty-six years' trial; and when buying, be sure and get that kind!

A descriptive pamphlet may be had on application. mh29

Important.

He would also give notice that he is doing a new style of work for Under Sets of Teeth, called the COMBINATION BASE (Gold and Vulcanite) which produces by far the finest work offered to the public. The price is something in advance of that charged for the Vulcanite alone, but the strength, durability, ease of bearing, and beauty of finish obtained by it, more than double the value of the teeth. mh12

Dr. A. P. STEVENS, No. 5 Daniel St., makes the saving of ULCERATED and painful front teeth, a speciality in his business. He also successfully restores to their natural shape broken or badly decayed teeth, by building out corners and sides with pure GOLD. (In many cases teeth so restored are as strong as any of their brother members, and in all cases are rendered eminently useful for a long series of years.) DISEASED GUMS, in all stages, treated, and in a very large majority of cases entire success attained.

Charges for such operations necessarily high, but nothing in comparison to the value of the Teeth. mch14

WHICH IS THE

Leading Life Insurance Comp'y

IN THE UNITED STATES?

Which is the Safest and the Cheapest?

The following figures are from the later Reports of the New York Insurance Commissioner, showing the "amount of business" of the

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

to be the largest, the "expenses of management" the smallest, the "ratio of Assets to Liabilities," or the security furnished to its members, the largest of any like institution in the country.

Premiums received in 1864	$2,089,072
" " " 1865	3,029,087
Ratio of expenses to premiums rec'd in '64	14.96
" " " " " '65	12.16
Ratio of assets to liabilities, Jan. 1, 1866	151.85

The inevitable conclusion from these official facts, is that the

MUTUAL BENEFIT LIFE Insurance Company

IS THE BEST AND THE CHEAPEST.

Because its NET ASSETS are proportionably LARGER than those of any other Life Insurance Company in the United States.

Because its "Managing Expenses" are LESS, and it has a LARGER SURPLUS to divide among its members than any Company in the United States.

QUERY. Will some one inform the public of that mysterious process by which a Company with a surplus proportionably much less, and expenses very much larger than another, can yet divide more to its members, and insure them at less cost? How is it done? Where does the money come from?

Every intelligent man will see at once that it cannot be done. Yet we have Agents among us that make this their boast.

Any one disposed or intending to insure can be furnished with the requisite information by applying to

"BIKED HIM TWICE."—In coming to this city from New Orleans, Artemus Ward fell in with an "old newsboy," and was attracted by his ready wit and happy observations. When the boat landed at our wharf, the boy tendered his services to carry "Mr. Ward's" carpet sack to the hotel. On the way up Royal street, Artemus asked the lad if he could stick him a good lodgeon. The boy told him he "could do that very thing," and took him to a first class "shop." The great humorist turned to the boy, and in a jocular manner asked him if he would "take a drink." The newsvender nodded his head in the affirmative, and called for a small bottle of Cliquot wine, the price of which footed up the aristocratic sum of $2.50. Artemus had appreciated the jokes of the juvenile up to this time, but he didn't seem to "take" this one so happily. When they got outside of the saloon, Artemus remarked to the youthful "member of the press" that he had not counted on getting "bilked" in that way. "By golly," replied the urchin, "if you can't stand bilking once you had better sell out. You bilked me twice in New Orleans with your darned old show, and now I'm even with you." This got "old wax figures" down. He took such a liking to the newsboy that in the magnitude of his big heart and noble generosity, he presented him with a free ticket to his first entertainment in London.—Mobile Register.

ROMANCE IN REAL LIFE.—In one of the quiet and beautiful agricultural towns in Massachusetts, a marriage took place a few days since amidst the congratulations of many friends, and the surprise and almost the wonder of many of the good people, who are familiar only with the staid and regular ways of the world. It seems that a sensible volunteer in the Union army, when at the front facing the enemies of his country, learned the name of a lady in Massachusetts and determined to write to her a soldier's letter. By accident the letter fell into the hands of another lady by the same name in another town. An answer was returned stating that a mistake had been made, &c., with certain allusions to the war, its cause, and the patriotic hope of a final triumph of the good cause. The letter so pleased the soldier that he requested the privilege of continuing the correspondence, and it was kept up regularly for two years. The volunteer was at length discharged, and instead of going to his home in Ohio he journeyed to Massachusetts to see the person whose letters had so much interested him. He was more than satisfied, proposed, was accepted and shortly the parties were married, the first marriage in a family with four sisters, every one of them worthy to be the wife of a patriotic defender of his country. The newly married pair will make their future home in the west.—Kennebec (Me.) Journal.

THE PAPAL ARMY has been so recruited that it now reaches the number of 12,000. Among the new levies are a considerable number of young men from good families in France and Belgium who serve for the sake of their religion, and consider the cause a sort of holy crusade. A second battalion is to be formed from the elite of the new volunteers. No officer is appointed to command who does not subscribe heartily to the faith.

CARLYLE ON HEALTH.—In his address to the students of Edinburgh University, Thomas Carlyle gives the following excellent advice:

Finally, gentlemen, I have one advice to give you, which is practically of very great importance, though a very humble one. I have no doubt you will have among you people ardently bent to consider life cheap, for the purpose of getting forward in what they are aiming at on high; and you are to consider throughout, much more than is done at present, that health is a thing to be attended to continually—that you are to regard that as the very highest of all temporal things for you. (Applause.) There is no kind of achievement you could make in the world that is equal to perfect health. What are nuggets and millions? The French financier said, 'Alas! why is there no sleep to be sold?' Sleep was not in the market at any quotation. (Laughter and applause.) It is a curious thing that I remarked long ago, and have often turned in my head, that the old word for 'holy' in the German language — heilig — also means 'healthy.' And so Heilbronn means 'holy-well' or 'healthy-well.' We have in the Scotch 'hale;' and, I suppose, our English word 'whole,' with a 'w,' all of one piece, without any hole in it, is the same word. I find that you could not get any better definition of what 'holy' really is than 'healthy'—'completely healthy.' Mens sana in corpore sano. (Applause.) A man with his intellect a clear, plain, geometric mirror, brilliantly sensitive of all objects and impressions around it, and imaging all things in their correct proportions, not twisted up into convex or concave, and distorting everything, so that he cannot see the truth of the matter without endless groping and manipulation—healthy, clear and free, and all round about him. We can never attain that at all. In fact, the operations we have got into are destructive of it. You cannot, if you are going to do any decisive intellectual operation, if you are going to write a book—at least, I never could—without getting decidedly made ill by it, and really you must, if it is your business, and you must follow out what you are at, and it sometimes is at the expense of health. Only remember at all times to get back as fast as possible out of it into health, and regard the real equilibrium as the centre of things.

— A smart young lawyer's clerk, hearing it stated by a lecturer, that "man is merely a machine," remarked, "Then I suppose an attorney may be said to be a suing-machine."

— Once, at Wotton, Rowland Hill was preaching in the afternoon, the only time when it seemed possible to be drowsy under him. He saw some sleeping, and paused, saying, "I have heard that the miller can sleep while the mill is going, but if it stops it awakens him. I'll try this method," and so sat down, and soon saw an aroused audience.

THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD.

DR. MAGGIEL'S
PILLS AND SALVE

These Life-giving remedies are now, for the first time, given publicly to the world. For over a quarter of a century of private practice the ingredients in these

Life-giving Pills!

Have been used with the greatest success. Their mission is not only to prevent disease, but to cure. They search out the various maladies by which the patient is suffering, and re-invigorate the failing system. To the aged and infirm a few doses of these valuable PILLS will prove to be

A Very Fountain of Youth,

For in every case they add new life and vitality, and restore the waning energies to their pristine state. To the young and middle aged, they will prove most invaluable, as a speedy, specific, and sterling medicine. Here is a dream realized, that Ponce-de-Leon sought for three hundred years ago, and never found. He looked for a fountain that would restore the old to youth and make youth ever

AN ETERNAL SPRING!

It was left for this day and hour to realize the dream, and show, in one glorious fact, the magic that made it fair.

These Famous Remedies

Cannot stay the flight of years, but they can force back, and hold aloof, diseases that might triumph over the aged and the young. Let none neglect them, but seize the favorable opportunity that offers. When taken as prescribed—

FOR BILIOUS DISORDERS

Nothing can be more productive of sure that these Pills. Their almost magic influence is felt at once; and the usual concomitants of this most distressing disease are removed. These remedies are made from the purest

VEGETABLE COMPOUNDS.

They will not harm the most delicate female, and can be given with good effect in prescribed doses to the youngest babe.

For Cutaneous Disorders

And all eruptions of the skin, the SALVE is most invaluable. It does not heal externally alone, but penetrates with the most searching effects to the very root of the evil.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth N. H.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 2, 1866.

IN THE U. S. SENATE, Monday, April 30.—The Reconstruction Committee reported a joint resolution and bills.

The Library Committee reported a joint resolution for the purchase of the library of James L. Petigru of South Carolina, for a law library of Congress.

The Post Office Appropriation bill was taken up. Mr. Trumbull offered the following amendment:

"No person exercising or performing the duties of an office which by law are required to be filled by the exclusive consent of the Senate, shall, before confirmation by the Senate, receive any salary or compensation for his services, unless he be commissioned by the President to fill a vacancy which has, during recess of the Senate and since its last adjournment, happened by death, resignation or expiration of term."

A long debate followed,—and the subject is very important, as it would limit the President's patronage very considerably. It may not pass as an amendment,—for some of its friends wish it to be in a bill by itself.

In the House, the River and Harbor Bill was passed.

A joint resolution was introduced declaring the constitutional relations of Tennessee restored to practical relations with the United States. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

The House considered Mr. Julian's resolution, offered in January last, declaring the speedy trial of Jeff. Davis for treason and other crimes with which he is charged, and his prompt execution if convicted, is imperatively demanded by the people of the United States. Mr. Julian spoke in its favor, when it was referred to the Judiciary Committee.

The Committee on Reconstruction presented a report.

Under a suspension of the rules, by a vote of 107 against 20, the report was made a special order for Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of next week.

The Committee on Appropriations reported appropriations for the Freedmen's Bureau for the year commencing January 1, 1866, amounting to $11,500,000.

Mr. Stevens offered a substitute for his bill, to double the pensions of pensioners by the war, to pay damages done to loyal men by the rebel government and rebel raiders, and enforce the law confiscating the property of the enemy.

☞ Mrs. Jeff. Davis, a Doctor, his wife, and two servants, have gone from Canada to Fortress Monroe to see J. who is said to be sick and to wish for trial, as he might not live thro' the summer in prison. We remember that quite a number of Yankee prisoners died at Andersonville; and if the sovereign disposer of all men's lives should see fit to let Jeff. Davis die in prison or elsewhere, this summer, the world would suffer no detriment, and his family suffer no more than 100,000 families have suffered within the last five years, on account of the great rebellion, of which he was a leader. As a human being, we pity him. As a traitor, the prison is his place, and condign punishment his desert.

SCHOOLS.—We learn from the American Freedman, a monthly journal devoted to the promotion of "freedom, industry, education and Christian morality in the South," and which is the central organ of the Freedman's and Union Commission, that the number of schools established by the various Freedmen's Associations, East and West, for the education of the freedmen at the South, is 307, taught by 773 teachers, and having 40,744 pupils. The amount of money collected for their support last year was $102,928; value of supplies collected, $367,709; money and supplies from abroad, $84,597; value of supplies shipped, $498,255; money expended, $328,670.

GOLD, Tuesday, closed at 126 1-8. It had been as low as 125 1-4.

— A Western paper says it is a most surprising thing to see the fruit trees all over the country in profuse bloom when, two months ago, the wisest men among the fruit raisers declared that the frost had ruined everything.

— On the grave stone of an old lady in Duxbury, Mass., after the mention of her name, date of death, and age, the epitaph asserts the needlessness of adding to a well-established fame by the simple sentence, "The chisel can't help her any."

— A letter with the following superscription spelling according to the original, was received in Gloucester last week; "Swift as an arrer from the bo, now go ahead find Rufus Low; he lived in Essex town of late, and thats in Massachusets state; he gits his livin by his labor, and Abner Andrews is his nabor; now go to him with care and spede, and he will then your contents rede."

— On opening a number of graves at Hartgrove Centre, Tenn., a short time ago, the remains were found to be in complete form, but changed in substance to a material in appearance between chalk and tallow, and closely resembling spermaciti.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Major Silvey, Sup't of Volunteering in New Hampshire, has left Concord to join his regiment. Capt. A. B. Thompson succeeds him.

—— Gen. Sherman, U. S. A., is expected to be present at Dartmouth College Commencement: a nephew of his, son of Senator S., being then to graduate.

—— The Concord Monitor reports a desire in the School Street Church, Boston, to procure Rev. Rowland Connor of the Universalist Church in Concord, to be their pastor: Rev. Dr. Miner wishing to devote his time wholly to Tufts College, of which he is president.

——. A Kensington correspondent of the News Letter writes as follows:

On Sabbath evening April 22.—The Rev. J. C. Blodgett of Kensington, offered the following prayer for Mr. Johnson.

"Give our President wisdom, for he acts as though he had lost three quarters of his common sense, if he ever had any."

We shall now look for some improvement in Mr. Johnson's policy.

☞ The following is the statement of the votes for County Officers, as declared by the S. J. Court.

For Register of Deeds.

Horace Webster	4,467
William B. Belknap, (elected,)	5,862

For County Treasurer.

Scattering	8
John S. Bennett,	4,456
George E. Lawrence, (elected,)	5,763

For County Commissioner.

Scattering	4
Daniel Tuttle,	4,456
James C. Brown, (elected,)	5,846

The Court adjourned to the 24th day of July.

☞ Mrs. Sally Nowell, widow of Joseph Nowell of York, died in Kittery, Saturday morning, April 14, at Mr. Joel Nowell's, where for a few years she had resided, having been engaged in her usual business of knitting the day before, at the advanced age of 93 years—the oldest native born person in York, and what is a remarkable providence she was never sick a day in her life—never lost a meal—never had a doctor—never took any doctor's medicine, and retained her eye sight almost as well as when young.

WM. W. CLAPP, Esq., died at Roxbury, Mass., on Monday, aged 82 years 6 months. He was favorably known as the able editor of the Evening Gazette for 30 years;—and he was one of the most correct and tasteful newspaper and job printers we ever had in New England. He was a printer from a love of the art, and after his retirement from the Gazette in 1847 till within a few months, he devoted more or less time, as his inclination induced him, to the art:—and during his long life he was connected with seven different papers.

INSURANCE CASE DECIDED.—The Maine Supreme Judicial Court has just decided a case involving the liabilities of a Life Insurance Company, on a policy of $3000, in favor of Joseph Esterbrook, Jr., late of Camden, deceased. The insured was in health when the policy was made, but became debilitated and eventually deranged, believing a demon pursued him to make him take his own life. He finally committed suicide by shooting himself.—The Insurance company refused to pay the sum insured, but the court decreed otherwise—defendents being required to pay the policy and $257, expenses of suit.

RENTS.—The New York papers say it is surprising to see the number of houses in the city to let, now that moving time has come. Everybody who can get away leaves the city, great inducements having been held out by country towns; and as to the extraordinary rents recently asked, no one hears anything. Extreme moderation seems to have attacked landlords generally.

☞ A fire at Thorald, C. W., on Sunday afternoon, destroyed $250,000 worth of houses, stores and goods, the main business part of the place.

— The Calais Advertiser says that the Fenian movement has destroyed business on both sides of the St. Croix river, and insists that some means should be taken by the government to put a stop to armed men congregating in any place to its injury.

— A Washington dispatch says that as soon as the President can designate a suitable person to take the place he will respond to the requests made by numerous State Agricultural Societies, and appoint a new Commissioner of Agriculture.

— President Johnson has engaged rooms for himself and family during a portion of the coming summer months at the Continental hotel, Long Branch, N. J. Office seekers will find desirable bathing facilities at the same sea-side resort.

— A Chicago dispatch to the Cincinnati Gazette says an agent of Senator Sprague of Rhode Island has been buying beef cattle in that city for shipping to Providence, where beef is furnished to the operatives in his mills, numbering some 15,000, at first cost, transportation added. Within the last few months between $75,000 and $80,000 worth of cattle and hogs have been purchased at Chicago for this purpose.

FROM EUROPE, the latest news indicates the preservation of peace. Cotton at Liverpool, gained a penny, but lost it again. Middling uplands 14 1-2 d.

Kirkpatrick & Balguy, sugar refiners, of London, have suspended; liabilities £150,000.

There had been great rejoicing at St. Petersburg and elsewhere on account of the Emperor's escape from assassination. The man who attempted the Emperor's life is a Russian land owner of small means, who considered himself injured by the emancipation of the serfs. He discharged a pistol within a few feet of the Emperor, and the shot would probably have taken effect had not a peasant turned aside the assassin's arm. This peasant has been made a noble. It is said the Emperor, with perfect presence of mind, himself seized the culprit, asking him quietly, "What have I ever done to you that you seek my life?"

[Can any being be found, more malignant or murderous than a dilapidated and degraded aristocrat?]

☞ The advertisement of the New York Tribune, which we publish this morning, is worthy attention of all who desire to read what is in many respects the best and most truly American newspaper. Of course all who like this live sheet do not endorse all the ideas advanced therein; but a paper conducted with so much ability, and always in favor of good morals and sound nationality, is a treasure in any family.

— The Gold Medal Soap, like Widow Bedott, needs no introduction to our readers. It is an old friend—a welcome visitor on washing days, and will save more than one-half the labor, and make your clothes look much better. It will not rot or injure the best of fabrics, as most soaps do. It removes grease spots, paint, tar, oils, &c. It will not chap your hands, but make them soft and white. The rich and poor can share alike its benefits and good results. 81

To the Young Married Men.

Take out a policy on your life,
Have it made payable to your wife;
Or if you wish, in case you live
Till fifty or till sixty, we will give
One on the approved endowment plan,
Securing thus to you, an older man,
The sum insured: or if at any time before
You hear the awful summons at the door,
To close your eyes upon these earthly cares,
Your wife and children or your lawful heirs
Shall reap the comfort of your careful thought,
Instead of being left with naught.
This is the Savings Bank from which you reap
Not only dividends in Cash, but sweeter sleep;
Delay not then! But go at once! To-day!
And whilst your sun still shines, make hay. my2

PATENT MEDICINES.—If faith would cure disease, our physicians' occupation would be gone; the afflicted need only read the advertisements in the papers to be "made whole;" but the nostrums prepared by these pseudo doctors do not often "back up" the faith inspired by their advertisements. We do not mean to condemn all so-called patent medicines, for some have been found to be very valuable. In this class we would would include Coe's Cough Balsam, for coughs, croup, hoarseness, &c., and Coe's Dyspepsia Pills, for indigestion, dyspepsia, and all troubles of the stomach or bowels—they have been tested in thousands of cases. Ayer's Sarsaparilla

Is a concentrated extract of the choice root, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effectual antidote for diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. Such a remedy is surely wanted by those who suffer from strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove, as this has, of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow-citizens. That it will completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found in the following complaints:—

Scrofula, Scrofulous Swellings and Sores, Skin Diseases, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Eruptions, St Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ring Worm, &c.

Syphilis or Venerial Disease is expelled from the system by the prolonged use of this SARSAPARILLA, and the patient is left in comparative health.

Female Diseases are caused by Scrofula in the blood, and are often cured by this EXTRACT OF SARSAPARILLA.

Do not discard this invaluable medicine, because you have been imposed upon by something pretending to be Sarsaparilla, when it was not. When you have used AYER'S—then, and not till then, will you know the virtues of Sarsaparilla. For minute particulars of the diseases it cures, we refer you to Ayer's American Almanac, which the agent below named will furnish gratis to all who call for it.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS, for the cure of Costiveness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Dysentery, Foul Stomach, Headache, Piles, Rheumatism, Heartburn arising from Disorded Stomach, Pain or Morbid Inaction of the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Worms, Gout, Neuralgia, and for a Dinner Pill.

They are sugar-coated, so that the most sensitive can take them pleasantly, and they are the best Aperient in the world for all the purposes of a family physic.

Prepared by J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass, and sold by all Druggists and Dealers in Medicine everywhere. my1—2m

City Point, Va., January 24, 1865.

T. ALLCOCK & Co.:

Gentlemen: Seeing your notice in the Police Gazette, I got four of your Porous Plasters and placed them on the parts where the pains were most severe, and in less than twelve hours could walk as well as ever. I could hardly believe it, I was so well pleased. I wanted to see if the lameness would come back on me or not, so I did more walking that day than I had done in a week. The next day I had some pain in my hip, but I put on a plaster there and in two hours the pain was all gone, nor have I felt it since. Certainly they are the best application for the relief and cure of pains in the joints and back, and for varicose or enlarged veins, I have ever known, and I would not be without them on any account. ☞ May Day has come to be the holiday of all the year in Exeter. The Unitarian Society commenced by holding a May Fair annually, and the occasion is now improved for a good time by most of the citizens. Quite a delegation went up from Portsmouth on Tuesday, to breakfast, at the Town Hall—which was very prettily decorated for the occasion, and very acceptable viands were served to order by the most patient and prompt of waiters or waitresses. Hall's Band gave a grand Concert last evening; and the Fair will continue through to-day, and close this (Wednesday) evening with a dramatic entertainment. A good chance for a nice ride and pleasant call.

☞ Among the new items of business and enterprise here, we notice the long building now going up on the wharf in the rear of Neil, Tarlton, & Co.'s Flour Store, where a cargo of Corn can be taken from a vessel, by an elevator, carried into the store, ground, and returned in the form of meal, to a packet or other vessel at the wharf. The arrangements are de simple. The boatmen and other traders on the river and its branches will find the whole establishment economical and convenient for their business.

POLICE COURT, May 1.—May Day opened in the Police Court with four cases, the first of which was that of Henry McPherson, (how the noble name has degenerated!) for being drunk on State street. Mc plead guilty and was fined $6.86. Superintendent Philbrick being in court at the time, his benignant countenance won the admiration of the Marine oh, and he resolved to accept his generosity to the weak and unfortunate, and

"Let the Volscians
Plough Rome and harrow Italy."

He should beat his sword into ploughshares with Philbrick—which means in the true acceptation of the term, he's gone to the farm.

The next case was that of three young lads, whose names on account of their age we suppress, for entering the room of S. E. Coleman, (who keeps the newspaper and periodical store formerly Avery's,) and taking therefrom the sum of twenty-three dollars in fractional currency. Coleman notified the City Marshal on Sunday afternoon; these boys were arrested Monday evening and confessed their guilt, and have restored a portion of the money. Two of them were bound over to the S. J. Court in the sum of $200 each, and the third discharged. The two former were respectively aged 10 and 12 years.

☞ The case of Geo. B. French, charged with having a quantity of counterfeit U. S. fractional currency in his possession, with intent to pass the same, will come before the U. S. Commissioner at 10 o'clock this morning, in the U. S. Court Room. U. S. District Attorney Chas. W. Rand and S. H. Goodall, Esq., will conduct the prosecution, while the services of Col. John H. George, and Albert R. Hatch and William H. Hackett, Esqs., have been retained for the defence.

☞ Mr. Joy's School for the instruction of boys and young men, in Book-keeping, surveying, and other branches, is to be commenced shortly. Names of scholars wishing to attend, may be entered at Mr. Lowd's and Mr. Head's bookstores.

☞ The Rockingham Base Ball Club had their first game on May Day afternoon, and we learn are to play another game on Thursday next at 4 P. M., at Rundlett's Pasture, near Middle street.

☞ A citizen and friend suggests that the very expensive fashion of conducting funerals, and the high prices charged for some of the outer ceremonies, tho' they may be easily borne by the opulent, are burdensome to those of less wealth, who must follow these fashions to some extent. He therefore calls upon the wealthy to set an example of simplicity as to funeral services.

Communication.

MAY BALL.—The Social Assemblies held once a week in Irving Hall during the past winter, under the management of Messrs. Marston, Tucker, Leach and Downing, terminated in a Grand Ball on Monday evening, April 30th. The party consisted of a select company of invited guests, who began to trip the light fantastic toe at about 9 P. M. to the excellent music of Turner's Quadrille Band, which gave some of the choicest selections they had laid in store for this occasion. Probably a merrier party were never assembled in the above hall, than were there on that evening, and all seemed to enjoy the moments as they rapidly flew by. The floor managers spared no pains to make everything pass off in a pleasant and agreeable manner, and nothing occurred to mar the evening's amusement; the happy party kept time to the music until the clock marked the hour of five o'clock in the morning, when the line of march was taken for their several homes—all highly pleased with their evening's amusement at the "May Ball." — Onions, which a year ago were in demand at $2 25 per bushel, are now selling at Bristol, R. I., for two cents a bushel.—The highest price that can be got is ten cents.

Important.

DR. STEVENS, No 5 Daniel Street, would give notice that he has REDUCED the price of Permanent Sets of ARTIFICIAL TEETH on the Vulcanite Base, to that charged for them before the war.

He would also give notice that he is doing a new style of work for Under Sets of Teeth, called the COMBINATION BASE (Gold and Vulcanite) which produces by far the finest work offered to the public. The price is nearly half in advance of that charged for the Vulcanite alone, but the strength, durability, ease of bearing, and beauty of finish obtained by it, more than double the value of the fresh. mh12

FIRST ASSISTANT in the Office of DR. STEVENS, No 5 DANIEL STREET.

DR. WEED can be found at his place of business at all hours of the day and night, for the performance of any of the operations that come within the call of his profession.

Dr. A. P. STEVENS, No. 5 Daniel St., makes the saving of ULCERATED and painful front teeth, a specialty in his business. He also successfully restores to their natural shape broken or badly decayed teeth, by building out corners and sides with PURE GOLD. (In many cases teeth so restored are as strong as any of their brother members, and in all cases are rendered eminently useful for a long series of years.) DISEASED TEETH, in all stages, treated, and in a very large majority of cases entire success attained.

Charges for such operations necessarily high, but nothing in comparison to the value of the teeth. mo14

WHICH IS THE
Leading Life Insurance Comp'y

The following figures are from the later Reports of the New York Insurance Commissioner, showing the "amount of business" of the

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

to be the largest, the "expenses of management" the smallest, the "ratio of Assets to Liabilities," or the security furnished to its members, the largest of any like institution in the country.

Premiums received in 1864..... $2,089,072
" " " 1865..... 3,029,087
Ratio of expenses to premiums rec'd in '64..12.96
" " " " " " '65..12.16
Ratio of assets to liabilities, Jan. 1, 1865....151.85

The inevitable conclusion from these official facts, is that the

MUTUAL BENEFIT LIFE Insurance Company
IS THE BEST AND THE CHEAPEST.

Because its NET ASSETS are proportionably LARGER than those of any other Life Insurance Company in the United States.

Because its "Managing Expenses" are LESS, and it has a LARGER SURPLUS to divide among its members than any Company in the United States.

QUERY. Will some one inform the public of that mysterious process by which a Company with a surplus proportionally small, and expenses very much larger than another, can yet divide more to its members, and insure them at less cost? How is it done? Where does the money come from?

Every intelligent man will see at once that it cannot be done. Yet we have Agents among us that make this their boast.

Any one disposed or intending to insure can be furnished with the requisite information by applying to

Morning Chronicle.

☞ The Paris correspondence of the New Orleans Picayune thus speaks of the French Emperor's heir:

He speaks already English, German and French; he is thoroughly drilled as a soldier; he is well trained in the gymnasium; he rides, fences, swims, and rows well; he is making good progress in Greek, Latin, and the mathematics; he is a tolerable shot with the fowling piece. His father wisely pays particular attention to the education of the body, which assures the first of earthly blessings—health, which is no inconsiderable step towards the possession of talents.

☞ Gen. Grant has already emphatically declared in favor of General Geary as Governor of Pennsylvania, and will throw all his influence for him. Gen. Logan, of Illinois, and General Burnside, have expressed their willingness to take the stump and do battle beneath the banner of the capturer of Savannah, and their companion in arms, General Geary. Major General Hancock, one of Pennsylvania's most brilliant heroes, with General Meade the hero of Gettysburg, who may be classed among the best soldiers of world, are ready for his warm support.

— Four maiden sisters, whose united ages amount to 313 years, averaging 78 1-4, dwell in the house of their nativity at Marlboro, Mass. They probably will not marry now.

— A few young ladies, attending the female department of Knox College, Ill., a few evenings since, procured some whiskey from a drug store, and for a frolic became stupidly drunk. Two of them have since been expelled and sent home.

— The wicked editor of the Springfield Republican says this: "Garters with diamond buckles are worn with the new boops in Paris. It is impossible not see that they are not introduced here yet."

— The Vergennes Vermonter tells a good story of a man in that city agreeing with a wood-seller for a load of "tip-top" wood. He got what he bargained for—a load of limbs; but he don't like to be asked how "tip-top" wood sells since.

— A new invention in Paris is said to be a pair of musical boots. At every step the pressure of the foot produces melody—it may be a waltz, a mazourka, or an operatic air. This arrangement would be extremely convenient for a dancing master.

— Josh Billings says: "I could never find the meaning of the word 'collide' in Worcester or Webster; but riding the other day on the New York Central Railroad, I saw it all. It is the attempt of two trains to pass each other on a single track. If I remember correctly, it was a signal failure."

DUTCHESS NURSERIES

POUGHKEEPSIE, NEW YORK.
FERRIS & CAYWOOD, Proprietors.

We call the attention of our customers and the public to our stock of GRAPE VINES, which is larger than ever before. Having had over twenty years' experience in the management of Vineyards and the propagation of Vines, and our present stock having been grown from bearing wood only, with constant care during the season, we think they will compare favorably with any others that are offered for sale.

Our stock of MONTMORENCY VINES is very large. This variety not being generally known, we will give a brief description: White, a seedling of the White Chasselas, an unparalled grower and bearer, clusters often weighing two pounds, with a mild subacid flavor. It is classed with the hardy grapes, but we protect it in winter as we do all other varieties in this part of the State.

Our stock of the various kinds of EVERGREENS and DECIDUOUS TREES is very large, and is offered at moderate price; and at very low rates by the quantity, to those who are laying out and improving their places, cemeteries, or public grounds, and to nurserymen. We challenge competition.

QUEEN VICTORIA AND THE CONDEMNED FENIAN.—A London letter in the New York Tribune has the following interesting passage:

"An interesting anecdote of the Queen's humanity and attachment to her army has just come to my knowledge. You may have noticed in the news from Ireland the trial of a Sergeant Darragh for Fenianism, of which he was found guilty and sentenced to be shot. When the warrant was brought to the Queen for signature, her consent was urgently solicited on the ground of the necessity of making an example, and at length obtained, though she burst into tears in the act of according it. Within an hour afterward she sent for the warrant again tore it to pieces—and God bless her for it! The act will effect more toward extirpating Fenianism in the ranks—if it exists there—than all the constables, spies, lawyers, judges and hangmen within the fair seas of Britain could do."

DARING ROBBERY.—A correspondent writes to the Boston Journal from Sudbury, Mass., that on Monday of last week the house of Mr. Harland P. Henderson, a young man who had lately moved into that town, was plundered under the following circumstances. On the day named Mr. Henderson and his wife, about 10 o'clock in the forenoon, went from home to make some purchases, leaving their house fastened up. An hour thereafter a strange man called at a neighboring house and asked if the house Mr. Henderson lived in had been let. On being told that it was, the man went thither, broke in and loaded his team and departed. He soon came back and put on a second load with which he was already to start when Mr. Henderson and his wife came up. Finding himself caught the robber fired a pistol at Mr. Henderson and fled for the woods, leaving an old horse and a rather crazy-looking wagon. On examination it was found that $95 in greenbacks and a great many portable articles had been stolen from the house, valued in all about $200. Mrs. Henderson was so frightened by the firing of the pistol that she was prematurely delivered of a child. The thief had among other things carried off even the clothing prepared for the little stranger, and no clue has been discovered to the robber's detection.

SINGULAR PHENOMENON.—Along the line of the Nashville and Decatur Railroad, between Columbia and Pulaski, during a thunder-storm last week, a half mile of the telegraph wires was melted, and divided into small fragments, irregular in shape, and many of them no larger than a buckshot or a small rifle ball. The glass insulators were fused, and the poles were shivered into fragments.

— Accounts from various sections of the West respecting the grain crops are more generally favorable than a few days ago.

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN PATENTS.
R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents,
Late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1857, 78 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,
BOSTON.
After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.
The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.
These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART
During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

Portsmouth N. H.

THURSDAY, MAY 3, 1866.

A DROLL STATEMENT.—The Boston Herald's Washington dispatch of the 29th, speaking of the Reconstruction Report, says:

A democratic member of the Committee submitted the report, as agreed upon, to the President. Mr. Johnson thought there was a practical abandonment of the negro suffrage issue, while on the other hand it virtually assumed the constitutionality of the Civil Rights Bill by proposing to incorporate it in the Constitution.

If the President really said this, he talked extraordinary nonsense. Proposing this does not assume any such thing! Proposition is not assumption. And the proposition, we learn, was made because Mr. Bingham, one of the Committee, thinks it is not constitutional now,—and therefore the Committee mean to make it so, if the people agree to it.

The Abolition Amendment was unconstitutional—till it was adopted! In other words—it is not Sunrise, till the sun rises; but when the sun rises, then it is sunrise. So when the Civil Right shall be adopted as a part of the Constitution, it will be constitutional, however it may be now. Every sober man understands this.

There is another statement of this case quite as droll. The same Herald of the next day has a Washington letter of the 29th, which says:

It may be stated right here that the Reconstruction Committee, by this article, in fact confess that the recent Civil Rights bill has no warrant from the Constitution.

Now let the reader look back, and see the President say: It assumes the Civil Rights to be constitutional,—and now the grand supporter of the President says: It confesses that it has no such warrant.

The President and his follower contradict each other. Which of them is right? Neither. It is simply a contradiction of two false witnesses against the truth.

The bill neither assumes that it is, nor confesses that it is not, constitutional. Bingham thinks it is not,—the other eleven loyal men think it is,—and as a compromise, the twelve agree to say,—It shall be, if the people agree to it.

When it gets to be noon day, then we dare say some of these wise conservative Seers will tell the world "the Sun has risen!"

U. T.

WASHINGTON SCRAPS.—Gov. Morgan held Mr. Smythe's appointment for Collector over Thursday, and there will be no executive session in order for a week. The Senate give out, it is said, that there shall be no confirmation of those who sustain the policy of the President.—Exch.

We do not believe "the Senate" have given out any such thing. Whoever says so probably tells a fib. It may be that they will not confirm such an one, for a vacancy made on purpose.

The Senate Committee on Commerce have agreed to report in favor of the confirmation of Mr. Smythe as Collector of the port of New York.—Another exch.

This is much more probable.

President Johnson informed a prominent gentleman on Friday that no avowed opponent of his policy for the restoration of the Union would be allowed to remain in office, and that he would appoint no man to office who did not give a cordial and hearty support to his policy for restoration.—Exch.

The latter part of the above information is possibly true; the former, if true, indicates something more like monarchy or tyranny, than like democracy or liberty;—but the Senate and the People may have a word to say on this matter. No one man in this country is an Autocrat, as yet.

☞ A call has been made for a Republican Johnson State Convention, to be held at Pittsburg, in July next, to put in nomination a third candidate for Governor, and thus, if possible to defeat the republican candidate, but certainly to deceive and bamboozle the President, so as to get office for the chief actors, after the manner of the memorable Tyler party.

☞ A citizen, who fatally shot a negro at Nashville last July, has been sentenced to be hung by a general court martial.

D. Ballard, of Mobile, has reached the penitentiary at Nashville, under sentence of eight years' imprisonment by a military commission for stealing Government cotton.

[The President may pardon both. He has the power to do so.]

—It is said the transfer of negroes from one State to another, under the Freedmen's Bureau agency, is so much like the inter-State slave trade, in some instances, that it is hard to distinguish the difference.—Exchange.

So it might be, but for one little circumstance, viz: the difference between being sold like a beast, or being hired like a man.

— A story going the rounds of the press that Representatives Delano and Hubbell of Ohio have informed the President that General Carey had publicly denounced him, is denied by those gentlemen. Neither is it true that the President has withdrawn General Carey's nomination as Collector of the Internal Revenue for the second district of Ohio.

—— In Manchester Police Court, Tuesday morning, one Noah Reed was fined $5, and costs $3.86, for using profane and indecent language in the street on Monday night.

—— The Manchester Mirror says that Bradstreet Doe, who has been living at the house kept by Noah Reed, near the Massabesic, got up Tuesday morning and went across the room to get a drink of water, when he was suddenly seized with a fainting fit and soon after died. He has served various terms of imprisonment for different crimes in nearly all the criminal institutions of the State. He was a strong drinker, and it is probable that dissipation hastened his death.

—— On the 24th ult., Mr. Wm. O. Weed and two other men were engaged in running logs down the Bear Camp River. As the logs were floating down, a jam was formed in a narrow pass in the river, near Ames' mill, in Tamworth. The men went upon the logs to cut away the obstructions, when the logs suddenly started, and all three were carried over the Falls. Two of the men were rescued alive, more or less bruised,—but nothing has been seen of Mr. Weed's body since it went over the Falls. It is supposed he must have been crushed by the logs, as he was said to be an excellent swimmer.

SEMMES, THE PIRATE, ON THE POLITICAL SITUATION.—Accounts have been received from Mobile of a welcome banquet given there by a rebel military company to the pirate Semmes. In his speech, Semmes dwelt upon the liberality of President Johnson, and a eulogistic reporter says that he alluded to the difficulties which assail the President, and to the perils of his situation, surrounded as he is by a hostile array of radicals and demagogues, but expressed undying faith in his firmness, high courage, his talents and his final triumph over the enemies of his constitutional freedom. Jefferson Davis and his speedy liberation was, of course, a toast loudly applauded on this festive occasion.

Semmes is a very beautiful supporter of the policy. How grateful this must be to all the people of New England, who have lost their sons, and brothers, and husbands, and their ships, by Semmes & Co.

PHRENOLOGY. — Messrs. Fowler and Wells, 389 Broadway, have just issued a new and improved Phrenological Bust, showing the latest classification and exact location of the Organs of the Brain, designed for learners. All the newly discovered organs are given. It is divided so as to show each Organ and all the groups—Social, Executive, Intellectual and Moral—classified. It is now extensively used in Europe, and is almost the only one in use here. There are two sizes—the largest near the size of life—is sold at $2. The smaller one, which is not more than six inches high, and may be carried in the pocket, is only $1. May be sent by Express, or as freight. Address Fowler & Wells, 389 Broadway, N. Y.

CONGRESS.—On Tuesday the Senate was treated to a letter addressed to Reverdy Johnson by Wade Hampton of South Carolina, in which the rebel braggart undertook to contradict Gen. Sherman's statement that he (Hampton) burned Columbia. Hampton asked for a Special Congressional Committee to investigate the subject. South Carolina, he went on to say, is debarred from representation and has to pay taxes which her sons have no share in imposing There is no one at the Capitol to defend her citizens from slander, misrepresentation or injustice, and he consequently appealed to Mr. Johnson to vindicate his fame.

Senator Sherman said that he could not allow the charge against Gen. Sherman made by the most impudent of all impudent rebels to be placed upon the record without some denial. Gen. Sherman did not charge upon Hampton that he gave an explicit order for the burning of Columbia, but he published previous orders in relation to the burning of cotton, which led to the incendiarism.

Mr. Johnson moved that the letter from Hampton be referred to the Committee on Military Affairs, or be laid on the table; but Mr. Fessenden expressed his hope that the Senate would neither refer nor receive it.

Senator Conness was of the same opinion, saying that any man who would attempt to destroy the Government of the United States would not hesitate to burn a city. Johnson withdrew the letter.

[This Johnson and another, seem to have a wonderful favor for the rebels; and now we are told, that the President,—and Mr. A., B. and C. of the Cabinet, are giving their views of what Congress ought to do, about admitting members. To get their opinions may be very well,—and also their views about the Constitution. But where in the Constitution they find the Cabinet, or its power to dictate to Congress, we cannot tell!—There is a terrible pressure on Congress, by rebels, traitors and doefaces, to let Chaos come again—but we hope they may stand firm. Surely the people of New Hampshire do not wish to have themselves and their votes buried under an unequal Representation.]

In the HOUSE a resolution was adopted, reciting an alarming condition of destitution existing among the white population and freedmen, in various portions of the South — principally Arkansas, Alabama and South Carolina, and that without government aid thousands must perish, and directing that the Select Committee on Freedmen inquire into the expediency of recommending an appropriation of $100,000 for immediate relief by rations of food to the destitute, to be expended under the direction of the Commissioners of the Freedmen's Bureau.

Mr. Kelly offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Whereas, It is reported by citizens of Alabama in a formal memorial to Congress that many people of the mountain districts of that State are suffering from the want of adequate supplies of food, and that a considerable number of them have died from actual starvation, therefore

Resolved, That the President be requested to instruct the proper officer or officers of the Bureau of Refugees and Freedmen to inquire into the condition of said districts and any other districts of the insurgent States, in which such suffering may be said to exist, and to relieve the people thereof and provide them with corn and other seed for planting a crop sufficient for the annual supply of each family requiring such relief.

The Appropriation bill for the Freedmen's Bureau was considered. Mr. Ross moved to table it. Rejected—27 against 91. The appropriation for school houses was reduced from $4,000,000 to $500,000. The bill was passed.

NEW ORLEANS ITEMS, April 30.—Cotton has recovered 3 cents from the previous decline; sales to-day 1250 bales; low middling 33 a 34 cents.

A new flood is coming down from all the rivers. All Southwestern Louisiana is overflowed. No progress is made in closing the crevasses. The loss of property and crops is immense.

Judge Darrell has closed the U. S. Court, and says he will keep it closed so long as bayonets bristle about it.

[Is this the effect of the Peace Proclamation? or of the policy that exchanged Butler for Banks, and Banks for Canby? It is possible for any man to make mistakes: and he who sees and corrects his own mistake only shows that he is wiser to-day than he was yesterday! while the stupid man who cannot see his error, and the obstinate man who will not correct it tho' he sees it, are likely to fall together into the ditch of disaster and disgrace,—and their followers with them.]

The New Orleans papers, of 25th ult., speak of clear, dry, cool weather, with northerly winds, which render thick clothing and fires desirable.

— An insurrection at Falmouth, Va., was a hoax, to which the Richmond Examiner first gave currency, and about which that paper is very indignant.—[We used to have a pack of just such lies from Jamaica, a little more than 20 years ago, via Havana and New Orleans.]

VALPARAISO has been bombarded and almost destroyed by the Spanish fleet, without resistance. There were American, French, and English ships of war there, and they should have prevented the destruction of neutral property. But the British Admiral backed out, whether from treachery or cowardice does not appear,—and the American Admiral did not like to fight alone. It is said $20,000,000 worth of property was destroyed.

PATENT MEDICINES.—If faith would cure disease, our physicians' occupation would be gone; the afflicted need only read the advertisements in the papers to be "made whole;" but the nostrums prepared by these pseudo doctors do not often "back up" the faith inspired by their advertisements. Spring and Summer Remedies.

"Great oaks from little acorns grow." The worst diseases known to the human race spring from causes so small as to almost defy detection. The volumes of scientific lore that fill the tables and shelves of the medical fraternity only go to prove and elaborate these facts. Then guard yourselves while you may. The smallest pimple on the skin is a tell-tale and indicator of disease. It may fade and die away from the surface of the body, but it will reach the vitals, perhaps, at last, and death be the result and final close. MAGGIEL'S BILIOUS, DYSPEPTIC and DIARRHŒA PILLS cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts, and all abrasions of the skin, MAGGIEL'S SALVE is infallible. Sold by J. ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS.—A celebrated physician says "he was amazed at the great number of beneficial indications produced by one of these plasters. CURE OF VARICOSE VEINS.
City Point, Va., January 24, 1865.

T. ALLCOCK & Co.:
Gentlemen: Seeing your notice in the Police Gazette, I got four of your Porous Plasters and placed them on the parts where the pains were most severe, and in less than twelve hours could walk as well as ever. I could hardly believe it, I was so well pleased. I wanted to see if the humours would come back on me or not, so I did more walking that day than I had done in a week. The next day I had some pain in my hip, but I put on a plaster there and in two hours the pain was all gone, nor have I felt it since. Certainly they are the best application for the relief and cure of pains in the joints and back, and for varicose or enlarged veins, I have ever known, and I would not be without them on any account. MECHANICS' ASSOCIATION.—At the regular Quarterly Meeting, on Tuesday evening, it was decided to continue the Reading Room and Exchange as a permanent institution—and it is probable that a Library will also be added in due time. It was also voted that the Association have a public celebration — procession, oration, dinner, &c., next Fall, as was the old custom. The Society was reported to be in a very flourishing condition, in all respects; a large number of new members are coming in—and it is for the interest of every "mechanic and manufacturer" to join this; which we regard as the most noble and useful organization of the sort in the city.

☞ The hearing on the case of Geo. B. French, charged with having a quantity of counterfeit U. S. fractional currency in his possession, with intent to pass the same, which was commenced on Wednesday morning, attracted a large concourse to the U. S. Court Room. U. S. District Attorney Chas. W. Rand and S. H. Goodall, Esq., conducted the prosecution, while the services of Col. John H. George, and Albert R. Hatch and William H. Hackett, Esqs., have been retained for the defence. The Court adjourned at 4 o'clock, Col. George being unwell. Considerable indignation was excited among the spectators at the manner in which this gentleman conducted the cross examination of a lady witness.

The Court will resume its session at 9 o'clock this morning.

POLICE COURT, May 2d.—Frank Marlow, of Salmon Falls, a very respectable-looking young gentleman, was fined $6.86 for kicking up a row on Penhallow street Tuesday afternoon, while he was under the influence of—as he says—"two beers."

John Sullivan, a seaman on the Vandalia, was fined the same amount for a similar offence.

Patrick Kelly, a Marine, also attached to the Vandalia, liquidated to the same amount; and Frank Carlton, do., do., do.

James Williams, an entry thief, for stealing two overcoats, was bound over to the Supreme Judicial Court in the sum of $400, which he failed to give, and went to jail.

SWIFT JUSTICE.—A suspicious, piratical-looking fellow arrived in this city on Tuesday forenoon in the cars. His "phyzog" did not suit the guardians of the peace, and a close watch was kept on his movements. Tuesday evening he sold an overcoat worth $25 for $4, to a gentleman at the City Hotel. No sooner had he got the greenbacks in his vest-pocket, than Johnson secured him, and the Marshal the coat. He gave his name as James Williams, and searching him the officers found a police badge on him belonging to Officer Marsh. Upon inquiry it was found that Marsh's coat had been stolen from the entry of his house. Williams had disposed of that and had stolen another from W. S. Stevenson, who boards on Vaughan street, the latter being the one he sold at the hotel. By our Police Court report, it will be seen that he bids fair to become an inmate of State Prison. He is a precious scoundrel, and his liberty of this city was very quickly restrained after his arrival.

☞ Remember Mr. Wendell's auction sales of dry goods, this day and evening.

RECRUITING FOR THE ARMY.—An officer of the United States army writes as follows to the Army and Navy Journal, in reply to certain erroneous statements concerning recruiting for the army:

"Recruiting for the Army never was brisker, being about three thousand men per month. I speak from personal experience when I say that I never saw a better class of men enter the service. At the rendezvous under my charge, I have enlisted nearly fifty men per month, sixty three per cent. of whom are born in the United States; seventeen per cent. Germans; thirteen per cent. Irish, and seven per cent. English. And as to the class of men enlisted, they are fully equal to the average of the men composing the regiments of Northwestern troops mustered into the service by me in 1861.

☞ The May number of the U. S. Service Magazine contains the history of the 4th Army Corps, from Chickamauga to the Chattahoochie. Its interest does not flag. C. B. Richardson, publisher, New York.

DUTCHESS NURSERIES
POUGHKEEPSIE, NEW YORK,
FERRIS & CATYWOOD, Proprietors.

We call the attention of our customers and the public to our stock of GRAPE VINES, which is larger than ever before. Having had over twenty years' experience in the management of Vineyards and the propagation of Vines, and our present stock having been grown from bearing wood only, with constant care during the season, we think they will compare favorably with any others that are offered for sale.

Our stock of MONTGOMERY VINES is very large. This variety not being generally known, we will give a brief description: White, a seedling of the White Chasselas, an unparalled grower and bearer, clusters often weighing two pounds, with a mild subacid flavor. It is classed with the hardy grapes, but we protect it in winter as we do all other varieties in this part of the State.

Our stock of the various kinds of EVERGREEN and DECIDUOUS TREES is very large, and is offered at moderate prices; and very low rates by the quantity, to those who are laying out and improving their places, cemeteries, or public grounds, and to nurserymen. We challenge competition.

Lodi Manufacturing Company's POUDRETTE.
AGENT FOR NEW HAMPSHIRE,
J. F. SHORES, Jr.,
No. 38 Market Street (Up Stairs.)

The advantages of Poudrette as a manure may be stated as follows:

First, its ECONOMY. The cost of the manure compared with its effects is less than that of any other fertilizer in market It can be bought and applied for the same money which it would cost only to apply farm-yard manure. It is portable, contains great strength in a small compass, and needs no extra care as its applicant is; the closer its contact with the seed the better and quicker it works. $4.50 worth at our retail price (or two barrels) will manure an acre of corn in the hill, and from one-quarter to one-third less at very low rates by the quantity, to those who are laying out and improving their places, cemeteries, or public grounds, and to nurserymen. We challenge competition.

Important.

DR. STEVENS, No 5 Daniel Street, would give notice that he has REDUCED the price of Permanent Sets of ARTIFICIAL TEETH on the Vulcanite Base, to that charged for them before the war.

He would also give notice that he is doing a new style of work for Under-Sets of Teeth, called the CUMBINATION BASE (Gold and Vulcanite) which produces by far the finest work offered to the public. The price is something in advance of that charged for the Vulcanite alone, but the strength, durability, ease of bearing, and beauty of finish obtained by it, more than double the value of the teeth. mh12

He also successfully restores to their natural shape broken or badly decayed teeth, by building out corners and sides with PURE GOLD. (In many cases teeth so restored are as strong as any of their brother members, and in all cases are rendered eminently useful for a long series of years.) DR EARLE FERTH, in all stages, treated, and in a very large majority of cases entire success attained

Leading Life Insurance Comp'y
IN THE UNITED STATES?
Which is the Safest and the Cheapest?

The following figures are from the later Reports of the New York Insurance Commissioner, showing the "amount of business" of the

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

to be the largest, the "expenses of management" the smallest, the "ratio of Assets to Liabilities," or the safest, as furnished to its members, the largest of any life institution in the country.

Premiums received in 1864.....$2,089,072
" " " " 1865.....3,029,087
Ratio of expenses to premiums rec'd in '64...12.96
" " " " " " '65...12.10
Ratio of assets to liabilities, Jan. 1, 1865....151.55

The inevitable conclusion from these official facts, is that the

MUTUAL BENEFIT LIFE Insurance Company
IS THE BEST AND THE CHEAPEST.

Because its NET ASSETS are proportionably LARGER than those of any other Life Insurance Company in the United States.

Because its "Managing Expenses" are LESS, and it has a LARGER BONUS to divide among its members than any Company in the United States.

QUERY. Will some one inform the public of that mysterious process by which a Company with a surplus proportionably much less, and expenses very much larger than another, can yet divide more to its members, and insure them at less cost? How is it done? Where does the money come from?

Every intelligent man will see at once that it cannot be done. Yet we have Agents among us that make this their boast.

Any one disposed or intending to insure can be furnished with the requisite information by applying to

OPINIONS IN NEW YORK.—The Tribune says of the plan for reconstruction: "We may accept and consider it the Union party's plan. Our preference for a much shorter and simpler programme is well known—universal amnesty, impartial suffrage. Such are its conditions and the whole of them."

The Herald says the plan is ingeniously contrived. It is considerably milder than anything heretofore emanating from the committee, and nearer the policy and views of the President.

The Times says the scheme seems sweeping enough to satisfy the most exacting radical as a plan of pacification and reconstruction. The whole thing is worse than a burlesque. Its proper designation would be: "A plan to prolong indefinitely the exclusion of the South from Congress by imposing conditions to which the Southern people never will submit. They would say the purpose of the scheme would not have been more apparent had it been labeled an infallible plan for preventing the South from voting at the next Presidential election."

Mr. Raymond, of the Times, is the head [and tail] of the Johnson party in the House, having, as a nominal republican, voted solus against the Civil Rights bill after the Veto.

— An Irish emigrant, bearing the sunset gun at Portsmouth, asked a sailor, "What's that?" "Why, that's sunset," was the reply. "Sunset!" exclaimed Pat, "and does the sun go down in this country with such a bang as that?"

— A London correspondent says crinoline is done for. It has gone out of the fashionable world all at once, like a melting snow or a vanishing rainbow. Only the servants and very common people now wear the wonderful expansions.

THE NEW HEART.—Some people keep their magnifying-glass ready, and the minute a religious emotion puts out its head, they catch it and kill it, to look at it thro' the microscope, and see if it is the right kind. Do you know, my friends, that you cannot love, and be examining your love at the same time?

Some people instead of getting evidence by running in the way of life, take a dark lantern, and get down on their knees, and crawl on the boundary up and down, to make sure whether they have crossed it. If you want to make sure, run, and when you come in sight of the celestial city, and hear the songs of the angels, then you'll know you are across.

Some people stay so near the boundary line all their lives that they can hear the lions roar all the while.—Rev. Dr. Beecher.

TROUT.—A correspondent of the Maine Farmer says that about sixteen years ago he transferred eight trout to a small brook which empties into a pond. For seven or eight years nothing was seen or heard from them; but since that time it is judged by men who live near these ponds, that not less than 200 pounds are taken yearly of the best trout in that vicinity. There has never before been seen a fish of any kind in those waters. It is amazing how quickly trout will increase when the proper conditions are furnished them. Not many years ago there was no stream in Maine or New Hampshire frequented by that kind of fish but what was full of them; but latterly every contrivance has been used to destroy them, such as nets, poisoning with lime, &c., by persons who make a paltry living by this wholesale destruction, and unless the law steps in to cure the evil, the trout will be, as the salmon is in many instances, a thing only remembered as having been once in our streams.

— Mrs. Mary Sanchez died in Baton Rouge, La., on the 11th of April at the advanced age of 110. She was born at Galveston, in East Baton Rouge, on the 16th of August, 1756, and, with few exceptions, has never in the course of her long and peaceful life been beyond the parish lines. During her life she witnessed the elevation of the Spanish, French, English, American, and Confederate flags over the fort and city of Baton Rouge.

THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD.

DR. MAGGIEL'S
PILLS AND SALVE

These Life-giving remedies are now for the first time, given publicly to the world. For over a quarter of a century of private practice the ingredients in these

Life-giving Pills!

have been used with the greatest success. Their mission is not only to prevent disease, but to cure. They search out the various maladies by which the patient is suffering, and re-invigorate the failing system. To the aged and infirm a few doses of these valuable PILLS will prove to be

A Very Fountain of Youth,

For in every case they add new life and vitality, and restore the waning energies to their pristine state. To the young and middle-aged, they will prove most invaluable, as a ready, speedy, and sterling medicine. Here is a dream realized, that Ponce-de-Leon sought for three hundred years ago, and never found. He looked for a fountain that would restore the old to youth and make youth ever

AN ETERNAL SPRING!

It was left for this day and hour to realize the dream, and show, in one glorious fact, the magic that made it fair.

These Famous Remedies

Cannot stay the flight of years, but they can force back, and hold aloof, diseases that might triumph over the aged and they can do, let men have been, but seize the favorable opportunity that offers. When taken as prescribed—

FOR BILIOUS DISORDERS

Nothing can be more productive of cure than these Pills. Their almost magic influence is felt at once; and the usual concomitants of this most distressing disease are removed. These remedies are made from the purest

VEGETABLE COMPOUNDS.

They will not harm the most delicate female, and can be given with good effect in prescribed doses to the youngest babe.

For Cutaneous Disorders

and all eruptions of the skin, the SALVE is most valuable. It does not heal externally alone, but penetrates with the most searching effects to its very root of the evil.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth N. H.

FRIDAY, MAY 4, 1866.

☞ On Tuesday evening, at Memphis, Tenn., a serious riot occurred between policemen and negro soldiers, growing out of an attempt of the police to arrest a white man whom the negroes determined to protect. From twenty to thirty policemen assembled, and kept up the fight for a couple of hours with about 150 negroes. One policeman was killed and three wounded. From eight to ten negroes were killed and several wounded. The 16th U. S. regular infantry were finally called out to restore order, and at 10 o'clock everything was quiet.—A Memphis dispatch of Wednesday evening, May 2, says: "The negroes in South Memphis this morning fired on a citizen, wounding him, and assaulted a white woman. The Sheriff's posse attempted to disarm all the negroes, when they fled to Fort Pickering, firing as they ran. They were driven from the Fort this evening and sought the woods. During the excitement seven negroes and one citizen were killed, and a few houses burned. The military have been under arms all day. All is quiet to-night, but fears are entertained that the negroes will attempt to burn the city, but they are groundless. Up to the present time fifteen blacks and four whites have been killed." A dispatch at a later hour says "more fires have occurred in South Memphis, among the negro quarters, and several negroes are reported killed. No effort is being made to quench the fire." [This last item looks more like a move to burn out the negroes, than like their burning the city.]

In the U. S. Senate, Wednesday, May 2, Mr. Sherman called for the regular order, and the Post Office Appropriation was taken up as unfinished business. The pending question was upon the following amendment of Mr. Trumbull:

"No person exercising or performing the duties of any office, which by the law is required to be filled by the advice and consent of the Senate, shall before his confirmation by the Senate receive any salary or compensation for his services, unless he be commissioned by the President to fill up a vacancy occurred by reason of death, resignation, or expiration of term of office during the recess of the Senate, and since its last adjournment, or removal for acts done in violation of the duties of his office, the case and cause of removal to be reported to the Senate at its next session."

After debate, the amendment was adopted by the following vote:

Yeas—Messrs. Clark, Conness, Crowell, Harris, Henderson, Howard, Howe, Kirkwood, Morrill, Nye, Poland, Pomeroy, Ramsay, Sprague, Sumner, Trumbull, Wade, Williams and Wilson—19.

Nays—Messrs. Davis, Dixon, Doolittle, Fessenden, Guthrie, Johnson, Morgan, Saulsbury, Sherman, Van Winkle and Wiley—11.

Mr. Wade offered an amendment providing that the government advertising in the city of Washington shall be done in the paper having the largest circulation, instead of as now in the paper or papers selected by the President. Adopted. The bill as amended was then passed.

Mr. Sherman introduced a bill to reduce the rate of interest on the national debt, and for funding the same, which was referred to the Committee on Finance. It provides for funding the debt in 30 year bonds at 5 per cent. interest, the bonds to be registered or coupon as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe, payable, principal and interest, in coin.

Mr. Sherman stated that the bill was prepared by the Secretary of the Treasury, and had been already partially considered by the Finance Committee.

[The Senate has shown a firm front against the President, by its action on the retention of post officers, and by giving the advertising to the papers having the largest circulation, which is designed to aid Forney's Chronicle. Later in the afternoon, the Senate rejected the nomination of Gen. Frank Blair as Collector of Internal Revenue at St. Louis, and of I. V. Finlay as Assessor of Internal Revenue at Baltimore—both of them avowed supporters of the President's policy.]

In the House, the Army Bill was defeated 35 to 83.

Immigrant Passenger Ships.—The bill passed by the House of Representatives in regard to immigrant vessels provides that no one but officers of the customs, military officers and immigration agents appointed by law shall go on board the vessels; that all male passengers of 12 years and upward who do not occupy berths with their wives, shall be berthed in the fore part of the ship; prohibits bringing convicts to this country; requires carrying disinfectants; requires naval surveyors to designate the number each vessel may carry and give certificates; establishes in Boston, Chicago, New Orleans, San Francisco, Baltimore and Philadelphia, United States emigrant offices, each with a superintendent, at a salary of $2000, who may have two clerks of first and second class.

Local.

☞ We hear that Messrs. C. H. Sides, T. H. Odlon, C. C. Whittemore and H. Peyser have purchased of the Rundlett estate, the very eligible field on the south side of Middle street, opposite Anthony, for the sum of $6000. The contents is about nine acres, we believe; with a frontage of little more than 200 feet, on which are several large and beautiful elm trees. The premises will afford many very desirable building lots, to which use we presume it will be applied; and nearly all the area can readily be made available by opening Anthony street through it one way, and continuing the lane which runs from Wibird street, across it, in the other direction.

It would seem that the growth of the city, (if it grows at all—of which we feel no doubt) must henceforth be mainly in a southwesterly direction, as in fact it has for sometime been—and the West End has come to be regarded as "the Court End" of the town, as the South End was formerly. And with so many more desirable locations just outside the limits of the city proper, than there ever were in it; it has long been a surprise to citizens and visitors of taste, that whoever builds a new house, should desire to shove it in among a lot of others, often old ones, where there was not half room enough for those already huddled before. But there is no accounting for tastes; and our motto is, "Every man to his own notion," so he does not interfere with other people's rights.

Portsmouth has been much complimented and praised for its beauty—and deservedly so, in many respects; though more of the credit for this is due to former generations than to the present. But whoever compares with our good city, even our neighboring little town of Exeter, or Newburyport, or Salem, or Concord, or Kennebunk, or almost any place we ever visited,—our crowded houses, generally small lots, and especially the great prevalence of high and close fences, like a State Prison, (the latter of which we never saw in anything like such abundance anywhere else); with the spacious gardens, light open fences and hedges elsewhere,—shall not find Portsmouth entirely beyond all possibility of improvement.

This crowded and undesirable state of things in the older part of the city, we suppose it is of not much use to try to correct,—especially when the strange mania to increase the evil, by crowding still more, is so prevalent; but it does seem singular to strangers who come here, that the area for building does not widen, when the facilities offered are so attractive. Who does not think this city would be benefited, did it extend continuously to the Plains, instead of being mainly crowded into less than a square mile? Those who do not, are welcome to their opinion; if there be any who agree with us, they can we suppose now gratify their good taste, by securing a lot in the field mentioned above.

And as to that,—the whole region adjacent, ought to have been opened to the public long ago. Cabot and Summer streets should have been continued through to South Road; and Park and Wibird streets likewise. Then with a bridge across the South Millpond, say from the Court House to "Elwyn Park" on the beautiful hill on the opposite shore; and "Lincoln Avenue" laid out 60 or 100 feet wide, from this imaginary Park, across Richards Avenue to Middle street, just below the residence of Mr. Mendum—and the new city, thus planned, if properly built, would far eclipse the old Portsmouth, with all its vaunted beauty.

As to those new streets—see how much more "the fathers" have done, or attempted than we: Summer street was once opened and accepted by the town; but in the race for new streets, Mr. Langley Boardman (with his "Joshua" street, now Richards Avenue,) got ahead of Mr. James Rundlett, (with his continuation of Summer Street,)—the more's the pity, too, we think, for the latter would have been much the better street; and Mr. Rundlett was by vote of the town, allowed to close it again. And in this connexion, it may be interesting and perhaps instructive, to relate that "Packer's Pasture," for which Mr. Rundlett then offered Samuel Hale $150 per acre, so he could continue his desired street through, was actually sold last year, after being retained in the same ownership about forty years, for just one half this sum. Mr. Elwyn also once offered to give the town a road across his beautiful grounds on the South Pond, if they would build a bridge across; and a gentleman of wealth and public spirit, resident but not a native of Portsmouth, would have given $1000 for this highly desirable object.

But the taxes, oh dear! the taxes! Don't recommend any improvements, even if they would "pay" 20 or 100 per cent. in money, not to mention the satisfaction of the thing. Well, we are not going to advise doing anything of the sort—only the purchase alluded to, has set us thinking of what might be done for our good old city, did we but appreciate the advantages within reach.

— On Tuesday night the Masonic Hall at Atlanta, Ga., was burnt; loss $100,000.

☞ In Washington, on Saturday evening last, the Committee of Arrangements on the part of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Union for the exhibition of specimens of left-hand penmanship, obtained an interview with President, and also paid their respects to General Gates, at the Ebbitt House, the oldest officer in commission in the army, and the first graduate of West Point. After the members had been severally introduced by Colonel Thorpe, the General said he felt highly gratified by the compliment paid him, and in the course of his remarks alluded to his regiment, which had furnished ten major generals: the two Shermans, General Thomas, and several others who have borne a conspicuous part in the service of their country. The General spoke proudly of "his boys," as he called them, and of the creditable manner in which they have acquitted themselves, but was sorry to admit that he had one black sheep in his flock, viz: the rebel General Bragg. He related many humorous incidents of his military experience, and the interview throughout was of the most agreeable character. After extending to the general an invitation to be present at the opening of the exhibition, to which he responded favorably, the committee bade him adieu, well pleased with their brief intercourse.

The Elbows.—Many years ago, when any messenger failed to understand a message, or what was worse, delivered it wrong,—people used to say he "understood with his elbows." Some people understand that way now. We have before us in a newspaper, a letter from Washington, saying that the proposed amendment of the U. S. Constitution provides—

That all males above the age of twenty-one who were not allowed to vote by the States should not be counted in the basis of representation. It will be noticed that the practical effect of this amendment will be to leave the number of Southern representatives just about where it is now, inasmuch as all of the colored people South, except the males over twenty-one will be be counted as representative population.

It is amazing that any one could make this blunder, who had read the document itself:—for it says:

Whenever male citizens of the United States not less than twenty-one years of age shall be excluded from the elective franchise in any State, except for participation in rebellion, the basis of representation therein shall be reduced in the proportion which the number thus excluded bears to the whole number of male citizens, not less than twenty-one years of age, in such State.

☞ The Democratic State Convention in Kentucky have built a platform of many planks—one or two of which will show the character of the whole:—they say they "wish to rescue the Government from the vandal grasp of that radical Congress whose governing principle of action is 'rule or ruin.' Also, that the Federal government has no right to try civilians by Military Commissions and drumhead Courts Martial, and that the writ of habeas corpus should have been fully restored as soon as the war ended."

Very curiously, in the same mail that brings the above, we get the following item:

The President has sustained Gen. Thomas in disregarding the writs of habeas corpus issued in behalf of Isham Henderson of the Louisville Journal, now on trial at Nashville for defrauding the government.

Query, whether this policy agrees with that?

☞ L. Scott & Co., 38 Walker street, New York, republish the London, Edinburgh, North British and Westminster Reviews and Blackwood's Magazine. They furnish either singly at $4 a year, or all five for $15. We are indebted to them for courtesies in this line.

— It is said at New Orleans that most of the rebels of East Tennessee have gone there to reside.

— Lord Norbury's joke on the attorneys is savage. A shilling subscription having been set on foot to bury one who had died poor, he exclaimed, "Only a shilling to bury an attorney! Here's a guinea; go and bury twenty of them!"

— A copy of a letter from the President to Governor Worth of North Carolina, is published, stating that the proclamation of the 2d does not interfere with military commissions then in existence, and says an order will soon be issued settling all embarrassment on that point.

[We called the proclamation a Riddle: it is hardly explained yet.]

— A Washington dispatch says Mr. Bingham of Ohio will move, next Tuesday, a proposition to amend the report of the Reconstruction Committee, so that it will conform to his views on the subject of basis of representation. The radicals think they can easily make the committee's work acceptable to the President, to pass it and get Tennessee to ratify it, and admit her representatives in twenty days.

— The J. Monroe Taylor Gold Medal Soap will sustain the reputation that it has nobly won, having long been ranked the Queen of Soaps. We have known and praised this Soap since its first appearance in the market, and find all who have used it agree with us in saying, that if we had to give double the price, we would not do without it. It has no equal. Most of the merchants sell it. 82 — Man may err and err and be forgiven, but poor woman, with all his temptation, and but half his strength, is placed beyond the pale of earthly salvation, if she but be tempted into crime.

Perry's Moth and Freckle Lotion.

☞ Chloasma, or Mothpatch, (also called Liver-spot,) and Lentigo, or Freckles, are often very annoying, particularly to ladies of light complexion, for the discolored spots show more plainly on the face of a blonde than of a brunette; but they greatly mar the beauty of either, and any preparation that will effectually remove them, without injuring the texture or color of the skin, is certainly a desideratum. Dr. B. C. Perry, who has made diseases of the skin a speciality, has discovered a remedy for these discolorations, which is at once prompt, infallible and harmless.

Prepared by B. C. PERRY, Dermatologist, No. 49 Bond Street, New York, and for sale by all druggists: price $2 per bottle. Call for

City Point, Va., January 24, 1865.

T. ALLCOCK & Co.:

Gentlemen: Seeing your notice in the Police Gazette, I got four of your Porous Plasters and placed them on the parts where the pains were most severe, and in less than twelve hours could walk as well as ever. I could hardly believe it, I was so well pleased. I wanted to see if the lameness would come back on me or not, so I did more walking that day than I had done in a week. The next day I had some pain in my hip, but I put on a plaster there and in two hours the pain was all gone, nor have I felt it since. Certainly they are the best application for the relief and cure of pains in the joints and back, and for varicose or enlarged veins, I have ever known, and I would not be without them on any account. POLICE COURT, May 3.—Patrick Quinlan, for brawl and tumult, was fined $6.86, which he paid.

Daniel Gallion and Julius J. Lang, marines, for being drunk and disorderly in the grocery 25 Congress street, were severally assessed $6.86, and in default thereof joined the fatigue party of their comrades now stationed at the House of Correction. These amphibious warriors seem imbued with an inordinate thirst for ardent spirits, and the fiat of our Police Justice in cases of too free indulgence seems to be—Hoe every one that thirsteth and gratifieth that thirst.

☞ The case of Geo. B. French was on trial Thursday forenoon, but was continued until Tuesday 8th inst., French being placed under $2500 bonds to appear. The audience evinced their disapprobation of Col. George's manner of conducting the case in very audible hisses.

☞ The Fenian excitement on the border may be considered at an end. Gen. Meade and staff passed through this city from the East by the evening train on Thursday, which also brought the company which recently left Fort Constitution for the scene of hostilities.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Rev. Sullivan Holman has removed from Portsmouth to Concord, where he has charge of the Methodist E. Church.

—— The following resolution passed both bodies of the City Government of Dover, unanimously, at a recent session:

Resolved by the City Council of the City of Dover—That the sale of intoxicating liquors should be suppressed, and that the City Marshal be instructed to enforce all the laws of the State against the further sale of the same.

This resolution was passed in response to a petition for the purpose, signed by Daniel M. Christie and more than 300 others, including many of the principal citizens.

GEN. PHIL. SHERIDAN, now at New Orleans, has given very interesting answers in writing to questions sent him by Congress. We can copy only a few of them:

Q. What are the feelings of those who took part in the rebellion and sympathized with it toward the General Government?

A. I believe they accept the situation, and have an earnest desire for the restoration of a perfect Union, but exhibit at the same time an unmistakable desire to glorify the rebellion.

Q. What would be the effect, in your opinion, upon the State organization if the people were left without control to act for themselves?

A. I believe they would quarrel among themselves, and that the sensible and substantial people would regret the absence of the military force.

The inclination to glorify the rebellion gives those the preference for election by the people, or appointment by those in power.

Q. What would be the condition of the loyal men if they were left without any protection by the Federal Government?

A. My impression is that for the present they would feel unsafe, and that many of them would leave the country.

I consider it necessary to maintain a military force in my Department for the following reasons: To give security to Northern capital and Union people, and to give an actual and cordial support to the freedman until he has time to work out his social status. I also believe its presence necessary to prevent quarreling among the Southern people themselves.

The Freedmen's Bureau gives that security to the freedman which arises from having some one to look after and advocate his interests.

Q. What would be the condition and fate of the freedmen, if left without protection, under the exclusive control of white people there?

A. I fear there would be a great deal of trouble. A large number of people would act in good faith toward them, but there would be many who would not, and a war of races, to some extent, would probably be the consequence.

Lodi Manufacturing Company's POUDRETTE.

AGENT FOR NEW HAMPSHIRE,

J. F. SHORES, Jr.,

No. 38 Market Street (Up Stairs.)

The advantages of Poudrette as a manure may be stated as follows:

First, its ECONOMY. The cost of the manure compared with its effects is less than that of any other fertilizer in market. It can be bought and applied for the same money which it would cost only to apply farm-yard manure. It is portable, containing great strength in a small compass, and needs no extra care in its application; the closer its contact with the seed the better and quicker it works. $4.50 worth at our retail price (or two barrels) will manure an acre of corn in the hill, and from one-quarter to one-third to the product, and will mature the crop from two to three weeks earlier. No worms will stay in the hill where the Poudrette is placed. No seeds of weeds will germinate, and crows are very shy of plucking it out of the hill. On Corn, Tobacco and Garden Vegetables it has no equal. While the leaf and growth of the tobacco plant is large, it has not the coarseness of fibre which is produced by Peruvian Guano, and it has taken the lead for this crop in Connecticut, and has begun to be appreciated in Maryland.

It is famous for producing larger and finer potatoes than anything else, and the stories told about Onions, their large growth, &c., are almost beyond credence. Flowers and plants are much improved by an application of Poudrette.

Another great consideration is the season of the year when the corn is planted. It is a time when every spring crop must be put in, and the corn not only planted, but up and growing sufficiently for the last hoeing and plaistering, before the commencement of grain and hay harvest.—The celerity and dispatch with which a large crop of corn is put in and poudretted, the rapid growth and consequently the early opportunity of working among it—the small chance for weeds, owing to the shade it affords, and the fact that the Poudrette, unlike other manures, contains no seed that can germinate, and consequently less trouble required to clean it—are all important advantages. The corn will ripen two weeks earlier, and the yield will be much heavier.

The same remarks apply to Sorghum and Broom Corn.

For grass, where it is about to be laid down to lawn, or for several years, a top dressing of Poudrette will be found invaluable.

We wish to remark this place, that Poudrette is not like some quack medicines, warranted to cure all kinds of diseases. It must be used with discretion, and a reasonable quantity will produce a reasonable effect.

Poudrette will answer no better than other manures on wet, sour, undrained land, or in season of drought. In other words, Poudrette is an invaluable substitute for barn-yard manure, and can be used with great profit and satisfaction upon every spring crops, but it will neither work miracles, drain the land it is put upon, nor cause rain to fall in time of drought.

Price per Barrel $2.25—delivered at any part of the city, or at any depot or wharf.

Important Notice!—When Poudrette is spoken of, we mean "LODI POUDRETTE," which has now stood the test of twenty-six years' trial; and when buying, be sure and get that kind!

A descriptive pamphlet may be had on application. mh19

50 U. S. Rev. Stamp. Cancelled by W. H. H. 50

OLIVE A. GRANT of Portsmouth in the County of Rockingham and State of New Hampshire, respectfully libels and gives the Court to understand and be informed that she was lawfully married to her husband, JOHN E. GRANT, by Rev. Mr. Pike, at Newburyport in the State of Massachusetts, on the fourteenth day of November, A. D. Eighteen Hundred and Fifty-one, and that she has ever since resided in Portsmouth aforesaid in this State except when temporarily absent therefrom, and that she and her said husband lived in said Portsmouth for more than seven years next prior to A. D. Eighteen Hundred and Sixty, treated your libellant with extreme cruelty; that the said John on divers days in the year Eighteen Hundred and Sixty and Eighteen Hundred and Sixty-one, at Boston in the State of Massachusetts, committed adultery with one Mrs. Ellison and with divers other lewd women whose names are unknown to this libellant; and that said John at said Portsmouth in the month of March, A. D. Eighteen Hundred and Sixty, without sufficient cause, and without the consent of said Olive, abandoned her, and has refused for three years together to cohabit with her, said abandonment and refusal continuing down to the time of filing this libel

And said John in the month of March, 1861, left said libellant, and has ever since willingly absented himself from her for the space of three years together, to wit: from said March, 1861, to the filing of this libel, without making suitable provision for her support and maintenance, and continues so to do.

Wherefore she prays that a divorce from the bond of matrimony existing between her and said John, may be decreed, and that the custody of her minor child, VIRGINIA A. GRANT, who has been constantly supported by her since her birth, may be decreed to her; and for such other relief in the premises as the Court may deem just and proper. OLIVE A. GRANT.

In the Supreme Judicial Court—Rockingham, ss.

This libel having been filed in the office of the Clerk of said Court this twenty fifth day of April A. D 1866:

It is ordered that said OLIVE A. GRANT notify said JOHN E. GRANT to appear at the next Law Term of said Court, to be held at Exeter on the third Tuesday of June next, then and there to show cause, if any he has, why the prayer thereof should not be granted, by causing a true and attested copy of said libel and this order thereon to be published three weeks successively in the DAILY MORNING CHRONICLE, a newspaper printed at Portsmouth, in the County of Rockingham, the last publication whereof to be at least thirty days before said term.

DUTCHESS NURSERIES

POUGHKEEPSIE, NEW YORK,

FERRIS & CAYWOOD, Proprietors.

We call the attention of our customers and the public to our stock of GRAPE VINES, which is larger than ever before. Having had over twenty years' experience in the management of Vineyards and the propagation of our Vines, and our present stock having been grown from bearing wood only, with constant care during the season, we think they will compare favorably with any others that are offered for sale.

Our stock of MONTGOMERY VINES is very large. This variety not being generally known, we will give a brief description: White, a seedling of the White Chasselas, an unparalled grower and bearer, clusters often weighing two pounds, with a mild subacid flavor. It is classed with the hardy grapes, but we protect it in winter as we do all other varieties in this part of the State.

Our stock of the various kinds of EVERGREEN and DEC. COUS TREES is very large, and is offered at moderate price; and at very low rates by the quantity, to those who are laying out and improving their places, cemeteries, or public grounds, and to nurserymen. We challenge competition.

Important.

DR. STEVENS, No 5 Daniel Street, would give notice that he has REDUCED the price of Permanent Sets of ARTIFICIAL TEETH on the Vulcanite Base, to that charged for them before the war.

He would also give notice that he is doing a new style of work for Under Sets of Teeth, on the COMBINATION BASE (Gold and Vulcanite) which produces by far the finest work offered to the public. The price is something in advance of that charged for the Vulcanite alone, but the strength, durability, ease of bearing, and beauty of finish obtained by it, more than double the value of the Teeth. mh12

WHICH IS THE

Leading Life Insurance Comp'y

IN THE UNITED STATES?

Which is the Safest and the Cheapest?

The following figures are from the later Reports of the New York Insurance Commissioner, showing the "amount of business" of the

MUTUAL BENEFIT LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

to be the largest, the "expenses of management" the smallest, the "ratio of Assets to Liabilities," or the security furnished to its members, the largest of any life institution in the country.

Premiums received in 1864.....$2,089,072
" " " 1865.....3,029,087
Ratio of expenses to premiums rec'd in '64...12.36
" " " " " " " '65...12.16
Ratio of assets to liabilities, Jan. 1, 1865....151.85

The inevitable conclusion from these official facts, is that the

MUTUAL BENEFIT LIFE Insurance Company

IS THE BEST AND THE CHEAPEST.

Because its NET ASSETS are proportionably LARGER than those of any other Life Insurance Company in the United States.

Because its "Managing Expenses" are LESS, and it has a LARGER SURPLUS to divide among its members than any Company in the United States.

QUERY. Will some one inform the public of that mysterious process by which a Company with a surplus proportionably much less, and expenses very much larger than another, can yet divide more to its members, and insure them at less cost? How is it done? Where does the money come from?

Every intelligent man will see at once that it cannot be done. Yet we have Agents among us that make this their boast.

Any one disposed or intending to insure can be furnished with the requisite information by applying to NOBLE SENTIMENTS. — Condemn no man, says John Wesley, for not thinking as you think. Let every one enjoy the full and free liberty of thinking as you think. Let every one enjoy the full and free liberty of thinking for himself. Let every man use his own judgment, since every man must give an account of himself to God.—Abbor every approach in any kind of degree to the spirit of persecution. It you cannot reason or persuade a man into the truth, never attempt to force him into it. If love will not compel him to come, leave him to God, the judge of all.

☞ In Canada last year 25,000,000 bushels of wheat were harvested, 12,000,000 bushels peas, 40,000,000 bushels oats, over 1,500,000 tons hay, 13,000,000 bushels buckwheat, 28,000,000 potatoes, and 10,000,000 bushels turnips. Canada also produced 30,000,000 pounds beef, sheared 5,500,000 pounds wool, and made 45,000,000 pounds butter. The number of cows, horses, sheep and pigs is over two millions. Lower Canada has 2000 sawmills and in one year cut 800,000,000 feet of lumber. The coast line from the Gulf of St. Lawrence to Lake Superior is 2000 miles, and there are 2000 miles of railroad. The population of Canada liable to do military duty is half a million, enrolled militia 90,000, volunteers 30,000. There are 300 newspapers, and 800 schools educating 60,000 children.

PIONEERS.—Few of the pioneer miners of California and Nevada, even those who discovered and opened the richest mines, reap great advantages from their opportunities. Gov. Sutter, first discoverer of gold in California, is supported by a pension from the State; Comstock, who found and gave his name to the great silver lode in Nevada, is a vagrant trespasser in Montana; Alva Gould, locator of the Gould & Carry claim, is making shingles for a living in Washoe Valley: Marshal and Wemer, who found the first gold on the south fork of the American river in 1848, are both reduced to biting poverty; and so on.

— "I think I have seen you before, sir—are you not Owen Smith?" "Oh, yes; I am owin' Jones, and owin' Brown, and owin' everybody."

HOME CONVERSATION.—Children hunger perpetually for new ideas, and the most pleasant way of reception is by the voice and ear, not the eye and the printed page. The one mode is natural, the other is artificial. Who would not rather listen than read? An audience will listen closely from the beginning to the end of an address, which not one in twenty of those present would read with the same attention. This is emphatically true of children. They will learn with pleasure from the lips of parents what they deem it drudgery to study in the books; and even if they have the misfortune to be deprived of the educational advantages which they desire, they cannot fail to grow up intelligent if they enjoy in childhood and youth the privilege of listening daily to the conversation of intelligent people. Let parents, then, talk much and talk well at home. A father who is habitually silent in his own house may be, in some respects, a wise man; but he is not wise in his silence. We sometimes see parents who are the life of every company which they enter, dull, silent, uninteresting at home among their children. If they have not mental activity and mental stores sufficient for both, let them first provide for their own household.

CAUSES OF SUDDEN DEATH.—Very few of the deaths which are said to arise from diseases of the heart do really arise from that cause. To ascertain the real origin of sudden deaths, an experiment has been tried in Europe, and reported to a scientific congress at Strasburg. Sixty-six cases of sudden death were made the subject of a thorough post mortem examination; in these cases only two were found who had died from disease of the heart. Nine out of the sixty-six had died from apoplexy, while there forty six cases of congestion of the lungs—that is, the lungs were so full of blood they could not work, there not being room enough for a sufficient quantity of air to enter to support life. The causes that produce congestion of the lungs are cold feet, tight clothing, costive bowels, sitting until chilled after being warmed with labor or a rapid walk, going too suddenly from a close, heated room into the cold air, especially after speaking, and sudden depressing news operating on the blood.—These causes of sudden death being known, an avoidance of them may serve to lengthen many valuable lives, which would otherwise be lost under the verdict of heart complaint. The disease is supposed to be inevitable; hence many may not take the pains they would to avoid sudden death if they knew it lay in their power.

A "STUDY" OF BONNETS.—The Paris correspondent of the London Telegraph writes:

The one great object of my admiration in Paris is the bonnet—its ever changing shape, its splendor, its disappearance, and its 'dark days of nothingness.' What do you think bonnets were yesterday? Not crape, nor tulle, nor silk, nor satin, nor velvet, nor straw. No, nothing but flowers. I saw one lady with a bonnet of daisies, and another who had on her head a handful of lilies of the valley, festooned with green ribbon. If it really is anything, a bonnet can scarcely be less than a few lilies of the valley, which at Florence would cost half a Paul. Another lady had a wreath of wall-flowers."

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN PATENTS.
R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents,
Late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1857, 78 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,
BOSTON.
After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.
The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.
These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in form to secure to them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending; such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART
During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twelve rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth N. H.

SATURDAY, MAY 5, 1866.

THE U. S. SENATE, May 3, recalled the Post Office Appropriation bill passed the day before, which contains an amendment satisfactory to the opponents of the President's policy, but believed by many to be unconstitutional.

The Senate Committee on Commerce met, but took no action on the nomination of Mr. Smythe as Collector of New York. His chances of confirmation are not improving.

In the House, the bill for the admission of Colorado, as a State, passed, 80 to 56. Messrs. Marston, Patterson and Rollins of New Hampshire voted yea.

So Congress having passed the bill to admit Colorado into the Union, it only requires President Johnson's signature to become a law.

As there are doubts as to whether the required executive approval will be given, we copy the preamble:

Whereas, on the 21st day of March, Anno Domini, 1864, Congress passed an act to enable the people of Colorado to form a Constitution and State Government, and offered to admit said State when so formed into the Union upon compliance with certain conditions therein specified; and whereas it appears by a message of the President of the United States, January, 1866, that the said people have adopted a Constitution which, upon due examination, is found to conform to the provisions and comply with the conditions of said act, and to be republican in its form of government, and that they now ask for admission into the Union—Be it enacted, &c.

The bill is in the usual form, and is short.

The vote rejecting the Army bill was reconsidered, and the bill was recommitted to the Military Committee.

Mr. Stevens offered resolutions congratulating the Emperor of Russia on his escape from assassination.

Mr. Ross objected, when Mr. Stevens said he would withdraw them until one man in favor of assassination could not obstruct them.

The Senate joint resolution extending the time for the completion of the Union Pacific Railroad, Eastern Division, was taken up.

Mr. Stevens moved to amend by adding a section, extending two years for commencing and completing the Northern Pacific Railway and all its sections.

The amendment was agreed to and the joint resolution passed.

Mr. Washburn offered a bill to incorporate the National Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphan Home of the District of Columbia. Mrs. Grant and Mrs. Sherman are among the corporators. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

— The Colorado Bill will have a heavy opposition in the House, and the chances are against its passage. If it does pass, it inevitably will be vetoed, and with the opposition of Sumner, Grimes and other Radicals, cannot be possibly carried over the veto.—Exch.

Perhaps this is all true. If it should pass, be vetoed, and then defeated, the "radicals" here mentioned, would seem to be the only consistent men in the lot. The President sometime ago, sent a special message, urging Congress to admit Colorado as a State. If he should now veto it, would it be a step backward, or sideways, or how? And which of these two policies will the sycophants approve? [Since the above was written, the bill has passed,—but we let the item stand.]

— A dispatch from Eastport, published in the N. Y. Herald, states that the party of Fenians who sailed in the schooner Friend had succeeded in capturing the British schooner Wentworth, of Windsor, N. S. After transferring their arms and provisions on board of the captured vessel, they scuttled the Friend. The U. S. steamer Winooski had gone in pursuit.

— Kingston, Jamaica, correspondence says the testimony taken in the case of Governor Eyre, concerning his proceedings in suppressing the insurrection, will honorably acquit that officer. On the other hand, it is claimed that great brutality was practiced. The churches and clergy were still much agitated.

— At San Francisco, Elizabeth Thorn and Jacob W. Balch have commenced a suit against Ass S. Mercer, of the steamer Continental, to recover damages, amounting in the aggregate to $3500, for loss of baggage, detention and fraud.

— Two iron clads built in England for the Peruvian government have reached Rio Janeiro. One of them captured two Spanish vessels two days before coming into that port.

— The Nova Scotia Legislature has voted $2000 to the widow of Dr. Slayter, who died by cholera while employed in attending upon the England's passengers.

— The Cincinnati Gazette chronicles the removal of James P. Lane, Esq., editor of the Lafayette (Indiana) Journal, and a radical, from the post office of that city.

"DUST THOU ART."

Dust! dust! dust!
Oh, how insanely it flies!
Just! just! just!
Just now it stopped both my eyes!
Wind! wind! wind!
Will its wrath ever be spent?
Cind! cind! cind!
Cinders, sand, gravel, all blent!
Soar! soar! soar!
Soar high and low through the air;
More! more! more!
More than our peck's hardly fair!
Be! be! be!
Be sand-go-in, and swallow it all,
The! the! the!
The "sprinklers" will come in the fall!

DRY AS DUST.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Mr. James R. Leavitt, of North Hampton, has a little flock of five ewes, from which he has nine healthy and promising lambs the present Spring.

—— On Tuesday last, Lewis F. Woodman of South Hampton, shot an eagle while flying, which measured 6 feet from tip to tip of wings.

—— Mr. Lord of Gilmanton, who was reported robbed of $4000 in cash a few days since, has been arrested on suspicion of an attempt to swindle his creditors by making a false report of a robbery.

—— Mr. Seth Greenleaf, conductor on the Montreal Railroad, has a bit of gold in his pocket of the value of some ten dollars, melted out of quartz rock quarried in the town of Lisbon, which he exhibits to those who are faithless as to the mineral wealth of New Hampshire.

—— James Wood, sentenced at the late term of the court in Keene, to three years imprisonment for robbing a store in Walpole, escaped from Sheriff Holbrook on Tuesday, while being conveyed to Concord, by jumping from the car window at some point between Nashua and Manchester.

—— Large calves are getting fashionable [no allusion to the "artificials" which some ungallant paper says are favored by ladies]. Simon Drake of Pittsfield boasts of one weighing 122 pounds a few hours after birth.

—— Mrs. Thomas Bedee of Holderness, aged 81 years, has read her Bible through twenty times without the aid of glasses, made her own butter and cheese last year, and did her own spinning and weaving. Mrs. Bedee thinks that a strict adherence to Democratic principles and a constant reading and practice of God's word has secured to her the blessings of a clear conscience, an excellent eyesight, and a ripe old age.—Laconia Democrat.

—— B. M. Smith, of Centre Sandwich, has furnished the Laconia Democrat with a list of snows and rains from Oct. 27, 1865 to March 29, 1866; number of snows 32, averaging from one half to eight inches, and making in the aggregate seven feet, eight and one half inches. But few people are aware that so much snow fell the past winter, as the ground was thinly covered most of the winter. The number of rains in the same time was 13.

Communication.

Messrs. Editors:—In the case the U. S. vs. Geo. B. French, before Commissioner Hackett, for having counterfeit currency with intent to pass, the respondent was bound over in $2500 to appear at the Circuit Court next Tuesday. The examination was not adjourned, but finished. Col. George's method of defence was justly condemned and censured by every decent person present. Sharp and shrewd criminal lawyers are expected to assume a variety of unreasonable hypotheses in defending a prisoner; but no good reason can be given why a lawyer should not be a gentleman. It is a relief to know that it was needful to send out of town for a lawyer mean enough to attack by insinuation and indecent questions, a young woman of good reputation and pure character, who happened to be a witness in the case, and against whom nothing could be asserted.

At the South, such a course would be likely to attract a pistol shot toward the offender's head; but at the North, we prefer to hold the offender up to public scorn.

SPECTATOR.

☞ A Memphis, Tenn., dispatch of May 3d, says:

The city remains quiet at 9 o'clock tonight. The negro soldiers recently mustered out were paid off in Fort Pickering to day. They threatened to burn the city to-night. Great uneasiness is felt. They are kept in the Fort by a portion of the Tenth Regulars.

Gen. Stoneman this afternoon served a notice upon the Mayor, Council and County officers forbidding the assembling of any bodies of armed men, black or white, except police, so far as they are relied on to preserve the peace. A large number of negroes were arrested to-day and found to be heavily armed. 30 houses and all the school-houses in South Memphis are destroyed.

The tow-boat Tigress exploded both her boilers near Fulton Tuesday night, killing the captain's wife, first engineer, carpenter and three deck hands, and scalding several others.

☞ It appears by the Traveller, that Rev. Dr. Miner, President of Tufts College, is not to resign his pastorship of the School Street Church in Boston,—but to have a Colleague; and that no call has yet been given to any person for the latter office.

NOTES OF FORMER DAYS.

Collected and Collated by UNCLE TOBY.

Hon. John Sherburne—Doctor Hall Jackson.

In 1796, the society, which usually worshiped in the meeting-house in Pitt street, were incorporated by an act of the Legislature by the name of the Independent Congregational Society. [Extinct as a Congregational Society, merged in the Middle Street Baptist Society.]

Mr. Blanchard, the famous aeronaut, sent up a balloon, which ascended very majestically. At a certain height, a parachute was detached from it, which immediately opened and gradually fell to the ground.

March 10, 1797, the honorable John Sherburne departed this life in the seventy-seventh year of his age. After a night of undisturbed repose, he awoke in the morning at his usual hour, enquired of his servant concerning the state of the weather, gave some directions respecting his domestic affairs, and soon after arose; and having partly dressed, lay down again on the bed, turned upon his side, and instantly expired, without a struggle or a groan.

Mr. Sherburne was educated a merchant, and followed the profession with reputation and success. He was employed early in life in public business, and for a long series of years was elected representative for Portsmouth in the Legislature of the province. He was Register of the Court of Vice Admiralty, and Judge of Probate; which offices he held until the commencement of the revolution. He was likewise one of his Majesty's Council for this province. But notwithstanding his holding these several offices under the crown, he was an early, active, and uniform opponent of the measures of the British Cabinet, to bring this country into subjection.

As a professor of religion, he endeavored to live agreeably to the precepts of the gospel, and to practice those virtues, which are there recommended.

On the 28th of September, 1797, died, Doctor Hall Jackson, after a short illness, in the fifty-eighth year of his age. In visiting some patients, his sulkey was overset, whereby several ribs were fractured, and a fever ensued, which terminated his life. Doctor Jackson was born in Portsmouth, and received the first rudiments of his education in the public schools here. He studied the theory of physic and surgery, under the direction of his father, Clement Jackson. After completing his studies here, he went to London, and attended lectures in the public hospitals there, to perfect himself in surgery. Upon his return to this country, he opened an apothecary's shop, but his practice as a physician soon became so extensive, that he was obliged to relinquish in a great measure, his business as a druggist, and attend almost entirely to his profession. As a physician, he was skilful; as a surgeon, eminent. No operation of importance was performed for many miles round, without consulting him, and seldom without his aid. He had great experience in the small-pox; and many hospitals, which were established for inoculating with that disorder, committed to his care, and he was remarkably successful in conducting his patients safely through the disease. In the obstetric art he obtained high reputation, and was frequently applied to for advice and assistance in difficult cases, by persons who did not generally employ him. He frequently performed the operation of couching, and always with success. Harvard College conferred upon him the degree of Doctor of Medicine; and he was elected an honorary member of the Massachusetts Medical Society. He was Grand Master of the Free and Accepted Masons in New Hampshire, at the time of his decease. His sprightly talents, lively imagination, and social habits, rendered him an agreeable companion; facetious and pleasant in conversation, his friends enjoyed in his company "the feast of reason," with the flow of wit; and the several societies of which he was a member, found their entertainment greatly heightened by his presence.—Adams.

The Pills are a most valuable specific for indigestion—and by their aperient action on the bowels, they exterminate the primary cause of Piles, &c. Sold by all Druggists. my5

PATENT MEDICINES.—If faith would cure disease, our physicians' occupation would be gone; the afflicted need only read the advertisements in the papers to be "made whole;" but the nostrums prepared by these pseudo doctors do not often "back up" the faith inspired by their advertisements. We do not mean to condemn all so-called patent medicines, for some have been found to be very valuable. In this class we would would include Coe's Cough Balsam, for coughs, croup, hoarseness, &c., and Coe's Dyspepsia Cure, for indigestion, dyspepsia, and all troubles of the stomach or bowels—they have been tested in thousands of cases. Our dealers all sell them. ap26eodawlw

— A special Washington dispatch says the President is preparing an answer to the House resolution, giving a statement of the number and names of all amnesty pardons, and a particular statement of all confiscated property restored to the original owners. The value of the property is not stated, but the number of pardons is over 7000, and, with few exceptions, the persons pardoned are all private citizens.

Perry's Moth and Freckle Lotion.

☞ Chloasma, or Mothpatch, (also called Liver-spot,) and Lentigo, or Freckles, are often very annoying, particularly to ladies of light complexion, for the discolored spots show more plainly on the face of a blonde than of a brunette; but they greatly mar the beauty of either and any preparation that will effectually remove them, without injuring the texture or color of the skin, is certainly a desideratum. DR. B. C. PERRY, who has made diseases of the skin a speciality, has discovered a remedy for these discolorations, which is at once prompt, infallible and harmless.

Prepared by B. C. PERRY, Dermatologist, No. 49 Bond Street, New York, and for sale by all druggists; price $2 per bottle. Call for PERRY'S MOTH & FRECKLE LOTION.

MAGGIEL'S

Spring and Summer Remedies.

"Great oaks from little acorns grow." The worst diseases known to the human race spring from causes so small as to almost defy detection. The volumes of scientific lore that fill the tables and shelves of the medical fraternity only go to prove and elaborate these facts. Then guard yourselves while you may. The smallest pimple on the skin is a tell tale and indicator of disease. It may fade and die away from the surface of the body, but it will reach the vitals, perhaps, at last, and death be the result and final close. MAGGIEL'S BILIOUS, DYSPEPTIC and DIARRHŒA PILLS cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts, and all abrasions of the skin, MAGGIEL'S SALVE is infallible. Sold by J. ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS.—A celebrated physician says "he was amazed at the great number of beneficial indications produced by one of these plasters. He affirms that headache is cured by one worn just below the breast-bone; that one placed over the navel will cure hysterics, as well as dysentery, and affections of the bowels."

CURE OF VARICOSE VEINS.

City Point, Va., January 24, 1865.

T. ALLCOCK & Co:

Gentlemen: Seeing your notice in the Police Gazette, I got four of your Porous Plasters and placed them on the parts where the veins were most severe, and in less than twelve hours could walk as well as ever. I could hardly believe it, I was so well pleased. I wanted to see if the lameness would come back on me or not, so I did more walking that day than I had done in a week. The next day I had some pain in my hip, but I put on a plaster there and in two hours the pain was all gone, nor have I felt it since. Certainly they are the best application for the relief and cure of pains in the joints and back, and for varicose or enlarged veins, I have ever known, and I would not be without them on any account. Yours truly

Local.

IN BOARD OF ALDERMEN, Thursday evening, permission was given Edward J. Moulton to encumber Gates street.

The following Night Watchmen were appointed Police Officers and Constables:—John Teague, captain; Ezekiel Burns, Edwin Underhill, Chas. L. Glines, Chas. H. Marsh, Chas. H. Tucker and James D. Maloon.

Josiah F. Adams was appointed Hearse Driver, in place of John H. Wendell, resigned.

Petition of Francis C. Jarvis and others for widening highway at junction of Creek and Islington streets, was accepted.

Voted, That the Mayor be authorized to pay B. Chesver and others $200 for strip of land to be taken from their property, to widen said streets, in accordance with the above petition.

The special Committee to whom was referred the petition of J. W. Pierce and others for a survey of the township, reported favorably, provided said survey should not cost more than $300. The report was adopted, and Ald. Ayers and Foster were appointed a committee to contract for said survey.

Voted, That the Committee on House of Correction be directed to repair the Bridewell at the City Farm, agreeably to report made by them.

An ordinance which had passed the Common Council raising the pay of firemen to $15 each, was read twice and refused a third reading. Yeas—Hodgdon, Henderson and Martin—3. Nays—Ayers, Davis, Wilson, Foster and Ham.

☞ We are pained to record a disastrous conflagration in the little town of Gosport, on Star Island, one of Smith's Isles, better known as Isles of Shoals.

About 12 o'clock on Thursday night, fire broke out in the barn attached to the Atlantic House, and ere the flames were stayed, the following property was destroyed:

The Atlantic House, with barn, bowling alleys, and other outbuildings belonging thereto, owned by Lemuel B. Caswell. Mr. Wm. Berry, who was living in the house during Mr. C.'s absence, lost all his furniture; while a piano and about one-fourth of Mr. Caswell's furniture were saved. A cow and some poultry belonging to Mr. C. were burned with the barn. There was $2000 insurance on house and furniture in the Home Ins. Co. of New York, and $3000 (it is said) in the Piscataqua.

The house of Mr. Nat. Berry, on which there was an insurance of $500.

The Gosport House, occupied by Daniel Clark. On this there was an insurance of $1000 in the Metropolitan, and $800 in the Norwich Ins. Co.

A house owned by L. B. Caswell, and occupied by Mrs. Caswell (his mother, we believe).

Besides these, several barns and sheds were burned. The property destroyed embraced the best buildings on the island, and the loss is set down at from $15,000 to $20,000. No person had been in the barn later than 9 o'clock, which points to incendiarism as the cause of the disaster—but the heart must be black indeed that would conceive a project that should so devastate that little township in the ocean.

About two weeks previous, the barn attached to the old hotel on Smutty Nose Island was burned, and among its contents, a large lot of poultry.

☞ Our householders who have had cause to mourn shattered window glass from this practice, will be glad to learn that our police are endeavoring to break up the playing of ball in our streets. The boys may consider this an infringement of their liberties, but those who have been so often pained to hear the crash of their windows do not see it in that light.

☞ Mr. Henry S. Vanderbilt, who for nearly five years past has held the position of Navy Agent's Clerk at this place, and who has been connected with the Paymaster's Office since the duties of Navy Agent were merged into those of Paymaster, left this city on Friday morning to return to his home in Philadelphia, to the regret of the many friends he has won during his stay with us.

POLICE COURT, May 4.—John Lewis, for assault, was fined $7.80. He appealed, and in default of $30 bail, was sent to jail.

Chas. R. Dodge, for overloading his stomach with intoxicating liquor, was bled at the pocket to the tune of $6.86, and went off much relieved.

☞ Michael O'Connor, a marine, was arrested on Thursday evening by our police, as a deserter from the Vandalia, and returned to his ship.

☞ At their regular sale this morning, Messrs. Betton & Co. will offer a nice carriage, of the pattern known as "sunshade," nearly new.

☞ Remember Mr. Wendell's auction sales of dry goods, this day and evening.

— It is said the Fenians want to arrest and try Stephens on his arrival in New York, on charge of complicity in the acts for which O'Mahony was tried and deposed.

OLIVE A. GRANT of Portsmouth in the County of Rockingham and State of New Hampshire, respectfully libels and gives the Court to understand and be informed that she was lawfully married to her husband, JOHN E. GRANT, by Rev. Mr. Pike, at Newburyport in the State of Massachusetts, on the Fourteenth day of November, A. D. Eighteen Hundred and Fifty-one, and that she has ever since resided in Portsmouth and Newington in this State except when temporarily absent therefrom, and that she and her said husband lived in said Portsmouth and Newington in this State except when temporarily absent therefrom, and that she has ever conducted as a faithful wife to said John; that the said John on divers days before the date of the libel of the libellant, to wit, A. D. Eighteen Hundred and Sixty, treated your libellant with extreme cruelty; that the said John on divers days in the years Eighteen Hundred and Sixty and Eighteen Hundred and Sixty-one, at Boston in the State of Massachusetts, committed adultery with one Mrs Ellison and with divers other lewd women whose names are unknown to this libellant; and that said John at said Portsmouth in the month of March, A. D. Eighteen Hundred and Sixty, without sufficient cause, and without the consent of said Olive, abandoned her, and has refused for three years together to cohabit with her, said abandonment and refusal continuing down to the time of filing this libel.

And said John in the month of March, 1861, left said libellant, and has ever since willingly absented himself from her for the space of three years together, to wit: from said March, 1861, to the filing of this libel, without making suitable provision for her support and maintenance, and continues so to do.

Wherefore she prays that a divorce from the bond of matrimony existing between her and said John, may be decreed, and that the custody of her minor child, VENORA E. GRANT, who has been constantly supported by her since her birth, may be decreed to her; and for such other relief in the premises as the Court may deem just and proper. OLIVE A. GRANT.

In the Supreme Judicial Court—Rockingham, ss.

This libel having been filed in the office of the Clerk of said Court this twenty-fifth day of April A. D. 1866:

It is Ordered that said OLIVE A. GRANT notify said JOHN E. GRANT to appear at the next Law Term of said Court, to be held at Exeter on the third tuesday of June next, then and there to show cause, if any he has, why the prayer thereof should not be granted, by causing a true and attested copy of said libel and this order thereon to be published three weeks successively in the DAILY MORNING CHRONICLE, a newspaper printed at Portsmouth in the County of Rockingham, the last publication whereof to be at least thirty days before said term.

Attest, C. G. CONNER, Clerk.

DR. STEVENS, No 5 Daniel Street, would give notice that he has REDUCED the price of Permanent Sets of ARTIFICIAL TEETH on the Vulcanite Base, to that charged for them before the war.

He would also give notice that he is doing a new style of work for Under Sets of Teeth, called the COMBINATION BASE (Gold and Vulcanite) which produces by far the finest work offered to the public. The price is something in advance of that charged for the Vulcanite alone, but the strength, durability, ease of bearing, and beauty of finish obtained by it, more than double the value of the Teeth. mh12

GEORGE F. WEED,

Surgeon Dentist,

FIRST ASSISTANT in the Office of Dr. STEVENS, NO. 5 DANIEL STREET.

DR. WEED can be found at his place of business at all hours of the day and night, for the performance of any of the operations that come within the call of his profession.

Dr. A. P. STEVENS, No. 5 Daniel St., makes the saving of ULCERATED and painful front teeth, a specialty in his business. He also success-fully restores to their natural shape broken or badly decayed teeth, by building out corners and sides with PURE GOLD. (In many cases teeth so restored are as strong as any of their brother members, and in all cases are rendered eminently useful for a long series of years.) DR EARNS TEETH, in all stages, treated, and in a very large majority of cases entire success attained.

Charges for such operations necessarily high, but nothing in comparison to the value of the teeth. mch14

WHICH IS THE

Leading Life Insurance Comp'y

IN THE UNITED STATES?

Which is the Safest and the Cheapest?

The following figures are from the later Reports of the New York Insurance Commissioner, showing the "amount of business" of the

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

to be the largest, the "expenses of management" the smallest, the "ratio of Assets to Liabilities," or the security furnished to its members, the largest of any like institution in the country.

Premiums received in 1864.....$2,089,072
" " " " 1865.....2,029,057

Ratio of expenses to premiums rec'd in '64..12.96
" " " " " " '65..12 16

Ratio of assets to liabilities, Jan. 1, 1865.....181.85

The inevitable conclusion from these official facts, is that the

MUTUAL BENEFIT LIFE Insurance Company

IS THE BEST AND THE CHEAPEST.

Because its NET ASSETS are proportionably LARGER than those of any other Life Insurance Company in the United States.

Because its "Managing Expenses" are LESS, and it has a LARGER SURPLUS to divide among its members than any Company in the United States.

QUERY. Will some one inform the public of that mysterious process by which a Company with a surplus proportionably much less, and expenses very much larger than another, can yet divide more to its members, and insure them at less cost? How is it done? Where does the money come from?

Every intelligent man will see at once that it cannot be done. Yet we have Agents among us that make this their boast.

Any one disposed or intending to insure can be furnished with the requisite information by applying to

THE THREE BLACK CROWS.

BYROM.

Two honest tradesmen meeting in the Strand,
One took the other, briskly, by the hand.
"Hark ye," said he, "'tis an odd story this,
About the crows!"—"I don't know what it is," Replied his friend.—"No! I'm surprised at that;
Where I come from, it is the common chat:
But you shall hear: an odd affair indeed!
And that it happened, they are all agreed!
Not to detain you from a thing so strange—
A gentleman, that lives not far from Change,
This week, in short, as all the alley knows,
Taking a pete, has thrown up three black crows."
"Impossible!"—"Nay, but it's really true;
I had it from good hands, and so may you."
"From whose, I pray?" So having named the man,
Straight to inquire his curious comrade ran.
"Sir, did you tell"—relating the affair—
"Yes, sir, I did; and if it's worth your care,
Ask Mr. Such-a-one, he told it me;
But, by-the-by, 'twas no black crows, not three."
Resolved to trace so wondrous an event,
Whip to the third, the virtuoso went
"Sir,"—and so forth—"Why, yes; the thing is fact,
Though in regard to number not exact;
It was not two black crows, 'twas only one;
The time of that you may depend upon.
The gentleman himself told me the case."
"Where may I find him?" "Why,—in such a place."
Away he goes, and having found him out,—
"Sir, he so good as to resolve a doubt."
Then to his last informant he return'd,
And begged to know if true what he had heard.
"Did you, sir, throw up a black crow?" "Not I!"
"Bless me! how people propagate a lie!
Black crows have been thrown up, three, two, and one,
And here I and all comes at last to none!
Did you say nothing of a crow at all?"
"Crow—crow—perhaps I might, now I recall
The matter over." "And pray, sir, what was't?"
"Why, I was horrid sick, that's all I got;
I did throw up, and told my neighbor so,
Something that was as black, sir, as a crow."

— Nothing teaches patience like the garden. We may go round and watch the open bud from day to day; but it takes its own time and you cannot urge it on faster than it will. All the best results of a garden, like those of life, are slowly but regularly progressive.

— In the depths of the sea the waters are still; the heaviest grief is that borne in silence; the deepest love flows through the eye and touch; the purest joy is unspeakable; the most impressive prayer is silent, and the most solemn preacher at a funeral is the silent one whose lips are cold.

— "Oh, I am so glad you like birds.—What kind do you most admire?" said a wife to her husband. "Women!" Well, I think is a good turkey, with plenty of seasoning," said the husband, "is about as good as any."

— The Court of Rome stifles a rumor of an attempt at poisoning, of which the Holy Father appears to have been the object. The attempt is not imputed to the party of action, but to the Jesuits and reactionary fanatics, who fear that the Pope may return to a liberal policy, and come to an understanding with Italy.

— The annual rate of mortality in London was 2 433 during twenty-six years; and the mortality in the year 1865 of extreme heat and extreme cold was 2.462.—The mortality in the whole of the great city population of the United Kingdom was at the rate of 2.718 per cent.

☞ The following letter, addressed to a high legal officer in this State, and inclosing prospectuses and tickets for the "Salem Lottery," would have been a sharp rebuke to our shortcomings, but its edge was turned by the fact that the whole swindle was broken up and the leading offender in custody when the letter was received:

NASHVILLE, Tenn., April 20th, 1866.

Please examine the enclosed papers which are known to have been issued from or by a firm of swindlers. Can it be possible that such an institution is tolerated in the land peopled by the Pilgrims, by a people boasting of their honesty and refinement. I cannot believe that it is and therefore send the same to you with the hope that you, as a law officer of the Government will lend your influence and ability in suppressing the same and punishing those engaged in the rascally business.

A FRIEND TO HONESTY.

— A Paris letter in a London journal says: "A Geneva watch has long been a household word. Besancon, however, promises to rival the city of Calvin at the world's fair. In 1865 no less than 1,595 gold and 204,418 silver watches were manufactured in this centre of French Protestantism. Among this immense number several hundred have been sold at high prices, in consequence of the delicate beauty of their workmanship."

To the Young Married Men.

Take out a policy on your life,
Have it made payable to your wife;
Or if you wish, in case you live
Till fifty or till sixty, we will give
One on the approved endowment plan,
Securing thus to you, an older man,
The sum insured: or if at any time before
You hear the awful summons at the door.
To close your eyes upon these earthly cares,
Your wife and children or your lawful heirs
Shall reap the comfort of your careful thought,
Instead of being left with naught.
This is the Savings Bank from which you reap
Not only dividends in Cash, but sweeter sleep;
Delay not then! But go at once! To-day!
And whilst your sun still shines, make hay. my2

THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD.
DR. MAGGIEL'S
PILLS AND SALVE
These Life-giving remedies are now, for the first time, given publicly to the world. For over a quarter of a century of private practice the ingredients in these
Life-giving Pills!
Have been used with the greatest success. Their mission is not only to prevent disease, but to cure. They search out the various maladies by which the patient is suffering, and re-invigorate the failing system. To the aged and infirm a few doses of these valuable PILLS will prove to be
A Very Fountain of Youth,
For in every case they add new life and vitality, and restore the waning energies to their pristine state. To the young and middle aged, they will prove most invaluable, as a safe, speedy, and sterling medicine. Here is a dream realized, that Ponce-de-Leon sought for three hundred years ago, and never found. He looked for a fountain that would restore the old to youth and make youth ever
AN ETERNAL SPRING!
It was left for this day and hour to realize the dream, and show, in one glorious fact, the magic that made it fair.
These Famous Remedies
Cannot stay the flight of years, but they can force back, and hold aloof, diseases that might triumph over the aged and the young. Let none hesitate then, but seize the favorable opportunity that offers. When taken as prescribed—
FOR BILLIOUS DISORDERS
Nothing can be more productive of cure than these Pills. Their almost magic influence is felt at once; and the usual concomitants of this most distressing disease are removed. These remedies are made from the purest
VEGETABLE COMPOUNDS.
They will not harm the most delicate female, and can be given with good effect in prescribed doses to the youngest babe.
For Cutaneous Disorders
And all eruptions of the skin, the SALVE is most invaluable. It does not heal externally alone, but penetrates with the most searching effects to the very root of the evil.

Invariably Cure the Following Diseases.

Portsmouth N. H.

MONDAY, MAY 7, 1866.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—The order stopping the payment of prize money has been rescinded, and payments will be resumed after the first of next month.

It seems by documents transmitted to Congress that it does not appear on record at the Attorney General's office how much rebel property has been seized and forfeited, nor how much has been returned to the enemies of the Government.

The number of pardons granted were—In Georgia 1228, North Carolina 482, Texas 269, New Mexico 1, Mississippi 175, Louisiana 142, Alabama 1362, South Carolina 638, Arkansas 41, Missouri 10, Kentucky 12, Florida 38, West Virginia 48.

The Secretary of the Treasury has no information in his department as to how much property has been returned to owners. Confiscated lands held by the Treasury Department were turned over in June to the Bureau of Refugees and Freedmen.

The Quartermaster General says Railroads have been returned on condition of their being reorganized and electing loyal Boards of Directors.

Engineer Delafield reports that the lands seized in both the loyal and disloyal States, and occupied by the military, have been dismantled.

Gen. Howard gives a list of property seized and subsequently restored, the greater portion of which is in Virginia, and formerly occupied by refugees and freedmen.

The estate of Ann Aiken in South Carolina was restored on an order from Gen. Sickles.

Some were restored because the freedmen could be more advantageously located elsewhere, and others were restored on mutually satisfactory agreements.

Gen. Howard furnishes a peremptory order of President Johnson directing the return of property to one Leahe, a former rebel soldier, who was specially pardoned by the President. The order in this case directed that such course should be pursued in similar cases, the effect of which has been that the Bureau has been compelled to part with the greater portion of the property once under its control. 400,000 acres of abandoned property have been restored to their former owners, 14,652 acres of land allotted to freedmen have been restored, and 15,452 acres seized have also been restored.

☞ Among the losers by the great Detroit fire on Friday, is Carl Schurz of the Detroit Post. He had two large boxes in the depot of the Michigan Southern Railroad, containing a very valuable portion of his library, a collection of fine geographical and military maps, a collection of photographic reproductions of the best paintings in the gallery of Madrid, several volumes of manuscript, a number of letters from Mr. Lincoln and other prominent persons, and all his correspondence with his family during the last twelve years, embracing an almost complete diary of the political and military events with which he has been connected.

FASHIONS A HUNDRED YEARS AGO.—We have before us the 10th edition of a Geography "by Mr. Salmon," printed at London in 1766. We give to-day, only one or two items on the fashions of that day.

Habits.—The Ladies now wear their Hair combed up very smooth behind, some have it braided behind, and dragooned before, or cut short, with very small Caps; and, in full Dress, often have no caps.

They wear large Hats also, which they never pull off, unless they make a formal visit. Their hoops are formed like Bells, and five or six Yards in Circumference at the Bottom: The Petticoat is of the same Shape, trimmed up every Seam with Gold, Silver or Silk Trimming. They wear also long Sacks, or Negligees with long Trains: Their Shoes have round Toes and French Heels.

Habits of the Gentlemen.—The Dress of the English Gentlemen was formerly exceeding neat and plain; a Suit of Broadcloth or Velvet in Winter, and Silk or Stuffs in Summer; good Linen and good Wigs. Their chief Extravagance, like that of the Ladies, was in Foreign Thread-Lace, Lawn and Cambric; but at present Lace and embroidered Cloaths are much worn, and white Stockings universally by Ladies and Gentlemen, in which they are imitated by their Inferiors.

☞ A Washington dispatch says: It is not known exactly what amount the Government loses by the failure of the Mechanics' National Bank, but exclusive of the amount deposited by Paymaster Paulding, it will be $122,000. The United States has $300,000 in bonds to secure deposits and circulation; also $6000 gold interest due. Against this are $180,000 in circulation, and $4000 in deposits. It is said Paulding had on deposit over half a million of dollars.

The Committee on Claims have awarded $130,000 of claims out of twenty millions presented them.

— If a man is doomed to the stake, he would generally prefer that it should be beef.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— In the town of Croydon, June 13, there will be services appropriate to the Centennial Anniversary of its settlement. Rev. Baron Stow, D.D., a native of the place, is to deliver the oration.

—— Dr. James Batcheller, an eminent physician, died at Fitzwilliam, April 14, aged 75. He had been Representative, Senator, and Councillor in N. H.; and he was (says the Monitor) an earnest friend of temperance, and an early abolitionist, at a time when it cost something to be an anti-slavery man.

—— The final meeting of the Pawtuckaway Bank stockholders was held at Epping, on Tuesday last, and the report of the Cashier and Directors was accepted. The time for the redemption of the bills, extending a year beyond what the law requires, has now ended, and the holders of the few remaining bills may consider them as mementoes of the past.—Concord Monitor.

—— In the list of patents for the week ending May 1, are the following to parties in this State:

Joshua A. Varney of Alton, for improvement in horse rakes.

J. M. Stanton and F. S. Stanton of Manchester, for improvement in head blocks to saw mills.

Sylvanus J. Talbott of Milford, for improvement in planing machines.

☞ In a recent speech of the President he said, "I am a Tribune." That is the first intimation we have received that we are a Roman citizen. By the way, Gibbon says the force of the Roman Tribunes "was suited rather for opposition than action," and adds that they exerted "a dangerous influence." Merivale records that under the plea of protecting the plebs, "they usurped direct control over the deliberations of the Senate." Macaulay says, "at times they continued to exert, to the full extent, their power of stopping the whole machinery of the Government." Mr. Johnson is not happy in his classical allusions, and had better be content with being an American President.—Biddeford Union.

☞ A Bangor, Me. item says, William Hutchings, the last surviving revolutionary soldier in that State and the last but two or three in the Union, died on Thursday in the town of Penobscot in Hancock County. The last public appearance of the old hero was at the celebration of the 4th of July, in Bangor last year. He was in his 102d year.

POLITICAL.—It is rumored that there will be a meeting in Boston, probably on Thursday of this week, to endorse the action of Congress. It is expected Gov. Bullock will preside, and several distinguished Congressmen, among others, will address the public.

— A Memphis, Tenn. dispatch of May 4, says:

One negro was killed last night and one house burned this morning. The city is now quiet.

Before a great while it is to be hoped somebody will tell the public what caused the outbreak.

☞ That very able paper, "The Nation," will hereafter be published semi-weekly instead of once a week, as heretofore, the better to present to its readers its financial and political articles while fresh. The subscription price has been reduced to $5 a year. J. H. Richards, publisher, New York.

— The regular troops lately arrived in Texas are acting badly, indulging in drunken rows and fights at Galveston.

— A cotton factory, with 1300 looms and 18000 spindles, will go into full operation at Carrolton, Miss., July 1st. The stock stands at 15 per cent. above par.

— On Thursday night, the tow-boat Nick Hughes exploded her boilers near Randolph, above Memphis, killing nine persons, among whom were Capt. Van Dorn, wife and Engineer.

— Judge Duplanties has decided that notes payable in Confederate money are worthless. Also that mortgages given for Confederate money during the war are invalid.

— It is stated that Mrs. Stover, the widowed daughter of the President, will shortly wed Edward Cooper, of Tennessee, member elect to Congress and President's Private Secretary.

— The pilot who brought the steamer England into Halifax has since died, with two members of his family. He said before his death that he did not board the vessel, but merely towed in her wake, whence he gave the necessary directions.

— A Fort Monroe dispatch, May 4, says one hundred emigrants for the West passed by here to-day from North Carolina. Mrs. Jeff. Davis, accompanied by one child and two servants, arrived here this morning and was escorted to the Fortress by Lieut. Fessenden.

— Senator Johnson of Maryland, predicts a speedy war with Austria; and that Austria aided by Napoleon will fill every sea with privateers to prey on our commerce. Would not that be fun for the secesh?—And is it what Mr. Seward wishes for, to divert the people from criticising and condemning "my policy?"

IN THE U. S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, Friday, May 4, the joint resolution congratulating the Emperor of Russia on escaping assassination was passed unanimously.

The report of the Conference Committee on the habeas corpus bill was agreed to, and the bill has therefore passed both houses.

The bill paying the passage of seamen of vessels burned by the pirate Shenandoah from Honolulu to San Francisco was passed.

The bill creating a Surveyor General of Idaho was passed.

The bill reviving the grade of General in the United States army was taken up. An amendment was offered, that whenever a vacancy occurs in the office of Lieut. General, it shall not be filled until after the death or resignation of Gen. Scott, and thereafter there shall be but one Lieut. General.

After debate the amendment was lost, and the bill passed, yeas 116, nays 11.

This bill is intended to promote Gen. Grant. The three Representatives from New Hampshire voted yea.

In the debate Mr. Thad. Stevens said, though he might not be thought very modest in lighting his taper in the face of the blazing luminaries which had just shone upon the House, he yet desired to add his testimony to all that had been so justly said in commendation of the Lieut. General. The compliment which this bill proposed to bestow upon Gen. Grant was a cheap and honorable mode of rewarding the distinguished service which that officer had rendered to the country. He agreed with the gentleman from New York (Mr. Raymond), in being willing to give to the hero, not only the office created by this bill, but a still higher office whenever the happy moment for doing so shall arrive.

The Senate resolution, instructing the Committee on Public Buildings to report what further provisions shall be made for the accommodation of the State Department, was concurred in.

A part of the plan is, to take the White House, and make it a fire proof place for State Department Records and Papers,—and build a better house for the President, in a better place.

A resolution was adopted that the Pension Committee inquire into the propriety of providing for county registration of soldiers' discharges, so as to guard against loss o riginal.

A FEARFUL CRASH IN HARTFORD.—About two o'clock this morning the north wall of the building known as the City Bindery, near the corner of Trumbull and Pearl streets, fell with a loud crash which startled many of the inhabitants of that vicinity from their slumbers as though it had been an earthquake. The earth had been removed to such an extent to make room for the new building about to be erected by Case, Lockwood & Co., that the heavy rains last night probably started the foundation—hence the accident. The upper story was occupied by Case, Lockwood & Co. for bindery purposes, the stories below by O. D. Case & Co., and others. Owing to the lateness of the hour we were unable to obtain the extent of damage done, but the loss will amount to thousands of dollars. It is fearful to think what might have been had the accident occurred a few hours later, as there are upward of two hundred males and females employed in the building. It seems a providential escape for them.—Hartford (Conn.) Courant, 2d.

☞ The West Chester, Penn., Republican publishes a letter from Pres. Johnson, dated March 21, 1866, thanking Frederick Lander of Reading, for "a cask of your justly celebrated Ale," which he had presented to the President. Query, whether this is the same President Johnson who would not accept the Coach and Horses offered by loyal men in New York? Also query, whether Ale-drinking is more presidential or praiseworthy than Coach-riding?

☞ The Merchants' National Bank of Washington has suspended payment, and it is reported to be hopelessly insolvent, although the bills are, of course, perfectly good. Some army Paymasters and other depositors will lose heavily. These national banks are the best for the public, because the bills are guaranteed by the United States. The stockholders must look out for themselves, but the people are safe.

☞ At the late bombardment of Valparaiso by the Spaniards, for every thousand dollars' worth of Chilian property destroyed there was lost a million dollars belonging to foreigners, in most cases the accumulation of long years of hard labor and unremitting exertions. Spain being unable to pay any debt whatever, it is just possible that this Chilian affair may in time bring around a mortgage of Cuba on account of American indemnity.

☞ It is reported that a mass meeting of the friends of the President is to be held in Washington this week, and that addresses will be made thereat by members of the Cabinet.

☞ The Herald of Health for May contains a great variety of progressive articles on Health. Some readers might call them ultra and radical. So they are,—and they set people to thinking.

— A man at Beardstown, Ill., with $15,000, thought he was going to starve, and hung himself.

SOUTH CAROLINA.—Two of the murderers of soldiers in the upper part of the State have been convicted and sentenced to be hung, but a committee has gone to Washington to get the sentence set aside. Their names are F. G. Stowers and J. C. Keys. Their crime was the murder of a corporal and his guard, belonging to the First Maine battalion, and robbery, in October last. A letter from Charleston says that some citizens consider the punishment of these men by United States authority as an infringement of their rights, and would much prefer to see them go free. Governor Orr has expressed his opinion regarding the teaching of freed people. He believes that it is good for them and for the State. He says the teachers shall be protected in their duties, and that the prejudice against them and their occupation is disappearing. The fires that have devastated Charleston have rendered many pools of filth inaccessible, and a great deal of sickness is expected this season. Diarrhea already prevails to an alarming extent.

— We unhesitatingly recommend the J. Monroe Taylor Gold Medal Soap to all our lady readers, as being the best soap in the market, and with one trial, we doubt not it will ever after be the only Soap for the kitchen. Its superior qualities for making clothes look so white and clean, will always commend it so strongly that it will be the fixed Soap for family use. One trial is all that is necessary to convince the most skeptical. 83

☞ Chloasma, or Mothpatch, (also called Liverspot,) and Lentigo, or Freckles, are often very annoying, particularly to ladies of light complexion, for the discolored spots show more plainly on the face of a blonde than of a brunette; but they greatly mar the beauty of either and any preparation that will effectually remove them, without injuring the texture or color of the skin, is certainly a desideratum. ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS.—A celebrated physician says "he was amazed at the great number of beneficial indications produced by one of these plasters. CURE OF VARICOSE VEINS.

City Point, Va., January 24, 1865.

T. ALLCOCK & CO.:

Gentlemen: Seeing your notice in the Police Gazette, I got four of your Porous Plasters and placed them on the parts where the pains were most severe, and in less than twelve hours could walk as well as ever. I could hardly believe it. I was so well pleased. I wanted to see if the lameness would come back on me or not, so I did more walking that day than I had done in a week. The next day I had some pain in my hip, but I put on a plaster there and in two hours the pain was all gone, nor have I felt it since. Certainly they are the best application for the relief and cure of pains in the joints and back, and for varicose or enlarged veins, I have ever known, and I would not be without them on any account. Local.

☞ The Summer Hotels in the vicinity of Portsmouth are being put in order for the coming season. The Ocean House at Rye Beach, (by Messrs. Job Jenness & Son,) has been much enlarged and improved. The old Atlantic House will be kept by Mr. Lougee—and of course well kept; and Mr. J. C. Philbrick is putting a great addition to the "Cottage," near. At Smith's Isles, the Appledore House has been much improved. At Hampton, S. H. Dumas, (of the Phenix Hotel, Concord,) is fitting up the nicest House ever seen at Boar's Head. And Mr. O. A. Frost (of the City Hotel, in this city,) has enlarged and improved the Atlantic House at Wells Beach, so that it shall comport with the natural attractions of that popular resort.

☞ Ryan, the marine who made an assault upon a superior officer a short time since, escaped from the guardhouse at the Barracks a few nights since. McCormick, another marine, prefessed a knowledge of his whereabouts and a willingness to secure him, but upon being sent in pursuit, deserted with him. They were traced to North Berwick, where they took the cars for Portland, and left that port by steamer for New York on Saturday afternoon. Ryan was secreted all one day in a timber shed upon the Navy Yard. A telegram was sent to New York, so that a deputation might wait upon these distinguished visitors on their arrival there.

☞ On Saturday evening the horse of Mr. Jedediah Rand, of Rye, became restive while passing up Middle street, and shied into a tree box near the Baptist church, breaking the wagon and throwing Mr. Rand out, but that gentleman fortunately received no serious injury. Clearing himself from the wreck, the horse dashed furiously down Congress street, with one shaft dangling at his heels and goading him to increased speed by its thump and clatter. Making his way across Market Square, he ran straight for the window of Mr. Coffin's refreshment room, but the last of the row of granite posts which front the Bank building stood in his way. So great was his momentum that the post, though about ten inches square, was snapped off as though it were a pipe-stem. The shock threw the horse down and he was secured with no bones broken.

ALMOST A FIRE.—On Friday evening a slight fire occurred in a house corner of Atkinson and Court streets, which was extinguished without a general alarm or the aid of engines, though one or two machines were on hand with the promptitude which characterizes our fire department. The fire is said to have been caused by a pipe, which had been laid down with fire in the bowl.

☞ Messrs. C. E. Myers & Co. having refitted and greatly improved the internal appearance of their store, and laid in a large stock of new and seasonable goods, (that is, as the season ought to be); are prepared—as per their advertisement,—to furnish almost anything in the clothing line, at prices which will fit as well as the garments shall suit. Messrs. Myers and Simpson are

☞ An old and valued correspondent, speaking of a plentiful supply of water for fires,—suggests that in addition to the salt water reservoirs proposed for some localities, there might be large tanks sunk to receive the drainage from the streets in rains. This would work very well except in a very dry time.

☞ We see by the Boston papers, that Mr. John H. Rand, formerly of this city, one of the proprietors of the Parks House, 187 Washington street, was presented with an elegant silver service by his boarders, last week,—the occasion being his return from his bridal tour. Major Shepherd made the presentation speech, and a general good time was enjoyed by the company.

☞ "Plant a tree: it will grow while you are sleeping," was advice full of wisdom. The time is now at hand when the planting of shade trees should be attended to. We hope those of our citizens who intend ornamenting their grounds in this will not let the season pass without making such improvements. An old Spanish proverb says that no man can be great until he has planted a tree.

☞ The Portland Company's works have just completed another powerful freight locomotive. It is called the "Bonnybeag," after a mountain in Berwick, and will be placed on the Portland, Saco & Portsmouth Railroad.

☞ Marshal Kent arrested Geo. H. Roberts, a deserter from the Vandalia, in Raymond on Friday, and returned him to the ship.

☞ The great light, as of a large fire, seen in this city on Saturday evening, we are informed was caused by the burning of about seventy-five cords of wood, near Newmarket Junction, belonging to one of the railroad companies.

☞ "It was cold enough for snow," and it did snow a very little on Saturday.

☞ The International Circus comes this week. The name of S. O. Wheeler should be a sufficient guarantee for this combination, as he is one of the oldest circus managers now traveling.

☞ We wish to called the attention of the mail clerk of the Boston Transcript, to one or two points in his department, of themselves trifling,—but which by repetition, become in the aggregate "too grievous to be borne." First, that the name of our good city, is not "Ports*moth*," as he has for years printed it in staring capitals on his wrappers; and second, that we decidedly object to his sticking said wrapper to the paper within, whereby we are not infrequently deprived of the reading of a considerable portion of the paper—which, as all of the Transcript is so good, we are not willing to lose.

ECCE HOMO—a Survey of the Life and Works of Jesus Christ—is the modest title of an interesting religious book, just published by Roberts Bros., Boston, and for sale in Portsmouth by J. F. Shores, jr. Looking into the book a few minutes, satisfies us that it will well repay, not only reading, but study. The author does not give his name: but shows his power.

— Business in Matamoras is dull. The Imperial and Austrian troops are dissatisfied on account of small pay. Forced loans are driving the merchants away.

— In Boston, Friday afternoon the 1st Police arrested an elderly man in a much intoxicated condition and took him to the station, when it was found that he had $10,959 in legal currency in his pockets. The man was kept until he became sober, when his money was restored to him, and he expressed his thanks that he had not fallen among thieves.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

Is a concentrated extract of the choice root, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an efficient antidote for diseases Sarsaparilla is supposed to cure. Such a remedy is surely wanted by those who suffer from strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish that cure must prove, as this has, of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow-citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found in the following complaints:—

Scrofulous Swellings and Sores, Skin Diseases, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Eruptions, St Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ring Worm, &c.

Syphilis or Venerial Disease is expelled from the system by the prolonged use of this SARSAPARILLA, and the patient is left in comparative health.

Female Diseases are caused by Scrofula in the blood, and are often cured by this EXTRACT OF SARSAPARILLA.

Do not discard this invaluable medicine, because you have been imposed upon by something pretending to be Sarsaparilla, when it was not. When you have used AYER'S—then, and not till then, will you know the virtues of Sarsaparilla. For more particulars of the diseases it cures, we refer you to Ayer's American Almanac, which the agent below named will furnish gratis to all who call for it.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS, for the cure of Costiveness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Dysentery, Foul Stomach, Headache, Piles, Rheumatism, Heartburn arising from Disorded Stomach, Pain or Morbid Inaction of the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Worms, Gout, Neuralgia, and for a Dinner Pill.

They are sugar-coated, so that the most sensitive can take them pleasantly, and they are the best Aperient in the world for all the purposes of a family physic.

Important.

DR. STEVENS, No 5 Daniel Street, would give notice that he has REDUCED the price of Permanent Sets of ARTIFICIAL TEETH on the Vulcanite Base, to that charged for them before the war.

He would also give notice that he is doing a new style of work, for Under Sets of Teeth, called the COMBINATION BASE (Gold and Vulcanite) which produces by far the finest work offered to the public. The price is something in advance of that charged for the Vulcanite alone, but the strength, durability, ease of bearing, and beauty of finish obtained by it, more than double the value of the teeth. mh12

He also successfully restores to their natural shape broken or badly decayed teeth, by building out corners and sides with PURE GOLD. (In many cases teeth so restored are as strong as any of their brother members, and in all cases are rendered eminently useful for a long series of years.) DISEASED TEETH, in all stages, treated, and in a very large majority of cases entire success attained.

Charges for such operations necessarily high, but nothing in comparison to the value of the teeth. mch14

WHICH IS THE

Leading Life Insurance Comp'y

IN THE UNITED STATES?

Which is the Safest and the Cheapest?

The following figures are from the later Reports of the New York Insurance Commissioner, showing the "amount of business" of the

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

to be the largest, the "expenses of management" the smallest, the ratio of Assets to Liabilities," or the security furnished to its members, the largest of any like institution in the country.

Premiums received in 1864.....$2,089,072

" " " " 1865.....3,022,057

Ratio of expenses to premiums rec'd in '64...12.26

" " " " " " " '65...12.16

Ratio of assets to liabilities, Jan. 1, 1865....161.89

The inevitable conclusion from these official facts, is that the

MUTUAL BENEFIT LIFE Insurance Company

IS THE BEST AND THE CHEAPEST.

Because its NET ASSETS are proportionably LARGER than those of any other Life Insurance Company in the United States.

Because its "Managing Expenses" are LESS, and it has a LARGER SURPLUS to divide among its members than any Company in the United States.

QUERY. Will some one inform the public of that mysterious process by which a Company with a surplus proportionably much less, and expenses very much larger than another, can yet divide more to its members, and insure them at less cost? How is it done? Where does the money come from?

Every intelligent man will see at once that it cannot be done. Yet we have Agents among us that make this their boast.

Any one disposed or intending to insure can be furnished with the requisite information by applying to

From the Portsmouth Journal

JUST AND CUTTING REBUKE.—In French's examination on Wednesday, Col. John H. George of Concord, in his usual low and despicable manner, endeavored to intimidate one of the lady witnesses by intimations and charges that she had been guilty of crimes which are a disgrace to humanity, and the ruin of female character. This was done without the shadow of evidence of the truth of the charge made, or to justify the indelicate questions she was called to answer. The outrage created a spontaneous feeling of indignation among the audience, to most of whom the young lady was well and favorably known. In the strength of conscious innocence, she however, nobly stood above the reach of the fangs of the creeping Copperhead representative of the species that once presented the apple.

In the afternoon Col. George complained of being unwell, and asked that the Court might be adjourned to the next morning. This request was granted.

The next day, in the course of his argument, U. S. District Attorney Rand remarked in substance: No wonder the counsellor for the defence was sick, after going through his dirty business of defamation, and exerting himself in brandishing about a bottle of drugs to ruin a female character which is above reproach—no wonder his head ached and his stomach was put in commotion! had he vomited in Court, it would have been the least objectionable part of his performance!

RESULT OF COUNCIL held in Rye Congregational Meeting House, April 24th, 1866: After recommending that the Pastoral relation existing between Rev. ISRAEL T. OTIS and the Congregational Church and Society in Rye, be dissolved, the Council say:—

"We recommend our Beloved Brother Rev. ISRAEL T. OTIS, to the churches of our Lord Jesus Christ, as a faithful, affectionate, and successful minister of the Gospel."

"We express our kind Christian interest in this church, and pray that the Great Head of the Church may still feed them with the bread of life, disposing them to do liberal things for his kingdom, and supplying them speedily with another true and faithful Pastor."

Mr. Moses H. Hale, of Newburyport, has been appointed mail agent on the route from Boston to Portland over the Eastern Railroad, in place of Mr. Reaslee, of Lynn, resigned.

Mr. Reuben French, for the last five years mail agent from Boston to South Berwick Junction, over the Boston and Maine Railroad, has resigned.

HONORS TO A HERO.—The government and people of Nova Scotia are honoring the memory of Dr. Slayter, the physician who lost his life by cholera, while devotedly serving on board the plague steamer England. The House of Assembly has unanimously voted the sum of two thousand dollars to the widow, and the people propose to raise a monument near the scene of his labors.

George Peabody, a Danvers, (Mass.) young man, many years ago went to London, and by developing a good business talent, with high moral attainments, became an eminent banker, and has amassed a splendid fortune—how many millions no one knows; but being desirous to spend his latter days in the land of his birth, and to leave a token of his good feeling for the city where he accumulated his wealth, he has donated to the city more than a million of dollars for building tenants for the poor, and other purposes. The Queen has written him an autograph letter of thanks for his princely gifts, the largest ever conferred by any individual for charitable purposes, and has promised him a portrait of herself. To this a suitable reply was made. And now we find the people of Danvers have just chosen a committee of reception, to receive him this week at N. York. His donations to his native town and other objects here have also been liberal in the extreme. With all his riches it is altogether possible, George Peabody will be able to squeeze through the narrow passage called the Needle's eye.

PROPOSITION OF BRITISH HOLDERS OF REBEL DEBT.

Secretary Seward's Rejection Endorsed by the President.

The President sent a message to the House of Representatives, yesterday, enclosing a letter from Secretary Seward, giving the result of his examination of various propositions from British holders of the rebel debt, or cotton loan, for adjustment to the satisfaction of the United States.

It appears that a number of communications have been addressed by the agents of the English holders of the rebel cotton loan to the President, Secretary of the Treasury and Ex-Governor Orr, of South Carolina, the former covering propositions in regard to their alleged claims upon the rebel government.

The most important of these communications comes from Mr. George McHenry, agent of the English rebel bondholders, who in England during the rebellion worked actively for the recognition of the Southern Confederacy by the government of Great Britain. This late rebel agent is now the agent of the British bondholders, who, finding their chances of obtaining a dollar from the Southern States in payment of the money loaned, to the extent of forty million dollars, during the war, upon the security of cotton, which the strictness of the federal blockade of the Southern coast prevented from going forward, very small, now appeal to the United States government to deliver up to them a copy of a contract which was made between Erlanger & Co. of Paris, and the late rebel leaders at Richmond, together with the particulars of the settlement of the same, which contract and investment of settlement McHenry assumes are to be found among the documents of that traitorous conspiracy which have come into the possession of this government.

[It appears that Erlanger & Co. refuse to make any settlement with the British sufferers, and they resort to this means to obtain proof to enable them to force such a settlement.]

The communication also cover propositions to loan to the cotton and tobacco States some £20,000,000, at various times hereafter, to be used in developing the resources of the South, and thus, in their opinion, sustaining the credit of the nation North and South.

Mr. Seward thus puts his foot upon the proposition:

I am of the opinion that neither the nature of these several communications, nor the matters discussed therein, nor the form in which they are therein treated nor the character of their authors, nor that of the agent, is such as to deserve consideration on the part of the government of the United States.

This decision of Mr. Seward is endorsed by the President.

MANLINESS.—The purpose of life is to form a manly character, to get the best development of body and of spirit—of mind, conscience, heart, soul. This is the end; all else is the means. Accordingly, that is not the most successful life in which a man gets the most pleasure, the most money or ease, the most power or place, honor or fame; but that in which a man gets the most manhood, performs the greatest amount of human duty, enjoys the greatest amount of human right, and acquires the greatest amount of manly character. It is of no importance whether he win this by wearing a hod upon his shoulders, or a crown upon his head. It is the character, and not the crown, I value. The crown perishes with the head that wore it; but the character lives with the immortal man who achieved it.

— The following on Adam's first sight of Eve, is not very gallant:

He laid down and slept, and from his side
A woman in her magic beauty rose;
Dazzled and charmed he called that woman bride
And his first sleep became his last repose.

— A gentleman from Alabama has furnished a tabular statement by counties, showing the number of men belonging to the Union Leagues which have been organized in that State since the close of the war. The aggregate is eighteen thousand and upward, of whom, it is said, two-thirds can take the test oath.

— When the moon, on a clear autumnal evening, is moving through the heavens in silent glory, the earth seems like a slumbering babe, smiling in its sleep, because it dreams of heaven.

— Jeff, says A. J. means well, but he is not a great man. For about the first time in his life J. D. is half right. The rebs. never can forget that the second "Jaxon" said treason should be made odious, but they can forgive the masterly way he has of making it so!—Union.

— One very cold night D. was roused from his slumbers by a very loud knocking at his door. After some hesitation he rose and went to the window, and asked: "Who's there?" "A friend." "What do you want?" "I want to stay here all night." "Stay there, then," was the benevolent reply.

— It is related of Lord Cockburn, that he was once sitting on the hillside with his shepherd, when, observing the sheep reposing in the coldest situation, he remarked, "John, if I were a sheep, I would lie on the other side of the hill." The shepherd answered, "Ah, my lord, but if ye had been a sheep ye would have had mair sense."

Important to the Afflicted.
DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, BOSTON, on all diseases of a PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE. By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.
SEMINAL WEAKNESS.—Dr. Dow devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.—Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving descriptions of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capottes, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three or $1 and a red stamp.
Highly Important to Females
IN DELICATE HEALTH.
Dr. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No. 7 Endicott Street, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system. Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women than any other physician in Boston. Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment. Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.
N. B.—All letters must contain one dollar, or they will not be answered. Office hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.
CERTAIN CURE
in all cases, or No Charges Made.
Among the physicians in Boston, none stands higher in the profession than the celebrated DR. DOW, No. 7 Endicott street. Those who need the service of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth N. H.

TUESDAY, MAY 8, 1866.

FROM MEMPHIS, Tenn., we begin to get some true idea of the people who are to blame for the fires and murders there. They are not Union men, either white or black, nor even leading or decent men among the ex-rebels: but, says a Memphis letter "the only whites disposed to violence, except in self-defence, are of a class, more debased and deluded than the negroes themselves.

It is true of this riot, as of all others, that most of the persons killed and wounded were guiltless of any participation whatever. The events of the past three days are greatly deplored by the mass of citizens, as it is feared they will have the effect of placing them in a false position before the authorities at Washington and their Northern brethren, with whom they vie in loyalty and devotion to the Union." The negroes are leaving the city by the river, and going into the country in droves. I am inclined to the belief that there will be no further trouble.

Gen. Stoneman has issued the following circular:

To the Mayor and Aldermen of Memphis:

Circumstances compel the undersigned to interfere with the civil affairs of Memphis. It is forbidden for any person, without the authority of headquarters, to assemble together any posse of armed or unarmed men, either white or colored. This does not include the police, and will not so long as they can be relied upon as preservers of the peace.

(Signed) GEO. STONEMAN,
Major General Commanding District of West Tennessee.

The above order is probably called forth by the fact that the Mayor, John Park, famous for bibulous propensities, has been on a terrible drunk since the riot commenced, therefore unfit to govern the city.

EIGHT-HOUR STRIKE IN NEW YORK.—The ship-carpenters, joiners and caulkers of New York and vicinity struck six weeks ago for the eight-hour system. The strike was unanimous and thorough, and since that time the majority of the strikers have not done a single day's work, and they still appear to be determined to hold out until the "bosses" shall accede to their demands. Heretofore these mechanics have been working nine and ten hours a day, receiving for their services three dollars and fifty cents and four dollars per day; but they now ask the same wages for eight hours. They have been enabled to continue their struggle for this long time by the aid of workmen's associations in other parts of the country, which make regular contributions to sustain the strikers. These organizations are numerous and rich, and will give capitalists a severe contest, even if unsuccessful. Meantime the strike operates to suspend mechanical labor and divert shipbuilding and other contracts to Boston, Philadelphia and Baltimore. Some of the workmen, too, are suffering from the loss of wages, but dare not go to work.

NEW LOCOMOTIVES.—The Eastern Railroad Company have recently added six new locomotives to the rolling stock of their road. One of them—the "Albert Thorndike"—and the smallest, weighing twelve tons—is used on the South Reading Branch. The "Essex" and "Merrimac" are two freight engines, weighing twenty-eight tons each. The "John Howe" and "D. A. Neal"—named for two of the former presidents of the road—are passenger engines, of elegant construction and great power and speed. The former weighs twenty-eight tons, and the latter more than twenty-nine and a half tons, and is the largest engine on the road. The "Neal" was built at the Boston Locomotive Works, and the others at Taunton. There are few if any roads better supplied with rolling stock than the Eastern at the present time, and the recent additions indicate a determination on the part of the directors to keep up with the times and meet all the requirements of the public in dispatching the business of the road.—Lynn Rep.

—— John Legro, Esq., of Rochester, has been appointed Internal Revenue Agent by the Secretary of the Treasury. The law provides for ten such officials in the United States.

—— Rev. A. H. Quint, of New Bedford, Mass., is to deliver the Annual Address before the N. H. Historical Society at Concord, June 13. He is well qualified for the task; is a New Hampshire man, descended from the ancient Quint family in Newington.

—— One Henry Stevens, a hired man, at Bethlehem, stole a pair of matched horses from his employer, J. E. Richardson, last week. One of the horses broke away from the thief, and got home; the other was recovered at North Stratford,—and the thief is in jail.

—— At the S. J. Court in Amherst, last week, John T. Moore, Esq., of Manchester, was arraigned for exciting witnesses not to appear before the grand jury in the case State vs. Walton & Gould, for passing counterfeit money. Walton was sent to the State Prison for five years; but Gould got bondsmen, viz., Moore and another, for $1000—advanced the money to them probably, and left. If the witness had not appeared, no bill would have been found,—and the bail money would have staid in the bondsmen's hands. Now Moore pleads nol. con., but will be heard in explanation.

AMERICAN MANUFACTURES — THE AMERICAN WATCH CO. OF WALTHAM, MASS.—Every one knows the mechanism of the best manufactories of this country is unequalled in any other part of the world. The genius of American mechanics produced the cotton-gin, the mechanical reaper and mower, the sewing machine, and last but not least, the wonderful machinery of the American Watch Company of Waltham. This Company was established in 1850, and has grown in proportions which entitle it to a first rank among the manufacturing enterprises of the New World. It employs between 900 and 1,000 artizans of superior skill and character, and a large and thriving town has grown up in its vicinity. The factory covers over three acres of ground, and as an illustration of its extent, we may mention that it is supplied with more than 60 miles of iron pipes and produces an aggregate of nearly 75,000 watches per annum. The founders of this Company believed that the same delicate mechanical processes which had produced such remarkably perfect results in larger machines, might be applied with even greater advantage to the production of the watch. The foreign time-pieces are made principally by hand, and except when of high cost, an imperfect article, often out of repair, and of little value is the result. Abroad, these mysterious and infinitesimal organs which, when aggregated, produce the watch, are the fruit of slow and toilsome manual processes. In the results, there must of course be lack of that perfect uniformity which is indispensable for correct time-keeping. The constituent parts of the American watch on the other hand, are fashioned by the most delicate and accurate machinery. Wheels, pinions, springs, screws, absolutely uniform in weight, circumference, dimensions, and in every possible particular, are turned out in myriads by unerring fingers of steel, and their proper combination and adjustment by skillful workmen have given the Company its high reputation. Its watches not only go with the trade and go in the pockets of 200,000 people, but they go right an go everywhere.—Exchange.

NEW BOOK OF FLOWERS, by Joseph Breck, the veteran horticulturist, is the title of a large, handsome and very valuable illustrated volume just issued from the "American Agriculturist" press, New York, by Orange Judd & Co. This is not merely a new, enlarged and revised edition of Breck's well known old Book of Flowers,—about the best work of the sort in use—but is in many respects really a new book, gotten up with great pains and at heavy cost of time and money. Price $1.75: For sale by Mr. Shores.

From the same enterprising publishers, we also have, "The Miniature Fruit Garden, or the Culture of Pyramidal and Bush Fruit Trees," by Thomas Rivers—a neat little book; well illustrated; the 1st American, from the 13th English edition. Price $1. For sale by Mr. Shores.

☞ It appears by a letter from Norfolk, Va., to the Washington Chronicle, that the white man, Robert Whitehurst, who was killed by a shot from the negro procession, was a returned rebel soldier, who expressed his purpose in the morning to fire into the procession, and when it came by his house unprovoked, fired his revolver twice into the procession, and when his mother tried to stop him from the third fire, mortally wounded her in the face, as she stated before her death; and then he fell dead by a shot from the procession.

— The forgeries of Ross, the Wall street broker, when they come to be all uncovered, will, it is said, rival those of young Ketchum.

A THIEF CAUGHT.—About three o'clock Sunday morning Mr. Hunt, station agent of the Fitchburg Railroad Company, at Lincoln, Mass., was awakened by the noise of breaking glass, and getting up to ascertain the cause, confronted a fellow who had entered the station through a window. Drawing a revolver, Mr. Hunt ordered the interloper either to surrender or receive a bullet in his head. The rascal accepted the first proposition without delay, when he was secured. After his arrest the fellow gave his name as John C. Fletcher, and said he belonged in Connecticut. He confessed to having robbed the Concord Railroad depot a few nights since, and his statement is corroborated by the fact that there were found upon him several things taken from the depot.

☞ The Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Press gives the following:

"A distinguished Senator, who has had a conversation with Secretary Stanton, says that at the Cabinet meeting on Tuesday last, when the reconstruction question was brought up, Mr. Stanton said he was glad it was before the Cabinet, so that a general expression of opinion could be obtained. He favored the Congressional plan, with the exception of that part which disfranchised the rebels for four years. With this exception he thought the plan very judicious."

☞ It is asserted that the rebel States furnished 52,000 white soldiers to the Union armies, and yet that there are no Union men to take federal offices in those States! Were all these soldiers killed, and did none of them leave loyal sons? Many offices can be filled better by women than by men,—why not give these Southern offices to the widows and daughters of Southern men who fell in the war, fighting for the Union? Why not give them to colored soldiers or sailors who served so well in our army or navy?—Traveller.

☞ Miss Braddon's great popularity as a writer of fiction will insure a ready sale for "The Lady's Mile," just published from advance sheets by Dick & Fitzgerald, New York, who will mail it to any address free of postage on the receipt of 75 cents.

— An exchange says that the most serious fault of Josh Billings is that he indulges in Billings' gait on the streets.

— President Johnson continues to pardon rebels by scores, and in shoals. Pity it is he can't pardon the men who made him President.—Tribune.

—Foote being annoyed by a poor fiddler, "straining hard discord" under his window, sent him a shilling, with a request that he would play elsewhere, as one scraper at the door was sufficient.

— A man had made his fortune by industry and close economy, and used to loan his money on interest. One day in midsummer, a friend happening to say to him, "How pleasant it is to have such long bright days!" "Why, y-e-s," replied he, "but these long days the interest comes in slow."

— A young lady having "set her cap" for a rather large specimen of the opposite sex, and having failed to win him, was telling her sorrows to a couple of her confidants, when one of them comforted her with these words: "Never mind, Mollie, there are as good fish in the sea as ever yet were caught." "Mollie knows that," replied her little brother, "but she wants a whale."

REDUCTION IN PRICE

OF THE

AMERICAN WATCHES.

MADE AT WALTHAM, MASS.

In consequence of the recent great decline in gold and silver and all the materials used in the manufacture of our goods, and in anticipation of a still further decline, we have reduced our prices to as low a point as they can be placed

With Gold at Par,

so that no one need hesitate to buy a watch from the expectation that it will be cheaper at some future time. The test of ten years and the manufacture and sale of

have given our productions the very highest rank among time-keepers. Commencing with the determination to make only thoroughly excellent watches, our business has steadily increased as the public became acquainted with their value, until for months together, we have been unable to supply the demand. We have repeatedly enlarged our factory buildings, until they now cover over three acres of ground, and give accommodation to more than eight hundred workmen.

We are fully justified in stating that we now make MORE THAN ONE-HALF OF ALL THE WATCHES SOLD IN THE UNITED STATES. The different grades are distinguished by the following trade marks engraved on the plate:

1. "American Watch Co.," Waltham, Mass.
2. "Appleton, Tracy & Co.," Waltham, Mass.
3. "P. S. Bartlett," Waltham, Mass.
4. "Wm. Ellery."
5. OUR LADIES' WATCH of first quality is named "Appleton, Tracy & Co.," Waltham, Mass.
6. Our next quality of Ladies' Watch is named "P. S. Bartlett," Waltham, Mass. These watches are furnished in a great variety of sizes and styles of cases.

The American Watch Co., of Waltham, Mass., authorize us to state that without distinction of trade marks or price, to be the best time-keepers of their class ever made in this or any other country. Buyers should remember that unlike the guarantee of a foreign maker who can never be reached, this warrantee is good at all times against the Company or their agents, and that if after the most thorough trial, any watch should prove defective in any particular, it may always be exchanged for another. As the American Watches made at Waltham are for sale by dealers generally throughout the country, we do not solicit orders for single watches.

ALL THE PRODUCTS OF THEIR FACTORY ARE FULLY WARRANTED

CAUTION.—The public are cautioned to buy only of respectable dealers. All persons selling counterfeits will be prosecuted.

MAGGIEL'S

Spring and Summer Remedies.

"Great oaks from little acorns grow." The worst diseases known to the human race spring from causes so small as to almost defy detection. The volumes of scientific lore that fill the tables and shelves of the medical fraternity only go to prove and elaborate these facts. Then guard yourselves while you may. The smallest pimple on the skin is a tell-tale and indicator of disease. It may fade and die away from the surface of the body, but it will reach the vitals, perhaps, at last, and death be the result and final close. MAGGIEL'S BILIOUS, DYSPEPTIC and DIARRHŒA PILLS cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts, and all abrasions of the skin, MAGGIEL'S SALVE is infallible. Sold by J. ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS.—A celebrated physician says "he was amazed at the great number of beneficial indications produced by one of these plasters. He affirms that headache is cured by one worn just below the breast-bone; that one placed over the navel will cure hysterics, as well as dysentery, and affections of the bowels."

CURE OF VARICOSE VEINS.

City Point, Va., January 24, 1865.

T. ALLCOCK & CO.:

Gentlemen: Seeing your notice in the Police Gazette, I got four of your Porous Plasters and placed them on the parts where the pains were most severe, and in less than twelve hours could walk as well as ever. I could hardly believe it, I was so well pleased. I wished to see if the lameness would come back on me or not, so I did more walking that day than I had done in a week. The next day I had some pain in my hip, but I put on a plaster there and in two hours the pain was all gone, nor have I felt it since. Certainly they are the best application for the relief and cure of pains in the joints and back, and for varicose or enlarged veins, I have ever known, and I would not be without them on any account. ☞ The alarm of fire on Monday noon was caused by a slight fire in the rear of 18 1-2 Daniel street. There seems to be no chance for a doubt that the incendiary entered the lower part of the building, a basement about four feet in height, to carry out his nefarious designs. The room above had some furniture stored in it, and the flames had gained considerable headway upon the wall of the main building, but were extinguished without the aid of the engines. The "Sagamore" being fired-up, made good use of her steam in sprinkling Market Square. A few weeks since a similar attempt was made to burn the same building.

The Company in which he was taking out his policy, with commendable fairness, are paying him a weekly compensation of $25.

NO FLOWERS FOR UNION SOLDIERS.—The white people of Augusta, Ga., having recently made a great parade of strewing the graves of dead rebel soldiers with flowers, the colored people determined to bestow the same testimonial upon the graves of the Union dead. They accordingly assembled with flowers, wreaths and banners, and accompanied by their teachers went in procession to the cemetery, but here, according to a correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette, they were met by the Mayor of the city and a strong force of police, and despite remonstrances and entreaties, were refused admission and compelled to desist from their harmless labor of love for those who fell while upholding the banner of Union and freedom.

ECLECTIC PHYSICIAN!

From 618 Broadway, New York, will arrive in PORTSMOUTH May 14th, and take rooms at the FRANKLIN HOUSE, for a short time only.

A Clear Case of Clairvoyant Sight.

DEAR MADAM:—Permit me to tender you my sincere thanks for the cure you have effected on my child. My daughter, ten years old, was taken sick last January in a very singular manner. We called in six of the best Physicians in the city; they said the case was a very singular one—they never saw one like it—and came to the conclusion they could not tell what the disease was. Some friends advised that we should call on a Clairvoyant; there being none in Providence that we could rely on, we wrote to Mrs MANCHESTER, in Portland, describing her symptoms. She immediately examined her case and told that she had a Snake in her stomach, told where she had drank it, and that it had been growing, and from the best of her judgement she should think it ten or twelve inches long. I gave the child her prescription and in a few hours the child ejected the snake alive from the stomach; it was measured and found to be eleven and a half inches long. We have it preserved, that all may see for themselves that this statement is really so. I am confident that the child could not have lived, had it not been for Mrs Manchester, and we feel as though she never could be repaid for her skill. GEO. W. RAY.

Providence, R. I., Nov. 10, 1865.

BANGOR, May 15th, 1865.

MRS MANCHESTER—Dear Madam: When you were in Bangor last Summer, I called to see you with a child of mine that had been sick for four years. I had taken her to a number of physicians, and none could tell what ailed her or even her symptoms. You examined her case, and told me exactly her symptoms from the commencement of her sickness, which were very peculiar; also told me there was something alive in her, and also said there was a number of them, and told me that she drank them from a rain-water cistern. You said that you would not warrant a cure, but would try and do the best you could for her. She commenced taking your medicine in August last, and from that time till December, the child passed off large quantities of what we call Tadpoles, from rain water, and I think, and am certain that the child must have died had it not been for you. And I advise everybody to see Mrs Manchester, for I know that she has the power of knowing the condition of a person diseased better than any Physician that I have ever heard of. Please have this published, and let the world know that there is one who practices what they profess to.

Very truly and gratefully yours,

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

Is a concentrated extract of the choice root, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effectual antidote for diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. Such a remedy is surely wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove, as this has, of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow-citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found in the following complaints:—

Scrofula, Scrofulous Swellings and Sores, Skin Diseases, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Eruptions, St Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ring Worm, &c.

Syphilis or Venereal Disease is especially from the system by the prolonged use of this SARSAPARILLA, and the patient is left in comparative health.

Female Diseases are caused by Scrofula in the blood, and are often cured by this EXTRACT OF SARSAPARILLA.

Do not discard this invaluable medicine, because you have been imposed upon by something pretending to be Sarsaparilla, when it was not. When you have used AYER'S—then, and not till then, will you know the virtues of Sarsaparilla. For minute particulars of the diseases it cures, we refer you to Ayer's American Almanac, which the agent below named will furnish gratis to all who call for it.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS, for the cure of Costiveness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Dysentery, Foul Stomach, Headache, Piles, Rheumatism, Heartburn arising from Disordered Stomach, Pain or Morbid Inaction of the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Worms, Gout, Neuralgia, and for a Dinner Pill.

They are sugar-coated, so that the most sensitive can take them pleasantly, and they are the best Aperient in the world for all the purposes of a family physic.

WHICH IS THE

Leading Life Insurance Comp'y

IN THE UNITED STATES?

Which is the Safest and the Cheapest?

The following figures are from the later Reports of the New York Insurance Commissioner, showing the "amount of business" of the

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

to be the largest, the "expenses of management" the smallest, the "ratio of Assets to Liabilities," or the security furnished to its members, the largest of any like institution in the country.

Premiums received in 1864.....$2,089,072
" " " 1865.....3,029,057
Ratio of expenses to premiums rec'd in '64..12.96
" " " " " '65..12.10
Ratio of assets to liabilities, Jan. 1, 1865....151.85

The inevitable conclusion from these official facts, is that the

MUTUAL BENEFIT LIFE Insurance Company

IS THE BEST AND THE CHEAPEST.

Because its NET ASSETS are proportionably LARGER than those of any other Life Insurance Company in the United States.

Because its "Managing Expenses" are LESS, and it has a LARGER SURPLUS to divide among its members than any Company in the United States.

QUERY. Will some one inform the public of that mysterious process by which a Company with a surplus proportionably much less, and an expenses very much larger than another, can yet divide more to its members, and insure them at less cost? How is it done? Where does the money come from?

Every intelligent man will see at once that it cannot be done. Yet we have Agents among us that make this their boast.

Any one disposed or intending to insure can be furnished with the requisite information by applying to

☞ The New York Society for the prevention of cruelty to animals by the action of the Legislature of that State, is now armed with the following legal provisions:

1. An act against the confining of live stock for a longer period than 24 hours without unloading to feed, rest and water during at least ten consecutive hours, the forfeit for which offence is $100. 2. An old law against the beating, torturing and maiming of horses, cattle, and sheep especially, with a maximum penalty of one year's imprisonment, $250 fine, or both. 3. A section to prohibit the binding and crowding of calves and sheep in carts. 4. An act against the injuring, torturing, maiming, or killing of any animal with malice or by neglect. 5. A provision not to allow dead horses and mules to lie in the streets for more than three hours. 6. Against pugilism or prize fighting, cock-pitting, bull and and bear-baiting, badgering, dog-fights and rat-pits, with a punishment not greater than one year or less than ten days in jail, or a fine not exceeding $1000. 7. A section as to the duty of magistrates.

Among the corporators of the Society are Mayor Hoffman, Geo. Bancroft, Peter Cooper, Henry Grinnell, Gen. Dix, Bishop Potter, Moses Taylor, Wm. H. Aspinwall, Wm. Cullen Bryant, Judge Daly, James T. Brady, Doctor Bellows, Commissioner Acton and Henry DeBerg, the last gentleman a prominent mover in the present reform.

— A negro man was attacked and eaten up by wolves in Arkansas, a short time since. He had defended himself with a knife which he had used in slaughtering hogs, and killed five wolves before he was overpowered.

— In Batavia, N. Y., a hardened wretch named Mayhew is to be hung for a barbarous murder in Genesee county. Strenuous efforts were made to secure a commutation of his sentence, but the discovery of a letter in which Mayhew declared his intention to "smash the Sheriff's brains into his boots" before the time of execution, put an end to all efforts of mercy.

— The family of seven who were recently reported as lost at Nashville, Tenn., having mysteriously disappeared some three years ago, have been discovered in St. Louis. Mr. Salle, the father and husband, was of course overjoyed at the news, hastened West, reached St. Louis, when, to his amazement and mortification, it proved that in the interim of her disappearance, Mrs. Salle had become Mrs. Papin.

CATECHISM.—"Treason must be made odious. Traitors must be punished and impoverished; they must not only be punished, but their social power must be destroyed; and after making treason odious, every Union man and the Government should be reimbursed out of the pockets of those who have inflicted this great suffering upon the country."—Andrew Johnson, April 21, 1865.

Question. How is treason made odious?

Answer. By pardoning rebels.

Q. How are the traitors impoverished?

A. By giving them back their property.

Q. How is the social power of traitors destroyed?

A. By giving them the sole right to govern.

Q. How are Union men and the Government reimbursed from the pockets of those who have inflicted this great suffering upon the country?

A. By giving the whitewashed rebels the power to repudiate our national debt, and by indemnifying them for the loss of their slaves.

Q. How are the Union soldiers treated?

A. They are told to go home, work, and make themselves fit for further elevation.

Q. How are rebel soldiers treated?

A. They are appointed and elected to positions, such as Governors, Secretaries of the State, Attorney Generals, Representatives, and Senators.

Q. What is true Democracy in 1866?

A. To punish your friends and forgive your enemies.

Q. Who was Moses?

A. The saviour and leader of Israel.

Q. Who is the Moses of the nineteenth century?

A. A man who instead of going with Israel, remains in Egypt near the flesh pots, and forsakes his people. — Washington Chronicle.

☞ Young man run your arm into an adder's den, place a rattlesnake in your bosom, chew the berries of Hellebore, but leave that bottle alone. Though the liquor may glow like molten rubies, though its beads sparkle like diamonds or amber, though the gods may have drank it, and poets embalmed it in immortal verse, though its aroma may be as pleasant as the spice-kissing breezes of "Araby the Blest," yet avoid it as you would the spotted leprosy. Its ruby and diamond and amber hues are the false lights of the soul's wreckers; and its sweet aroma is the breath of a syren who will surely allure you to destruction. Each drop contains a devil, and in drinking ye quaff the fires of hell. Avoid the bowl, if ye would not perish.

☞ The Sunday Car question is agitating the people of the Hub. The testimony of the Transcript is this:—

The last time we rode in a horse car on Sunday morning, the passengers included four clergymen belonging to three denominations. With the exception of talking rather loud, they behaved as well as the rest of the passengers.

THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD.

PILLS AND SALVE
These Life-giving remedies are now for the first time, given publicly to the world. For over a quarter of a century of private practice the ingredients in these
Life-giving Pills!
Have been used with the greatest success. Their mission is not only to prevent disease, but to cure. They search out the various maladies by which the patient is suffering, and re-invigorate the failing system. To the aged and infirm a few doses of these valuable PILLS will prove to be
A Very Fountain of Youth,
For in every case they add new life and vitality, and restore the waning energies to their pristine state. To the young and middle-aged, they will prove most invaluable, as a ready, specific, and sterling medicine. Here is a dream realized, that Ponce-de-Leon sought for three hundred years ago, and never found. He looked for a fountain that would restore the old to youth and make youth ever
AN ETERNAL SPRING!
It was left for this day and hour to realize the dream, and show, in one glorious fact, the magic that made it fair.
These Famous Remedies
Cannot stay the flight of years, but they can force back and hold aloof, diseases that might triumph over the aged and the young. Let none hesitate then, but seize the favorable opportunity that offers. When taken as prescribed—
FOR BILIOUS DISORDERS
Nothing can be more productive of cure that these Pills. Their almost magic influence is felt at once; and the usual concomitants of this most distressing disease are removed. These remedies are made from the purest
VEGETABLE COMPOUNDS.
They will not harm the most delicate female, and can be given with good effect in prescribed doses to the youngest babe.
For Cutaneous Disorders
And all eruptions of the skin, the SALVE is most invaluable. It does not heal externally alone, but penetrates with the most searching effects to the very root of the evil.
DR. MAGGIEL'S PILLS
Invariably Cure the Following Diseases.
Asthma,
Bowel Complaints,
Coughs,
Colds,

WEDNESDAY, MAY 9, 1866.

CHURCH BURNING.—Two churches occupied by colored people at Petersburg, Va., have recently been burned, and another set on fire. The city authorities have offered $5000 for the arrest and conviction of the incendiaries. The larger church, worth $15,000, was not insured.—Exch.

How mean, and bitter, and implacable a thing is prejudice: and how blind it is too. Some of our readers may remember what a howl was raised, in Congress and in the newspapers, about ten years ago, because 3000 ministers signed their names to a protest, "in the name of Almighty God," against what they deemed the wickedness and folly of strengthening and extending slavery by the Kansas-Nebraska bill. It was predicted that these ministers would lose their influence, that their parishes would be broken down, their churches weakened, and religion in the land decline and fall. When the Kansas swindle and the Taney dicta had begun to bear fruit in secession and rebellion, and Buchanan had gone to his own place, the howl was renewed and redoubled against the same class of men, because they dared to be men and citizens, and even soldiers, and to speak and act for liberty and loyalty and law. They would certainly ruin everything, and almost everybody, especially their churches, parishes, and themselves!

But, now, where is the ruin? The war is over, (at least the President says so) and slavery is dead. But the parishes are alive; the churches are rapidly filling up their ranks; and the ministry is neither dead nor asleep.

Neither is the prejudice—against living churches and active ministers—dead. It is awed into silence, and almost into inaction now, at the North—and the churches and parishes, aye, and the ministry too, are better for the winnowing and sifting. At the South, the prejudice disease now breaks out in the form of incendiary fires to burn "nigger churches and schools," upsetting freedmen's bureaus, denying and withholding civil rights, and fighting against the progress of liberty, learning and religion.

Fight against it as they may, however, this progress will continue. The weight of a great principle can no more be overcome by resistance, than the great rivers can be kept from running into the sea. The mill-dams may hold back a little water for a time, and the canals may make a new channel for a little way; but the mighty waters, by their own weight and fluidity, come down at last to the level of the sea.

Justice and Equity must and will yet reign in this land. This result may be postponed and obstructed, by the prejudice, folly, stubbornness, and weakness, of people and presidents, parties and congresses: and much suffering may follow from this cause. But a great principle cannot change:—justice will be done by the Judge of all the earth—and men will see it. They may see it in these respects, sooner, and in a more terrible way than they expect. U. T.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—The Boston Heralds' correspondent says, there is a movement on foot to surrender to Congress the municipal government of Washington. It is urged on the ground that it will promote civilization. The next thing that ought to be done is the preparation of a civil code for this District. It is a fact that the old Colonial Statute of Maryland is in force there now, and that for some crimes a man can be punished by being fined so many pounds of tobacco! The Sunday Herald of yesterday is making an earnest appeal for more Northern capital and go-ahead-ativeness in this city.

Chief Justice Chase has had an interview with the President, in which he expressed the course of the President relative to holding military courts in communities where the civil courts are organized and in force.

John Van Buren is at W. and has had an interview with the President.

General Grant drove his fast team to Baltimore Monday and back again Tuesday. The distance between the two cities is forty miles.

The Washington Daily Times nominates Andrew Johnson and Montgomery Blair for President and Vice-President in 1868. [Tyler over again.]

The removals from office made by the President during the past few weeks are intensifying the feeling against him among the friends of the decapitated who visit Washington.

The U. S. government loses heavily by the Merchants N. Bank, the assets of the bank being nominal, and the stockholders who are liable to the amount of their stock, being mostly persons of no means. The failure of the bank has caused a panic in Washington, and there was a run upon other banks. No other suspensions are announced.

Malfeasance on the part of agents of the Freedmen's Bureau in North Carolina is being developed. It is said Col. Whittlesey, Commissioner for that State, and his subordinates are running plantations on their private account and working delinquent freedmen on them for punishment. Several arrests have been made.

LATE ITEMS FROM EUROPE.—The U. S. Consul at Liverpool, on the 26th, took formal possession of the ex-rebel cruiser Tallahassee in the name of the American Government, on the terms of the decision of the Court of Admiralty.

A late Paris dispatch reports great uneasiness there from rumors asserting imminence of war. The Bourse was affected. Italian stock was offered at a material decline.

It is stated that the British Ministry will not resign in consequence of the small majority on the Reform bill.

No solution of the German difficulty is apparent. Mutual recrimination continues. Prussia and Italy are throwing the onus on Austria, and vice versa. It is reported that Austria has informed the British and French Ambassadors, that if their Governments will guaranty the neutrality of Italy, then Austria will disarm.

It is reported that a decree has been issued placing the Italian army on a war footing. Great military preparations were making in Venetia.

EXPLOSION.—The screw-press mill belonging to the Hazard Powder Company, at Enfield, Connecticut, exploded at about 2 1 2 o'clock Monday afternoon, instantly killing four workmen who were in the building, named Edmund Burke, John Keeshan, William Agrew and Patrick Kelley. All but the latter have large families. The bodies of the unfortunate men were literally blown to atoms, pieces of flesh and bones being scattered and found for several rods. The largest portion of their remains was a bone about ten or twelve inches long. The explosion set fire to the woods adjoining, and nearly two acres were burned over.

CHOLERA QUARANTINE RECOMMENDED.—The Senate Committee on Commerce at Washington, have had an interview with eminent physicians appointed by the recent Medical Convention at Baltimore to secure some legislation to prevent the introduction and spread of the Asiatic Cholera in the United States. After a free interchange of views the Committee instructed their Chairman to report a joint resolution to the effect that the Secretaries of the Navy and War, with the co-operation of the Secretary of the Treasury, shall cause an efficient and uniform system of quarantine against Asiatic Cholera. It will undoubtedly pass.

SUNDAY LIQUOR SALES IN NEW YORK. The license law providing that all sales of intoxicating drinks on Sundays should cease in New York, came into operation on Sunday. The Herald says there was, as far as could be ascertained, the fullest compliance with the law. As a consequence thousands of citizens adjourned to Fordham, Tremont, Morrisania and Jersey, or any place where there was a possible chance of obtaining liquors. Many also procured a supply of liquor on Saturday, and passed the Sabbath in putting it out of sight. But there were no drunken men upon the streets, and the city was as quiet as could be desired by the most ultra Sabbatarian. It was curious to witness the effect of so sudden a suspension of these places of common resort on Sunday. Along the docks numbers of persons could be seen congregated or listlessly strolling about without any apparent object. The streets also were occupied by a new class of pedestrians, and it was altogether a new epoch in the lives of the old campaigners of New York. Those who wanted a drink very badly betook themselves to New Jersey and elsewhere, and the prospect is that license laws will soon be demanded at these places.

LOTTERY BANKERS ARRESTED.—Benj. Wood, John Morrissey, and others of New York, have been arrested by an order from Judge Shipman, of the United States Circuit Court, on the complaint of a Mr. Scott of New Jersey, who has been dealing in lottery policies and tickets to the extent of $40,000, and lost at the game. The parties arrested have given bail in the sum of $1000.

STEPHENS, THE HEAD CENTRE, AT NEWFOUNDLAND. — The ship William Penn, from Havre for New York, touched at St. Johns on the 28th ult. Head Centre Stephens was on board.

☞ The widow of Johnson Hatch, late of Wells, now upwards of seventy years of age, relates the following curious fact.—Something more than thirty years since she heard a discussion in relation to how long the germinating principle in corn would continue sound and good. She resolved to try the experiment and prove the fact. She selected a nice sound ear of corn and planted a few kernels from it every year for thirty years. Every year for twenty-nine years the corn grew and flourished, but the thirtieth year it failed to come up or sprout.

— A man in Georgia speaks of one of the Ohio Senators as "Ben Wade and found wanting."

— Hon. Ashur Ware, of Portland, Judge of the U. S. District Court for Maine, has resigned, to take effect June 1st. He has occupied the position 44 years, and is now 84 years old.

THE U. S. SENATE, Monday, May 7, by a vote of 21 against 18, voted to reconsider the Postal Appropriation Bill, avowedly in order to strike off the enactment forbidding the payment of compensation to officers appointed by the President during the recess of Congress.

[It is proposed to pass a separate bill for the purpose.]

In the House, a resolution was adopted instructing the Judiciary Committee to inquire into the propriety of reporting a bill providing that hereafter the elective franchise shall not be denied or abridged in any of the Territories of the United States on account of race or color, and providing further and thereby giving notice of the fact that henceforward no State which the people of said territories may organize shall be admitted into the Union whose constitution shall sanction such denial or abridgment of the elective franchise.

The bill passed fixing the time of holding the U. S. Circuit Court at Richmond on the first Monday in May and fourth Monday in November, and authorizes the adjournment of the session now authorized, from Norfolk to Richmond.

A resolution was adopted calling for information from the various Departments in reference to the number of Clerks, from what State appointed, how many have been in the Union or rebel army, and by whom the latter were recommended.

[Its adoption by the House will force the Cabinet officers to state the number of their clerks, male and female; the States from which they were appointed; what their occupations were before they were appointed; how many of them were in the Union or rebel army, and by whose recommendation these last were appointed. It is understood that the resolution will show that rebel soldiers and confederates have been appointed to office on the recommendation of Democratic Senators and Representatives.]

☞ Johnson & Mabee, publishers, New York, announce the "Home Library," a series of ten cent novels, published monthly, and each complete in itself. They have already issued "The Stepmother," by A. Stewart Harrison, Esq.; "Mrs. Billberry's Portfolio," a series of humorous and pathetic sketches; "The Hartford Physician," a tale of early New York; "Seth, the Guide," and "The Ranchero," a story of the Mexican War, by Willie F. Gilchrist; and have several more in press.

☞ John A. Innis, a well known citizen of Salem, a prominent worker in the anti-slavery cause, died on Sunday. He was a native of Boston. At one time he was imprisoned in Baltimore under suspicion of being engaged in running away slaves, when he had gone to that vicinity to procure a free colored boy whose mother had become a resident of Salem. He also served on board a privateer during the war of 1812–15.

— A Nashville dispatch of May 7 says Major Gen. Fiske and staff left that night for Memphis to investigate the cause of the late riots.

— No lady should be without the J. Monroe Taylor Gold Medal Soap, especially if nice, white, clean clothes are of any object. It should be regarded in every family as the one important and indispensable article on a washing day. Indeed, it is the only perfectly pure soap made. It is a model soap, and the only one worthy the patronage of the American people. We feel as if we could not say enough of its good qualities. A word to the wise, however, we think will prove sufficient. Most of the grocers sell it. 84

REDUCTION IN PRICE

OF THE

AMERICAN WATCHES.

MADE AT WALTHAM, MASS:

In consequence of the recent great decline in gold and silver and all the materials used in the manufacture of our goods, and in anticipation of a still further decline, we have reduced our prices to as low a point as they can be placed

With Gold at Par,

so that no one need hesitate to buy a watch from the expectation that it will be cheaper at some future time. The test of ten years and the manufacture and sale of

have given our productions the very highest rank among time-keepers. Commencing with the determination to make only thoroughly excellent watches, our business has steadily increased as the public became acquainted with their value, until for months together, we have been unable to supply the demand. We have repeatedly enlarged our factory buildings, until they now cover over three acres of ground, and give accommodation to more than eight hundred workmen.

We are fully justified in stating that we now make MORE THAN ONE-HALF OF ALL THE WATCHES SOLD IN THE UNITED STATES. The different grades are distinguished by the following trade marks engraved on the plate:

1. "American Watch Co.," Waltham, Mass.
2. "Appleton, Tracy & Co.," Waltham, Mass.
3. "P. S. Bartlett," Waltham, Mass.
4. "Wm. Ellery."
5. OUR LADIES' WATCH of first quality is named "Appleton, Tracy & Co.," Waltham, Mass.
6. Our next quality of Ladies' Watch is named "P. S. Bartlett," Waltham, Mass. These watches are furnished in a great variety of sizes and styles of cases.

The American Watch Co., of Waltham, Mass., authorize us to state that without distinction of trade marks or price, to be the best time-keepers of their class ever made in this or any other country. Buyers should remember that unlike the guarantee of a foreign maker who can never be reached, this warrantee is good at all times against the Company or their agents, and that if after the most thorough trial, any watch should prove defective in any particular, it may always be exchanged for another. As the American Watches made at Waltham are for sale by dealers generally throughout the country, we do not solicit orders for single watches.

ALL THE PRODUCTS OF THEIR FACTORY ARE FULLY WARRANTED

CAUTION.—The public are cautioned to buy only of respectable dealers. All persons selling counterfeits will be prosecuted.

CURE OF VARICOSE VEINS.

City Point, Va., January 24, 1865.

T. ALLCOCK & Co.:

Gentlemen: Seeing your notice in the Police Gazette, I bought one of your Porous Plasters and placed them on the parts where the pains were most severe, and in less than twelve hours could walk as well as ever. I could hardly believe it, I was so well pleased. I wanted to see if the lameness would come back on me or not, so I did more walking that day than I had done in a week. The next day I had some pain in my hip, but I put on a plaster there and in two hours the pain was all gone, for have I felt it since. Certainly they are the best application for the relief and cure of pains in the joints and back, and for varicose or enlarged veins, I have ever known, and I would not be without them on any account. PERJURY.—The play says that "Faint heart never won fair lady." About the middle of last month Thomas Roberts, who lives on the North Road, grafted some fruit trees:—on the night following the day when they were grafted, the scions were all pulled from the trees and destroyed by some evil disposed person. Mr. Roberts informed the City Marshal of the fact, and was requested by him to return home and graft the trees again, and that night to watch the premises, and the person would probably be caught in the act of again destroying them. Mr. Roberts did so, and success attended his efforts. A boy by the name of Charles Hodgdon was seen to pull out the grafts. On the following morning a warrant was issued for his arrest; and upon trial it was apparently proved by the testimony of Mrs. Deborah Warren, and of three other witnesses whom Mrs. Warren employed for the purpose, that the boy Hodgdon was at Newington on the night referred to—and, of course, the boy was discharged. Mr. Roberts knew they had sworn falsely; the officers so believed; and an investigation so proved; and the boy confessed that he did the deed. A warrant was issued for the arrest of Mrs. Warren, and she took "leg bail" for security. She was pursued to Boston, thence to South Reading, thence to Dover, and on Sunday night last she left Dover and came to Portsmouth, where she was secreted. She was hunted out on Monday night about mid night, and the house broken into by Marshal Kent and Officer Johnson, the owner thereof refusing to give them admittance. The manufacturer of alibis was found in the attic, stowed away under the eaves, covered up with old rags. She had her examination on Tuesday at 2 o'clock, and was bound over in the sum of $500 to appear before the S. J. Court in October.

☞ The U. S. Circuit Court convened the May term in this city Tuesday morning, Judge Clifford presiding. Prayer by Rev. Mr. DeNormandie. Grand Jury charged by Judge Clifford.

On motion of Mr. Hackett, Don H. Woodward was admitted to practice.

At a meeting of the Bar of the U. S. Circuit Court, Wm. H. Y. Hackett, Ira A. Eastman and Wm. L. Foster were appointed to report what proceedings shall be adopted in regard to the death of the late Judge Harvey.

After calling the Docket, the Court was adjourned until 10 o'clock Wednesday morning.

DEADLY ASSAULT.—On Tuesday afternoon, John White, a lame soldier, formerly of the 113th Ohio regiment, was found in the house of Albion Wilson, a rigger, by Mr. W. As near as we can learn the facts of the case, Mr. Wilson's wife assisted the soldier to get out of the window, and Mr. Wilson followed, when White struck him a blow over the ear with a pebble stone, breaking his skull. The offender, who goes on two crutches, made off in great haste, and although the officers made hot pursuit, he had reached Great Swamp before he was overtaken. Mr. Wilson's wound is quite dangerous.

☞ A young man, who represented himself as keeping a hotel in West Lynn, hired a horse in this city a day or two since, and sold him in Lowell. He was apprehended and an officer left last night to take charge of prisoner and property.

SHAKESPEARE AND THE CHOLERA.—Why is the keeper of a piggery in the city like Hamlet's uncle? Because he can say with him—"O, my offence is rank; it smells to heaven!" D.

☞ Housekeepers will have an interest in the large sale of furniture, carpets, &c., this morning, at the house of the late J. M. Mathes. See Maj. Hackett's advertisement.

☞ If imaginative people only try all the specifics for cholera that are given in the papers, they will soon place themselves beyond the reach of cholera—or any other disease.

☞ No intoxicating drinks have been sold openly in Kittery since May 1;—and it is not known that any have been sold at all.

GOLD, Tuesday, 128 1-2.

☞ The New Hampshire State House, enlarged and improved so as to make virtually a new building, will be finished in readiness for the session of the Legislature, commencing the first Wednesday in June. The Concord Statesman gives a description of the edifice, showing that it is a structure of which every son of the Granite State may be proud.

RIOTS IN MEMPHIS.—A special dispatch to the Cincinnati Gazette, dated May 4, states that the negro riots in Memphis are ended, the excitement subsiding, and the negroes leaving the city. The city press is very severe in its condemnation of the incendiarism, and attributes it to the antipathy existing between the Irishmen and the negroes, and denies that it was premeditated by the latter class. The Post, a radical paper, severely denounces the fiendish spirit which culminated in the burning of houses over helpless and innocent negroes. The report that Gen. Stoneman had authorized the re-organization of the 154th Tennessee rebel regiment is unfounded. The city is still under martial law.

A correspondent of the Gazette, writing from Nashville, states that the affair was a savage outrage on the blacks, numbers of whom were murdered without provocation and only to gratify the barbarous passions of the mob. It now appears that the negroes did not commence the disturbance. It originated in an assault of the Police upon some discharged colored soldiers who were making a noise, but not injuring or molesting any one.

☞ Ninety-one members were added to the Plymouth (Henry Ward Beecher's) Church in Brooklyn, N. Y., on the first Sunday in May. He preached from the text "Henceforth I call you not servants, but friends." Each new member received a bouquet, the gift of the Sunday School. The Church has 1800 members.

— A gentleman in Indianapolis, somewhat addicted to the ardent on the sly, made a raid upon a private jug in the house of a friend the other day, and hastily swallowing a mouthful, discovered to his profound disgust that it was deodorized oil. His friends have since been boring him, but not for oil.

— At Cairo, May 7, the wholesale grocery of Miller, Stratton & Co., on the Ohio levee, and twelve other buildings occupied as clothing stores and saloons, were burned. Loss $100,000. Insured about $85,000, in Eastern Companies mostly.

— During the months of January, February and March, the Commissioner for the Freedmen's Bureau for Alabama issued 35,452 rations gratuitously to white persons, and 12,410 to blacks. Three times as many of the former as of the latter received assistance.

— At New Orleans, May 7, in the election, the National Democratic ticket was victorious. Gen. H. T. Hayes was elected Sheriff, his disqualifications having been removed by the President's pardon. He will enter upon the duties of his office at once.

— The Board of Excise in New York has decided that all clubs must take out licenses as retail dealers in wines and liquors. Great indignation is therefore excited in certain social, literary and political circles. The members contend that the wines and liquors are as much private property as if they were contained in the cellar of any individual gentleman.

CLAIRVOYANT!

—AND—

ECLECTIC PHYSICIAN!

From 618 Broadway, New York, will arrive in PORTSMOUTH May 14th, and take rooms at the FRANKLIN HOUSE, for a short time only.

A Clear Case of Clairvoyant Sight.

DEAR MADAM:—Permit me to tender you my sincere thanks for the cure you have effected on my child. My daughter, ten years old, was taken sick last January in a very singular manner. We called in six of the best Physicians in the city; they said the case was a very singular one—they never saw one like it—and came to the conclusion they could not tell what the disease was. Some friends advised that we should call on a Clairvoyant; there being none in Providence that we could rely on, we wrote to Mrs MANCHESTER, in Portland, describing her symptoms. She immediately examined her case and told that she had a Snake in her stomach, told where she had drank it, and that it had been growing, and from the best of her judgement she should think it ten or twelve inches long. I gave the child her prescription and in a few hours the child ejected the snake alive from the stomach; it was measured and found to be eleven and a half inches long. We have it preserved and all may see for themselves that this statement is really so. I am confident that the child could not have lived, had it not been for Mrs Manchester, and we feel as though she never could be repaid for her skill. MARY RAY,

Providence, R. I., Nov. 10, 1865. GEO. W. RAY.

BANGOR, May 15th, 1865.

MRS MANCHESTER—Dear Madam: When you were in Bangor last Summer, I called to see you with a child of mine that had been sick for four years. I had taken her to a number of physicians, and none could tell what ailed her or even her symptoms. You examined her case, and told me exactly her symptoms from the commencement of her sickness, which were very peculiar; also told me there was something alive in her, and also said there was a number of them, and told me that she drank them from a rain-water cistern. You said that you would not warrant a cure, but would try and do the best you could for her. She commenced taking your medicine in August last, and from that time till December, the child passed off large quantities of what we call Tadpoles, from rain water, and I think, and am certain that the child must have died had it not been for you. And I advise everybody to see Mrs Manchester, for I know that she has the power of knowing the condition of a person disease better than any Physician that I have ever heard of. Please have this published, and let the world know that there is one who practices what they profess to.

Very truly and gratefully yours,

my8ins GEORGE E. MARTIN,
MARY L. MARTIN.

Important.

DR. STEVENS, No 5 Daniel Street, would give notice that he has SECURED the services of Permanent Sets of ARTIFICIAL TEETH on the Vulcanite Base, to that charged for them before the war.

He would also give notice that he is doing a new style of work for Under Sets of Teeth, called the COMBINATION BASE (Gold and Vulcanite) which produces by far the finest work offered to the public. The price is something in advance of that charged for the Vulcanite alone, but the strength, durability, ease of bearing, and beauty of finish obtained by it, more than double the value of the teeth. mh12

GEORGE F. WEED,

FIRST ASSISTANT in the Office of DR. STEVENS, No. 5 DANIEL STREET.

DR. WEED can be found at his place of business at all hours of the day and night, for the performance of any of the operations that come within the call of his profession.

Dr. A. P. STEVENS, No. 5 Daniel St., makes the saving of ULCERATED and painful front teeth, a speciality in his business. He also successfully restores to their natural shape broken or badly decayed teeth, by building out corners and sides with PURE GOLD. (In many cases teeth so restored are as strong as any of their brother members, and in all cases are rendered eminently useful for a long series of years.) DISEASED GUMS, in all stages, treated and in a very large majority of cases entire success attained.

Charges for such operations necessarily high, but nothing in comparison to the value of the teeth. mch14

WHICH IS THE

Leading Life Insurance Company

IN THE UNITED STATES?

Which is the Safest and the Cheapest?

The following figures are from the later Report of the New York Insurance Commissioner, showing the "amount of business" of the

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

to be the largest, the "expenses of management" the smallest, the "ratio of Assets to Liabilities," or the security furnished to its members, the largest of any life institution in the country.

Premiums received in 1864	$2,089,072
" " " 1865	3,029,087
Ratio of expenses to premiums rec'd in '64	14.96
" " " " " '65	12.10
Ratio of assets to liabilities, Jan. 1, 1865	151.85

The inevitable conclusion from these official facts, is that the

MUTUAL BENEFIT LIFE Insurance Company

IS THE BEST AND THE CHEAPEST.

Because its NET ASSETS are proportionably LARGER than those of any other Life Insurance Company in the United States.

Because its "Managing Expenses" are LESS, and it has a LARGER SURPLUS to divide among its members than any Company in the United States.

QUERY. Will some one inform the public of that mysterious process by which a Company with a surplus proportionably much less, and expenses very much larger than another, can yet divide more to its members, and insure them at less cost? How is it done? Where does the money come from?

Every intelligent man will see at once that it cannot be done. Yet we have Agents among us that make this their boast.

Any one disposed or intending to insure can be furnished with the requisite information by applying to

Morning Chronicle.

☞ The platform of the Democratic Convention recently held in Kentucky would fill more than a column, but its character is well sketched in the following answer of an ex-rebel officer, who was an aspirant for the favor of the Convention:

"How do you like the platform?"

"It's all right," he replied. "Just what we have been fighting for these four years past. We were whipped on that platform in the field. Perhaps we can do better at the polls."

THESE MEN!—"Husband, I don't know where that boy got his bad temper; I am sure not from me."

—"No, my dear, for I don't find that you have lost any."

(N. B.—These men are so ready with their nasty replies.)

— Idleness is the dead sea that swallows up all virtues, and the self-made sepulchre of a living man. The idle man is the devil's urchin, whose livery is rags, and whose diet and wages are famine and disease.

— The ship's cook's wife held a washing-day on board, whilst the fleet lay off Brest. The draperies fluttered in the wind. "What flag is that?" asked the admiral. "The flag of all nations," replied the captain of the flag-ship; "a petticoat, and no mistake."

— It is better to be laughed at than ruined; better to have a wife who, like Martial's Mamuria, cheapens everything and buys nothing, than to be impoverished by one whose vanity will purchase everything, but whose pride will cheapen nothing.

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN PATENTS.

R. H. EDDY,

Solicitor of Patents,

Late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1861,

78 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakeable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made only twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

The Chronicle.

WATERY SIMILES.— An English journal observes that a good many of our actions may be described by metaphors taken from the habits of water. We—that is to say, some of us — boil and foam with passion, sometimes because our cash has "run out," and then "the tide" of success turns, and there is an "influx" of fresh means. Oarsmen will often tell us how they are often obliged to "spirt," and how, under that pressure, they are "pumped;" and Solomon who must have seen a good deal of it in his large establishment, reminds us, with a fearful graphic image, that a contentious wife is a continual dropping! We fear he must have found his ivory palace worse than the dropping well at Knaresborough; but it was his own choice.

☞ We hear a good deal said of the President's "policy." What authority has he for assuming a policy? He is the executive of the country, and its policy as expressed and determined by Congress. He may have opinions, and by law, may recommend to Congress such measures as, in his opinion, are just and salutary, but when he assumes to control the legislation of Congress and to determine the policy of the Government in reconstructing Southern State governments, he usurps a plain right of Congress, and is a Dictator in fact, not a President.—Belfast Age.

FILIAL DEVOTION.—"Hod" Annis, who robbed Mr. Lord, of New York, of a million and a half in bonds, and was allowed to keep a part of his plunder on surrendering the rest, is reported to have bought a farm in Hooksett for his father, paying therefor $15,000. We do not believe the story, because we know of no farm in that town valued so high. This Annis used to be about Concord two or three years ago, a frequenter of the saloons under the Athenian Hall. He was then reputed to be a professional gambler.—Statesman.

FREEDMEN'S AFFAIRS IN VIRGINIA.—The Inspector General of the Freedmen's Bureau for Virginia has made a report of a tour of inspection through that State which is on the whole favorable. He represents the various colored schools as generally well attended, and the prejudice against the freedmen as slowly but steadily diminishing. The sanitary condition of the freedmen has so far improved throughout the State that all Bureau hospitals have been abolished. The demand for labor greatly exceeds the supply in all portions of the State, and good hands command from $10 to $12 per month, including food, quarters and medical attendance.

— The idler is a dangerous member of society.—He becomes a prey to his own passions, and scourges others with his vices.

— A babe which jumped from the arms of its nurse into the Ohio river at Louisville a few days since and was in danger of being swept over the falls, was rescued by a Newfoundland dog on board the steamer in which the child's mother was traveling.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth N. H.

THURSDAY, MAY 10, 1866.

A DISTINCTION—AND A DIFFERENCE. A paper before us, says that the Constitution of the U. S. gives the President power to fill up all vacancies that may happen during the recess of the Senate. This is true: but it does not give him power to make vacancies, for the purpose of filling them! It is a curious fact, that this power has been most frequently assumed and exercised by presidents and parties which have made the most noisy pretences to standing by the Constitution.

☞ A New York item of Tuesday says all the parties implicated in the Adams Express robbery in January last have been arrested, and all of the half million dollars, except about $40,000, recovered. The originator of the robbery, John Grady, a brakeman on the New Haven Railroad, was recently arrested in Brooklyn. Last Saturday, Gilbert McGlaire, alias "Gilly McGlory," the well known sneak thief, was arrested in New York city. Last Friday night, James Wells, brother-in-law of Martin Allen, was also arrested in New York city. They were all taken to Bridgeport and committed. The proof against them all is conclusive. It is said the police of New York city knew who the robbers were immediately after the fact of the robbery became known, but made no effort to arrest them. The arrests were effected through the agency of Pinkerton's National Police.

☞ In regard to the Powder Mill explosion at Hazardville, Conn., it is said that two of the men who were killed, were sometimes accustomed to indulge in intoxicating drinks, especially after pay-day, and there is reason to suppose that they may have been under the influence of liquor when the accident occurred. The process of crushing powder by machinery is comparatively safe, provided it is kept damp, but if allowed to become dry, and particles of sand are mixed with it, an explosion is inevitable. It is highly probable that it was the result of carelessness or neglect. The loss by property destroyed will amount to about $10,000.

☞ Prince Hamlin, of Egypt, recently bet $5000 with Mr. Ross, an English banker, at Alexandria, who staked $500 that in a gazelle hunt with greyhounds and fal cons, and which would last several days, that an Arabian horse would prove to possess more bottom than an English thorough bred horse. The wager has been settled. The English mare fell foundered the second day out and died on the spot. The Arabian continued the chase for three days longer without giving signs of distress. A second bet of $5000 to $500 was made that an Arabian horse could run the ninety miles of desert between Cairo and Suez, without stopping to rest, which no English thorough bred could accomplish. The horse started at 7:11:30 A. M. The Arabian reached destination at 3:8 P. M. The English horse fell foundered and died on the spot at a mile and three-quarters from the destination. It is probable the Arabian had been under training for a long period of time, and the English horse was not sufficiently trained; nevertheless these events show the extraordinary bottom of the Arabian breed, too much neglected at present by our horse breeders.—Cor. N. O. Pic.

— Maj. Gen. Howard has gone to New York, having first dispatched Major Gilbreth, a reliable officer, to Memphis, to inquire into the riot there.

— Sec. McCulloch's conversation with Jeff. Davis at Fortress Monroe was only on general topics and of no interest to the public. Davis is not enjoying very good health.

— At Herkimer, N. Y., May 8, the prisoners Asa Fuller, Hell Davis, Irving Vance, Charles Vance and Wm. Dutcher, indicted for the murder of John S. Campbell of Frankfort Hill, pleaded guilty of murder in the second degree, and were sentenced to seven years' imprisonment each in State Prison.

— At Savannah, Ga., May 8, the U. S. District Court for the Southern District of Georgia opened, Judge Erskine presiding, and adjourned until Thursday, when the constitutionality of the test oath will be argued. Among the leading representatives of the Georgia bar present was ex-Governor Brown.

— On Tuesday forenoon the U. S. Court opened in Norfolk. Judge Underwood charged the jury, dwelling on the necessity of bringing the leaders of the late rebellion to trial, and holding them accountable for inciting and continuing the same. He expressed the opinion that disloyal papers should not be interfered with by the civil or military authorities.

— Assistant Attorney General Ashton has delivered a long opinion sustaining the recent decision of Commissioner Rollins that bankers who negotiate sales not only of stocks belonging to themselves, but also of stocks belonging to others, are denominable "bankers doing business as brokers," and are liable respectively to pay the prescribed duties upon the amount of such sales.

IN THE U. S. SENATE, May 8, the joint resolution in relation to the attempted assassination of the Emperor of Russia was passed.

Mr. Saulsbury could not permit the occasion to pass without demonstrating his hatred of the word "emancipation," and moved to strike it from the resolution, but the Senate did not agree with him, and the resolution as amended by Mr. Sumner was passed.

The Post Office Appropriation bill was taken up. The pending question was on Mr. Fessenden's amendment relative to appointments to office.

Mr. Morrill moved to strike out the last clause, requiring the case and cause of removals to be reported to the Senate. Agreed to—yeas 22, nays 16.

Mr. Trumbull offered the following substitute for the proposition now before the Senate:

That no person exercising or performing or undertaking to exercise or perform duties of any office which by law is required to be filled by the advice and consent of the Senate, shall, before confirmation, receive any compensation for his services unless commissioned by the President to fill a vacancy occasioned by death, resignation or expiration of term during the recess of the Senate and since its last adjournment.

A lengthy discussion followed, involving the course of the President in political matters, some of the republicans charging him with having acted in harmony with the enemies of that party. Mr. Doolittle defended him.

[There is no doubt that some such measures ought to be made into a law:—but whether it will be this year, is uncertain.]

In the HOUSE, a motion was made to postpone the Costitutional Amendment reported by the Recostruction Committee, until the Tax bill is disposed of.

Mr. Stevens opposed the motion, and it was lost by 51 to 82.

The House then proceeded to consider the special order, viz: the joint resolution of the Reconstruction Committee, proposing an amendment to the Constitution.

Mr. Stevens supported it, although he said it fell far shor of his wishes, but he believed it was all that could be obtained in the present state of public opinion. Mr. Finch opposed the measure, and the debate lasted till recess.

The House then took a recess until evening for action on the tax bill exclusively.

There was a pretty full attendance at 7.30 P. M. when the House went into a Committee of the Whole, Mr. Dawes in the chair, on the tax bill, the 1st section imposing a tax of 5 cents per pound on cotton, being under consideration, and the question being on Mr. Lynch's amendment excepting 600 pounds in the hands of the producer from taxation. The amendment was rejected, and so were others;—and the result is that the tax on raw cotton remains at 5 cents.

Mr. Lynch moved to amend the 6th section to allow the drawback on cotton manufactures consumed in this country as well as on those exported. Rejected.

Mr. Allison moved to strike out the 6th section allowing drawbacks on exported manufactured cotton. Rejected.

LABOR.—When a lady once asked Turner, the celebrated English painter, what his secret was, he replied, "I have no secret, madam, but hard work." This is a secret that many never learn, and don't succeed because they don't learn it. Labor is the genius that changes the world from ugliness to beauty, and the great curse to a great blessing.

☞ Probst, the Philadelphia murderer, has confessed that he alone killed the whole Deering family: the details are horrible.

☞ "The People" is the title of a new paper, devoted to "Literature, News and Progress," published weekly in New York, at $2.50 per year. It is a neatly printed eight-page journal.

— The Government has finally determined to hold the gold claimed by the Richmond banks. It clearly belonged to the Confederacy.

— The New York police record on Sunday last showed ninety-seven arrests for violation of the excise law. For other offenses there were, within the boundaries of the Metropolitan District, only one hundred and forty-three arrests, or only about half the number usual on Sabbaths when the dram shops are open.

— Why is a foolish young lady like a careful housekeeper? Because her "waist" is as little as she can make it.

— The owner of a large dog at Grand Rapids, Mich., placed a one hundred dollar looking-glass before the animal to worry him. The dog flew around, barking and growling. The owner was delighted, and cried "sick 'em!" The dog "sicked," and the mirror and the "other dog" disappeared at the same time. The bystanders discovered at this point "where the laugh came in."

— A simple-minded Republican office-seeker from Connecticut closed a recent application to the President with the inquiry whether the breach between the President and Congress could be repaired. The President, on the spur of the moment, replied by mail that he was not now repairing breeches so much as he was. This is considered a very fair thing by those who joked with "A. Johnson" twenty odd years ago.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Gov. Smyth has purchased a Corner Lot of Land in Manchester, 500 feet square, i. e. 250,000 square feet, containing an elevated spot, on which he intends to build a handsome house, commanding a fine view of river, city and country.

—— Miss Lucinda Young, employed by the Merrimac Corporation, Salem, N. H., met with a fall on the 26th ult. While getting out of a carriage, her foot caught in one of the reins and she fell, dislocating her hip. She lived but six days after the accident.

—— Rev. Thomas Savage, of Bedford, Hillsborough county, died on Tuesday morning of congestion of the lungs, after a brief illness. He was 72 years old, a native of Boston, and a graduate of Harvard College. He was pastor of the Congregational Church in Bedford for nearly 41 years.

☞ The mystery which has prevailed respecting the young woman who was found dead in a field in Cromwell, Conn., is beginning to be cleared up. A German named Fredrick Briesnick, has been arrested for the murder of his wife. About two weeks ago he quarreled with her and beat her severely, and since that time she has been missing. An examination of his house disclosed her dress torn and bloody, and a garment found shows that it had been torn from the string or tape around her body. The body has been disinterred and identified as the wife of Briesnick. Although the evidence is not conclusive against him, there are many suspicious circumstances which point him out to be the guilty man.

Lyon's Periodical Drops!

THE GREAT FEMALE REMEDY FOR IRREGULARITIES

These Drops are a scientifically compounded fluid preparation, and better than any Pills, Powders or Nostrums. Being liquid, their action is direct and positive, rendering them a reliable, speedy and certain specific for the cure of all obstructions and suppressions of nature. Their popularity is indicated by the fact that over 100,000 bottles are annually sold and consumed by the ladies of the United States, every one of whom speak in the strongest terms of praise of their great merits. They are rapidly taking the place of every other Female Remedy, and are considered by all who know aught of them, as the surest, safest and most infallible preparation in the world for the cure of all female complaints, the removal of all obstructions of nature, and the promotion of health, regularity and strength. Explicit directions stating when they may be used, and explaining when and why they should not, accompany each bottle, rendering it impossible for any one to make improper use of the medicine. They are put up in small compass, and will be found carefully folded around each bottle, with the written signature of JOHN L. LYON, without which none are genuine. Price $1.50.

Prepared by Dr. JOHN L. LYON, 195 Chapel Street, New Haven, Conn., who can be consulted either personally, or by mail, (inclosing stamp,) concerning all private diseases and female weaknesses. Price $1.50 per bottle.

The Eye, Ear, Catarrh,
—AND—
MRS. MANCHESTER,
The Independent
CLAIRVOYANT!
—AND—
ECLECTIC PHYSICIAN!

From 618 Broadway, New York, will arrive in PORTSMOUTH May 16th, and take rooms at the FRANKLIN HOUSE, for a short time only.

A Clear Case of Clairvoyant Sight.

DEAR MADAM:—Permit me to tender you my sincere thanks for the cure you have effected on my child. My daughter, ten years old, was taken sick last January in a very singular manner. We called in six of the best Physicians in the city; they said the case was a very singular one—they never saw one like it—and came to the conclusion they could not tell what the disease was. Some friends advised that we should call on a Clairvoyant; there being none in Providence that we could rely on, we wrote to Mrs MANCHESTER, in Portland, describing her symptoms. She immediately examined her case and told that she had a snake in her stomach, told where she had drank it, and that the snake growing, and from the best of her judgement she should think it ten or twelve inches long. I gave the child her prescription and in a few hours the child ejected the snake alive from the stomach; it was measured and found to be eleven and a half inches long. We have it preserved, that all may see for themselves that this statement is really so. I am confident that the child could not have lived, had it not been for Mrs Manchester, and we feel as though she never could be repaid for her skill. MARY KAY, 4EO. W. KAY.

Providence, R. I., Nov. 10, 1865.

BANGOR, May 15th, 1865.

MRS MANCHESTER—Dear Madam: When you were in Bangor last Summer, I called to see you with a child of mine that had been sick for four years. I had taken her to a number of physicians, and none could tell what ailed her or even her symptoms. You examined her case, and told me exactly her symptoms from the commencement of her sickness, which were very peculiar; also told me there was something alive in her, and asked me if there was a number of them, and told me that she drank them from a rainwater cistern. You said that you would not warrant a cure, but would try and do the best you could for her. She commenced taking your medicine in August last, and from that time till December, the child passed off large quantities of what we call Tadpoles, from rain water, and I think, and am certain that the child must have died had it not been for you. And I advise everybody to see Mrs Manchester, for I know that she has the power of knowing the condition of a person diseased better than any physician that I have ever heard of. Please have this published, and let the world know that there is one who practices what they profess to.

Very truly and gratefully yours,
GEORGE E. MARTIN,
MARY L. MARTIN.

REDUCTION IN PRICE
OF THE
AMERICAN WATCHES.
MADE AT WALTHAM, MASS.

In consequence of the recent great decline in gold and silver and all the materials used in the manufacture of our goods, and in anticipation of a still further decline, we have reduced our prices to as low a point as they can be placed

With Gold at Par,

so that no one need hesitate to buy a watch from the expectation that it will be cheaper at some future time. The test of ten years and the manufacture and sale of

have given our productions the very highest rank among time-keepers. Commencing with the determination to make only thoroughly excellent watches, our business has steadily increased as the public became acquainted with their value, until for months together, we have been unable to supply the demand. We have repeatedly enlarged our factory buildings, until they now cover over three acres of ground, and give accommodation to more than eight hundred workmen.

We are fully justified in stating that we now make MORE THAN ONE-HALF OF ALL THE WATCHES SOLD IN THE UNITED STATES. The different grades are distinguished by the following trade marks engraved on the plate:

1. "American Watch Co.," Waltham, Mass.
2. "Appleton, Tracy & Co.," Waltham, Mass.
3. "P. S. Bartlett," Waltham, Mass.
4. "Wm. Ellery."
5. OUR LADIES' WATCH of first quality is named "Appleton, Tracy & Co.," Waltham, Mass.
6. Our next quality of Ladies' Watch is named "P. S. Bartlett," Waltham, Mass. These watches are furnished in a great variety of sizes and styles of cases.

The American Watch Co., of Waltham, Mass., authorize us to state that without distinction of trade marks or price, to be the best time-keepers of their class ever made in this or any other country. Buyers should remember that unlike the guarantee of a foreign maker who can never be reached, this warrantee is good at all times against the Company or their agents, and that if after the most thorough trial, any watch should prove defective in any particular, it may always be exchanged for another. As the American Watches made at Waltham are for sale by dealers generally throughout the country, we do not solicit orders for single watches.

ALL THE PRODUCTS OF THEIR FACTORY ARE FULLY WARRANTED

CAUTION.—The public are cautioned to buy only of respectable dealers. All persons selling counterfeits will be prosecuted.

CURE OF VARICOSE VEINS.

City Point, Va., January 24, 1865.

T. ALLCOCK & CO.:

Gentlemen:—Seeing your notice in the Police Gazette, I got four of your Porous Plasters and placed them on the parts where the pains were most severe, and in less than twelve hours could walk as well as ever. I could hardly believe it, I was so well pleased. I wanted to see if the lameness would come back on me or not, so I did more walking than day before, and had been a week. The next day I had some pain in my hip, but I put on a plaster there and in two hours the pain was all gone, nor have I felt it since. Certainly they are the best application for the relief and cure of pains in the joints and back, and for varicose or enlarged veins. I have ever known, and I would not be without them on any account. Yours truly,

MAGGIEL'S

Spring and Summer Remedies.

"Great oaks from little acorns grow." The worst diseases known to the human race spring from causes so small as to almost defy detection. The volumes of scientific lore that fill the tables and shelves of the medical fraternity only go to prove and elaborate these facts. Then guard yourselves while you may. The smallest pimple on the skin is a tell tale and indicator of disease. It may fade and die away from the surface of the body, but it will reach the vitals, perhaps, at last, and death be the result and final close. MAGGIEL'S BILIOUS DYSPEPTIC and FEVER AND AGUE PILLS cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts, and all abrasions of the skin, MAGGIEL'S SALVE is infallible. Sold by J. Perry's Moth and Freckle Lotion.

☞ Chloasma, or Mothpatch, (also called Liverspot,) and Lentigo, or Freckles, are often very annoying, particularly to ladies of light complexion, for the discolored spots show more plainly on the face of a blonde than of a brunette; but they greatly mar the beauty of either and any preparation that will effectually remove them, without injuring the texture or color of the skin, is certainly a desideratum. DR. B. C. PERRY, who has made diseases of the skin a specialty, has discovered a remedy for these discolorations, which is at once prompt, infallible and harmless.

Communication.

Messrs. Editors:—An effort is made in some quarters to rub out the bad impression which Col. George made for himself, by his course in cross examining a young lady witness, in the examination of Geo. B. French. But it can't be done. The impression which he left on all impartial spectators was, that he did, as the regular correspondent of the Boston Herald said, make an "outrageous attempt to ruin the reputation of a respectable lady witness;" and therefore they were indignant. A volunteer correspondent of the same paper (probably one of the confederates) says that "Col. George made no attempt to disparage any witness, that was not clearly justified and demanded under the circumstances." And yet he says "the evidence against him was of a flimsy and circumstantial character." If so, it is difficult to see how such a line of defence could be demanded! But he says again: "Nobody will dispute the right of counsel to impeach the character of witnesses against his client, by any legitimate means, if necessary to an efficient defence." This is true; but the impartial spectators considered that the means he took were illegitimate, ungenteel, and contemptible,—as he used them against a young woman of unsullied reputation. No one expected him to be scrupulous,—but he ought to appear decent.

☞ The U. S. District Court was yesterday occupied by appropriate death of Judge Harvey, which we shall give in full to-morrow morning.

☞ Wm. Roberts, the man who hired a horse of Mr. Somerby a few days since, and afterwards sold him in Lowell, arrived back here in custody of an officer on Wednesday afternoon. He sold the horse and buggy to a detective for $175, but instead of "stepping into a bank" to get his money was walked into the Station House.

☞ Look out for your dogs, unless they have got a stamp on them. The time is up for licensing, and that animal that thinks he can escape the vigilance of the authorities will find that he is barking up the wrong tree.

☞ Remember the great circus—the first of the season—comes to-morrow.

EXALTING TRAITORS.—We do not know on what ground the United States Senate has thus far refused to confirm the nomination of Gen. Francis P. Blair, Jr., as collector of internal revenue at St. Louis, but we do know (says the Boston Journal) that this gentleman—undoubtedly a brave officer in the war, and an early and meritorious emancipationist in Missouri—has got into a very curious way of exalting the late armed traitors against the Union. In a recent letter, he wants to know if England, France, or any other civilized power, would fail "to honor and cherish as a part of their own glory, the memory of the illustrious throng of the dead, led by Stonewall Jackson? Would not these nations be most happy to claim as their own such men as Lee and Johnston, and a host of others, and to confer upon these living heroes the rewards which genius and courage have always commanded?" It seems somewhat strange that Gen. Blair should have been willing to fight such an "illustrious throng" of "living heroes"—and we are afraid he wouldn't do it now. At any rate when a man gets into that style of talking, we believe it is just as well that he should forego some of those official "rewards" which he seems to think ought to repay "the genius and courage" of "such men as Lee and Johnston.

GOLD, Wednesday, 129 1-4.

— Letters from Japan state that the iron-clad vessel built in America for the Tycoon is a failure. The Japanese engineer who purchased her committed suicide.

— The Chicago Post, speaking of the fact that the Freedmen's Bureau in Alabama, during the past three months, issued 34,455 rations to destitute white persons, and 14,203 to the negroes, suggests that it is turning out that the term Freedmen's Bureau is a misnomer—it should be a Poor White's Bureau.

— The people of Virginia are begining to see the importance of developing the internal resources of that State. The Norfolk Old Dominion states that Virginia can supply the coal trade of the world for a thousand years to come, and that it has more iron and of a better quality than any other country in the world except Sweden. It strongly advocates protection for American labor.

— Under the direction of the Troy Conference of the Methodist Church, in session at Cambridge, N. Y., the remains of Philip Embury, the founder of Methodism in this country, were removed from their long resting place in an old and obscure graveyard near that town to the large and fateful cemetery now in use. An address on the occasion was made by Bishop James of New York.

Important.

DR. STEVENS, No 5 Daniel Street, would give notice that he has REDUCED the price of Permanent Sets of ARTIFICIAL TEETH on the Vulcanite Base, to that charged for them before the war.

He would also give notice that he is doing a new style of work for Under Sets of Teeth, called the COMBINATION BASE (Gold and Vulcanite) which produces by far the finest work offered to the public. The price is something in advance of that charged for the Vulcanite base, but the strength, durability, ease of bearing, and beauty of finish obtained by it, more than double the value of the Teeth. mh12

GEORGE F. WEED,

DR. WEED can be found at his place of business at all hours of the day and night, for the performance of any of the operations that come within the call of his profession.

Dr. A. P. STEVENS, No. 5 Daniel St., makes the saving of TEETH a specialty and paining front teeth, a specialty in his business. He has success fully restores to their natural shape broken or badly decayed teeth, by building out corners and sides with pure gold. (In many cases teeth so restored are as strong as any of their brother members, and in all cases are rendered eminently useful for a long series of years.) DISEASED TEETH, in all stages, treated, and in a very large majority of cases entire success attained.

Charges for Operations necessarily high, but nothing in comparison to the value of the Teeth. mch14

WHICH IS THE

Leading Life Insurance Comp'y

IN THE UNITED STATES?

Which is the Safest and the Cheapest?

The following figures are from the later Reports of the New York Insurance Commissioner, showing the "amount of business" of the

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

to be the largest, the "expenses of management" the smallest, the "ratio of Assets to Liabilities," or the security furnished to its members, the largest of any like institution in the country.

Premiums received in 1864.....$2,089,072

" " " 1865.....3,029,087

Ratio of expenses to premiums rec'd in '64...12.99

" " " " " '65...12.16

Ratio of assets to liabilities, Jan. 1, 1865....151.85

The inevitable conclusion from these official facts, is that the

MUTUAL BENEFIT LIFE

Insurance Company

IS THE BEST AND THE CHEAPEST.

Because its NET ASSETS are proportionally LARGER than those of any other Life Insurance Company in the United States.

Because its "Managing Expenses" are LESS, and it has a LARGER SURPLUS to divide among its members than any Company in the United States.

QUERY. Will some one inform the public of that mysterious process by which a Company with a surplus proportionably much less, and expenses very much larger than another, can yet divide more to its members, and insure them at less cost? How is it done? Where does the money come from?

Every intelligent man will see at once that it cannot be done. Yet we have Agents among us that make this their boast.

Any one disposed or intending to insure can be furnished with the requisite information by applying to

CONFLICT WITH A FOOTPAD IN THE MINES.—The Virginia (Nevada) Enterprise of March 27 has the following:

Last Friday afternoon a miner who works in the Chollar Potosi mine was travelling afoot up Six-Mile Canon. When about half a mile or so above the Gould and Curry mill, a desperate-looking villain stepped out into the road in front of him, and very blandly asked him what time it was. The miner drew his watch, when the footpad drew a knife and invited him to pass it over, together with whatever money and other valuables he might have about him. This our brave miner seriously objected to, and producing a pistol, a very lively and exciting scuffle ensued, both closing in earnest in a struggle for the mastery, which resulted in the wiry muscles of the hard-fisted miner bringing him out conqueror, and the footpad being floored by several well-directed blows from pistol and fist. The conquering miner disdained to massacre his prostrate foe, but in retaliation for a small knife wound in his thigh, he took the knife which he had captured and cut the footpad's ear off, leaving him but one to "walk off on."

Young Ketchum is treated with "the most distinguished consideration" at Sing Sing, the authorities of that benevolent institution regarding him as the victim of circumstances. Had he made away with a few millions more of other people's property, he might have been made Warden of the Penitentiary, and have put in his claims to the Presidency of the United States. The moral of his case is, that if you are impelled by destiny to become a swindler, a forger, and a thief, you should swindle, steal and forge on a scale so vast as to command the confidence and extort the respect of all your cotemporaries.—Trav.

A cow belonging to Michael Naylor of Harwick Mass. died recently from a mysterious cause. On examination her stomach was found to contain fifteen iron nails, fourteen pieces of stone of different sizes, five pieces of glass, a part of an earthen pitcher, besides a large quantity of smaller articles too numerous to pick out of the stomach, weighing nearly a pound.

Important to the Afflicted.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, BOSTON, on all diseases of a PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE. SEMINAL WEAKNESS.—Dr. Dow devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.—Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving descriptions of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capoutes, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. These for $1 and a red stamp.

Highly Important to Females

IN DELICATE HEALTH.

Dr. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No. 7 Endicott Street, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system. Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women than any other physician in Boston. Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment. Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

CERTAIN CURE

in all cases, or No Charges Made.

Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largestin New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a valuable collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and the full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring those inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure them the rights and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me FIFTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakeable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at reasonable charges."

JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twenty rejected applications, TWELVE REVERSALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

R. H. EDDY.
